From the Journal

THE BOSTON OVATION.—The city of notions rather overdoes the matter. We chanced to be in Boston on Monday and were somewhat surprised to find in many of the streets the stores closed, business suspended, and Tremont street crammed with people. They appeared to be pressing into the door of the Tremont House much in the style we have seen men press into the hopper before the Moderator to give their vote, when our town balloting was done in Jefferson Hall—some passing along without being able to reach the floor with their feet.

Meeting that day an old friend who we well knew to be a Democrat, after a most cordial shake of the hand, he told us with much warmth, that he had "just shaken hands with the greatest man of the age," although he had hard work to reach him. "Who is he?" we naturally enquired.—"Gen. McClellan." "Has he been to Richmond?" "No, but he would have been there not an inch's kept him back."

This interview gave a key-note to the whole matter. The demonstration made, by the Democrats of Boston, into which many good Republicans were unwittingly drawn, was really to pit Gen. McClellan against the Administration.—Nothing less nor more.

PHOTOGRAPHS.—Mr. Meinerth presents some excellent specimens, among them several of the clergymen of this city, in great perfection. Of this class a late writer says: "The clergy, on the whole, make much more satisfactory sitters. They are far more accustomed, in the practice of their vocation, to wear a drilled expression of countenance. Statesmen, when they appear in public, are generally to the act of speaking, and are too much engrossed with what they are saying to find time to compose their features. Clergymen, on the other hand, when they appear in public, are mostly engaged in the more mechanical art of reading, so that they have ample leisure for thinking of what the crowds who are looking at them think of them. A self-conscious cast of countenance, therefore, sits naturally on them, and does not so forcibly suggest the idea that they are sitting for their pictures."

THE PASTORATE OF REV. E. B. EDDY.—The resignation of Rev. Mr. Eddy as Pastor of the Middle Street Baptist Church in this city, takes effect on the first of March. In leaving, Mr. Eddy carries with him much esteem and regard from many of our citizens who are not connected with his parish. We sincerely commend him where ever else he may be called, and take pleasure in giving publication to the following resolutions passed at Middle street Parish meeting, on the 20th ult.:

Whereas our esteemed pastor, Rev. E. B. Eddy, has tendered to us his resignation of the pastoral charge of this Society, to take effect the first of March next—therefore,

Resolved, That we accept his resignation, not without sincere regret for the reasons of any cause which has thus led to the severing of what we have ever regarded as among the most sacred of ties.

Resolved, That we hereby express to him our appreciation of his talents, his fidelity, his conscientious and faithful discharge of duty during the two and a half years of his ministry among us.

Resolved, That we shall ever cherish the kindest remembrance of himself and family, and wherever they may go to follow them with our best wishes and prayers for their future success and happiness.

WESTERN HOUSE, BOSTON.—This old establishment, No. 352 Hanover street, is now leased to Messrs. Job Jenness & Son, for many years the well-known landlords of the Ocean House at Rye Beach. The house has been handsomely fitted up, and affords good accommodations for 150 guests. The charges are very moderate, being only $1,25 per day. A regular omnibus line passes the house, carrying passengers to Washington street, &c. for five cents. Visitors from this section will be well cared for by the gentlemanly proprietors of the house, if they have opportunity.

THE CITY MARSH'L HAUL.—Of late the "skedaddle business" has been much in vogue, the operators coming frequently to Portsmouth to ship in the navy, after enlisting for bounties, and after getting State, and City bounty, deserting.

City Marshal Bragdon and Detective Johnson have been of late quite busily employed in this business! A deserter was traced here by the Mass. officer, who dodged his regimentals, and in citizens' clothes traced his man to a house on Water street, where was found after a few moments search the desired individual concealed under two beds! On being brought to light City Marshal Bragdon recognized him as a deserter both from the frigate Minnesota and from one of the Portsmouth companies of the N. H. Volunteers, to whom the city has paid $150 bounty! The fellow was in funds, and deposited a large sum with the keeper of the house, for which the Marshal compelled the chap to give an order, and attend at Court in this or one post, and trustee writ in the other, to be used in case of action, the Marshal visited the party with whom the funds had been deposited, and secured the greenbacks, which of course were paid to the City Treasury, to the credit of the Bounty account. Much credit is due to the Marshal for his agency in this unexpected stroke of luck.—Ballot.

The work on the new steamer in the ship-house at the Navy-Yard is being pushed with great rapidity. A large fleet of vessels loaded with timber arrived at the Navy-Yard last week. At one time there were eight vessels waiting a turn to discharge at the dock.

Splendid and Appropriate Holiday Present.

MME. DEMOREST'S
RUNNING STITCH
$5 SEWING MACHINE.

THIS embodiment of practical utility, and a marvel of simplicity, makes the running stitch, very rapidly and perfectly, with common needle and will last a lifetime. At the New-York state Fair its simplicity, efficiency, and great practical utility, were confirmed by the award of the First Premium.

It will finger Thread, Cord, Twist, Tape, Zephyr Braids, etc., with a single or double thread, on any material adapted to the accepted STITCH; the thinnest, usually the most difficult to stitch, leather sewing machines, being sewed the easiest. For ladies and children's apparel, and other articles made of light fabrics, it will therefore be found invaluable.

It is attached to the table like a sewing bird, and having no tension, and requiring no lubrication or change of stitch, is always ready for operation, and such a marvel of simplicity that the child of six or eight years can understand it, and use it successfully.

It is not at all liable to get out of order.

Each machine is put up in a neat box, accompanied with full explicit directions, and twenty-five needles.

Sent to any address in the United States on receipt of an order, including the amount, or may be collected by express on delivery of the machine.

When the money is sent with the order, and registered, we guarantee its safe receipt and the delivery of the machine, anywhere within two thousand miles, free of any express charges. Very liberal arrangements for agents.

See MILLINERY AND FASHIONS, or for full particulars, specimen of sewing, &c., send a stamp for return postage. Address MME. DEMOREST, 473 BROADWAY, N. Y.

Every lady, mother, milliner and dress maker should have three valuable sewing machines. Jan. 31.

DENTISTRY.

NO. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.
DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, that he has just received a fine lot of teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER; that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no insertices or open joints for food, &c.; and consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTING is 25 cents.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the cast-iige being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with zinc, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and cod iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as the MAGEE PARLOR-STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE,

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, fresh and agreeable—and no house or the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating furnaces have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe as far as possible.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, but have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the fuel, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the room can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert H. Hatch, Esq., Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum, Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

This is a new and invaluable preparation for preserving and beautifying the hair.
The wonderful virtues of Arnica in allaying and removing inflammations are universally known.
ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is a combination of these virtues, with other tried and excellent ingredients.
ARNICA HAIR GLOSS stimulates and invigorates the hair, prevents it from falling out—restores it when lost—promotes its growth and strengthens and renders it proof against all diseases.
ARNICA HAIR GLOSS permanently cures all irritations and eruptions of the scalp, and makes it healthy and fertile. For the removal of dandruff it has no equal. Its operations in this particular are magical and permanent.
ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is unequalled as a hair-dressing compound. It not only cleanses the scalp and invigorates the hair, but it renders the latter charmingly soft and lustrous. Its odor is particularly delicate and fragrant—the proprietor having taken special pains to secure this result.
ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is the very best preparation for the hair ever discovered.
ARNICA HAIR GLOSS, notwithstanding its surpassing merits—is retailed at only twenty-five cents a bottle, by all Druggists.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,
SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.
1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.
2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.
3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the prominences which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.
4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.
5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.
6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.
DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,
Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE,
A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.
This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by DR. WM. GRACE, surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Flesh Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Felons.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Frozen Limbs.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scurvy.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Callouses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Salt Rheum.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sores
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.
And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find this Salve their best friend.
It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

VOL. 22. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. TUESDAY, FEB 10 1863. NO. 8.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

THE REBELLION.

The prize iron steamer Princess Royal arrived at Philadelphia on Sunday, from Charleston, bringing intelligence which shows that there was no foundation for the assumption of the rebels that the blockade of Charleston was ever raised by the departure of the U. S. fleet, only two vessels out of the eight or ten having been disabled or obliged to leave. The cause of the attack on our squadron by the rebel rams was the capture of the Princess Royal, the captain and pilot of that vessel having escaped ashore with important dispatches to the rebel government, during the darkness of the night, and communicated intelligence to the enemy. At daylight two iron-clads were seen coming down from the direction of Stono Inlet towards our fleet. They attacked the Mercedita first. One ram struck her on the water ridge, keeling her over, and at the same time fired a shot which entered one of her boilers, causing the death of three persons, including a gunner, by the shot and steam. The captain then being hailed and asked to surrender, by a clever ruse persuaded the rebels that he was in a sinking condition; whereupon the ram steamed towards the Keystone State, and sent a shot through her steam drum, causing the death of 21 persons, 12 by the shot and 9 by being scalded by the steam. Fifteen were wounded. In the meantime, the gunboat Housatonic engaged the other ram, driving her away. At half past six in the morning, both rams left the scene and proceeded up to Charleston. During this attack the Princess Royal, which lay near the Housatonic and was the chief object of prize on both sides, succeeded in getting off, notwithstanding the severe gale; and although the coal was the Anthracite, with which our Navy is supplied, she made 10 knots an hour on her trip with ease in a severe storm. Her usual rate is 15 knots. The Mercedita steamed down to Port Royal, escaping with only one of her boilers injured. She would be repaired in a day. The Keystone State was entirely disabled, but was towed down to Port Royal by the Memphis.

Information is also brought by the Princess Royal, of an attack by the iron-clad Montauk on Fort McAllister, on the 28th ult. She was not at all disabled. She received 17 shots in her side and 12 on her turret, without receiving any injury whatever, although engaged for 5 hours. She returned to Hatzenchorage for want of shells.

A Charleston dispatch, Feb. 3d, to Richmond papers states that the British frigate Cadmus brings intelligence that a most formidable naval and land expedition is about to attack Charleston, the preparations being now nearly complete. The Yankee land and naval forces are gathering at Port Royal. The Cadmus brings orders for Robert Bunch, the British Consul, to go on board and get to Havana as soon as possible.—The iron-clad Ironsides is still off the bar, with sixteen other Yankee steamers.

The sailing from Beaufort of the expedition against Charleston, Jan. 30th, is described as having been a magnificent sight. There were 125 sail of vessels, steamers, transports, tugs and schooners,—one long line of vessels crowded with troops cheering, while the bands played and full colors streamed from the masts. The Mass. 44th and some other regiments at Newbern had been ordered on another expedition, to leave on the morning of Feb 1st.

The officers of a gunboat from the blockading fleet off Charleston report that the iron-clads Passaic and Montauk, a number of mortar vessels and various other U. S. war vessels were at anchor in Bull Bay, near Charleston, when they left.

The Circassian, at New York, from New Orleans via Port Royal, reports when coming out of the South West Pass saw a light ahead which was too fast for her, and which proved to be the Alabama. Key West fishermen report having been spoken by the Alabama, which was watching for the Circassian. The latter brings six of the officers of the rebel steamer Hontress, burned off Charleston, Jan. 17th, by her cargo of cotton being stowed too near the boiler.—One of her officers was burned to death.

Rebel papers claim that one brigade of U. S. troops, advanced twelve miles from Murfreesboro, Jan. 30th, but were repulsed with a loss of 300 killed and wounded.

The N. Y. Times' Washington dispatch states that Gen. Burnside offers to resume command of his old army corps and fight under Hooker; and that he positively asserts that he will not remain in the service without a command.

The N. Y. Herald has a dispatch stating that an order has been issued dissolving the Reserve Grand Division and returning Gen. Sigel to the command of the 11th Corps.—The corps is being concentrated. The work of reorganizing the Army is progressing.

[Communication.]

NOTES OF NEW ORLEANS.—By Uncle Toby.—The rebels, and those who sympathize with them, when writing their most bitter articles, unconsciously let out a good deal of valuable truth.

For example,—the New Orleans correspondent Ion, of the Chronicle, says:—

"Every day makes more evident the difference in the administration of Gen. Butler and that of Gen. Banks."

Yes: the rebels there are rejoiced at the milder rule.

"I see a statement passing about the press that 60,000 persons have taken the oath of allegiance in this city since its capture, but it neglects to state that an immense number of them were black."

Exactly so:—no doubt the blacks there are much more loyal then the whites.

"Since the issuing of the emancipation manifesto, the negroes have been somewhat curtailed in their license here, so that a white man may hope he may be exalted to an equal status. Four or five hundred contrabands were arrested in a single night, for actions in contravention of the laws of this city and State."

What laws are those of City and State? Answer, as mean a code of slave laws as tyranny and cowardice could devise.

And what actions were they, that so violated the code? Answer, they were out in the streets after 8 o'clock in the evening, contrary to the statute that forbids colored people, bond or free, to be abroad after that hour: and among these 500 were many of the most loyal and well behaved citizens of New Orleans. So says another correspondent, who states that these were mixed up in the prison with thieves, drunkards and rioters.

Verily, New Orleans needs Martial Law, applied by Butler or somebody of his pattern, to the manners, words and pockets of the rebels and traitors who live there in exiles. U. T.

In New Boston, Conn., Dr. Lyman Beecher's congregation have "resolved" against any more political preaching in the church.—Boston Post.

No, no: says Uncle Toby: that will not do. Lyman Beecher never had a congregation in New Boston. Indeed it is somewhat doubtful whether there is any town of that name in Connecticut. A post office called New Boston appears in the Gazetteer; but no population is mentioned; and it is not named in the census of 1850. If there be an "old congregational society" there, as described, it must be a very weak and ricketty concern. But however these things may be, Beecher never lived at New Boston, Windham Co., but in Litchfield, the capital of Litchfield Co., about 70 miles off; so that the parties of that church have no more connection with Dr. Beecher than they have with Brigham Young, and not quite so much as they have with Jeff. Davis.

TRAITORS FROM THE START.—The 109th regiment of Illinois, of which all but one company went over to the enemy, it is stated, with the exception of that single company, belonged to that sneaking brood of traitors denominated Knights of the Golden Circle. They enlisted for the special purpose of getting allotted and armed and in a position to desert and go over to their friends the rebels.

☞ The Spanish Minister has received a royal decree from Madrid announcing that passports from foreigners will not be required hereafter in travelling through Spanish dominions.

☞ The attempts in New York to burn the large bakeries employed in making army bread, show the frequent fires to be the work of an incendiary. The monopoly of the business by those who have machinery, has created much ill feeling among those who work by hand.

☞ Mr. George Brown was engaged in Boston in taking a "rum sweat" Friday evening to relieve himself of a cold, when he burned one of his legs quite severely. The accident threw him into a fit, and he survived only ten minutes.

☞ The sum of $300,000 recovered from the wreck of the steamer Golden Gate, has been taken to San Francisco. Advices from the wrecking expedition express the belief that nearly all the treasure of the Golden Gate will be recovered.

☞ Fred Douglas gave a lecture or speech at the Cooper Institute, New York, on Friday night, on the President's Proclamation. Among other things he said: "Since the uttering of this Proclamation, I have grown taller, and felt whiter, and comb my hair with much less difficulty."

☞ The Chicago Post says the story of a $600,000 defalcation in the Marine Bank of that city is not sustained by the facts.

Vicksburg letters of the 31st ult. say that the canal project is fully adopted, and that the largest possible force will be kept at work night and day upon it until it is completed. Some weeks must elapse before the completion of the work.

Rebel reports state that the U. S. ram Queen of the West, which passed Vicksburg on Monday, has done considerable damage down the river.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The adjourned meeting of the Governor's Horse Guards is to be held in Concord, on Wednesday, 11th inst.

—— Daniel W. Newell, Drum Major of the Second Regiment, has returned to his home in Manchester. He was with the regiment from the day of its organization till about a month ago, when he was taken sick, and has since been obliged to leave the service.

—— Manchester, which is so far ahead of "old fogy Portsmouth," has at last mustered up energy enough to reform a nuisance, which has long been a disgrace to the city. The American says "it has been the practice for some years temporarily to confine females suspected of crime, in a room in the third story of the City Hall.—There being no bars upon the windows, several women have lost their lives in attempting to jump to the ground. Workmen are now engaged in scaling up the windows in such a manner that hereafter it will be impossible for prisoners to escape."

—— The post office in Exeter was entered on Saturday night, by one of the side windows, and all the letters in the office stolen. There was also some money stolen, but not a large amount.

—— A private in one of our regiments with the army of the Potomac, writes home that he now has two pairs of shoes, six pairs of stockings, five pairs of drawers, four pairs of shirts, three pairs of pants, five coats, two caps, one hat, one pair of gloves, and three blankets, and concludes his letter with the very modest request to "send no more at present."

—— The two Congregational churches in Loudon have united, and Rev. J. H. Hood, of Pittsfield, is now laboring as a supply.

—— An old citizen of Concord says that during several days in the early part of January, 1819, the people there ate dinners in rooms, the windows of which were raised.

—— A little boy, 4 years of age, fell from a table while at play in Manchester on Friday, and fractured his left arm near the elbow.

—— Two belligerent sisters indulged in a free fight in Manchester on Friday, and were locked up; but they compromised matters and were released on Saturday morning, without trial.

CONGRESS.

SATURDAY.—In the Senate, the House bill to promote the efficiency of the Commissary Department of the Army was passed. A memorial was presented from W. Cornell Jewett, asking for the admission of Colorado into the Union as a State. Also one from the merchants and importers of New York, praying that the legal tender notes may be used for paying customs.—Mr. Sumner introduced a motion that the Committee on the conduct of the war, inquire into the condition of the Army of the Potomac, and consider what measures are necessary in order to promote its efficiency, increase the mutual confidence of the officers and men, and to secure from all an unwavering and soldier like devotion to the declared policy of the Government.

The House discussed the New York and Illinois Ship Canal bill.

NAVAL.—Screw sloop Juniata has returned again to Philadelphia in consequence of a defect in her safety-valve. This last was her third attempt to get to sea, she having been obliged to return in each instance on account of some defect in her machinery.

The light draught gunboat Glide was destroyed by fire at Cairo on Saturday morning. The boat, guns and machinery are a total loss. The cause of the fire is unknown. Capt. Pennock, in announcing to the Navy Department her destruction, says he expects to recover her guns and machinery.

The Princess Royal, an iron steamer of nearly 500 tons burthen, is one of the most valuable prizes captured during the war.—Her manifest (a copy of which was received at Washington from London previous to her capture) contains, among other articles, 151,771 lbs. coffee, 60,000 lbs. powder, 30,000 lbs. tin, 8000 lbs. paper, 2300 pieces woolen stuff, large quantities of woolen thread, drugs, hardware, machinery, boots and shoes, &c. She had also on board complete machinery for the construction of an iron-clad ram. The total value of this cargo, in London, without assurance, was $134,280, while her own value there was probably much greater, as she is one of the fastest and best built iron propellers ever turned out from a British ship yard. The vessel and a large part of the cargo were the property of Lindsay & Co. H. Sollaway also had a large venture on board.

☞ Ship Scotland was destroyed by fire on Sunday morning, at Boston, while lying in the stream, with a full cargo of kerosene oil, lumber, &c. The flames were first seen issuing from the cabin gangway. The vessel was owned in Bath, Me., and insured for $24,000. The pilot run her ashore on the flats at Bird's Island, where she was burning at a late hour Sunday night. The vessel and cargo will be a total loss.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1861. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my neighbourhood, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with dizziness of my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. MRS. L. LOWD.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and she is my day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

PORTS, CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

JAMES F. SHORES, JR, No. 1 Congress Block, has just issued a new Catalogue of his Circulating Library. The books have all been re-numbered, and the arrangement of the catalogue will be found much more convenient than the old one. As the old catalogue are now useless, the patrons of the Library will be kind enough to lay them aside and send for a copy of the new one, which will be furnished gratis to all who wish for them.

Notice to Housekeepers.

Rubber Band Carpet Sweeper.

TRY IT! TRY IT!!

It saves Money; it saves Carpets; it saves Furniture; it saves Labor; it is cheaper than Brooms at five cents apiece.

It gathers up all dust, dirt, and loose lint on the carpets, and raises no dust to settle on the furniture, drapery, or ornaments, or to smother, stifle and irritate the lungs.

It does not wear the carpets half so much as brooms or any other sweeper.

It is the only practicable sweeper made, and the only article fit to sweep a carpet.

With our late improvements it gives universal satisfaction to all who use it according to directions. For sale at No. 12 Market Street by Local.

☞ We are pleased to hear that Mr. N. P. Thacher of this city, received $1200 last week from the members of Co. K, 16th Regiment, N. H. V., which he has paid over to the wives and friends of that Company. The regiment is now stationed at "Camp Parapet," Carrollton, a few miles above New Orleans—but expecting to be ordered to New Orleans for guard duty. The Company is in good health and pleasantly situated.

☞ We understand that the 17th Regiment, Col. H. O. Kent, which has been quartered at Camp Colby, Concord, has received a furlough till the 1st of April. The regiment is not yet full. Portsmouth is largely represented in it, and doubtless, the volunteers will much prefer being at home until it is definitely decided what shall be done with the men already enlisted, it being understood that the State's quota is already filled.

☞ The U. S. screw sloop Sacramento, Capt. Boggs, is expected to sail from the Portsmouth Navy Yard in a day or two, her destination being understood to be Fortress Monroe. Capt. Boggs has just put her in fighting trim;, everything superfluous has been removed, and should she fall in with the pirate Alabama, there will be straightway a fight which means capture for the pirate.

☞ Maj. Jacob J. Storer, of this city, is at present Acting Colonel of the New Hampshire 13th regiment,—Col. Stevens being Acting Brigadier General, and Lieut. Col. Bowers being sick. Capt. Wm. Grantman, Co. I, is Acting Lieut. Colonel; and Capt. Matthew T. Betton, of this city, Co. K, is Acting Major.

☞ On Sunday last, a woman named Spinney fell from the steps of the Universalist Church, at the time the large concourse of people were coming out at the close of the funeral services, and broke her arm.

☞ Mr. Charles H. Jones, of this city, has received an appointment as Ensign in the U. S. Navy. He is at present at the Charlestown Navy Yard.

☞ Dr. William Laighton, of this city, was on Friday appointed Examining Surgeon by the Commissioner of Patents.

S. J. COURT,—EXETER.

The case John W. Drew vs. Amos Kimball, (an action for replevin for cattle attached by deft. as a deputy sheriff,) was given to the jury at 6 o'clock, Thursday evening. After being out 19 hours they were found still unable to agree and were discharged.

Case town of Newmarket vs. Robert Smart, involving the title to the parsonage lot in South Newmarket, was commenced on Friday. On Saturday a verdict was ordered for the plf. subject to the opinion of the whole Court.

☞ Five soldiers, of the garrison at Fort Scammel, Portland, on Friday afternoon, were returning from Fort, Preble to their own fort, when the boat was upset by the heavy sea and two of them, Wm. Nixon and Geo. W. Berry, were drowned. Nixon was about 21 years of age and a native of New Brunswick. Berry was 31 years old, and leaves a wife and five children in the townof York. He originally belonged to the 13th Maine, and afterwards enlisted in the 17th Regulars.

☞ The will of Gen. Philip Kearney has been admitted to probate. He gives all his large estate to his wife and children.

The Hartford Times asks if it was Baron Rothschild who once, when a rather pennurious person said he preferred mutton to venison, responded in broken English, "That ish because mutton's sheep and venison's deer."

☞ The Boston Traveller says the pirate Alabama was seen on the 15th, 1980 miles from where the Hatteras was sunk on the 11th; this makes it impossible that the Alabama sunk the Hatteras.

☞ Real estate operations in New York last week amounted to nearly one million of dollars.

☞ There was a great fall of snow in Vermont on Friday, which blocked up the railroads and delayed the trains for several hours. Upwards of two feet of snow fell at Randolph.

A Western wag says:—"Gen. Blunt's strategy is in three parts: first, finding where the enemy are; second, immediately sending a bombshell at them; third, going himself to see where it struck."

☞ It is doubtful if a report will be made in favor of the repeal of the duty on imported printing paper.

☞ Gen. Joe. Johnston has assumed command of the rebel army in Tennessee.

☞ The rebel papers say there are many deserters from Gen. Grant's army.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 3 feet long, or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired

THE MODEL COOK is adapted equally well for wood and coal, summer and winter. It will be found to be THE STOVE for farmers, mechanics or professional men; for boarding houses or private families—in fact for every place where a good stove is needed

We believe the MODEL COOK to be the very best stove in the Market, and invite everyone to examine it whether they wish to purchase or not It has had a very extensive sale since its introduction. Reference might be made to more than a hundred families in this city or vicinity who are using the stove, and give it the highest commendation.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Raitt, Mrs. Jos. T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Francis C. Jarvis, Thos. J. Tullock, Jacob Wendell, Capt. Jacob Thompson, Gen. G. G. Hasley, G. Melvin Huntress, Jos. D Akerman, James F. Shores, Wm. C. Newton, Horton D. Walker, Benj. Chesley, John Trundy, Richard L. VICTOR COAL STOVE.

We offer this beautiful coal burner to the public, with full confidence in its merits.

It was brought into market two years since, and has come rapidly into use.

The Victor is one of the handsomest parlor stoves in the market, and is perfect in its operation. The arrangement for dumping the ashes is very fine—no dust need escape into the room—a continuous fire may be kept throughout the winter—the coal all burned, and no clinkers made. The quantity of fuel used is very small indeed. There is in this stove an excellent arrangement for ventilating the room in which it is placed; a feature not possessed by any other parlor stove. Some of the sizes are provided with an oven and boiling place, making them very desirable for a dining room.

We sold a large number of Victor Stoves in our city last season, and they receive the highest commendation from those who are using them.

We have also the celebrated McGregor Stove, so well known in the market as to need no commendation.

A great variety of cheaper Stoves for coal and wood—Coal hods—Patent Coal-sifters.

COAL LININGS,

and Repairing pieces for most of the stoves in use. Job Work attended to with dispatch.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES

They are the Purest!

The Best!

The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angeles" have announced to the world that America is a wine growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (see the Act of 1837.)

73 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,

BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render the subscriber peculiarly competent, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR

Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

From Emery Eden, a well-known merchant of Orford, Maine.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never yet one bottle which failed of the desired effect and fail not to recommend it to those who look for it. As fast as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine like it before in our community."

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Mrs. Bold, Stratton, Bristol, England.

"I only do my duty when I tell you and the public, what I sold my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged nine, had an eruption on her face, ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane H. Rice, a well-known and much-esteemed lady of Densville, Cape May Co., N. J.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Mr. P. Cogan, Esq., of the widely-known firm of Cogan, Murray & Co., manufacturers of enamelled papers in Nashua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which at times grew persistently worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost every thing a man could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might, but in a few days, or at most a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purify the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Sawin, Houston St., New York.

"DR. AYER: I selected a bottle of your Sarsaparilla and Scrofulous Sores by the preserving use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured an attack of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the SARSAPARILLA you have supplied to "be profession as well as to the people."

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Whitesmn, Ohio.

"For twelve years, I had a running sore on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars worth of their medicine. The ulcers were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. I took two bottles, and some of your PILLS. Together they have cured me. I am now as well and sound as any body. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Monro, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Sickler, Esq., the able editor of the Tuskaloosa (Alabama) Democrat.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate silver and other remedies without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wounds which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the bichloride of potash lotion, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had finished the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now fair and healthy as any other. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease

From Dr. Bryant, of the Medical College, St. Louis, Missouri.

"I find your SARSAPARILLA a more efficacious remedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphilis and for syphilitic disease than any other we possess. The profession are indebted to you for some of the best medicines we have."

From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Jackson, Tenn., and a prominent member of the Legislature of Mississippi.

"DR. AYER: My dear Sir: I have found your SARSAPARILLA the excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary stage, and obstinate in some cases that were too obstinate to yield to other remedies. I do not know what we can employ with more certainty of success, where a powerful alterative is required."

Mr. Chas. S. Van Liew, of New Brunswick, N. J., had dreadful sores on his legs, caused by the abuse of mercury, or some other cause, which had grown worse and more aggravated for years, in spite of every remedy or treatment that could be applied, until the persevering use of Ayer's SARSAPARILLA wrought him. Few cases can be found more inveterate and discouraging than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him.

Leucorrhœa, Whites, Female Weakness,

are generally produced by internal Scrofulous ulcers, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of the SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require, however, in aid of the SARSAPARILLA, the skilful application of local remedies.

From the well-known and widely-celebrated Dr. Ephraim McDowell, of Danville, Ky.

"I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alterative in diseases of females. Many cases of Irregularity, Leucorrhœa, Internal Ulceration, and local debility, arising from the scrofulous diathesis, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not, when its effect is properly aided by local treatment."

A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her name, writes:

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating Leucorrhœa of long standing, by two bottles of your SARSAPARILLA."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia,

when caused by Scrofula in the system, are rapidly cured by this EXT. SARSAPARILLA.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, that so full of late many calls to insert teeth upon the VULCANIZED RUBBER, that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no interstices to open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the model, and the section is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too! I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plates which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper heater, and tin water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in the city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, each possessing some improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, must necessarily descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the ash-pit, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the best generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

This is a new and invaluable preparation for preserving and beautifying the hair.

The wonderful virtues of Arnica in allaying and remvigorating circulation are universally known.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is a combination of these virtues, with other tried and excellent ingredients.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS stimulates and invigorates the hair, prevents it from falling out, restores it when lost—promotes its growth and strength—and protects it against all diseases.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS permanently cures all irritations and eruptions of the scalp, and makes it healthy and fertile. For the removal of dandruff it has no equal. Its operations in this particular are magical and permanent ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is unqualified as a hair-dressing compound. It kept fully cleanses the scalp and invigorates the hair, but it renders the latter charmingly soft and lustrous. Its odor is particularly delicate and fragrant—the proprietor having taken especial pains to secure this result.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is the very best preparation for the hair ever discovered.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS, notwithstanding its surpassing merits—is retailed at only Twenty-five cents a bottle, by all Druggists.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,

No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in every case entrusted to his care.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE,

A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by DR. WM. GRACE surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores, and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Flesh Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Felons.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Frozen Limbs.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scurvy.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Callouses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Salt Rheum.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sores
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find the Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837,)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full schedules of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

A Norfolk letter states that during the furious snow storm on the 3d, about 12 o'clock, a dispatch reached Admiral Lee that the enemy was in sight. The supposition was that one of the rebel vessels, probably the Yorktown, was endeavoring to run the blockade, and get out to sea under cover of the storm. The Com. Morris moved up to meet the expected foe, but was unable to get within range, the rebel, true to secession instincts, making a retrograde movement as soon as she was discovered.

Rear Admiral Dupont's official report of the affair off Charleston has been received by the Navy Department at Washington. The officers of our squadron had been particularly watchful, but were surprised in the obscurity of a thick haze. Most of our fleet were of the light class of purchased vessels; and when the ram made for the Mercedita, the iron-clad was close aboard and lying so low in the water, that no guns could be brought to bear upon her. The vessel therefore surrendered. The officers and crew were paroled, but nothing was said of the ship. Among the vessels engaged was the Augusta, Com. Parrott, of this city. She was struck in the hull, but no one on board was injured.

Admiral Dupont also communicates an account of the capture of the steamer Isaac Smith, in Stono Inlet.

Charleston despatches state that the reports brought there by the British frigate Cadmus had alarmed the citizens, who were leaving rapidly.

The Port Royal New South of the 31st ult., says the steamer City of Baltimore had just arrived with troops. The Cahawba was over the bar, and a large fleet was waiting for the fog to lift to enter the harbor.

Our iron-clads are at work. The Montauk is engaged in an attack on an iron-clad battery, on the Ogeechee river, behind which the steamer Nashville lies. The rebels use much heavier guns than ever before, and steel-pointed solid shot, yet the balls glance off from the turret harmlessly. The Passaic is said to be up Warsaw Sound, where the rebel ram Fingal lies.

Special dispatches from Port Royal represent the attack by the Montauk on Fort McAllister as fruitless thus far, the iron armor of the fort being quite effective. The Passaic, it is said, has gone to join the Montauk. It is reported that five contrabands have gone on board the Montauk, having deserted from the Fort. One of them is the pilot of the Nashville, and another pilot of the tug which removed the obstructions in the channel when the Nashville entered, and afterward replaced them. The former says that he knows every pile and obstruction in the river, also the positions of the torpedoes, and that he can remove them all with safety.

New Orleans advices to the 2nd report that no demonstrations had been made on Port Hudson, and there was nothing from Galveston.

Military movements at New Orleans are kept secret. Gen. Banks is busily planning his campaign. Gen. Neal Dow is there expecting a command in the advance. The dispatch says he has been cited to appear in the District Court, to answer to a charge of stealing silver ware, sugar, &c, valued at $1600, belonging to citizens of New York; but this probably refers to property confiscated at New Orleans. It was reported that the local banks had combined against the Federal currency, as greenbacks were at 2 per cent. discount. The rebels at Port Hudson are continually strengthening their works, and say that if they defeat the Federals they will shoot all the Yankees in New Orleans.

An expedition to a point about 20 miles below Baton Rouge destroyed some rebel fortifications and rifle pits, and captured 10 or 12 prisoners, with a considerable quantity of ammunition, blankets, rations and equipments, suffering no loss.

A Fort Clinch, Fla., letter states that some rebel cavalry attempted to take the steamer John Adams on the St. Mary's river, by boarding, but were driven off by three companies of colored S. C. volunteers. The captain of the John Adams was shot. His murderer was immediately shot by a negro sergeant. Our loss was two men. We took seven prisoners. The steamer was not injured.

☞ A candidate has at last been nominated for U. S. Senator from California.—A ballot taken on Monday evening resulted as follows: Conness 59, Sargent 32, Phelps 1, Brown 6. Conness was then unanimously nominated.

☞ The marriage of Tom Thumb with Lavinia Warren was celebrated at Grace Church, New York, at noon on Tuesday. The ceremony, and the grand reception at the Metropolitan Hotel, were attended by thousands.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— It has been decided to hold the Union Convention in the day time. It will according be held at Manchester, on the 17th inst., at 11 A. M. Gen. Walbridge, of New York, and other distinguished gentlemen are expected to address the Convention.

—— Senator Hale, of this State, is seriously ill at Washington.

CONGRESS.

Monday.—In the Senate Mr. Wilson reported his militia bill. Mr. Sumner introduced a bill to raise additional soldiers; it provides that all able-bodied males between the ages of 18 and 45, set free by the recent proclamation, or by any other competent authority, shall be enrolled, armed and equipped, to a number not exceeding 300,000. A resolution was adopted requesting the President to communicate the character of the suggestions made by the Secretary of State to M. Mercier, as related by him to M. Thouvenal, which induced M. Mercier to undertake a mission to Richmond, and what representations he was authorized to make from the Government or from the Secretary of State to the rebels.

The House rejected the ship canal bill.

Foreign Views of American Affairs.—The Paris correspondent of the London Times writes that official instructions have been sent by the French Government to Washington, suggesting that Commissioners delegated by the Federal Government and by the Southern States meet on neutral ground and confer together without hostilities being suspended, so that they might advise mutual concessions and effect the reconciliation so desirable for the interests of the world.

The Paris Pays makes a similar statement.

The Times says it cannot "perceive anything in the tone of the American people to give any very confident hope that the miseries of the nation are drawing to an end. The Democrats do not raise their voices in favor of peace. The more the Union vanishes out of sight the more do the two parties vie with each other in granting promises to renew it. We must be content to hope that deliverance for this people, most sorely tried because most entirely handed over to its own devices, will come from some quarter of which present circumstances accord no indication." The Times editorially combats Milner Gibson's assertion that slavery is the sole cause of the American war, and says slavery is only a part of the cause. It is the American Constitution that has broken down.

[The rotten spot in the ship's frame weakens the whole craft, and makes her less seaworthy. But we are in hopes to cut out the rotten timbers, and replace them with sound sticks, so that she will not break down. U. T.]

Death of an Editor.—Mr. Nathan Hale, the senior editor of the Boston Daily Advertiser, died at his residence in Brookline, Mass., Sunday evening, in the 78th year of his age.

Mr. Hale was a graduate of Williams College and afterwards a teacher of mathematics in Exeter Academy. He married the sister of the Hon. Edward Everett and Hon. Alexander H. Everett, in 1818. He commenced editing the Daily Advertiser in 1814, and for many years has been among those of the highest rank in journalism in the United States.

Many public improvements found in him an able advocate, and he was no less useful and respected as a citizen than as an editor. His career was uniformly successful—not as the world measures success, by the accumulation of riches—but in the accomplishment of great undertakings. As the father of a family he has raised up children who will worthily perpetuate his name. As a newspaper editor his influence has hardly been surpassed. As a citizen he has left in the Boston and Worcester Railroad, and the Boston Waterworks, the memorials of his active interest and zeal in public improvements.

THE LAST SHOT.

This story was told me by an old and valued friend. I give it as related in his own words.

It was about the year 1765 that I settled in Virginia, near the Falls of Canasho.—The country at that time was an unbroken wilderness. But few settlements had been made by the whites, and they were so far apart as to render vain all hope of assistance in case of an attack from the hostile Indians, numbers of whom still infested the neighborhood.

I lived here alone with my wife for several months unmolested; and by dint of untiring perseverance, being then young and hardy, had succeeded in making quite a clearing in the forest, which I had planted with corn, and which promised an abundant yield.

One morning, after we dispatched our humble meal, and I had just prepared to venture forth upon my regular routine of labor, my attention was attracted by the tinkle of a cow-bell in the corn-field

"There!" said my wife, "the cow is in the corn-field."

But the ear of the backwoodsman becomes, by education, very acute, especially so from the fact that his safety often depends on the nice cultivation of that sense. I was not easily deceived; I listened—the sound was repeated.

"That," said I, in reply to the remark of my wife, "was not the tinkle of a bell upon the neck of a cow. It is a decoy from some Indian who desires to draw me into ambush."

Believing this to be the case, I took down my musket, (I had no rifle,) and seeing that it was properly loaded, I stole cautiously around the field towards the point from which the sound seemed to proceed. As I had suspected, there, in a cluster of bushes, crouched an Indian, waiting for me to appear in answer to his decoy bell, that he might send a bullet to my heart. I approached without discovering myself until within shooting distance, then raised my piece and fired. The bullet sped true to its mark, and the Indian fell dead.

Not knowing but that he might be accompanied by others, I returned with all speed to my cabin, and having firmly barricaded the door, I watched all day from the port hole, in anticipation of an attack from the Indians whose spy I had killed. To add to the danger and seeming hopelessness of my situation, I discovered that I had but one charge of powder left; I could make but one shot, and then, if attacked by numbers, I should be entirely in their power. Determined to do the best with what I had, I poured in my last charge of powder, and put into my musket fifteen slugs, and then waited for the approach of night, feeling confident of an attack.

Night came on at length. A beautiful night it was, too, and this favored me greatly, as I would be able to observe the movements of the enemy as they approached my cabin. It was two hours after nightfall, and as yet I had not seen nor heard a sign of the Indians, when suddenly I was startled by the barking of my dog at the stable. The stable stood a little to the west of my cabin, and between the two was a patch of clear ground, upon which the moonlight fell unobstructed.

Judging from the noise at the stable that they would advance from that direction, I posted myself at the port hole on that side of the cabin.

I had previously placed my wife upon the cross-pole in the chimney, so that in case our enemies effected an entrance into the cabin, she might climb through the low chimney and escape. For myself I determined not to be taken alive, and resolved to sell my life as dearly as possible.

With breathless anxiety I watched at the port hole. At length I saw them emerge from the shadow of the stable and advance across the vacant ground toward the cabin. One, two, three: Great heavens! six stalwart Indians, armed to the teeth, and urged on by the hope of revenge. And I alone to oppose them with but one charge of powder. My case was desperate indeed. With quick but steady step, in close single file, they approached, until within a few yards of the house, when a slight change of divergence in the movement of the forward Indian, changed the position of the entire six, so that a portion of the left side of each was uncovered. They were all in range—one aim would cover all. Quick as thought I aimed and fired. As the smoke cleared away, I could hardly credit what my senses showed me was the result of my shot. The fifteen slugs with which I had loaded my musket had done the work well,—five of the six Indians lay dead upon the ground, the sixth had disappeared.

Although no enemy was in sight, I did not venture out until morning. There lay the bodies of the five Indians undisturbed, together with the rifle of the other. Securing the arms and ammunition of the fallen Indians, I followed up the trail of the missing one until it reached the river, beyond which point I could discover no traces what ever. From the amount of blood which marked the trail, together with the unmistakable evidence that he had picked his way with difficulty, I was lead to believe that he was mortally wounded, and in order to prevent his body from falling into the hands of his foe, had groped his way to the river, and thrown himself into the current which had borne him away.

The Indians had killed my cow, and that you may be assured was no trifling loss; yet in my gratitude for my escape from the merciless savages, I would have been entirely willing to make much greater sacrifices. I was provided (by means of ammunition taken from the slain Indians) in case of a second attack, but this fortunately proved to be my last adventure with the savages. Not one of the band had escaped to tell the tale, and incite his brethren to revenge the death of his comrades.

"Ah! exclaimed the old man, while the tears gushed from his eyes at the memory of that eventful night, "that was a glorious shot—the best I ever made."

The hero of this adventure lived to see the wide wilderness where he had pitched his lonely cabin, transformed into smiling fields, and peopled by hardy and enterprising pale faces, among whom his last days were passed in peace and plenty, undisturbed by his old time foes.

☞ Mr. Grau's Opera Company brought out "Martha" at the Boston Academy of Music, on Monday evening, in splendid style; and with a very strong cast, as announced. The attendance was large and brilliant. This evening "Lucretia Borgia" with Mad. Lorina for prima donna; and on Thursday evening, the new opera of "Dinorah," in which all opera-goers are so eager to hear Mlle. Cordier. Besides all the old favorites, Mr. Grau promises the most exciting novelties. See his advertisement.

☞ Isaac Cook, of Chicago, has sued Horace Greeley for libel.

It seems to be accorded by the universal consent of mankind, that Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co.'s Sarsaparilla, Pectoral and Pills are the greatest remedies yet discovered for the treatment of disease; that Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the greatest Elixir of Life, which Philosophers have sought for purifying the blood. Try it and judge for yourselves.—Exchange.

PORTS. CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

JAMES F. SHORES, JR. No. 1 Congress Block, has just issued a new Catalogue of his Circulating Library. The books have all been re-numbered, and the arrangement of the catalogue will be found much more convenient than the old one. As the old catalogues are now useless, the patrons of the Library will be kind enough to lay them aside and send for a copy of the new one, which will be furnished gratis to all who wish for them.

Notice to Housekeepers.

Rubber Band Carpet Sweeper.

TRY IT! TRY IT!!

It saves Money; it saves Carpets; it saves Furniture; it saves Labor; it is cheaper than Brooms at five cents apiece.

It gathers up all dust, dirt, and loose lint on the carpets, and raises no dust to settle on the furniture, drapery, or ornaments, or to smother, stifle and irritate the lungs.

It does not wear the carpets half so much as brooms or any other sweeper.

It is the only practicable sweeper made, and the only article fit to sweep a carpet.

With our late improvements it gives universal satisfaction to all who use it according to directions. For sale at No. 13 Market Street by

☞ It will be seen, by reference to the list of promotions recently made in the 2d N. H. Regiment, which we publish in another column, that George E. Sides, who went out in the regiment as 2d Sergeant, is promoted to 1st Lieut., and that Charles W. Patch is promoted from 4th Sergeant to 2d Lieut.,—both of Portsmouth.

☞ From a letter received at the City Rooms from Capt. Towle of Co. G, 10th Regiment, dated Feb. 5, we take the following extracts in relation to volunteers from this city: "James Howes went to the hospital yesterday morning with the dysentery; nothing serious. John H. Stringer, sick in his quarters; threatened with a fever; better this morning,—may stave it off. Meshach Bell, jr., sick in hospital; has had a fever, but the fever has turned, and he is getting better."

☞ We are pleased to learn that the lady who fell over the steps of the Universalist Church on Sunday afternoon, did not fracture her arm, as was at first supposed. Her fall was occasioned by a sudden fainting spell. Her name was Collins.

RESTORATION OF GEN. BENHAM.—It will be recollected that Brig. Gen. Benham, one of the most brave and gallant officers in the service, was suspended from duty shortly after the affair at James' Island, (near Charleston) in which he held a command, some months since. He was not informed as to the charges made against him, and has been unable to obtain a hearing by court martial. Recently his case was presented to the President, who authorized Judge Holt, the Judge Advocate General, to investigate the matter. That officer, upon carefully examining the papers, found that there was not the shadow of evidence to warrant his suspension, and that great injustice had been done to him. The President, upon this report of Judge Holt, promptly ordered the restoration of Gen. Benham, and it is probable that he will be assigned to the command of Gen. Hooker, at the request of the latter. The many friends of Gen. Benham in this vicinity will be glad to learn that partial justice has at last been done to this officer, whose restoration to active service will be a great gain to the loyal cause.—Boston Journal.

Gen. Benham is at present on special duty in this city.

☞ Mrs. Rebecca Wells, who was born in New York in the year 1760, was found dead in her bed in that city on Saturday.—Deceased was 103 years of age, and enjoyed good health till within three months of her death, and was able to attend to all her own immediate domestic wants. She had relations in Williamsburgh who offered her a home, but she preferred to live alone, without even the aid of a servant. She lived in the city when it was held by the British, and was always greatly delighted when repeating to her friends and acquaintances the reminiscences of the early days of this part of the Republic.

☞ Gen. Banks had issued an order at New Orleans, explanatory of the President's proclamation, which disappoints many who thought that fugitive slaves would be returned to their owners in that part of the State exempted by the terms of the proclamation. The editor of the True Delta has been rebuked for endeavoring to foreshadow the action of Gen. Banks.

☞ The amount of property stolen in Newburyport during the month of January, as reported at the office of the City Marshal, was two hundred and sixty one dollars and 75 cents; the amount recovered was one hundred and seventy five dollars and 75 cents.

☞ It is reported (says a New York dispatch) that Gen. Wool has issued peremptory orders forbidding any officers or soldiers leaving Governor's Island, excepting the commanding officer, and prohibiting all civilians landing thereon. It is also reported that a large quantity of ammunition is being sent to the Island.

☞ The Portland Daily Advertiser has just been improved by cutting down the size of it, from eight columns in a page to six columns, and also shortened, making a paper slightly larger than our Daily Chronicle, and sold for two cents. But on Saturday the Daily is a double sheet, price three cents.

☞ The Belfast Journal tells the following story:—

A gentleman of this city (Belfast) had at one time in his employ an Irishman possessed of a good deal more zeal than knowledge. His employer gave him a key one morning with directions to "go to the Post Office and get the contents of forty." Pat vanished, but presently came back with pockets, hat and hands filled with a miscellaneous collection of mail matter, and the explanation—"I couldn't open forty, sir, but I opened all I could, and here they be!"

☞ Part XII of the Book of Days has been issued by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia, and is for sale in this city by J. H. Foster.

☞ The report relative to the capture of the privateer Florida, was not confirmed by the latest intelligence from Havana.

VIRGINIA VIEWS.—The following reply comes up from Richmond, in the Despatch, to the peace propositions of Mr. James Brooks of New York:—

"Mr. Brooks appears to be in earnest in these extravagant propositions, strange as it may appear to any man who has possession of his senses. If the whole Yankee race should fall down in the dust to morrow and pray us to be their masters, we would spurn them even as slaves. They look only to their pockets when they talk of reconciliation and restoration. President Davis expressed the sentiment of the entire Confederacy in his speech the other night, when he said the people would rather unite with a nation of hyenas than with the detestable and detested Yankee nation. Anything but that. English colonization, French vassalage, Russian serfdom, all, all are preferable to any association with the Yankees."

Another rebel paper says:—

"We have committed many errors in our treatment of the Yankees. Not the least has been in regarding them as something better than they really are. They are by nature menials, and fitted only for menial duties. They are in open and flagrant insurrection against their natural lords and masters, the gentlemen of the South. In the exercise of their assumed privileges, they deport themselves with all the extravagant airs, the insolence, the cruelty, the cowardice and love of rapine which have ever characterized the revolt of slaves. The former leniency of their masters only serves to aggravate the ferocity of their natures.—When they are again reduced to subjection and taught to know their place, we must take care to put such trammels about them that they will never have an opportunity to play these tricks again."

TWO VIEWS.—The Boston Courier, in noticing the rumor that Gen. McClellan would be recalled to the Army of the Potomac, suggests that he must in that case have full powers to do what he pleases, and not anything else, and says:—

"He can begin a great work of reformation in the army. From that of the Potomac he can choose an efficient force which will serve under him and faithfully serve the cause of the country. He can have what no other man can—and that is a fresh body of troops for a lawful and practicable purpose, namely, to maintain the forms of government until the opportunity occurs to elect another administration. This is all, in our judgment, which can now be accomplished, or which the main body of the people desire to see accomplished."

The Boston Journal calls this the "radical conservative policy of the Southern sympathizers," and adds this comment:—

"In other words, the policy is to let the war dawdle along until the expiration of Lincoln's administration, and then reconstruct or patch up a peace under the auspices of such eminent patriots as Cox, Vallandigham, Wood and Lunt. It is a nice scheme, but the people desire to have a more speedy termination of the war, and it will be terminated for or against the Government long before the limit contemplated in this plan, which, by the way, differs from that of the regular copperheads. Immediate peace at any price is written upon their programme. To secure this they are ready to strangle the Administration with the rope of State rights."

☞ The Mirror states that the celebrated Green Mountain horse, White Mountain, raised in Manchester by Edgerly, and sold to Brown of Illinois, six years ago for $4000, was bitten by a mad dog and ran mad about three weeks ago, and was shot by his owner.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL,

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove, and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 2 feet long; or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

THE MODEL COOK is adapted equally well for wood and coal, summer and winter. It will be found to be THE STOVE for farmers, mechanics or professional men; for boarding houses or private families—in fact for every place where a good stove is needed.

We believe the MODEL COOK to be the very best Stove in the Market, and invite every one to examine it whether they wish to purchase or not, it has had a very extensive sale since its introduction. Reference might be made to more than a hundred families in this city or vicinity who are using the Stove, and give it the highest commendation.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Ruitt, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Francis C. Jarvis, Thos. L. Tullock, Capt. VICTOR COAL STOVE.

We offer this beautiful coal burner to the public, with full confidence in its merits.

It was brought into market two years since, and has come rapidly into use.

The Victor is one of the handsomest parlor stoves in the market, and is perfect in its operation. The arrangement for dumping the ashes is very fine—no dust need escape into the room—a continuous fire may be kept throughout the winter—the coal all burned, and no clinkers made.

The quantity of fuel used is very small indeed. There is in this stove an excellent arrangement for ventilating the room in which it is placed; a feature not possessed by any other parlor stove.

Some of the sizes are provided with an oven and boiling place, making them very desirable for a dining room.

We sold a large number of Victor Stoves in our city last season, and they receive the highest commendation from those who are using them.

We have also the celebrated McGregor Stove, so well known in the market as to need no commendation.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES

They are the Purest!

The Best!

The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

J & B.

Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR

Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

From Emery Eddy, a well-known merchant of Oxford, Maine.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never now buy another which failed of the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As fast as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine introduced in our community."

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robt. Stratton, Bristol, England.

"I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that long roll of the medicinal virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged ten, had an afflicting humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well-known and much-esteemed lady of Dunstable, Cape May Co., N. J.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded her relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely-known Gage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of enamelled papers in Nashua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost every thing a man could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately stopped the running sores, as you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purity the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Savin, Houston St., New York.

"DR. AYER. I seldom fail to remove Eruptions and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured an attack of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the SARSAPARILLA you have supplied the profession and well as to the people."

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Wakemen, Ohio.

"For twelve years, I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could hear of, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The ulcers were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and some of your PILLS. Together they have cured me. I now can put my arm around my body. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Monroe, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the affliction."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Sichler, Esq., the able editor of the Tuckahoe Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"One only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the iodide of potash lotion, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was healed when we had finished the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as any others. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child would be blind."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease

From Dr. Hiram Sloat, of St. Louis, Missouri.

"I find your SARSAPARILLA a more efficacious remedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphilis and for syphilitic diseases than any other we possess. The profession are indebted to you for some of the best medicines we have."

From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lawrence, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Legislature of Massachusetts.

"DR. AYER. My dear sir, I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary type, and effectual in some cases that were too obstinate to yield to other medicines. I do not know that we can employ with more certainty of success, where a powerful alterative is required."

MR. CHAS. W. Lee, of New Brunswick, N. J., had dreadful ulcers on his legs, caused by the abuse of mercury, or mercurial disease, which grew more and more aggravated for years, in spite of every remedy or treatment that could be thought, until the persevering use of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA relieved him. Few cases can be found more inveterate and desperate than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him are generally produced by internal Scrofulous Ulceration, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. Some cases, however, in aid of the SARSAPARILLA, the skilful application of local remedies.

Leucorrhœa, Whites, Female Weakness,

From the well-known and widely-celebrated Dr. Jacob Harvey, of Cincinnati.

"I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alterative in diseases of females. Many cases of Irregularity, Leucorrhœa, Internal Ulceration, and local debility, arising from the scrofulous diathesis, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not, when its effects have properly aided by local treatment."

A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her name, writes:

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating Leucorrhœa of long standing, by two bottles of your SARSAPARILLA."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia,

when caused by Scrofula in the system, are rapidly cured by the EXT. SARSAPARILLA.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

For Physicians' Use,

FEMALES, WEAKLY PERSONS, INVALIDS and Invalids.

SAMBUCUS TREE, OF PORTUGAL.

The Great Remedy for Kidney Affections, Rheumatism, Chronic Complaints

Excellent Wine for Females.

Every Family should use the SAMBUCI WINE celebrated in Europe for its medicinal and beneficial qualities as a gentle Stimulant, Tonic, Diuretic and Sudorific, highly esteemed by eminent physicians, used in European and American Hospitals, and by some of the first families in Europe and America.

AS A DIURETIC, it imparts a healthy action to the Glands and Kidneys, and Urinary Organs, very beneficial in Dropsy, Gout and Rheumatic Affections.

SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE is not a mixture or manufactured article, but is pure from the juice of the Portugal Sambucus, cultivated in New Jersey, recommended by Chemists and Physicians as possessing medicinal properties superior to any other Wines in use, and an excellent article for all weak and debilitated persons, and the aged and infirm, improving the appetite, and benefitting ladies and children.

A LADIES' WINE, because it will not intoxicate as other wines, as it contains no mixture of spirits or other ingredients, and is admired for its rich, peculiar flavor and nutritive properties, imparting a healthy tone to the digestive organs, and a blooming, soft and healthy skin and complexion.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience combined with unlimited means, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of renereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms consequent on the Secret Habit, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those diseases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. None the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, etc. The terrified victim of this dark habit may be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your case. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capottes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET, Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, that by help of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER, that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no insertices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept, neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the insertion is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60 00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country. S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and stew heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the ashes sifted up out of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed. Ask any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this city for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest heat of least from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is plain. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 25 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to continue burning for a reasonable time, or will a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles that are a nuisance of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

This is a new and invaluable preparation for preserving and beautifying the hair.

The wonderful virtues of Arnica in allaying inflammation are universally known.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is a combination of these virtues, with other tried and excellent ingredients.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS stimulates and invigorates the hair, prevents it from falling out—restores it when lost—promotes its growth and strength—renders it proof against all diseases.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS permanently cures all irritations and eruptions of the scalp, and makes it healthy and fertile. For the removal of dandruff it has no equal. Its operations in this particular are magical and permanent ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is unequalled as a hair-dressing compound. If not only cleanses the scalp and invigorates the hair, but it renders the latter charmingly soft and lustrous. Its odor is particularly delicate and fragrant—the proprietor having taken especial pains to secure this result.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is the very best preparation for the hair ever discovered.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS, notwithstanding its surpassing merits—is retailed at only twenty-five cents a bottle, by all Druggists.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,

No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE,

A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by DR. WM. GRACE, surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Fresh Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Felons.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Frozen Limbs.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scurvy.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Callouses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Salt Rheum.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sores
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find this Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind
Love truth; do good; be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every ism fell."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged. Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continued to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

Hence, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can not employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

An expedition sent out from Yorktown fell into a rebel ambuscade, losing 80 in killed, wounded and missing. The enemy is reported in some force, 12 miles from Williamsburg.

A New Orleans dispatch states that on the morning of the 23d inst. a steamer rigged as a bark, with a rakish appearance, came in sight of the Southwest Pass. She had nothing above the topmasts and moved slowly by the Pass, apparently watching for some signals or expecting some. A number of the Pass pilots are now under arrest for communicating with a strange vessel some days since. It is supposed further attempts will be made preparatory to a raid on the river.

Apalachicola advices state that a rebel raid was expected there soon, as it was reported that the rebels have an iron-clad ready. The U. S. steamers Somerset and Fort Royal are there. Capt. Morris of the latter has information of an iron-clad vessel, and also that the rebels have fitted up four large steamers after the plan of those that captured the Harriet Lane, and have lengthened a schooner and put a propeller in her, making a formidable gunboat. Capt. Morris has made what preparations he could to receive them.

Our forces entered Lebanon, Tenn., on the 8th inst. They captured 600 rebels, of Morgan's command, with many field officers.

The 1st S. C. negro regiment has been on an expedition 60 miles up the St. Mary's river. They burnt the town of Woodstock and destroyed some extensive salt works. They fought well and repulsed superior numbers.

The 9th Army Corps, of Gen. Hooker's Army, has left for Fortress Monroe. The corps includes the 7th, 9th, 10th, 11th and 13th N. H. regiments. Their destination is probably North Carolina. It is reported that Gen. Burnside will take command.

The tone of the Richmond papers in regard to the rebel blockade-raising at Charleston has wonderfully changed. The Whig admits that the result of the engagement was much less substantial than was supposed. No Yankee vessel was sunk. The impression at Richmond was that Savannah will be attacked before Charleston.

The rebel papers have a report that U. S. sloop-of-war Brooklyn was sunk by the Alabama, the Florida, and the Harriet Lane. It is a canard.

THE PIRATES.—It is certain the story of the sinking of the Florida was incorrect. She arrived at Nassau on the 30th, recruited, and sailed on the evening of the 31st.—One account says she had not made any new prizes; but another reports that she had made seven prizes off Cuba and one off the Bahamas.

The Alabama is reported to have arrived at Kingston, Ja., Jan. 20, and to have landed the remaining officers and crew of the Hatteras, sunk off Galveston, over 100 in number. The Alabama suffered severely in her fight with the Hatteras and put into Kingston to repair damages, expecting to be ready for sea in four days. Upon this news being received in Havana, the U. S. steamers Wachusett and Oneida sailed direct for Kingston, and the Santiago de Cuba and R. R. Cuyler, then on the south side of Cuba, were ordered at once to the same port, and the Tioga and Sonoma were also steering in the same direction.

☞ John Conness has been finally elected U. S. Senator from California, by 66 to 114. He was formerly a Douglas Democrat, and latterly a member of the Union party. An unrelenting feud between the friends of Congressman Phelps and Mr. Sargent prevented the election of a Senator of Republican antecedents in accordance with the political bias of a large majority of the Legislature.

☞ G. B. Davids, for a long time manager of the Government machine shops at Old Point, has been appointed Inspector of iron-clad gunboats, and has left for New York.

☞ An exchange says:—"The Grand Expedition, for a grand result, on the 1st inst., was at Port Royal. The trip was a rough one, even the officers being sea-sick." Are military officers any less liable to sea-sickness than the privates?

☞ A man aged eighty, and a woman aged sixty-six, were found in the Seine near Paris a few weeks ago. They were locked in each other's arms, and kept in position by a true blue handkerchief. They committed suicide for love.

☞ The Brazilian ladies have live bugs and fireflies collected to wear in their hair, and attach them by a delicate wire or needle passed through the vital part of the body. This gives such extreme pain as to cause the little creature to emit intense sparks, which impart a most dazzling and extraordinary effect.

[Communication.]

THE CAUSE.—More Logic.—The Governor of New Jersey says, "to those who blind themselves to all conviction of fact, by the plea that slavery is the cause of the war":—

"Yes, it is the cause of the war, as gold is the cause of robbery and murder. With the same propriety it might be said that commerce was the cause of our last war with Great Britain, and that commerce should be abolished because the impressment of American seamen led to the collision."

Uncle Toby proceeds to examine further the pro-slavery talk of the Governor of New Jersey.

The Governor's allusion to the war of 1812, is most unfortunate for him, but fortunate for the truth. We made war with Great Britain, and gave as the reason for it that she obstructed and damaged our commerce, by impressing our seamen. And now the rebels have made war with us, because as they say, and as their allies also say, we have damaged and obstructed their beautiful institution of slavery, by our abolition in general, and especially by daring to elect a Black Republican President, and many Governors and Senators of the same complexion.

Slavery say they, did not want war; no indeed; if only the slave traders and drivers could have done as they pleased with whites as well as blacks!

Great Britain did not want war; no, no; and if we had only submitted quietly to impressment and other wrongs, there would have been none. But we did resist, and war came.

So in the case of slavery,—the evil was crowding, till even Mr. Douglas was moved to rebel against it;—and then at Charleston Convention the war began between the champions of the Democratic party,—the slave power demanding absolute control, and the Free State Douglas men resisting. Had they only submitted—and become the meanest of white slaves—there would have been no war just now.

And then again, when Lincoln & Hamlin were chosen by the electors, if Gen. Scott had submitted to the slave power's nod, and brought no soldiers to Washington, the traitor Breckinridge would not have declared the election,—and the vacancy would have been filled by a pro-slavery Senator, or by Judge Taney.

Once more, if Lincoln and Hamlin had submitted to the threats and suggestions of the same power and its allies,—and not entered on their offices:—or if when there they had knelt down for that power to get on and ride, we might have had just such a peace as we should have deserved!

When the Governor and those who talk like him, say slavery is not the cause of the war, they always lay the blame of the strife on abolition and abolitionists; but surely Scott and Douglas, and two-thirds of the Democratic party, were not abolitionists.

No fair parallel can be drawn between gold, or commerce, and slavery. Gold is inert matter, has no moral qualities at all, and may be useful, or useless, or worse, according as we treat it. Commerce, honestly and wisely conducted, is a blessing to mankind; but like everything else may be mismanaged and abused to the basest purposes. But slavery is itself an abuse of mankind, an evil per se, though like most other evils it admits of mitigation, as murder may be of the first or second degree.

In the parallel about gold, the robber wished to get the gold, and somurdered the owner; but the abolitionist does not aim to get slavery, he wishes to destroy it. In the parallel about impressment, commerce and war,—we did not covet commerce, we had it already,—neither did we wish to impress men,—but to destroy impressment, because that crippled our commerce.

But is it true that in the United States, unfair, illegal and improper aggressions upon slavery and the slave power have been made by any State or party? No: history shows the aggressions to have come from the other side.

Maine was not an abolition State, or even a Federal State, in any party sense; yet she was held at bay till a vote could be had to slip Missouri, as a slave State, into the Union at the same time, by what was called the Compromise, which was just the advance of slavery into that State, just the promise of keeping it below a certain line thereafter: which promise was broken by the slave power when another advance was attempted into Kansas.

States were admitted by pairs, one black and one white, for some years,—and when it began to be seen that the free white States must soon outnumber and outweigh the black,—then Texas was annexed, as some said to extend the area of freedom,—but as Mr. Calhoun said, to strengthen the institution of slavery.

But there has been, and there must be, a moral aggression upon it, going on all the time, by men who, loving liberty defended by law for themselves, were like Jefferson, manly and christian enough to love it and seek it for others.

Against this kind of aggression, no barriers can be built that will keep it out. It was not confined to this country, but has spread over most of the civilized world, and though it has been hated, belied, and opposed by the slave power, it has prevailed in most countries.

In this country, cannon have been planted against it by the rebels, and much blood has been shed in consequence, carrying to the grave thousands of men who know not exactly why they fight, nor who is to blame. Yet cannon cannot silent conscience, nor blood shed change wrong into right. Human nature feels slavery to be a grevious wrong, whenever it suffers under it—and the day of retribution has come, stern and dreadful.

LETTER FROM Co. K, 16TH REG'T.

CAMP PARAPET, Carrollton, La., Jan. 27.

Friend Chronicle;—I believe there is no one in our Company who corresponds with you. For one I feel in duty bound to acknowledge the many favors received, in the shape of papers. There is no one thing our boys hail with such delight as they do news from home. And next to letters from from our dear friends stands the Morning Chronicle. We feel as though, when we get that, that we shall get all the news there is in old Portsmouth. The last mail that we received came freighted with newspapers of various kinds, and among the most welcome was the bundle marked Chronicle.

We have been here now over 5 weeks. It is quite a pleasant place—or was once, when everything was going on in its usual quietude. The place where we now are encamped was once a fine plantation. But now all is desolation and ruin. Nothing is left but the sweet song of the birds, which it was impossible for the rebels to carry away. Everything available was taken, and this once happy place is the scene of military drill and discipline. Those who formerly occupied these places are now engaged in the most bitter warfare against this best of Governments. Go where you will in the South you can find a miserable patched-up croaker, who are constantly crying peace, peace; but on the contrary, all are determined to fight until the last drop of blood is spilt before they will yield.

We of the North hear a great deal said about the Union sentiment of the South.—I have been here almost 6 weeks, and have been hunting for this so-called Union feeling; have visited New Orleans, dined at the Great St. Charles, heard people talk—and all the Union sentiment I can find in New Orleans to-day, is caused by the iron sides of four glorious gun ships, which lie, like so many serpents, ready at any moment they are disturbed to sting to the heart any who shall dare to disobey. In one of the principal streets there is stationed a Battery, at the head of the street, in case of any trouble. This alone could destroy the whole city. Do you call this Union Sentiment? If so, God deliver me from such Union sentiment as this. And this, I am told, by those who know, is the kind of Union feeling which exists all along the banks of the Mississippi. I expected when I arrived here to find the greater part of those who were left strong Union men in their feelings and sentiments, but I am very much disappointed.

Now for one I think the truth will stand a greater test than falsehood. Therefore let me say, as far as my experience has been, Union sentiment is all "played out" down South.

The health of our Camp is as good as could be expected under the circumstances. We have had but one death as yet, that of 2d Lieut. Prescott Jones, Co. E. He was sick about 10 days with typhoid fever.—His body was sent home, and probably will reach his friends before you get this. Several of our boys have been quite sick; all but one are convalescent. Private Benj. Watkins, of our Company, is very sick with typhoid fever, but will probably get well.—Your former "jours," Shaw and Mitchell, are in the enjoyment of good health. We are expecting every day to move up river, towards Vicksburg. Our arms are in a very bad condition. We hope to have them changed before going into action. Wishing to be remembered to all my friends, I am yours, very respectfully, G. T. W.

CONGRESS.

TUESDAY.—In the Senate, the bill reorganizing the Post Office Department was passed. Mr. Wilson reported a bill authorizing the increase of Major and Brigadier Generals in the volunteer service. A resolution was adopted requesting the President to transmit the correspondence with France on the subject of mediation or other measures relating to the war. The currency bill was then taken up. Long debate followed. Several amendments were offered and rejected—among them one requiring banks to keep specie in their vaults equal to one-fourth of their circulation.

The House adopted a resolution instructing the Committee on Ways and Means to inquire into the practical operation of the Excise law upon the interests of manufacturers of limited means.

☞ Gold fell and Government securities improved in New York on Wednesday.

☞ It is stated that when Gen. McClellan arrived in Boston, week before last, an adroit thief in the crowd at the depot, abstracted a wallet, containing $200 in money and some valuable papers. Detectives however succeeded in recovering the papers, and restored them before he left the city.

☞ The State Street Parish, in Portland, have voted to adopt the practice of having one sermon each Sunday, in consequence of the ill-health of their pastor, Rev. George Leon Walker. He made no request of the kind, nor was he aware of the contemplated action of his Society. The sermon will be delivered in the morning, and the Sabbath School will be held in the afternoon.

☞ A Boston merchant, a few days since, purchased 1000 bbls. alcohol, and placed it on shipboard for the Mediterranean. A great rise having suddenly taken place in the article, this lot was discharged from the ship on Tuesday, and is sold at a profit of some $5000.

Notice to Housekeepers.

Rubber Band Carpet Sweeper.

TRY IT! TRY IT!!

It saves Money; it saves Carpets; it saves Furniture; it saves Labor; it is cheaper than Brooms at five cents apiece.

It gathers up all dust, dirt, and loose lint on the carpets, and raises no dust to settle on the furniture, drapery, or ornaments, or to smother, settle and irritate the lungs.

It does not wear the carpets half so much as brooms or any other sweeper.

It is the only practicable sweeper made, and the only article fit to sweep a carpet.

With our late improvements it gives universal satisfaction to all who use it according to directions. For sale at No. 12 Market Street by Local.

☞ A "Grocer's" business originally was to sell spices, drugs, herbs, vegetables, &c. So those who make "country produce" a speciality, are not so far out of their "legitimate" and "regular line of trade," after all. And Mr. Lear, whose "new," "fresh," "cheap cash" Grocery we advertise this morning anew,—though he be not at all "verdant," yet as he takes special pains to have fresh goods, it may not be inappropriate to call him a "green grocer." At any rate, those dates of his couldn't have been plucked at a very early date from this, and the prunes need no pruning. His store is No. 18, on Daniel Street, and is among the neat and inviting groceries of our city.—He advertises pretty "loud"—try him, and if he don't say true, just leer at him.

☞ Phil. Pelham's Minstrel Troupe and Brass Band appear at the Temple in this city, this (Thursday,) evening. The number of those who enjoy such entertainments is not small, and doubtless all who attend their concert will find abundant material to excite a hearty laugh. And laughter it has been said is the best of medicine. Music and mirth, speeches and fun make up their programme.

☞ There are 2042 workmen on the January pay-roll at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, and the amount of money required to pay off this roll is $90,186. It was completed and submitted to the Purser on Monday last, and as soon as the tax is deducted, the workmen will receive their pay.

☞ A little boy, about four years of age, son of Mr. Albert Foye, who resides on Gates street, was severely burned on Wednesday afternoon, while left alone for a few minutes by its mother. He set fire to his clothes with matches and ran out into the street. A neighbor extinguished the flames with a blanket. His breast and face were shockingly burnt.

☞ The U. S. steamer Sacramento left the Portsmouth Navy Yard on Wednesday, and now lies at anchor in the lower harbor. She went on a short trial trip to test her engines, &c., and everything worked well.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— In the church at East Canaan, on the 25th ult., at the moment Rev. Mr. Barron, a Universalist minister, rose from the sofa to pronounce the benediction, the chimney, weighing perhaps a ton, fell through the ceiling, and crashed through the sofa down to the ground, crushing the Bible.—Mr. Barron was hit by some of the splinters and fragments, but escaped with his life.

—— On Sunday evening last, while N. K. Leavitt, keeper of the Exeter jail, was absent, some thief entered his stable, and stole therefrom a valuable horse. Mrs. L. hearing a noise, went into the stable, and found that the horse had been taken. She started out to a neighbor's for aid, but the horse, which is a high-spirited animal, in the mean time broke away from the thief and returned to the stable.

—— Col. M. Donohoe, of the 10th regiment, has arrived in Manchester on a short furlough. He left Falmouth last Thursday. The Mirror states that since then his regiment has left for Fortress Monroe.

—— The upper and inferior parts of the house of Mr. John Albin, on Centre street, Concord, were destroyed by fire early on Tuesday evening. The fire originated in the upper story, where was stored a large quantity of furniture which had been removed from the Union Hotel when that was burnt. This was destroyed; but most of the furniture in use was saved. The house was insured, but the furniture was not. The house was near the stables back of the American House, and it was due to the well directed efforts of the steamer and other engines that a very extensive conflagration was prevented.

☞ The Oroville, Cal., Union, records the death, in that place, of a favorite dog, under peculiar circumstances. The owner of the animal was quite an expert performer on the piccolo, and whenever he played the instrument, the dog would "take on dreadfully." One day an organ grinder happened along, and the man brought out his piccolo and played an accompaniment to one of the airs of the organ, when, from some cause to everybody unknown, the dog, after holding a few moments, and going through his usual gyrations on such occasions, suddenly rolled over and expired.—The case is certainly very remarkable, especially as the poor animal was in good health at the time.

☞ The first cargo of green tea from Japan has arrived at New York. It is pronounced pure, delicate and free from all coloring matter.

☞ Consul Bunch at Charleston writes to the British Foreign office that about 4,150,000 bales of upland cotton remain in the rebel States, which could be exported in case the ports were opened.

A hint for the lazy. The sun wouldn't be as bright as he is if it were not for his early rising.

☞ A person was arrested on Broadway, New York, recently for robbing a gentleman's pocket of a watch—the watch was found in the pocket of his pantaloons. But his hands, rough and dirty, were those of a working man—that was thought conclusive evidence that he was not a professional pickpocket. He claimed to be innocent, and the supposition is charitably made that the watch was thrust into his pocket by the real thief to avoid being caught with it. The white hands of a gentleman or gambler would not have stood this poor wight in such stead as the signs of honest labor which he carried about on his.

☞ From what is said in well informed circles, Capt. Worden's object in proceeding to Fort McAllister with the Montauk was not with a view to reduce that work, but merely to test the effect of shot upon the turret of his vessel, and upon which the rebel's steel pointed shot had no injurious effect. His proceeding to that quarter to demolish the rebel work, &c., was not specified in the original programme.

☞ The Senate Military Committee on the bill reported for that purpose, have recommended 30 Major Generals and 70 Brigadier Generals, in addition to the present number in the army.

☞ A young couple in Lincoln, Vt., who have been married a little over a year, had a falling-out and agreed to separate.—They had a child which the father determined he would keep, but this idea created some excitement among the citizens, who one night assembled to the number of about sixty, and ordered him to deliver the child over to its mother, under the penalty of a coat of tar and feathers, and he was obliged to succumb and gave up the child.

☞ The present Empress of France, Eugenie, is said to play billiards with all the perfection of an expert, and the grace and beauty of a seraph. Her Majesty the Queen of Britain, finds billiards not only a great consoler, but a most favored amusement.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection, with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 2 feet long, or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

THE MODEL COOK is adapted equally well for wood and coal, summer and winter. It will be found to be just suited for farmers, mechanics or professional men; for boarding houses or private families—in fact for every place where a good stove is needed.

We believe the MODEL COOK to be the very best Stove in the Market, and invite every one to examine it whether they wish to purchase or not. It has had a very extensive sale since its introduction. Reference might be made to more than a hundred families in this city or vicinity who are using the Stove, and give it the highest commendation.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Raitt, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Francis C. Jarvis, Thos. L. Tullock, Capt. Joseph Wendell, Capt. Jacob Thompson, Gen. J. G. Hadley, G. Melvin Huntress, Jos. D. Ackerman, James F. Shores, Wm. C. Newton, Horton D. Walker, Benj. Cheever, John Trundy, Richard L. Randall, Geo. Dixon, Samuel F. Paul, Elias Remick, Timothy Dame, Eliot; Wm. S. Locke, Benj. Greenwald, Mrs. Wm Locke, Kittery; S. F. Gerrish, Kittery Point; Hon. Clement March, Albert Hildreth, Stephen M. Weeks, Geo. W. Dennett, Greenland; John Smart, Stratham; Mrs. Reuben F Jenness, David Jenness, Moses Philbrick, Rye.

VICTOR COAL STOVE.

We offer this beautiful coal burner to the public, with full confidence in its merits.

It was brought into market two years since, and has come rapidly into use.

The Victor is one of the handsomest parlor stoves in the market, and is perfect in its operation. The arrangement for dumping the ashes is very fine—no dust need escape into the room—a continuous fire may be kept throughout the winter—the coal all burned, and no clinkers made.

The quantity of fuel used is very small indeed; there is in this stove an excellent arrangement for ventilating the room in which it is placed; a feature not possessed by any other parlor stove.

Some of the sizes are provided with an oven and boiling place, making them very desirable for a dining room.

We sold a large number of Victor Stoves in our office last season, and they receive the highest commendation from those who are using them.

We have also the celebrated McGregor Stove, so well known in the market as to need no commendation.

A great variety of cheaper Stoves for coal and wood—Coal hods—Patent Coal-sifters.

COAL LININGS,

and Repairing pieces for most of the stoves in use.

Job Work attended to with dispatch.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES

They are the Purest!

The Best!

The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every humanitarian and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

Have you used the Strela Matches?

J. F. SHORES, JR., No. 1 Congress Block, has just received from the manufactory a large lot of

STRELA MATCHES.

These matches are without sulphur and without smell in burning, which adapts them for the Sick Room, the Parlor, or for general use, being nearly as cheap as any other kind of Matches. They are put up in boxes of 150 matches, and are sold at the low price of THREE cents per box, or 12 boxes containing 1800 matches for 25 cents—being 2½ for a cent!

Dealers supplied at the manufacturer's price.

THE peculiar taint or infection which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled or vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. That it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid, you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been offered to the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,
The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

This has been so long used and so universally known, that we need do no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, 5 and 6 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his touch, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending victims of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases of nervous debility and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual to business or society. Some of the early and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Disappointment of the digestive functions, symptoms of Consumption, &c. The vacant effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should before contemplating matrimony consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your case. Dr. Dow has also for sale his French Capottes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

April 7—1y 3taw.

CAUTION

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 Endicott Street, would respectfully inform those of diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppressions, and all menstrual derangements, treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is his new mode of treatment, that the most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of Women and Children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to his profession, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B. All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of his peculiar nature, which have by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imparts and has for sale a new article, called the FEMALE SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, that he had of late many calls to insert teeth VULCANIZED RUBBER, that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the tissues of the mouth and cheeks. There are no insertices or open joints to collect food, &c., consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set of Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country. S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the lowest rates. I will have mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plates, which results in equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the exception top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and effective in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in the city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We work refer to the following purchasers:

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE,

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this invaluable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the great amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former models, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is, that the combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

By fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which induces them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

The heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe on top of the dome can be used for the radiation of heat, when are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

The Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

In ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the draft can be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hull,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

MATHEW'S arnica HAIR GLOSS

This is a new and invaluable preparation for preserving and beautifying the hair.

The wonderful virtues of Arnica in allaying inflammation and eruptions of the scalp, and promoting health and fertility, for the removal of dandruff it has no equal. Its operations in this particular are magical and permanent.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is unequaled as a hair-dressing compound. It not only cleanses the scalp and invigorates the hair, but it renders the latter charmingly soft and destroys its odor is particularly delicate and fragrant—the proprietor having taken especial pains to secure this result.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is the very best preparation for the hair ever discovered.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS, notwithstanding its surpassing merits—is retailed at only Twenty-five cents a bottle, by all Druggists.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE,
A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by DR. WM. GRACE surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sore and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Flesh Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Felons.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Frozen Limbs.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scurvy.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Callouses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Salt Rheum.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sores
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find this Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every law fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837,)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

The engagement on Saturday night, beyond Williamsburg, was different from the first report. Our loss, in killed, wounded and missing, will be much less than 50.

Admiral Porter has communicated to the Navy Department Col. Ellet's report giving an account of the passage of the Vicksburg batteries by his vessel, the ram Queen of the West. The object was to sink the rebel steamer lying before the city. The rebels opened a heavy fire on them as they neared the city, but they were struck only three times before reaching the steamer.—The latter, however, was lying in such a position, that the ram was compelled to round partially in order to strike her; and the strong current swinging her still further, nearly all her momentum was lost. This had been anticipated, and the starboard bow gun had been shotted with three incendiary projectiles. This was discharged and set the rebel steamer in flames, which they subsequently succeeded in extinguishing.—But the cotton on the ram was also set on fire by the enemy's shells and by its own gun, and it was necessary to turn her down stream, when the flames were extinguished by cutting the burning bales loose. In the mean time the rebels kept up their fire, striking the ram twelve times, dismounting and ruining one of the guns, but doing no material injury to the boat or to those on board. A special dispatch states that on Saturday the Queen had returned from below, having met three steamers with provisions for the rebels, and succeeded in sinking them. She took 56 prisoners, one of whom was a Colonel. She went near enough to Port Hudson to draw the fire from the upper battery. Later information shows that the Ram Queen of the West did not damage the steamer, as the latter's guards prevented the bow of the Queen reaching her hull.

Admiral Farragut, in sending reports to the Navy Department of the surrender of the Harriet Lane, shows that the loss of life was greatly exaggerated, and says that in his opinion, "but for the death of Commander Wainwright and Lieut. Lee, the vessel could not have been captured. It is difficult to conceive of a more pusillanimous surrender of a vessel to an enemy already in our power, than occurred in the case of the Harriet Lane." The Harriet Lane was still in Galveston harbor Jan. 25th. The Morning Light was surrendered in a dead calm, without resistance. The rebels took out her powder and set her on fire. Her guns fortunately they did not take. The recent surrenders of vessels in that vicinity have been most disgraceful.

A British Columbia paper says a rebel Commodore endeavored to purchase there a British steamer, ostensibly for the Mexican coast trade, but really for a privateer. He failed through the want of money.

Lieut. E. E. Fairfax Williams, a rebel emissary, was seized at New York on Wednesday, on the arrival of the steamer from Liverpool. A large number of letters for the rebels were found on him.

☞ Sec. Seward has made a most explicit reply to the resolution of the Senate, and states that no suggestions were made to M. Mercier by the Sec. of State, to induce him to undertake a mission to Richmond in April last, or at any other time. Since the 4th of March, 1861, no communication, direct or indirect, formal or informal, has been held by the Government or by the Sec. of State, with the insurgents, their aides or abettors, excepting, of course, negotiations concerning the exchange of prisoners and other military matters in charge of the War Department.

☞ The N. Y. Tribune's dispatch states that one of the new iron-clads is on shipboard on its way to San Francisco, where it will be used for harbor defense. Another, the Sangamon, is to take the place, at Hampton Roads, of the Nahant, which is to join the South Carolina iron-clad fleet. The Navy Department will immediately order the construction of two gunboats to receive the steam engines, which were captured on board the Princess Royal.

☞ The following charade occasionally goes the rounds of the press, and most persons have read it:—

Take away my first letter; take away my middle letter; take away my last letter; take away all my letters, and I remain the same. Who am I?

The answer usually given is, a postmaster. But a New York youth finds another solution, which affords a curious illustration of the capacities of the English language.—He says the answer is "You are a Mr. Bee," and this is the way he made it out:

"Take away your first (s) and you are Mr. Ee.
Take away your last (e) and you are Mr. Er.
Take away your middle (r) and you are Mr. Ee.
Take away all your letters, and you are yet
A Mystery."

☞ Nicholas Longworth, the well-known wine manufacturer, died at Cincinnati on Tuesday, aged eighty-one.

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY.—In the Senate, the military committee reported adversely on the bill for the construction of a submarine cable from Fortress Monroe to New Orleans. The bill allowing the United States to prosecute appeals, and that to remove the Winnebagoes from Minnesota, were passed.—An amendment to the currency bill was adopted,—that a bank holding U. S. bonds to the amount of 50 per cent. of its capital stock may transfer such bonds to the U. S. Treasurer, and be entitled to receive 80 per cent. of such bonds in circulating notes.

In the House, a bill was reported authorizing Nevada and Colorado to form constitutions preliminary to admission as States.—A bill was passed appropriating $7212 to pay for slaves freed in the District of Columbia, in cases where persons were unable to file claims within the prescribed time.

☞ A New Orleans correspondent of the Boston Journal, dating Jan. 29, has the following item:

"Singular scenes, adverse to the spirit of the proclamation of emancipation and revolting to humanity, have recently been witnessed in the Lafourche district, where not a little excitement has prevailed in consequence of the attempts of numerous planters to recover their runaway slaves after the good old Southern fashion. A certain Provost Judge, Lieut. Col. Lull of the 8th N. H. Regiment, has been notorious for his eagerness to pander to the brutality of the 'owners' of human chattels. Being stationed at Thibodeaux, he was obliging enough to issue proclamations to the effect that the planters might take their fugitive slaves by force wherever they could find them within our lines. In the prosecution of this ennobling duty, instances have come to my knowledge in which our soldiers have been employed. In and about Thibodeaux negro men and women have been hunted, thrown to the ground, bound with cords, placed in carts, and conveyed under guard of cavalrymen to the places of their involuntary servitude. One poor fellow was chased into a bayou, and there drowned. The planters not unfrequently bribe the soldiers to this work. On being taxed with this by Capt. Goodrich, the Provost Marshal, one caught in the act answered as follows: 'How do you suppose we are going to get our niggers unless you help us? What are you here for?'

The attention of Gen. Banks having been called to the subject, he has promulgated the President's Proclamation, accompanied by a general order on the subject," showing that the above acts were illegal, and forbidding their repetition.

☞ The story that a Spanish steamer of war had fired wantonly into a U. S. Naval steamer at Havana, was grossly exaggerated. It appears by the Spanish account that the Princessa de Asturias observing a U. S. vessel lying at the mouth of the river, contrary to the regulations of a neutral port, went out to apprise the officer of the irregularity. The American mail steamer Reaney went out at the same time and communicated with the U. S. vessel. The captain of the Princessa fired a blank shot to bring the Reaney to, but she not obeying the signal, he afterwards fired twice with ball before she obeyed the signal, and then apologized by saying that she did not see it. The Reaney then returned to the harbor and shortly afterward left unmolested.

☞ The British bark Springbok, from London for Nassau, arrived at New York, on Wednesday evening in charge of a prize crew from the U. S. gunboat Sonoma. She was captured on the 3d inst., off the Bahamas, in consequence of having some articles on her manifest which the captain could not account for. The officers from the Sonoma report that when she was off Bahamas, 1st inst., they saw a steamer to the windward lying to, apparently waiting for the Sonoma to come up. She proved to be the pirate Florida. As soon as she made out who the Sonoma was she vamoosed. The Sonoma chased her 36 hours, but the superior speed of the pirate enabled her to escape.

☞ We regret it, but it is true that there is trouble in the Maine Legislature. One member exchanged seats with another member, receiving a "V" to boot. But the seat of the seller, Mr. L, was contested, and in process of time the said seller was ousted, another, Mr. G, being declared entitled to a seat in the House in his stead. But Mr. G refuses to take the seat Mr. L last occupied, and claims the one swapped away. The occupant thereof declines to move, and asserts his right to it, having bought and paid for it. Thereupon an order is introduced requesting the gentleman to vacate the premises, but it is declared out of order by the Speaker. So the matter stands; and as Mr. G refuses to take the seat proferred him, he is termed the Standing Member of the House.

☞ A funny story is circulating about Washington. Two members of the House asked permission to print their speeches instead of delivering them, and there are now in print two speeches, with different names upon them, which are so precisely alike as to excite astonishment. The inference is that the manufacturer made a mistake.

☞ A telegraph station has been opened in Jerusalem.

☞ The iron-clad Weehawken arrived at Hilton Head, Feb. 5th.

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

From our Regular Correspondent.

METROPOLIS, Feb. 9th.

Dear Chronicle:—The near approach of the day assigned for the uniting in what "A. Ward, Showman," calls "the holy bonds of padlock," of Gen. T. Thumb, and the lillliputian Miss Warren (who has been the What is it? of the Museum for several weeks past) creates no small stir of interest and curiosity among our citizens. In the window of Lord & Taylor's Broadway establishment the dress of the bride to-be is on exhibition—apparently trimmed around the edge with the most expensive lace; the careful observer will notice however that it is only laid around, and that the whole piece, in roll, is behind the dress! At Ball, Black, & Co.'s may also be seen a new carriage presented to the General, and sets of diamond jewelry for his affiance,—all sufficiently attractive to form subjects for investigation by the curious.

In an issue of the Chronicle some weeks since, allusion was made to the modelist John Rodgers. In a window opposite me, on Broadway, are several evidences of genius,—the most prominent, his model of Edwin Booth, representation of Hamlet's "Go on, and I'll follow thee!"—which is not only a most excellent delineation of the character, but bears a strong resemblance in form and feature to the eminent tragedian. With this, are on exhibition two groups, representing "The Picket Guard." The design of both is excellent. In one we see two of the picket guard ensconced behind a stone wall, one holding upright his musket, decked, to draw the fire of the enemy, with overcoat and cap, after the manner of the guard, while his companion kneels at the side, his rifle poised on the wall, ready to pop at any of the opposition pickets, who may be within range by the decoy.—The other group is the "Alarm of the picket Guard," and the most minute characteristics of dress, form and feature are exquisitely rendered. The value of the first model is $10, and of the two latter $5 each.

The cashiering of Fitz John Porter, to which I briefly alluded in my last, was received here by a populace keenly alive to a sense of that justice due from man to man—a populace, loyal, intelligent, surprised and indignant, with many expressions of condemnation,—not only in the district represented by Ben. Wood, (which happens to be the richest property district of the city) but in every ward and district on the Island, (every one of which, those denizened by the rich, as well as those which are the abodes of the poor, "this same Newington correspondent would take occasion to remark" aided in swelling "that great conservative majority.") The people decree that instead of killing these Generals by cashiering and relief, the Government is "making them." What made Sumner but the Brooks assault? What made Seymour Governor of New York? What made Wall and Olds Senator and representative? True, Sumner wasn't made the right way, but there are many who think the others were!

The late arrest in one of our sister States, and the daily seizure, (and shipment to the Potomac without any investigation) as deserters, of many innocent men honorably discharged from the service, admonish our citizens that they must continue that watchfulness, which, for the past three months they have exercised over their rights.

All over the land, thro' its whole length and breath, we hear the continued cry against the South for the violation of the Constitution. That Constitution, while we flout it before the world, and call upon every one to obey and respect it, we walk over and upon ourselves.

But the dignity of the commonwealth must not be insulted; its laws must not be trampled under foot, nor its citizens reduced to the position of subjects of an unlicensed despotism.

What profits it a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul? And of what avail to the nation of the United States will the emancipation of three millions of negro slaves, and the subjection of twice three millions white rebels, if, in the process, every spark of manhood is to be trampled out of the American breast; every sanctity of law to be overthrown in the American States, and the irresponsible will of an accidental administration to be substituted for the deliberate, free and untrammelled judgment of a great and intelligent people?

Those who haven't solved the conundrum which closed my last, will realize that Eve resembled one of our well known business concerns, inasmuch as she was Adam's Express Company! NEWINGTON.

☞ A Frenchman, Mons. A. Baillot, a teacher of the French language on the "Anti-Book System," left Boston under considerable momentum about the middle of January last, after swindling his numerous scholars out of their money. Mons. Baillot sported elegantly furnished rooms in Pemberton square, and a house in Brookline, also elegantly furnished, but for which it is stated he never paid a cent. It is supposed that the amount of his swindling operations is not far from $3000 or $10,000.

CULTIVATE MIRTH.—Mirth should be cultivated as a fine art, for it is altogether a fine thing. Who ever knew a mirthful man to be a really bad one? On the contrary, is not he, nine times out of ten, generous, humane, and good? To be sure he is. Mirth is a great thing. It smooths the rough places of life, makes the disposition sweet and rosy, scatters sunshine and flowers wherever we go, gives the world a round, jolly countenance, makes all the girls pretty, and mankind the best of families. We go in for mirth.

"Frame your mind to mirth and merriment;
Which bars a thousand harms, and lengthens life."

This most valuable publication will be completed by the issue of the 16th Volume during the present month; forming a complete epitome of human knowledge. Those who have taken the volumes as they have been issued, and have most frequently consulted its pages, have been most completely satisfied with it. Says one: "We who have occasion to refer to it daily, can speak of its literary and mechanical execution with entire satisfaction. THE NEW AMERICAN CYCLOPEDIA is correct full in its information, and conveniently arranged for reference: the articles are concise and complete." On the issue of the 16th Volume the price will be raised 50 cents per volume to all who have not been subscribers to the work.

PORTS. CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

JAMES F. SHORES, JR, No. 1 Congress Block, has just issued a new Catalogue of his Circulating Library. The books have all been re-numbered, and the arrangement of the catalogue will be found much more convenient than the old one. As the old catalogues are now useless, the patrons of the Library will be kind enough to lay them aside and send for a copy of the new one, which will be furnished gratis to all who wish for them.

Notice to Housekeepers.

Rubber Band Carpet Sweeper.

TRY IT! TRY IT!!

It saves Money; it saves Carpets; it saves Furniture; it saves Labor; it is cheaper than Brooms at five cents apiece.

It gathers all dust, dirt, and loose lint on the carpets, and raises no dust to settle on the furniture, drapery, or ornaments, or to smother, stifle and irritate the lungs.

It does not wear the carpets half so much as brooms or any other sweeper.

It is the only practicable sweeper made, and the only article fit to sweep a carpet.

With our late improvements it gives universal satisfaction to all who use it according to directions. For sale at No. 12 Market Street by Local.

☞ The workmen on the Portsmouth Navy Yard have generously subscribed quite a large sum for the benefit of Mr. Adderson, the Porter of the Yard, who recently suffered a severe loss by the destruction of his dwelling-house by fire. Particularly since the commencement of the rebellion, which has occasioned a great increase in the number of those employed on the Navy Yard, have the workmen been most liberal in supplying the wants of the soldiers and of those of their own number who have been in need of assistance, pecuniary or otherwise. Nor has their generosity been confined to those who have these apparent claims upon them. Very many of their unselfish and noble acts are never known to the public; but, we doubt not, the grateful recipients are not the less mindful of their kindness, on that account.

Another subscription paper for the benefit of Mr. Anderson, has been circulated in this city, and has been most generously signed.

☞ The little boy of 3 years, son of Mr. Albert Foye, who was burned on Wednesday, lived about 24 hours, dying on Thursday noon. A brother of the deceased, 5 years old, who was with him when his clothes caught fire, put it out by pouring water on him, and then tore off all his clothes, before any grown person reached them,—and without burning himself in the least.

☞ A special Washington dispatch to the N. Y. Times states that it is understood that Gen. Benham, who, after an investigation by Judge Advocate General Holt, has been restored to his rank as Brigadier General of Volunteers, will at once supersede Gen. Woodbury as Chief of the engineering force of the Army of the Potomac.

☞ Capt. John A. Yeaton has succeeded in recovering one of the anchors and chain, which were lost last week from the barque Annie E. Sherwood, in our lower harbor. An attempt to find the other was unsuccessful.

☞ Remember the second concert by Phil Pelham's Minstrel Troupe and Brass Band, at the Temple this evening. We shall expect to see a large number of young persons there especially, of their—cousins.

☞ We are indebted to Maj. A. H. Hoyt, Paymaster U. S. A., for late New Orleans papers.

☞ The snow came down on Thursday afternoon as if it were used to it, and it had not been a strange and rare occurrence.

S. J. COURT,—EXETER.

On Monday the case of H. T. Litchfield vs. John Goddard, was commenced. The action was brought to recover a demand of some $500 for brass work performed by the plaintiff at East Boston on the steamer Governor, in the summer of 1861. Verdict for the plaintiff. Hatch for plaintiff, Rollins for defendant. Considerable interest was manifested in this case from the fact that the defendant, a "down east lumberman," as he styled himself, managed his own case, with the assistance of W. H. Rollins, Esq., to perform the requisite legal work.

Reuben B. Smith vs. Jacob Stockbridge—Trespass quare clausum—for breaking and entering plf.'s store in Stratham, and for damages alleged to have been done thereto by deft.'s cattle—was on trial Wednesday.

On Tuesday, Hendrick D. Batchelder of Exeter, upon examination by the Bar, was admitted to practice as an Attorney in all the Courts of this State.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— We notice that the celebrated case of Parker vs. Winnipisseogee Lake Cotton and Woolen Co., which was recently argued before the Supreme Court of the United States, at Washington, by Judge Curtis in behalf of the plf., and Hon. W. H. Y. Hackett, of this city, for the Lake Co., and which had previously been decided by Judge Clifford in favor of the Company, in the Circuit Court, was, on Monday, decided in behalf of the defendants, Mr. Justice Wayne having delivered the opinion of the Court, affirming the decree of the Circuit Court, with costs. The controversy relates to certain rights alleged to belong to Parker, near the Lake at Meredith Bridge.

—— Charles H. Horsch, M. D., of Dover, was appointed on Wednesday, Surgeon of the 15th regiment, vice Dr. Hall, of Wolfborough, resigned.

—— Hon. Frederick Smyth, of Manchester, is the financial officer of sixteen distinct organizations. He has also large private moneyed operations to conduct.

—— A correspondent of the Independent Democrat states that the Second Regiment was recently canvassed and the vote was nearly unanimous for J. A. Gilmore for Governor.

—— Senator Hale is still confined to his room at Washington, by erysipelas in his face, but is regarded as out of danger.

☞ In some sharp remarks on New Hampshire election, the Boston Journal comments especially on Col. George's course, who got up the invitation to Gen. McClellan to visit Concord, but kept aloof from a similar invitation to Gen. Butler.—The Journal says:

Why this difference? Simply because Colonel George believes that Gen. Butler is in earnest in the prosecution of the war and believes that McClellan is not. Had General Butler returned home to denounce the administration and the emancipation proclamation, Colonel George would have been the first to welcome back and invite to the capital his old friend. But Gen. Butler, speaking the truth and uttering his own convictions upon the subject of war and slavery, must be ostracized and proscribed by his old political associates and personal friends.

☞ The magistrates of Axbridge, England, have revived the use of the stocks in that town. An incorrigible fellow sat in the stocks for six hours recently, under a peppering storm, for drunkenness and abusing the police. His wife waited upon him during all this time, and held an umbrella over her unfortunate spouse.

An admirer of a prima donna, at Berlin, sent her lately two magnificent robes with a billet doux, in which he informed her that he would call in the evening, to know which of the two she had selected. Shortly before the appointed hour, he received the following answer:—"I find the robes equally elegant, so that a selection is quite impossible. I shall, therefore, keep both, and you will have no occasion to call upon me."

☞ Rev. Thomas S. Bacon of Christ Church (Episcopal) New Orleans, himself a Louisianian, has issued an address to "the members of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Louisiana," urging them to return to their old relations with their "church in the United States."

The primitive church was in the habit of calling a martyr's death his birthday. It was a beautiful thought. Life here is in its embyro state, and prophetic of development yonder. Charles Wesley has the idea in one of his hymns. Of the angels he says:

"Mortals cry, 'a man is dead!'
Angels sing, 'a child is born.'"

Look not mournfully into the past—it cannot return; wisely improve the present—it is thine; go forth to meet the shadowy future without fear, and with a manly heart.—Longfellow.

The wisest man may be wiser to-day than he was yesterday, and to-morrow than he is to-day. Total freedom from change would imply total freedom from error; but this is the prerogative of Omniscience alone.

For a lady to sweep her carpet with embroidered underskeeves would be considered indecently dirty; but to drag the pavement with her skirts seems to be thought very genteel.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 2 feet long! or large enough to bake six large pieces on a bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

THE MODEL COOK is adapted equally well for wood and coal, summer and winter. It will be found to be THE STOVE for farmers, mechanics or professional men; for boarding houses or private families—in fact for every place where a good stove is needed.

We believe the MODEL COOK to be the very best Stove in the Market, and invite every one to examine it whether they wish to purchase or not. It has had a very extensive sale since its introduction. Reference might be made to more than a hundred families in this city or vicinity who are using the Stove, and give it the highest commendation.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Reiff, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Francis C. Jarvis, Thos. L. Tullock, Jacob Wendell, Capt. Jacob Thompson, Gen. G. Gardner, U. S. Marshal Kimball, Jos. D. Akerman, James F. Shores, Wm. C. Newton, Horton D. Walker, Benj. Cheever, John Trundy, Richard L. VICTOR COAL STOVE.

We offer this beautiful coal burner to the public, with full confidence in its merits.

It was brought into market two years since, and has come rapidly into use.

The Victor is one of the handsomest parlor stoves in the market, and is perfect in its operation. The arrangement for dumping the ashes is very fine—no dust need escape into the room—a continuous fire may be kept throughout the winter—the coal all burned, and no clinkers made. The quantity of fuel used is very small indeed. There is in this stove an excellent arrangement for ventilating the room in which it is placed; a feature not possessed by any other parlor stove.

Some of the sizes are provided with an oven and boiling place, making them very desirable for a dining room.

We sold a large number of Victor Stoves in our city last season, and they receive the highest commendation from those who are using them.

We have also the celebrated McGregor Stove, so well known in the market as to need no commendation.

A great variety of cheaper Stoves for coal and wood—Coal hods—Patent Coal-sifters.

COAL LININGS,

and Repairing pieces for most of the stoves in use. Job Work attended to with dispatch.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINE

They are the Purest!

The Best!

The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

Have you used the Strela Matches?

J. F. SHORES, JR., No. 1 Congress Block, has just received from the manufactory a large lot of

STRELA MATCHES.

These matches are without sulphur and without smell in burning, which adapts them for the Sick Room, the Parlor, or for general use, being nearly as cheap as any other kind of Matches. They are put up in boxes of 150 matches, and are sold at the low price of THREE cents per box, or 12 boxes containing 1800 matches for 25 cents—being 12 for a cent!

Dealers supplied at the manufacturer's price.

The peculiar taint or infection which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Hire who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and scaly cutaneous affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. This it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,
The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

This has been so long used and so universally known, that we need do no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, pain and distress in the region of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are rendered become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual to business or society. Some of the sad and terrible effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c., the mental effects of this mode are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your case. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotte, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

CAUTION

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, The Female Specialist, No. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of Diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public that he has of late made a trial to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER, and he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, on the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the gums of the mouth and cheeks. There are no insertices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $30.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and steel iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as numbers of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable Furnace.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the great amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former models, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned than they ascend, or could air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 50 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke pipe or flue at the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the cone, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers or sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used.

We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

This is a new and invaluable preparation for preserving and beautifying the hair.

The wonderful virtues of Arnica in allaying and removing inflammation are universally known.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is a combination of these virtues, with other tried and excellent ingredients.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS stimulates and invigorates the hair, prevents it from falling out—restores it when lost—promotes its growth and strength—renders it proof against all diseases.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS permanently cures all irritations and eruptions of the scalp, and makes it healthy and fertile. For the removal of dandruff it has no equal. Its operations in this particular are magical and permanent.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is unequalled as a hair-dressing compound. It not only cleanses the scalp and invigorates the hair, but it renders the latter charmingly soft and lustrous. Its odor is particularly delicate and fragrant—the proprietor having taken especial pains to secure this result.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is the very best preparation for the hair ever discovered.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE,
A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by DR. WM. GRACE surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Flesh Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Felons.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Frozen Limbs.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scurvy.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Callouses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Salt Rheum.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sores
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find this Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family,—and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much troublesuffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every law fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials but one given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1863.

STATE CANVASS.—The Concord Independent Democrat gives the footing of the Canvass of New Hampshire, just completed by the club organizations of the republican party. Only a very few towns and wards are not returned, and in these cases the vote of last year is used. The canvass gives Gilmore 35,086, Eastman 32,172, rep. maj. 2,864. Last year Gov. Berry had 32,150, and Stark 28,566. There were, also 1709 votes for Mr. Wheeler.

Per contra, it should be stated, that some democratic estimates claim a majority of 4000. We make no predictions, but will faithfully record the result, if we live and do well, on the 11th and 12th of March.

The issue is national, the war, the administration, Slavery. The Newburyport Herald of Thursday says:—

The Democrats figure up a majority of four thousand or more on their side; and if so it should prove, they may carry all the representative districts. The Republican canvass is not yet known; but will be accepted with much confidence when it is declared, as for years it has been found almost as reliable as the counting of the votes. We have supposed, without any other data to judge by but past elections, that they would carry the State, while it was very probable that the Democrats would gain two representatives to Congress. If we should take Charleston before the election, it would give them courage to work, while the conscription act which is as much a necessity as the capture of Charleston, will be against them. As we said before, however, the people of New Hampshire are less affected by outward events than many other States. They have stability and strength of character, with as much general information as can be found in any section of the country.

NAVAL.—Ship Rockingham, recently purchased by the Government, and which has been on the sectional stocks at the Philadelphia Navy Yard for some time past, will be taken off in a few days. Her bottom has been entirely coppered, and she will at once go into service as a supply vessel.

The New York papers state that in a few days proposals will be issued for the construction of three enormous ocean iron-clad men-of-war, similar to the Dictator and Puritan, now in course of construction.—They will be over 400 feet long, and much more formidable than either the Warrior or Gloire. The iron armor on the turrets will be no less than two feet thick, and the outside bow, which will be of iron, will be as sharp as the blade of a knife. The battery will surpass anything hitherto conceived. If present indications can be relied on ordnance people will be able to cast a 20 inch gun, which can discharge a half ton weight of iron at a single shot. Two or more of these will be on board. As the crushing force of a 450-pound ball is 900 tons, the effect of the future ammunition may be imagined. It is thought that the new craft will be on the stocks before July. Such vessels cannot, however, be built in less than a year.

Rear Admiral Farragut in a letter to the Secretary of the Navy lays a great stress upon the want of naval officers. During the war of 1812 he frequently heard some of the most intelligent British officers say that our successes in the encounters between the smaller vessels was owing to the great number of officers we had in our vessels.—They had but three or four, and when these were killed or wounded the men had no one to lead them. This was the case recently in the affair of the Harriet Lane.—It is stated that she was surrendered by a Master's Mate, and perhaps the same was the case in regard to the Hatteras.

It is reported that the Weehawken would repair a broken shaft at Hilton Head, which would require some three weeks.

☞ The story is that Gen. Burnside has made some remarkable disclosures before the Committee on the Conduct of the War. The difficulties that he has had thrown in his way since his taking command, from the day the Pontoons were not forthcoming, as per agreement with Gens. Halleck and Meigs, to the day he resigned, were of all kinds. Imbecility, cowardice, apathy and treason met him at every turn. His orders were not always obeyed just when they should be; officers from whom more should have been expected shirked their duty; treason in our own camps exposed his plans to the enemy as rapidly as they were formed, and jealous officers succeeded in more than once preventing a forward movement.

☞ In Salem on Monday evening, two children were left asleep at home, their parents going out and locking the door. About 10 o'clock the house was discovered to be on fire,—a kettle of fat, left on the fire, having become ignited. The children were found insensible by the neighbors, who rescued them.

☞ In Switzerland, at Locano, on the Lago Maggiore, the dome of a church gave way under the weight of the snow, fell on the congregation kneeling in prayer, and 53 persons were killed.

THE REBELLION.

An army letter says a deserter states that Jackson is in command opposite Fredericksburg, Lee having gone towards Charleston.

Gen. Foster's forces are encamped at Bay Point, and it was rumored that he had come North for reinforcements. No attack had been made on Charleston so late as midnight of Monday when the Arago passed through the blockading fleet off there.

The N. Y. Times' Washington dispatch states that the arrangements for the long talked of Texan expedition will be completed at headquarters there, it is thought, during the present week. Gov. Andrew is expected there in a few days, to urge upon the Administration the appointment of Gen. Butler to the chief command.

The Port Royal correspondent of the N. Y. World, under date of Feb. 9, says:—"Gen. Foster's expedition is at a stand still, and the troops are disembarking from the transports and taking up their quarters at St. Helena Island. Many days must elapse before anything can be achieved by it.—Reports are rife as to disagreements between Gens. Hunter and Foster. Gen. Foster leaves to-morrow by the Arago, and you must not expect, therefore, to hear anything from the expedition for at least three weeks. Depend upon it, however the fleet will not be idle in the meantime."

A dispatch from Jackson, Tenn., states that Gen. Sullivan has cleared his district of rebel forces for the present. Since the 1st of January, Gen. Sullivan has captured 600 prisoners and 1000 horses.

There was unusual activity among the rebels at Fredericksburg, on Monday, but it was unknown whether they were reinforcing or evacuating the place,—probably the latter. Movements of our troops have also been made.

Gen. Fremont has made application for active service.

CONGRESS.

THURSDAY.—The Senate passed the currency bill, 23 against 21. The bill to aid emancipation in Missouri was considered, and the substitute reported by the Judiciary Committee was passed, 23 to 18.—In the evening the bill to prevent frauds on the revenue was passed. A bill for the admission of Nevada, Nebraska and Colorado, as States, and a bill to provide a temporary Government for the Territory of Montana were referred to the Committee on Territories. The bill to increase the number of Major and Brigadier Generals—limiting the increase to 20 Major Generals and 50 Brigadiers,—was adopted, 24 against 13. A message was received from the President, transmitting a report of the Secretary of State, with the correspondence and papers concerning mediation or arbitration on the part of the French Government. Ordered to be printed.

The House passed a bill providing for a temporary government for the territories of Montana and Washington; also the Washington fortification bill.

THE TRUTH.—"Of all dangers, says an exchange, that just now press upon the Union cause, none is so heavily laden with peril as the prevalent spirit of insubordination, not in the army alone, but generally among the civic community, using the word in its widest sense of aversion to restraint and captiousness at the acts of those in positions of authority and responsibility. It is notorious that this spirit of insubordination prevails widely in the army, though probably to a greater extent among its officers than among the private soldiers.

"The spirit of insubordination is too rife in the press and in the community. One of our greatest perils at this hour lies in our lack of respect for our rulers. It is passing strange that this should be the case, for thereby we only manifest a lack of respect for ourselves and our institutions. We make our rulers, and we change them if they fail to satisfy us. We claim to respect and value the offices they hold, and to confer honor upon them by appointing them thereto. And yet we assail them with bitterest invective or ridicule, and denounce them mercilessly almost from the moment they begin to exercise the functions with which we have clothed them. Their office, though created and conferred by ourselves with much self-complacent remarks upon its dignity and greatness, does not shelter them from sometimes the most ribald abuse and from the most unwarrantable assaults upon their motives and their actions. Their spirit is rife just now in what is commonly known as the Opposition press. It is a weapon that is being used with effect, but it behooves those who use it to be careful lest in assailing the individual they do not also awaken contempt for his office and a restless discontent with government generally."

☞ The Panama steamer, which sailed from San Francisco on Wednesday, took $1,190,000 in treasure for New York and $907,000 for England.

☞ A letter from Liverpool says the steamer Georgiana had sailed thence for Nassau. It was believed she is intended to be made a pirate, as she had guns, ports, &c.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated — By UNCLE TOBY.

Personal Recollections of President Madison, by Paul Jennings, his body servant, now living.

"Mr. Madison, I think, was one of the best men that ever lived. I never saw him in a passion, and never knew him to strike a slave, although he had over one hundred; neither would he allow an overseer to do it. Whenever any slaves were reported to him as stealing or "cutting up" badly, he would send for them and admonish them privately, and never mortify them by doing it before the others. They generally served him very faithfully. He was temperate in his habits. I don't think he drank a quart of brandy in his whole life. He ate light breakfasts and no suppers, but rather a hearty dinner, with which he took invariably but one glass of wine. When we had hard drinkers at his table, who would put away his choice Madeira pretty freely, in response to their numerous toasts, he would just touch the glass to his lips, or dilute it with water, as they pushed about the decanters. For the last fifteen years of his life he drank no wine at all.

"After he retired from the presidency, he amused himself chiefly on his farm. At the election for members of the Virginia Legislature, in 1829 or '30 just after General Jackson's accession; he voted for James Barbour, who had been a strong Adams man. He also presided, I think, over the Convention for amending the Constitution, in 1832.

"After the news of peace, and of General Jackson's victory at New Orleans, which reached here about the same time, there were great illuminations. We moved into the 'Seven Buildings,' corner of 19th street and Pennsylvania Avenue, and while there, General Jackson came on with his wife, to whom numerous dinner parties and levees were given. Mr. Madison also held levees, every Wednesday evening, at which wine, punch, coffee, ice cream, &c., were liberally served, unlike the present custom.

"While Mr. Jefferson was President, he and Mr. Madison (then his Secretary of State) were extremely intimate; in act, two brothers could not have been more so. Mr. J. always stopped over night at Mr. Madison's, in going and returning from Washington.

"I have heard Mr. Madison say, that when he went to school, he cut his own wood for exercise. He often did it also when at his farm in Virginia. He was very neat, but never extravagant, in his clothes. He always dressed wholly in black—coat, breeches, and silk stockings, with buckles in his shoes and breeches. He never had more than one suit at a time. He had some poor relatives that he had to help, and wished to set them an example of economy in the matter of dress. He was very fond of horses, and an excellent judge of them, and no jockey cheated him. He never had less than seven horses in his Washington stables while President.

"He often told the story, that one day riding home from court with old Tom Barbour (father of Governor Barbour,) they met a colored man, who took off his hat. Mr. M. raised his, to the surprise of Old Tom; to whom Mr. M. replied, 'I never allow a negro to excel me in politeness.' Though a similar story is told of General Washington, I have often heard this, as above, from Mr. Madison's own lips.

"After Mr. Madison retired from the Presidency, in 1817, he invariably made a visit twice a year to Mr. Jefferson—some times stopping two or three weeks—till Mr. Jefferson's death, in 1826.

"I was always with Mr. Madison till he died, and shaved him every other day for sixteen years. For six months before his death, he was unable to walk, and spent most of his time reclined on a couch; but his mind was bright, and with his numerous visitors he talked with as much animation and strength of voice as I ever heard him in his best days. I was present when he died. That morning Sukey brought him his breakfast, as usual. He could not swallow. His niece, Mrs. Willis, said, 'What is the matter, Uncle Jeames?' 'Nothing more than a change of mind, my dear.' His head instantly dropped, and he ceased breathing as quietly as the snuff of a candle goes out. He was about eighty-four years old, and was followed to the grave by an immense procession of white and colored people. The pall-bearers were Governor Barbour, Philip P. Barbour, Charles P. Howard, and Reuben Conway; the two last were neighboring farmers."

☞ Admiral Farragut does well in denouncing and condemning the cowardice which surrendered the Harriet Lane,—if it was indeed cowardice:—but the suspicion of treachery, far worse than cowardice, comes to every candid mind, in connection with some recent events in the Gulf. Indeed there is no true patriot who has not been pained with the thought, that some officers, not only naval, but also military, while holding honorable places and receiving high pay from the U. S. Government, have never been in earnest to subdue the rebels, but have been secretly playing into their hands, and are in their interest now. Their actions speak louder than their words. Some few of them are disgraced and dismissed, but others remain, and seem too strongly entrenched to be reached at present; but their time will come.

ARKANSAS POST.—We are indebted to A. D. Bache, superintendent of the U. S. Coast Survey, for a sketch of Arkansas Post, captured on the 11th of January, by the U. S. Mississippi Squadron, under the command of Acting Rear Admiral David D. Porter.

☞ Kentucky manufactured tobacco sold in Louisville a few days since at 63 cents per pound—highest price ever paid.

☞ Satin is said to be in vogue in Paris for ladies' attire. Pink, blue and violet are much affected by the Empress.

LILA.

[SELECTED BY NEWINGTON.]

There is no flock however watched and tended,
But one dead lamb is there!
There is no fireside howsoever defended
But has one vacant chair!

The air is full of farewells to the dying,
And mournings for the dead;
The heart of Rachel for her children crying
Will not be comforted!

Let us be patient! These severe afflictions
Not from the ground arise,
But oftentimes celestial benedictions
Assume this dark disguise.

We see but dimly through the mists and vapours,
Amid these earthly damps;
What seem to us but sad funereal tapers
May be heaven's distant lamps.

There is no death! what seems so is transition,
This life of mortal breath,
To but a suburb of the life elysian,
Whose portal we call death.

She is not dead—the child of our affection,
But gone into that school
Where she no longer needs our poor protection,
And Christ himself doth rule.

In that great cloister of stillness and seclusion,
By guardian angels led,
Safe from temptation, safe from sin's pollution,
She lives, whom we call dead.

Day after day we think what she is doing
In those bright realms of air;
Year after year her tender steps pursuing,
Behold her grown more fair.

Thus do we walk with her, and keep unbroken
The bond which nature gives,
Thinking that our remembrance, tho' unspoken,
May reach her where she lives.

And though at times impetuous with emotion,
And anguish long suppressed—
The swelling heart heaves moaning like the ocean
That cannot be at rest,

We will be patient, and assuage the feeling
We may not wholly stay;
By silence mantling, not concealing
The grief that may have sway.

PORTS. CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

JAMES F. SHORES, JR. No. 1 Congress Block, has just issued a new Catalogue of his Circulating Library. The books have all been re-numbered, and the arrangement of the catalogue will be found much more convenient than the old one. As the old catalogues are now useless, the patrons of the Library will be kind enough to lay them aside and send for a copy of the new one, which will be furnished gratis to all who wish for them.

Notice to Housekeepers.

Rubber Band Carpet Sweeper.

TRY IT! TRY IT!!

It saves Money; it saves Carpets; it saves Furniture; it saves Labor; it is cheaper than Brooms at five cents apiece.

It gathers up all dust, dirt, and loose lint on the carpets, and raises no dust to settle on the furniture, drapery or ornaments, or to smother, stifle and irritate the lungs.

It does not wear the carpets half so much as brooms or any other sweeper.

It is the only practicable sweeper made, and the only article fit to sweep a carpet.

With our late improvements it gives universal satisfaction to all who use it according to directions. For sale at No. 12 Market Street by Local.

☞ A little while before twelve o'clock on Friday night fire was discovered in the large old stable on the corner of Fleet and Hanover streets; the alarm was promptly given, but at one o'clock nothing remained but the huge timbers, which lay blazing and smoking on the ground. When discovered the fire had already gained considerable head-way and in a short time the entire building was enveloped in flames. The building being of wood and one of the largest in the city, the sight of the fire had something of grandeur in it as the millions of sparks and the dense smoke rolled upwards toward the stars.

The building was owned by Leonard Cotton, Esq., and, we understand, was not insured. Its precise value in dollars it might be difficult to estimate,—perhaps the large lot of land will be worth as much as the land and building were together. In the building was stored a large quantity of various articles,—old carriages, casks, &c.,—also belonging to Mr. Cotton, nearly all of which were destroyed. Messrs. Ferguson & Shannon also had carriages, to the value of $300 or $400, stored there, which were destroyed. Their loss is covered by insurance. The Hook & Ladder apparatus belonging to the city, which has recently been kept in the building, was removed uninjured.

From the stable the flames communicated to the dwelling-house next north, owned and occupied by Mr. George W. Jenness. The furniture was removed, although some of it was injured in the removal. The house was very seriously damaged by fire and water. The barn in the rear of the house was entirely destroyed. We were informed that Mr. Jenness had $1500 insurance on the house and additional insurance on the furniture and the barn.

Here the ravages of the fire were stayed, although all the houses in the vicinity were scorched by the intense heat. The absence of wind, and the fortunate presence of snow on the houses, materially aided the firemen in their successful efforts to prevent a more extensive conflagration, which at one time seemed imminent. The old stable was a sort of land-mark in the city as the rendezvous of the coaches in "the good old stage-coach times." Its destruction now, however, may not tend to depreciate the value of property in that vicinity. It narrowly escaped destruction by fire on the night of Jan. 12, 1860, being then, it was thought by many, set on fire. Mr. Jenness' house also was nearly as much injured by fire as now, on the evening of Jan. 5, 1861.

☞ In Board of Aldermen on Thursday evening it was voted that the bells of the city be rung for half an hour at sun-rise, noon and sunset on Monday, February 23, and that the flags be displayed during the day,—in commemoration of the birth day of Washington.

☞ Ship Ella E. Badger, (owned in this city,) Capt. Healey, from Rangoon for Cork, for orders, was at Cape Town, Cape Good Hope, Dec. 5th, having put in leaky. She would lighten 150 to 200 tons, and, if possible, a steam pump would be put on board and she would proceed. The leak was below the water line.

☞ Dr. Mark F. Wentworth, Naval Storekeeper at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, was on Wednesday promoted, by the Governor and Council of Maine, to the Colonelcy of the Maine 27th regiment.

☞ Years ago St. Valentine's Day, the 14th of February, was with many, especially the young, one of the most noted Saints' Days in the Calendar. Poets sang its praises, and the fables claimed that on that day the birds chose their mates,—in warmer climes than ours. Timid lovers wrote their first billet doux and begged to be considered the fair recipient's "own dearest Valentine." But of late years, caricatures have in great part taken the place of the love notes of old, and more and more has the Saint been disregarded, till now it is almost time to blot his name from the Calendar. It is well. The abuse has caused the day to merit its fate.

—— The American states that one evening last week, a stranger in Manchester quietly walked into the Lodge-room of the masons, having been asked to join a new Democratic organization and told that he would be initiated into all its secret mysteries by calling at that building. On being informed of his awful situation he departed in haste.

—— It has been thought worthy of newspaper mention that Mrs. Mary Walker, of Tuftonborough, has a door latch on a door in her dwelling house which is said to be nearly two hundred years old. The handle is a ring which may be used either in raising the latch, or as a knocker. It was first used in Eliot, Me.

—— Two persons, examining a revolver in Mr. Charles Cram's blacksmith's shop at Antrim, on Saturday, carelessly discharged it and wounded Mr. Cram in the thigh, though not seriously.

☞ The tannery and hides captured by our troops at Murfreesboro' are valued at a million and a half of dollars.

☞ The first battalion of the 2d Massachusetts Cavalry, which includes the California 100, left for the seat of waron Thursday.

☞ Cotton goods are coming from China. The New York Times thinks if prices of domestic keep up, all New York will wear nankeen next summer.

In Cuba, (at San Juan de los Remedios,) a poor vagabond, for some crime, was taken from prison to be hung. The old scaffold was found to be so rotten as to make the official hangers liable to a fall. In this perplexity they reported to the captain-general, who in his doubt took the readiest way out of the difficulty,—gave his orders to let the chap go.—Exchange.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking, giving an oven nearly 3 feet long; or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every piece of which will bake evenly at the same time! A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

THE MODEL COOK is adapted equally well for wood and coal, summer and winter. It will be found to be THE STOVE for farmers, mechanics or professional men: for boarding houses or private families—in fact for every place where a good stove is needed.

We believe the MODEL COOK to be the very best stove in the Market, and invite every one to examine it whether they wish to purchase or not. It has had a very extensive sale since its introduction. Reference might be made to more than a hundred families in this city or vicinity who are using the stove, and give it the highest commendation.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Raitt, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Francis C. Harris, Thos. Pullock, Jacob Wendell, Capt. Jacob Thompson, Gen. J. G. Hartley, G. Melvin Hanness, Jos. D. Akerman, James F. Shores, Wm. C. Newton, Horton D. Walker, Benj. Cheever, John Trundy, Richard L. Randall, Geo. Rice, Benj. F. Caney, Benj M. Parker, Charles A. Wiggin, George W. Plumer, Nath'l Dennett, Henry F. Gerrish, John Harratt, Thos Murphy, Capt. Wm. Lambert, Joseph Sides, John Senter, Wm. Bell, Cyrus Plumer, Freeman Hand, James M. Locke, Daniel L. Randall, Isaiah Wilson, John E. Roberts—of Portsmouth; Samuel C. Dixon, Daniel I. Pryor, Cushman Pryor, of Newcastle Island; Geo. N. Dixon, Samuel F. Paul, Elias Remick, Timothy Dame, Eliot; Wm. S. Locke, Benj. Fernald, Mrs. Wm. Locke, Kittery; E. F. Gerrish, Kittery Point; Hon. Clement March, Albert Blaisdell, Stephen M. Weeks, Geo. W. Davis, Greenland; John Emery, Stratham; Mrs. Benjamin F. Jenness, David Jenness, Moses Philbrick, Rye.

VICTOR COAL STOVE.

We offer this beautiful coal burner to the public, with full confidence in its merits.

It was brought into market two years since, and has come rapidly into use.

The Victor is one of the handsomest parlor stoves in the market, and is perfect in its operation. The arrangement for dumping the ashes is very fine—no dust need escape into the room—a continuous fire may be kept throughout the winter—the coal all burned, and no clinkers made.

The quantity of fuel used is very small indeed; there is in this stove an excellent arrangement for ventilating the room in which it is placed; a feature not possessed by any other parlor stove.

Some of the sizes are provided with an oven and boiling place, making them very desirable for a dining room.

We sold a large number of Victor Stoves in our city last season, and they receive the highest commendation from those who are using them.

We have also the celebrated McGregor Stove, so well known in the market as to need no commendation.

A great variety of cheaper Stoves for coal and wood—Coal hods—Patent Coal-sifters.

COAL LININGS,

and Repairing pieces for most of the stoves in use.

Job Work attended to with dispatch.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINE

are the Purest!

The Best!

The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe." "One more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and the Port is excellent because it is pure.

Have you used the Strela Matches?

J. F. SHORES, JR., No. 1 Congress Block, has just received from the manufactory a large lot of

STRELA MATCHES.

These matches are without sulphur and without smell in burning, which adapts them for the Sick Room, the Parlor, or for general use, being nearly as cheap as any other kind of Matches. They are put up in boxes of 150 matches, and are sold at the low price of THREE cents per box, or 12 boxes containing 1800 matches for 25 cents—being 12 for a cent!

Dealers supplied at the manufacturer's price.

THE peculiar taint or infection which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation; "indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. This it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,
The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

This has been so long used and so universally known, that we need do no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, pain and distress in the region of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Tumors, Painful Swellings, and the long train of terrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dullness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, symptoms of Consumption, &c. The mental effects on the mind are made to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotins, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail, inclosing $1 for 21 and a red stamp.

April 7—1y 32aw.

CAUTION

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or Falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief secured in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charge Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated Dr. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon, can safely place themselves under his care.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL,

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, that he had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER, that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER for the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no insertices or open joints to collect food, &c., consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Besides all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in block) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country.

S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of the cooking room is avoided, and the heat kept to the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin-lined copper boiler, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, so no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the great amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former machines, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The size of pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass through the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the dome can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

This is a new and invaluable preparation for preserving and beautifying the hair.

The wonderful virtues of Arnica in allaying all remaining inflammation are universally known.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is a combination of these virtues, with other tried and excellent ingredients.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS stimulates and invigorates the hair, prevents it from falling out—restores it when lost—promotes its growth and strength—renders it proof against all diseases.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS permanently cures all irritations and eruptions of the scalp, and makes it healthy and fertile. For the removal of dandruff it has no equal. Its operations in this particular are magical and permanent

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is unequalled as a hair-dressing compound. It not only cleanses the scalp and invigorates the hair, but it renders the latter charmingly soft and lustrous. Its odor is pecularly delicate and fragrant—the proprietor having taken especial pains to secure this result.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is the very best preparation for the hair ever discovered.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS, notwithstanding its surpassing merits—is retailed at only Twenty-five cents a bottle, by all Druggists.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth, a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the porous of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a spoon, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE,
A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by DR. WM. GRACE surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Flesh Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Felons.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Frozen Limbs.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scurvy.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Callouses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Salt Rheum.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sores
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find this Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our house; our brethren all mankind
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every I am fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office. Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Research made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can confide to a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

EDITORIAL JOTTINGS.

BOSTON, Feb. 14.

Dear Chronicle:—Saint Valentine's Day it is—but not, in these times, of much interest to us, nor to any of the "old folks"—and the young folk seem to have lost about all their regard for its observance too. Well, let it go; there are plenty of follies left—though there was a time when we didn't think valentines were all folly, nor do we now. But the sentimental institution is not exactly suited for matter-of-fact yankees.

I have been enjoying a week of Opera, and hope to have a week or two more. It is so pleasant to get for once out of the sight and sound of war; and almost, it would seem, when seated in the splendid Academy of Music, (better, Boston Theatre) beyond its dread influences. But even here, tho' surrounded by all that is lovely and beautiful, and you do not hear "the drum's discordant sound" nor the others of war's alarums and notes of preparation, nor any buncombe "patriotic" stage allusions—yet the sprinkling of uniforms and shoulder-straps, (which generally have no business there, but should be elsewhere,) still will keep the war before your eyes. The opera was opened with "Martha," Monday evening. Miss Kellogg has faded since last year, and her voice lost somewhat of its freshness; but she is a charming singer and pains-taking little actress. I think she most have been "indisposed" on this occasion, and trust she will be herself again as Martha on Saturday afternoon. She goes to Europe soon, and will be another American prima donna, to help balance our foreign indebtedness in this line. Mlle. Morensi was very agreeable as "Nancy," and we think is a very useful and pleasing actress and contralto, tho' the critics won't allow her to be "artistic." The ponderous Susini as "Plunkett," and Brignoli as "Lionel," were well enough; but though both sing finely, they take no pains and make no exertions as actors,—especially the favorite tenor.

As he was indisposed, Wednesday evening, we had "Norma," instead of "Lucretia Borgia." Mme. Lorini (another Americas, Boston singer) personated Norma splendidly, and all went well. The audiences have been large, and among the most "brilliant" and richly dressed we ever saw. On Monday night there was a large party on Beacon street, and many of the guests were in grand toilet at the opera,—leaving the Theatre for the party at 10 o'clock. It is said that the host himself brought forty ladies into the parquet—which you know is the choice location at "the Boston."

Thursday was the new "Dinorah," or the Pardon of Ploermel—pardon signifying a festival or merry-making. Mlle. Cordier, the new French prima donna, is a sprightly little actress, and a brilliant cantatrice; and made a good impression in her debut.—The whole passed off finely, for a first performance; and Dinorah will be ranked with standard favorites. The plot can be found in the large dailies.

Friday night we had the old popular "Ernani," with Lorini again; and Maccaferri, the new tenor, who is a robust singer, and a most energetic actor—exactly the reverse of Brignoli. What is there so incompatible between good, pure tenore singing, and spirited acting?

Monday, "Dinorah" again, and Tuesday, "Linda di Chamounix."

Mr. Grau is the most popular and successful of opera managers, and has an excellent troope of artistes. Sig. Muzio is a most skilful conductor, and has a powerful and very effective orchestra. I notice many Portsmouth faces among the audiences.

I will only advise all opera goers to be sure and hear Mr. Grau's double company, as it may be long before such an opportunity is again presented. There is talk of establishing English opera in this country; and it is said Louisa Pyne is coming out here again. We hope it is true.

Camilla Urso is delighting all Boston, with her violin playing. Though for years of her married life she has not played at all, she is yet allowed to be one of the masters of that master of instruments.

I meant to have written a word about something else besides music; but when there is a choice of but that and war, I prefer to fill myself and my letter with the concord of sweet sounds. Yours, Y.

☞ The report of the Committee on Territories, made by Senator Wade in answer to a resolution, shows that the Utah Legislature suppressed the message of the Governor of that Territory, that no freedom of suffrage is allowed or opposition tolerated against the church dignitaries; that polygamy is practiced to the extent of incest; that there is no law giving redress to the abuses of the marriage relation, and that the Mormons are openly inimical to the Government of the United States, though in popular phrase, steadfast adherents to the Constitution.

Communication.

GEN. PHELPS.—The Boston Courier of Thursday has this item of editorial matter:

"Mr. Lincoln has sometimes been called "a cunning man;" and as nearly as we can judge, he is exercising his crafty qualities in the reorganization of the army. Apparently, not knowing how otherwise to get rid of the abolitionists, he has concluded to save the really able officers of the army for a better occasion and to put abolitionists in their places. Thus, we see he has just promoted Gen. Phelps to a Major Generalship, an officer who has not been heard of since he issued a ridiculous manifesto on the coast of Louisiana; which nobody would take ashore, and for which he was recalled. Depend upon it, the Commander-in-Chief has a deep plot in hand here, and means to put the abolitionists in the forefront of the battle, and to see what comes of it."

These statements require correction.—Gen. Phelps was not recalled at all, but resigned. He has been heard of since his proclamation, viz. at Baton Rouge, where he requested permission to arm the negroes who flocked to his camp, and by whose aid he proposed to hold that post. Gen. Butler, his superior officer, opposed the plan and refused the arms. In consequence of this disagreement, Phelps resigned his commission; and Gen. Butler in giving his account of it said, "there is no braver soldier or truer man than Gen. Phelps."

Butler himself afterward did in part what Phelps only proposed to do:—and now he advocates doing it on a larger scale.

We can see no objection whatever to placing abolitionists in front of the battle,—say Phelps, Butler, Fremont and Higginson, with full power to enlist men of any nation, religion or color, to subdue the rebels, and crush the rebellion.

Some such men have been in front, and have fallen; Winthrop and Fuller, Ellsworth and Lyon, Baker, and thousands of lower officers and privates, have offered up their lives as a sacrifice, on what they deemed the altar of liberty and right. The others named are desirous to go forward, knowing the risk, but abiding the issue.

Gen. Phelps is a Vermonter, and a good officer. U. T.

REBELLION RECORD.—When the war to suppress the rebellion was commenced, many announcements were made, by different publishers, of what were to be complete histories of the entire rebellion, its causes and effects,—to be issued immediately upon the Government re-asserting its rightful authority in the seceded states. At that time few foresaw a contest of such magnitude as has ensued, and by many it was deemed not extravagant to anticipate that the 75,000 men first called for would, in their 3 months' service, restore permanent peace and a lasting union. Time has shown how fallacious were all such hopes; and the authors and the publishers who were to prepare and to publish these complete histories long since found it an impossibility to fulfil the promises of their prospectus. Yet so great have been the preparations, and so important the contests, in themselves considered, that a vast amount of material for future historians of this period has accumulated. It seems to us, therefore, peculiarly fortunate that Mr. G. P. Putnam, of New York, early conceived the idea of publishing in a serial all the official documents (on both sides), together with a diary of events, and a collection of poetry, anecdotes, &c., relating to the rebellion. His idea has been most happily carried out by Frank Moore, the editor, and there have been issued already four volumes, which have an interest to everyone who wishes to know the facts. It is reliable, complete, and also invaluable, for it supplies a public want. In public and school libraries it should certainly find a place.

We notice that Mr. Putnam also issues a companion volume, entitled Heroes and Martyrs, with portraits and brief sketches of the prominent men who are or have been engaged in the war. We doubt not this also is ably edited.

☞ A gentleman of Philadelphia, with a view to preparing biographical sketches of our most prominent military leaders for future publication, recently forwarded circulars to the Major Generals and Brigadiers of our army. One of these was received by Gen. Butler, requesting him to fill up the annexed blanks with his birth-place and age, together with the most remarkable events in his military career; and it is stated that in a few days it was returned with his birthplace and age properly set forth, and with the blank devoted to military exploits containing the following:—"I have done everything I was told to do."

☞ According to rumor it is thought that the claims of New London and League Island will both be satisfied. A building yard will probably be established at the latter, and a fleet station at the former.—The supposition that one yard, either at Philadelphia or New London, would be sufficient to take the place of Norfolk and Pensacola, it is said, has been decided to be erroneous.

☞ Capt. William Nichols, of Newburyport,—a well known privateer captain of the war of 1812, died at his residence on Thursday. He was in his 82d year.

THE REBELLION.

A Cairo dispatch states that the levees on the Mississippi side of the river, 12 miles below Helena, at Yazoo Pass, have been cut by our forces. They have also been cut at Greenville and on the Louisiana side opposite Lake Providence.

Memphis papers of the 11th report the rebel advance in Mississippi to be at Okolona trying to repair the railroad destroyed by Gen. Grant. The inclemency of the weather delayed their operations. It is also reported that the enemy have moved a large part of the army of Virginia to Vicksburg, also taken all the garrison of Mobile, except 4000 for police duty. The railroad from Selma to Meridian is completed, thus enabling the rebels rapidly to concentrate their forces at Vicksburg. The enforcement of the conscription act is driving many from Alabama and Mississippi to the North.

Charleston correspondents state that after a full survey of the rebel fortifications by Gens. Hunter and Foster, it was deemed necessary to make the approaches with great care in order to prevent useless slaughter. It is probable, therefore, that Gen. Foster's army will be landed at St. Helena's Island, and the siege commenced in due form.

The Times' Washington dispatch says the rebel force which were sent to Stanton's Junction, have been sent back to the Rappahannock. There have some reasons for suspecting that Gen. Hooker is either at Suffolk, Va., or is soon going there.

Gen. Butler has stated that it is probable he will return to New Orleans, unless present plans are changed.

Gen. Rosecrans' army at Murfreesboro' is mud-bound.

A Memphis letter mentions the probability of reinforcing Farragut by a portion of Porter's fleet, which will run the Vicksburg and Port Hudson batteries.

Letters from Winchester, Va., say that troops are concentrating at that point, and at Harper's Ferry, but for what purpose is not stated.

By Telegraph, Sunday, to Messrs. Hutchings, Haley, and others.

Deserters give information of large bodies of rebel troops moving up towards the Orange and Alexandria railroad.

A steamer at New York from New Orleans, Feb. 4, reports that Gen. Banks' forces, after a month's drilling, were in a condition to take the field, and a forward movement would be made very soon. A steamer has succeeded in passing through the canal at Vicksburg; as it deepens and widens our fleet can pass down. There is nothing new from Texas.

Gen. Fremont has assurances that he will soon have a command. His friends in the Senate insist that he shall have one in a slave region and so informed the President.

CONGRESS.

FRIDAY.—In the Senate, a bill was reported to satisfy the claims for damage done by Union troops in Western Virginia. The bill to pay bounty and pensions to men actually employed in the Western Department was passed. The bill to prevent correspondence with the rebels was passed. The bill to provide ways and means to support the Government was taken up. An amendment was adopted, reducing the amount of notes issued to $150,000,000 instead of $300,000,000, including the amount issued by the resolution of Jan. 17. Also an amendment making the tax on the circulation of banks 1 per cent. for two years, and 2 per cent. after that time. Other amendments were rejected, and the bill was passed by a vote of 32 yeas against 4 nays, viz—Messrs. Carlisle, Powell, Richardson, Wall.

In the House the naval appropriation bill was taken up and passed. Among the amendments was one appropriating $1,218,000 for a floating or sectional dry dock, in New York harbor, of sufficient size and capacity for raising any vessels now built. A resolution was adopted, asking if some plan cannot be devised by which the $100 bounty can be paid promptly to families of deceased soldiers. The bill amendatory of the several confiscation acts, for the protection of loyal citizens and subjects of foreign powers, was passed. A bill was introduced to provide comfortable homes for disabled discharged soldiers.

☞ Even those papers in the border slave States that are inveterately against the emancipation policy denounce the proposition for armistice and negotiation. The Louisville Journal, St. Louis Republican and Nashville Union denounce the democratic peace party in unsparing terms.

☞ Rumor has it that both Gen. Fremont and Gen. Burnside have requested the President to place them at once in active service. Although they do not say so, it may be inferred that if their requests are not granted they will resign and retire to private life.

☞ Prof. Agassiz, the well known naturalist, took steps last Thursday, to become a naturalized citizen of the United States.

CONUNDRUM.—What is the difference between your great coat and a baby?

One you wear, and the other you was!—Punch.

☞ "Peace propositions" are now before the Legislatures of New Jersey, Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana and Illinois.

☞ Washington is said to swarm with grog shops, where deserters are harbored and helped out of the city.

☞ Eleven white men caught running the blockade on the Maryland shore, had twenty-five thousand dollars in gold on their persons.

☞ The California steamer Champion from Aspinwall, arrived at New York on Friday night with $360,000 in treasure.

☞ Over 1000 tons of iron ore were thrown out in a single blast at the Lake Superior mines, on the 16th ult.

PORTS. CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

JAMES F. SHORES, JR, No. 1 Congress Block, has just issued a new Catalogue of his Circulating Library. The books have all been re-numbered, and the arrangement of the catalogue will be found much more convenient than the old one. As the old catalogues are now useless, the patrons of the Library will be kind enough to lay them aside and send for a copy of the new one, which will be furnished gratis to all who wish for them.

Notice to Housekeepers.

Rubber Band Carpet Sweeper.

TRY IT! TRY IT!!

It saves Money; it saves Carpets; it saves Furniture; it saves Labor; it is cheaper than Brooms at five cents apiece.

It gathers up all dust, dirt, and loose lint on the carpets, and raises no dust to settle on the furniture, drapery, or ornaments, or to smother, stifle and irritate the lungs.

It does not wear the carpets half so much as brooms or any other sweeper.

It is the only practicable sweeper made, and the only article fit to sweep a carpet.

With our late improvements it gives universal satisfaction to all who use it according to directions. For sale at No. 12 Market Street by Local.

☞ At a meeting of the Governor's Horse Guards, held at the Phenix Hotel in Concord, on the 11th inst., Hon. ICHABOD GOODWIN, of this city, was chosen Colonel of the Corps.

☞ On Saturday last, the new Steam Fire Engine at the Portsmouth Navy Yard was formally tested. It must be considered that this is a second-class machine, intended only to compete with the common hand-engine,—built with this design, and intended to be manned by only seven men, this force being sufficient to run it properly. At this second trial, she was submitted to a pressure of 100 lbs. of steam, and under this pressure, threw a 7 8 inch stream through 175 feet of hose to a perpendicular height of 140 feet. Only five minutes are required to get her under a full head of steam. Competent judges pronounce it an excellent machine.

QUICK WORK.—On Friday morning, orders from St. Louis were received at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, for a two-hundred pound pivot gun-carriage, and in thirty-three hours it was on its way to the depot, to be sent to its destination.

☞ The U. S. Screw-sloop Sacramento, Capt. Boggs, sailed from the lower harbor on Friday night.

☞ A letter from an officer of Co. G, 44th Mass. regiment, communicates intelligence of the death of Mr. Geo. B. Young, a native of this city, who was a member of that regiment. He died at Newbern, N. C., Feb. 2, of congestive fever, having been in hospital since Jan. 14. The letter speaks of him in high terms as a soldier and a man. By his request, his body was enclosed in a metallic coffin, and has been forwarded to his friends in Dorchester, Mass.

☞ The Boston Commercial Bulletin, in speaking of the loss off San Francisco, of the ship Noonday, (built in this city,) states that she "had no superior of her class afloat as a well-built and liberally-found vessel." The Bulletin adds that there is something singular in her fate: her keel was laid at Noonday, she was launched and named at Noonday, and was wrecked at Noonday; and it suggests that the rock on which she struck be named after her, "Noonday Rock." Capt. Henry, in his numerous voyages to San Francisco, has passed both north and south of this rock without the remotest idea of its place, and when his ship struck on it he had every reason to believe that he was in the fair way to his destination.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

——In Upper Gilmanton, a few evenings since, some boys were engaged in snow balling, when one of them, 14 years of age, became so excited that he drew a revolver and fired two shots at one of his schoolmates. Fortunately neither of them took effect. He then ran away, and being pursued some two miles by the scholars, took refuge in a relative's house and fastened the door.

——Capt. B. G. Porter, a well known stage owner and driver, died in Nashua, 7th inst., of consumption. He was for many years proprietor of the Boston and Nashua Express, and was identified with many of the early steamboat and railroad enterprises of New England.

——Helen and Kate Welch were arrested in Manchester on Wednesday night, for stealing $200 in gold from Patrick and Ann Welch. They were taken before the Court next morning, and placed under $400 bonds each, and in default go to jail.

——B. M. Colby, Esq., of Sanbornton Bridge, died at Portland, on Monday last, whither he went for medical attendance.—Mr. Colby was a brother of Hon. Ethan Colby, of the present Executive Council of the State, and a gentleman of great worth.

——A Washington dispatch states that Gen. A. J. Hamilton, of Texas, will attend the Union Convention to be held at Manchester, on the 18th inst.

SAD AND MYSTERIOUS AFFAIR.—The dead body of Geo. Blodgett, son of Rev. Constantine Blodgett, D. D., of Pawtucket, R. I., was brought there by the mail train on Monday morning, and left at his father's residence, by a man who, it is understood, represented himself to be a brakeman on the New York and Erie Railroad, and who said that the young man came to his death by falling between the cars, while endeavoring to get on board when the train was in motion. As no intimation of such an accident had been received previous, or up to the arrival of the body, the story appears not a little singular. Young Blodgett graduated at Brown University, and after being ordained was settled over a church in New Hampshire, which he left under circumstances calculated to leave a stain upon his reputation, since which it is believed that he has not led a life consistent with the high vocation he had entered upon. It is believed by many that it is a case of suicide instead of a railroad accident, particularly as it is said that there were no marks on the body to indicate the latter.—Providence Post.

☞ The Washington Chronicle says the greatest apathy exists among "the free American citizens of African descent" in the District, on the subject of enlisting in the black regiments.

☞ A schooner of about 100 tons, (supposed, from what can be made out of her name, &c. on what is left of her stern, to be the British schooner "Rouser," of St. John, N. S.,) was totally wrecked on Whale's Back, at the mouth of Portsmouth harbor, about 5 o'clock on Sunday morning; and probably all on board were drowned. The lighthouse-keeper is said to have seen three men on a portion of the wreck, but could render no assistance, as the sea is stated to have run high. There is not a little mystery as to how the vessel came where she struck, and from the position, at the eastward of Whaleback light, it is presumed the master mistook that light for the Fort or harbor light; though how this could be is not so clear, unless it was snowing and very thick at the time, since these two lights are but about one mile apart, and as unlike in position and character as possible.

Deputy Collector Edmonds visited the wreck on Sunday afternoon, and from him we learn that there was no person found on board, nor the vessel's papers; but from the contents of two or more trunks, it appears there was one passenger or more on board; one man named Henry Stricker, evidently a German, a machinist or engineer, who had been employed in St. John, and was going to East Boston for work. His letters, and especially a package of photographs, found in his trunk and examined to identify him, show him to have belonged to a highly respectable family, and that he will be sadly missed from his home in the faderland.—The baggage saved is in charge of Mr. Edmonds. The vessel and cargo are a total loss, with the exception of a few articles in charge of the boarding-officer at Kittery.—The schooner was evidently bound for Boston, had cargo of shingles and pickled fish; and probably was trying to make a harbor from the storm—which it would seem, must have been much more violent than it appeared here in the city, only a couple of miles distant.

☞ A brig, at Aspinwall from New York, reports on the 27th ult, 20 miles south of San Domingo, saw a ship on fire, and saw a steamer leaving her. The vessel was burning next morning.

☞ The Herald's Washington dispatch states that Commander Preble, recently dismissed from the navy for permitting the entrance of the rebel steamer Oreto into Mobile, has been nominated for restoration to his rank in the service.

New American Cyclopedia.

This most valuable publication will be completed by the issue of the 16th Volume during the present month; forming a complete epitome of human knowledge. Those who have taken the volumes as they have been issued, and have most frequently consulted its pages, have been most completely satisfied with it. Says one: "We who have occasion to refer to it daily, can speak of its literary and mechanical execution with entire satisfaction. THE NEW AMERICAN CYCLOPEDIA is correct, full in its information and conveniently arranged for reference; the articles are concise and complete." On the issue of the 16th Volume the price will be raised 50 cents per volume to all who have not been subscribers to the work.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the large oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 3 feet long; or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

THE MODEL COOK is adapted equally well for wood and coal, summer and winter. It will be found to be THE STOVE for farmers, mechanics or professional men; for boarding houses or private families—in fact for every place where a good stove is needed.

We believe the MODEL COOK to be the very best stove in the Market, and invite every one to examine it whether they wish to purchase or not. It has had a very extensive sale since its introduction. Reference might be made to more than a hundred families in this city or vicinity who are using the Stove, and give it the highest commendation.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Raitt, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Lane, Francis C. Jarvis, Thos. L. Tullock, Jacob Wendell, Capt. Jacob Thompson, Gen. J. G. Hadley, G. Melvin Huntress, Jos. D. Akerman, James F. Shores, Wm. C. Newton, Horton D. Walker, Benj. Cheever, John Tracy, Richard L. Randall, Geo. Rice, Benj. F. Canney, Benj. M. Parker, Charles A. Wiggin, George W. Plumer, Nath'l Dennett, Henry F. Gerrish, John Harratt, Thos Murphy, Capt. Wm. Lambert, Joseph Stiles, Joshua Senter, Wm. Bell, Cyrus Plumer, Freeman Hurd, James M. Locke, Daniel L. Randall, Isaiah Wilson, John E. Roberts—of Portsmouth; Samuel C. Dixon, Daniel I. Pryor, Cushman Pryor, of Trefethen's Island; Geo. N. Dixon, Samuel F. Paul, Elias Remick, Timothy Dame, Eliot; Wm. S. Locke, Benj. Frank. Pender, Wm. Locke, Kittery; S. F. Gerrish, Kittery Point; Hon. Clement March, Albert Blaisdell, Stephen M. Weeks, Geo. W. Davis, Greenland; John Smart, Stratham; Mr. Reuben P. Jenness, David Jenness, Moses Philbrick, Rye.

VICTOR COAL STOVE.

We offer this beautiful coal burner to the public, with full confidence in its merits.

It was brought into market two years since, and has come rapidly into use.

The Victor is one of the handsomest parlor stoves in the market, and is perfect in its operation. The arrangement for dumping the ashes is very fine—no dust need escape into the room—a continuous fire may be kept throughout the winter—the coal all burned, and no clinkers made.

The quantity of fuel used is very small indeed. There is in this stove an excellent arrangement for ventilating the room in which it is placed; a feature not possessed by any other parlor stove.

Some of the sizes are provided with an oven and boiling place, making them very desirable for a dining room.

We sold a large number of Victor Stoves in our city last season, and they receive the highest commendation from those who are using them.

We have also the celebrated McGregor Stove, so well known in the market as to need no commendation.

A great variety of cheaper Stoves for coal and wood—Coal hods—Patent Coal-sifters.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINE

They are the Purest!
The Best!
The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Rock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and the Port is excellent because it is pure.

Have you used the Strela Matches?

J. W. SHORES, JR., No. 1 Congress Block, has just received from the manufactory a large lot of

STRELA MATCHES.

These matches are without sulphur and without smell in burning, which adapts them for the Sick Room, the Parlor, or for general use, being nearly as cheap as any other kind of Matches. They are put up in boxes of 150 matches, and are sold at the low price of THREE CENTS per box, or 12 boxes containing 1800 matches for 25 cents—being 2½ for a cent!

Dealers supplied at the manufacturer's price.

THE peculiar taint or infection which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the skin and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for the afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. This it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does materially shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Root out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,
The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

This has been so long used and so universally known, that we need do no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all cases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotence, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Gleets, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate victim for the business of society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, self-forbodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience and be restored to perfect health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days are accommodated with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capsules, which are a speedy and effective Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

CAUTION

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases arising from the Menstrual Period, Ulcers of Uterus, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate cases yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of Cases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Delicate Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, that by dint of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER, that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no insertices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr OLIVER and Dr TUFTS, for particular success in extracting teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

Marriage Certificates.

For the use of Clergymen, Justices, and others who perform the ceremony—for sale at the Chronicle Office, by the single, dozen, or hundred copies.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper reservoir for hot water; also a large warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodeling their buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the great est amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe as much as possible.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former ones, while others have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of fresh air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the cone the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Greves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

MATHEWS
HAIR GLOSS

This is a new and invaluable preparation for preserving and beautifying the hair.

The wonderful virtues of Arnica in allaying and removing inflammation are universally known.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is a combination of these virtues, with other tried and excellent ingredients.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS stimulates and invigorates the hair, prevents it from falling out—restores it when lost—promotes its growth and strength—renders it proof against all disease.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS permanently cures all irritations and eruptions of the scalp, and makes it healthy and lovely. For the removal of dandruff it has no equal. Its operations in this particular are magical and permanent.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is unequalled as a hair-dressing compound. It not only cleanses the scalp and invigorates the hair, but it renders the latter charmingly soft and lustrous. Its odor is particularly delicate and fragrant—the proprietor having taken especial pains to secure this result.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is the very best preparation for the hair ever discovered.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS, notwithstanding its surpassing merits—is retailed at only twenty-five cents a bottle, by all Druggists.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber.

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a tumbler, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth.

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE,

A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by DR. WM. GRACE surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Flesh Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Felons.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Frozen Limbs.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scurvy.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Callouses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Salt Rheum.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sores
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find this Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much troubles suffering, and money. All it wants is a trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

The Chronicle.

"Bo and to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
To virtuous, do good, be just and fair with all;
Expect the right, though every item fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

☞ Off the getting of riches and the nobleness of labor, Starr King thus flashes into light truths worth heeding:

If an aroma could always attend gold, telling in what ways it was gained—whether it was inherited or won by enterprise and skill—and if earned, whether in ways useful or hurtful to the higher interests of society, there would be no danger of a mean worship of money. If a man's silver and gold told the story at once whether he earned it in making sugar, or by turning sugar into liquor—in raising wheat or in speculating on it—in weaving honest cloth, or in weaving shoddy—in puffing strong solder into shoes for soldiers, or sham ones which betray that the maker hadn't any soul at all—in spinning cotton, or in serving as one of the crowd of unnecessary agents in its distribution—money would carry its own judgment with it.

In any such system the farmer need not fear to let the aroma of his money expend itself far and wide. It would sprinkle the wholesomeness of winds, the perfume of blossoms, the strengthening smell of the soil, the fragrance of noble uses.

The farmer that pays his debts can't get rich dishonestly in the sight of heaven.—The rest can't be too much wheat, too many noble cattle, or too much wool, if it is only grown in the right place. There can't be an excess of excellent peaches and pears, too many pumpkins, or even too great a crop of cabbages, if they are not eaten so immoderately as to come to a head again on human shoulders.

The two noblest classes of labor are the extremes—those expended on the material soil, and upon the mental and spiritual regions—those that improve the earth and those that make humanity more fertile; the men who give us beets and grapes, and the men who give us ideas; the productive thinkers who show us how the fields can double their products without waste, and those who improve the capacity of the body, man's mind and hand; the men who labor wisely for the fulfilment of the word's prayer, "Give us this day our daily bread," and the men who, by their genius and service, prove to us the immense significance of that other passage of inspiration, "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

☞ A gentleman recently arrived at New York from Canada, states that a fee of $1500 was paid to him the other day in Quebec, wholly in American silver. He did not want the stuff, but was compelled to take it. Fancy a man in these times, and in the United States, looking with disgust upon a half a bushel of silver.

EDITORIAL JOTTINGS.

BOSTON, Feb. 14.

Dear Chronicle—A few weeks ago you reminded your public, and especially B. P. Shillaber, Esq., who was the originator of that unique festival of the Sons of Portsmouth,—that the tenth anniversary of that glorious occasion would occur the coming Fourth of July; and you also inquired if the memories awakened and the acquaintances then made or renewed, were to be kept alive" by a repetition, at decided upon ten years ago, for now.

To this the Boston Saturday Evening Gazette, (the B. P. S. aforesaid,) replied that the Boston Sons were all ready for the question; and the Portsmouth Journal also endorsed and urged on the movement. But some anonymous "croaker" from Portsmouth, wrote Mr. Shillibar in deprecation of the movement,—to which the Gazette thus refers:

From the Boston Sat. Eve. Gazette, Feb. 7.

SONS OF PORTSMOUTH.—We have received a letter from one of the "Sons," expostulating with us for recommending that the coming 4th be observed by a visit to the old homestead, he deeming that the visit had better be deferred till those in the army come home and can participate in the enjoyments of "the day we celebrate." So be it, we say, if the boys say so. The feeling, though very strongly fixed in the minds of many, for the reunion the next 4th, yet may be waived for considerations like the one named. It was thought by those entertaining it that the reunion might be made in some way commemorative of those in the field or who had fallen by the way, and that the infusion of a little cheerfulness into the ferocity or sombreness of the time might do good for now, leaving the return of the heroes for special distinction when it should happen, which may heaven hasten. As it is not so seriously, however, we shall not at present further agitate the subject.

And we have also learned here in Boston, that at the termination of the Sons' first jubilee, the Boston delegation adjourned in regular business style, and left the matter of calling another meeting for consideration of holding another similar festival at this time,—after the ten years,—to the decision and discretion of three young Portsmouth Sons resident in Boston. One of the the three is now absent, and the other two decide that it is not expedient for them to call the meeting. So probably we shall have no celebration of the sort this year—and certainly not, if there is to be a divided opinion on the subject.

But then, per contra, read the following:

From the Portsmouth Journal, Feb. 14.

RESPONSE FROM NEW YORK.—A "Son of Portsmouth" thus writes us—

"I cannot recall the time when anything that I have read gave me such a thrill of pleasure as the notice in the last Journal, to the "Sons of Portsmouth Abroad." At the first reception celebration, many who intended participateing in it were prevented by various causes from doing so; and a still greater number had no idea there would be so general a response, or that the event would afford such an amount of pleasure as it did to all who were fortunate enough to share in it. Both these classes of non-attendants have never ceased to regret that they were not among the number—and will no doubt gladly avail themselves of the opportunity afforded them of taking part in the contemplated gathering of "the Sons" at their birthplace, on the ensuing anniversary of our national Independence. The "boys" at Boston you announce as ready; and I trust those in New York, as well as everywhere else, will be as eager to form into columns when the happy time arrives, and that the second reception of the Sons of Portsmouth will be remembered no less pleasantly than that of 1853."

Now we of the Chronicle have certainly no personal or selfish desire to have such a celebration—which would cost us a vast deal of hard work, and not a little money—as such things at home always do all public-spirited printers; but we don't believe in being all buried before we are actually dead; nor do we believe that Portsmouth will soon, if ever, be in better heart or condition than now, to greet her absent sons. A fig for your chaps "who never are, but always to be blessed."

Portsmouth wanted a City Hall ten years ago—but the croakers most wait till better times for it. Wonder when they'll get it now? Not that we would say that she could'nt as well as not have it now, if the people choose—for people almost always do have what they really desire.

However, having done our duty in the matter, I shall wait the event, and leave to the public the decision of this matter.

I am stopping, for old acquaintance sake, at the Webster House, 282 Hanover St.—And all who call on the landlords, Messrs. Job Jennen & Son, may be sure of good fare and comfortable quarters, at very reasonable rates. A fine portrait of our Webster adorns the parlor—which brings to mind various reflections, for which we have no time or room now. F.

A certain agricultural writer says that freezing will not injure potatoes or any other root; it is the thawing that does the damage. So a son of Erin, having fallen from a height, said that it was not falling that hurt him, but stopping so suddenly.

THE REBELLION.

The rebels are throwing up breastworks and rifle pits north of Fredericksburg.

General Orders from the War Department authorizing enlistments of volunteers into the regular service have been rescinded.

The rebels on the 3d drove in Col. Harding's pickets at Dover, Tenn., and attacked him in force, entirely surrounding the town. The gunboat Fairplay, Lt. Com'g Fitch, with others arrived there about 8 in the evening, and found Col. Harding's force out of ammunition and entirely surrounded by the rebels in overwhelming numbers, but still successfully holding them in check. The enemy, not expecting the gunboats, had so posted their troops that the gunboats could throw a raking fire along their line. Simultaneously the gunboats opened fire: the rebels were taken by so much surprise that they did not even fire a gun shot, but immediately commenced retreating, not being able even to carry off a caisson that they had captured from our forces, but compelled to abandon it after two fruitless attempts to destroy it by fire. 140 rebels were buried by our troops the next day. It is reported that the attacking forces numbered some 4500, with 8 pieces of artillery, under command of Maj. Gen. Wheeler and Brig. Gen. Forrest and Wharton. This entire force was cut up, routed and despoiled of its prey by the timely arrival of the gunboats, and Col. Harding and his gallant little band spared to wear the honor they had so fairly won.

There is no disagreement between Gens. Hunter and Foster.

Gen. McClellan has applied for active service.

The rebels are said to have an eye on Roanoke Island.

A vague rumor comes through rebel channels that Gen. Banks has fought a battle 7 miles below Port Hudson, and that the rebels fell back to Port Hudson, while Gen. Banks retired to his camps.

CONGRESS.

SATURDAY.—In the Senate, the bill to prevent frauds on the Government was passed. The bill authorizing letters of marque was taken up. Mr. Grimes offered a substitute authorizing the President in all domestic or foreign war to issue letters of marque as he deems fit. The bill was then postponed.

In the House, a bill was reported to establish a Navy Yard at St. Louis. Several reports in regard to contested seats were made, and the House decided against the claims to seats of Messrs. McCloud and Winn of Va., Rogers of Tenn., and Byington of Ohio.

THE PIRATES.—Kingston (Jamaica) papers announce the arrival of the Alabama on the 20th ult., with the officers and crew, 160 in all—of the Hatteras. The Alabama was severely riddled in the encounter. Two Federal men-of-war were reported off Jamaica. Capt. Semmes had a reception at the Commercial Exchange of Kingston from the merchants of the city, and was lustily cheered. The American Consul had chartered a ship to bring the crew of the Hatteras to the United States. A portion of the crew of the Alabama were before the Kingston magistrates for a row in a dining saloon.

The brig Trenton, when coming out of St. Johns, N. P., was hailed by the captain of a Hamburg bark, who reported that he spoke the Alabama the same day (28th ult.) 30 miles northeast of St. Johns.

The schooner E. A. DeHart, from Jacmel 29th ult., reports that on the 30th, off Cape Tiburon, she was chased by the pirate schooner Retribution, which fired several shot and shell at her, but the DeHart outsailed her easily. Soon after, the Retribution was seen to board an Eastern schooner, which she probably captured. Previous to being overhauled by the pirate, the officers of the DeHart saw a large steamer, which came from the same direction as the pirate.

A few days since we published that Gen. Dow had been cited to appear and answer to the charge of "stealing," or for acts committed by soldiers from Forts Jackson and St. Philip, acting under his orders. We now learn on good authority that Gen. Dow was not in command of those forts at the time when the acts were committed, so that all the thunderbolts aimed at his devoted head, by rummy secessionists, have hit wide of their intended mark.—Portland Press.

☞ Within a few days a stock broker in Boston has paid some $20,000 and interest, the same being a portion of liabilities incurred twelve years ago, and which he was not legally bound to pay. He proposes that every dollar and interest shall be forthcoming.

☞ The pirate Semmes is believed to be on the track of the clipper ship Dreadnought. It was given out by the pirates at Nassau that he knew when she sailed, and would strain every nerve and thread to capture her.

☞ A British war ship has arrived at Panama with three and a half millions of dollars in gold, which she smuggled out of Mexican ports.

LITTLE BY LITTLE.

One step, and then another,
And the longest walk is ended,
One stitch and then another,
And the largest rent is mended.
One brick upon another,
And the highest wall is made;
One flake upon another,
And the deepest snow is laid.

So the little coral-workers,
By their slow, but constant motion,
Have built those pretty islands
In the distant, dark blue ocean;
And the noblest undertakings
Man's wisdom hath conceived,
By oft-repeated efforts
Have been patiently achieved.

Then do not look disheartened
O'er the work you have to do,
And say that such a mighty task
You never can get through;
But just leave one day by day,
Another point to gain,—
And soon the mountain which you feared
Will prove to be a plain.

"Rome was not builded in a day,"
The ancient proverb teaches!
And nature, by her trees and flowers,
The same sweet sermon preaches.
Think not of far off duties,
But of duties which are near—
And having once begun to work,
Resolve to persevere.

FOREIGN.—The steamship Asia, from Liverpool Jan. 31st and Queenstown Feb. 1st, arrived at New York on Sunday morning. It is assumed by several writers that the Emperor's proposal to the American Government is merely preliminary to a more important step. There are rumors of new difficulties between the British and United States Governments, owing to the seizures of English vessels too near the coast of the Bahamas.

The emancipation demonstration in Exeter Hall was most enthusiastic. Resolutions were presented, reiterating the sentiments of the Emancipation Society, and expressing great sympathy for the North. The London Times was denounced amid groans and hisses. Similar meetings have been held in other towns. The operatives of Bradford have adopted a memorial, thanking America for the relief afforded, and suggesting assistance to emigrate here as a more effectual way of affording relief. Sir Robert Peel, in a recent speech, declared himself favorable to a separation of the North and South, and strongly condemned President Lincoln's emancipation edict.

☞ Gen. McDowell, in closing his defence, seems to have very effectually disposed of the main part of the charges that have been made against him.

In his close he refers feelingly to the humiliation he has had to undergo in his investigation, on charges as baseless as they are senseless. "The charge of treason," he says, "is a fit pendant to the one of drunkenness, and quite as true, seeing that, to this day, I have never drank anything but water." He asks, in conclusion: "Is it not a bad symptom in the nation when such things can take place? Can its officers sustain themselves under such a system, and render that service which the country needs in its present critical state, and must have, as a condition of its salvation?"

☞ A difficulty has arisen between the English minister at Rio Janeiro and the Brazilian authorities, growing out of the wreck of the ship Prince of Wales and the arrest of several British officers who while in citizens' dress, created disturbance in the street. The English Admiral, acting under orders from the minister, seized several Brazilian vessels. The Brazilian Government refused to treat with the Minister until their vessels were released, and the case of the ship has been referred by consent, to the Brazilian Minister in London and the English Government, and the case of the arrest to the King of Belgium.

MURDER IN CAMDEN.—A dreadful murder was committed in Camden, Me., on Thursday last. A Mr. Blake, a sail maker, deliberately shot a Mr. Patterson (his brother-in-law) through the head, in a sail loft near by. Patterson died instantly. There had been some family trouble between them. Blake, was somewhat in liquor at the time, but was perfectly cool. After committing the deed he set his gun against the partition, seated himself by the stove, filled his pipe and commenced smoking.—Patterson leaves a wife and six children.

☞ The King and Queen of the Sandwich Islands have gone over to the Episcopal church, and as they set the fashion in religion as well as other matters, their people are rapidly following. A meeting was held at Honolulu in November in respect to the building of an Episcopal church, and the king was present and introduced Bishop Stanley to the audience, and commended the object to the meeting. The new church is to have a chime of bells, and will be otherwise made attractive to the simple-minded islanders.

☞ The convents in Chili are declining. As many as forty friars have recently obtained leave to lay aside their habits and exercise their ministry as priests "secularized." This word is used peculiarly. It does not signify their having ceased to execute the functions of the priesthood, by returning to secular life, but that they are no longer connected with any convent or live by the rules of a monastic order.

☞ The Navy Department invites proposals until the 24th inst. for the construction of armored vessels of 7500 tons burthen, with single revolving turrets, for service in rivers and bays.

POVERTY.—Bulwer says that poverty is only an idea, in nine cases out of ten.—Some men with ten thousand dollars a year suffer more for want of means than others with three hundred. The reason is, the richer man has artificial wants. His income is ten thousand dollars, and by habit he spends twelve or fifteen thousand; and he suffers enough from being dunned for unpaid debts to kill a sensitive man. A man who earns a dollar a day, and does not run in debt, is the happiest of the two. Very few people who have never been rich will believe this, but it is true. There are people, of course, who are wealthy, and enjoy their wealth; but there are thousands upon thousands, with princely incomes, who never know a moment's peace, because they live above their means. There is really more happiness in the world among working people than among those who are called rich.

Notice to Housekeepers,
Rubber Band Carpet Sweeper.

TRY IT! TRY IT!!

It saves Money; it saves Carpets; it saves Furniture; it saves Labor; it is cheaper than Brooms at five cents apiece.

It gathers up all dust, dirt, and loose lint on the carpet, and raises no dust to settle on the furniture, drapery, or ornaments, or to smother, stifle and irritate the lungs.

It does not wear the carpets half so much as brooms or any other sweeper.

It is the only practicable sweeper made, and the only article fit to sweep a carpet.

With our late improvements it gives universal satisfaction to all who use it according to directions. For sale at No. 12 Market Street by

☞ A special meeting of the Stockholders in the Eastern Railroad in New Hampshire, was held at Hampton on Monday, "to consider and determine whether they will ratify and confirm the doings of their directors in executing a contract dated Dec. 26, 1862, between said Eastern Railroad in New Hampshire and the Eastern Railroad Company, explanatory of the provisions of the Lease between said Roads, dated Feb. 18, 1840, and in adjustment of all claims and disputes between the two roads."

Mr. Reed, President of the Corporation, being absent, Hon. W. H. Y. Hackett, of this city, was called to the chair, and presided. The clerk of the Corporation, Wm. H. Hackett, Esq., then read the contract before referred to, and the votes passed by the Directors in relation to the contract.

Hon. A. Huntington, of Salem, offered the following preamble and resolutions:—

WHEREAS, Disputes had arisen as to the meaning of the Indenture of the 18th Feb., 1840, by which this Corporation loaned their road to the Eastern Railroad Company, and as to the rights and obligations of the parties thereto, and as to other matters between them. And whereas the Directors of this corporation, and the Directors of the Eastern Railroad Company, for the purpose of quieting all matters of dispute, and of carrying into effect the object intended to be accomplished on and by said Indenture, on the 26th day of December, A. D., 1862, in behalf of their respective corporations, entered into the following contract, (here is recited the contract) which said contract is in accordance with and in fulfilment of the vote of this corporation, passed June 3, A. D., 1859. Therefore,

Resolved, that the Directors of this corporation in entering into said contract, and the said contract itself be, and the same hereby are adopted, ratified and confirmed.

The resolution, after remarks from Stephen A. Chase, was adopted unanimously. And thereupon the President said he had the pleasure to announce to the stockholders "the restoration of the Union as it was and the contract as it is," after which the meeting was dissolved.

☞ The schooner Prioress, Capt. Randall, from the Shoals, on passing Whale's Back, Sunday morning, was hailed by the light-keeper. They came to and sent a boat to the Light House. On the rocks west of the light, a part of the wrecked schooner Rouser and cargo were found.—The crew of the Prioress picked up 160 bundles of shingles and some barrels of fish, and brought them to Portsmouth. The inmates of the Light House reported that three of the Rouser's crew were seen clinging to a portion of the wreck, which drifted near the light. A line was thrown to them, but they appeared to be so far gone as to make no effort to save themselves. It was thought that the schooner ran on to the rocks called the Sisters, which lie between the Shoals and Whale's Back. We are informed that the articles picked up by the boat from Kittery, were in private hands, as there is no boarding officer on that side of the river now.

A U. S. vessel was seen off Holmes' Hole at 10 A. M. Friday. She is supposed to have been screw sloop Sacramento, Capt. Boggs, which sailed from the Portsmouth Navy Yard on Wednesday in search of the pirate Alabama.—Boston Advertiser.

The Sacramento did not leave our lower harbor until Friday night.

S. J. COURT,—EXETER.

In case of Reuben B. Smith vs. Jacob Stockbridge,—trespass for breaking and entering plf.'s close in Stratham, and for damages alleged to have been done thereto by deft.'s cattle, the jury returned a verdict for plf. for $20.

Levi Sanborn vs. Richard Smith,—trespass for encumbering highway with logs. The action was tried by the Court and the decision reserved.

On Saturday the Court adjourned sine die, after a session of 25 days.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The 9th anniversary of the Amoskeag Veterans is to be celebrated on the 24th, by parade, dinner and levee. The oration will be delivered by C. W. Walker, at the Hanover street church. In the church and at the dinner the ladies of the Veterans are expected to be present. The levee will be at Smyth's Hall, which will be magnificently fitted up for the occasion; carpeted, decorated, and extended, taking in the numerous anterooms. Hall's Brass Band, Boston, has been engaged, J. C. H. Vance acting as prompter.

—— The Union Convention at Manchester, is to be held to-day, Tuesday, 17, Gen. Andrew Jackson Hamilton, of Texas, Hon. B. F. Flanders, member of Congress from New Orleans, Judge Perley and other Gen.. Walbridge, of New York, or Gen. Wright of Indiana, are expected to address the Convention.

—— Mrs. Nancy Philbrick, of Concord, now more than ninety years of age, has recently made and presented to the Concord Female Charitable Society, a mosaic quilt, the workmanship of which is very neat and ingenious, the multitude of small pieces of which it is composed being connected by threads as small as if made by the hands of a young woman.

☞ A characteristic story of Gen. Butler has just been set afloat by the Washington correspondent of the Springfield Republican "I will not go back to New Orleans," said, the General recently "unless I can have more troops" "Why can't you give me more?" "We havn't them to give," replies Mr. Lincoln. "Then why don't you raise more—put the draft upon New York?"

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

OFFICE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD,
February 9th, 1863.

Sealed Proposals will be received at this office until 1 o'clock p. m. on SATURDAY, the 14th day of March, 1863; for supplying the Lighthouse Establishment with forty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter strained sperm oil, to be divided into two lots, and to be delivered at the times under mentioned, alongside of the government supply vessels, or at the warehouse or other place of deposit, to be designated by the Inspecting Officer or other authorized agent of the Light-house Board, in strong, tight, well-made casks, suitable for shipping, in good order, of an average capacity each, of from eighty to one hundred gallons.

Either lot or all of them may be delivered at New York, New London, Sag Harbor, Boston, New Bedford, Edgartown, or Nantucket, at the option of the bidders. The place of delivery must be distinctly stated in the bids, and will be embraced in the contracts.

The lots will be delivered as follows, viz:

Lot No 1. Thirty thousand gallons (30,000) on the 15th day of June, 1863, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot. No 2. Ten thousand gallons (10,000) on the 1st day of Octo er, 1863, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

No part of the oil proposed for and to be supplied in the contracts under this advertisement will be accepted, received, or paid for, until it shall have been proved to the entire satisfaction of the person or persons charged with its examination, test, and inspection, to be the best quality pure winter strained or bagged sperm oil, free from mixture with other or inferior oils and adulterations, and that it will remain in a sufficiently fluid state for free burning in lamps at a temperature of 32° or lower of Fahrenheit's standard thermometer.

The usual means for determining the character and quality of the oil will be employed, viz: for specific gravity, by filtrating to determine the length of time the oil will burn in untrimmed capillary or jacket lamps, the amount of residuum in each lamp after it burns out, and, if necessary, any other proper tests to arrive at correct conclusions that may be deemed necessary.

The casks must be gauged, under the direction and personal supervision of the inspecting officer, by a custom-house or other legally authorized or sworn gauger, according the United States standard, and must be marked and accepted before they are removed from the cellar or warehouse of the contractor.

Proposals will be received and considered for each lot separately, or for all of them, at the option of the bidder; but no bid will be considered for a less quantity than that specified as one lot, to be delivered at one time and place. Each bid must state explicitly the rate per gallon, in writing, the number of lot or lots bid for, and the time and place of delivery, conforming to this advertisement.

Bids submitted by different members of the same firm or copartnership will not be considered.

The Light-house Board, under the authority of the Department, reserves the right to reject any bid, although it may be the lowest, for other considerations than price.

No bid will be considered for any other kind or description of oil than that specifically called for in this advertisement.

A bond, with security to the satisfaction of the Department, in a penalty equal to one fifth of the amount of each contract made under these proposals, will be required of each contractor, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, to be executed within ten days after the acceptance of the bid.

Every offer must be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, and known to the Department as such, or certified by a United States district judge, attorney, navy agent, or collector of the customs, to the effect that, if the bid or bids be accepted, the bidder or bidders will duly execute a contract in good faith, according to the provisions and terms of this advertisement, within ten days after acceptance; and that in case the said party or parties offering shall fail to enter into the contract as aforesaid, he or they guaranty to make good the difference between the offer of the party or parties and the next lowest bidder. All bids must be sealed and endorsed "Proposals for oil for light houses," and addressed to another envelope, and prepaid, to the Secretary of the Light-house Board, Washington city.

All bids will be opened, publicly, at the hour and on the day specified.

Payments will be made for the several lots of oil within thirty days after they shall have been received by the United States.

By order of the Light-house Board:

fif 3w2taw W. B. SHUBRICK, Chairman.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Claims, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the validity of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere The testimonials below given show that there is MORE DISCRIMINATION AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent to secure their rights, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of this large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL,

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Baking Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 3 feet long; or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, enough to bake every day in a family at the same time! A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

THE MODEL COOK is adapted equally well for wood and coal, summer and winter. It will be found to be THE STOVE for farmers, mechanics or professional men; for boarding houses or private families—in fact for every place where a good stove is needed.

We believe the MODEL COOK to be the very best Stove in the Market, and invite every one to examine it whether they wish to purchase or not. It has had a very extensive sale since its introduction. Reference might be made to more than a hundred families in this and the vicinity who are using the Stove, and give it the highest commendation.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Raitt, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Francis C. Wentworth, Jos. L. VICTOR COAL STOVE.

We offer this beautiful coal burner to the public, with full confidence in its merits.

It was brought into market two years since, and has come rapidly into use.

The Victor is one of the handsomest parlor stoves in the market, and is perfect in its operation. The arrangement for burning the ashes is very fine—no dust need escape into the room—a continuous fire may be kept throughout the winter—the coal all burned, and no clinkers made.

The quantity of fuel used is very small indeed. There is in this stove an excellent arrangement for ventilating the room in which it is placed; a feature not possessed by any other parlor stove.

Some of the stoves are provided with an oven and boiling place, making them very desirable for a dining room.

We sold a large number of Victor Stoves in our city last season, and they receive the highest commendation from those who are using them.

We have also the celebrated McGregor Stove, so well known in the market as to need no commendation.

A great variety of cheaper Stoves for coal and wood—Cool-hods—Patent Coal-sifters.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES!

They are the Purest!
The Best!
The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent, because it is pure.

THE PEACE MOVEMENTS.—The St. Louis Republican, one of the ablest Democratic papers of the West, remonstrates earnestly against the movements for armistice and peace among Northern Democrats. It says:

"We are to transfer the war to the free States, and inaugurate armed civil strife within their borders, merely to enable the secessionists to destroy the Union; and our reward shall be our own deserts. What love do we bear the rebels that we should do this base, ignoble, suicidal thing? If the rebels will not listen to reason, but insist upon the humiliation and degradation of the citizens of the States remaining in the Union, let us bide the time when they may come to their senses. To our minds it is certain that disunion and permanent peace are utterly incompatible."

☞ The Syracuse Standard states that the other day a lady in Syracuse was married to a soldier in a fort near Washington. The parties were about 400 miles apart, and the vows were spoken by telegraph.—The officiating minister on this occasion was the chaplain of the regiment to which the happy man belonged. He didn't kiss the bride. It took two hours to do the work up complete.

☞ A butcher in Western Massachusetts, having salted pork in rum and other alcoholic barrels, soon found the meat so tainted that he could not sell it. Rum barrels will do for cider, but according to the butcher's experience, they should not be used to salt meat in.

☞ They have a pig in New Bedford having but one eye, in the centre of his face, and with his nose situated above the eye.

Dealers supplied at the manufacturer's price.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

EYE, N.H., Feb. 22, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her from her work, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., but it has utterly failed; no relief until I procured some jar or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JONAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1852.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

FROM ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 22, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to certify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humors, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her mental reason, day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to read quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine as one of the first that can be provided for the disease above named. ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases on the list of

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never before been first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHEA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Inguinal Bubo, Gonorrhoea, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Gleets, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D., devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dimness of the head, Dizziness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of acknowledged ability, and restore themselves to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Diapoma, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

CAUTION

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases peculiar to the sex, such as Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated on new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted soon are rejoiced in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied study and extraordinary success, obtained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

PORTSMOUTH.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, that he has of late years, built in insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER, that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz. It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no insertices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn day and night, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Besides all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the material is vastly more much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit, and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY. I will do at the usual rates. I will have mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TRELAWNEY, Dr WOLCOMAN, Dr OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and air iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large capacity reservoir for hot water; there is fifteen wrought-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling their dwellings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headaches and lungs complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Shaw, and others.

MATHEWS'
VENETIAN LIQUID
HAIR DYE.

☞ MATTHEW'S VENETIAN HAIR DYE.—This celebrated Dye was first prepared in 1840; since that time it has been USED BY THOUSANDS, and in no instance has it failed to give PERFECT SATISFACTION.

THE VENETIAN DYE is the cheapest in the world. Its price is ONLY FIFTY CENTS, and each bottle contains DOUBLE THE QUANTITY OF DYE, contained in those usually sold for ONE DOLLAR.

THE VENETIAN DYE is the safest compound of its class. It is WARRANTED NOT TO IRRITATE, or injure the scalp, in the least.

THE VENETIAN DYE works with RAPIDITY AND CERTAINTY. It causes no annoyance or trouble to those who use it.

THE VENETIAN DYE produces any shade that may be desired,—one that will not fade or rub off,—one that is as permanent as the hair itself.

THE VENETIAN DYE does not, in any manner, interfere with the NATURAL SOFTNESS OF THE HAIR,—I neither scorches nor dries it.

THE VENETIAN DYE is the best, cheapest, safest, most convenient, most successful, and most permanent Dye ever used.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depression—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,

No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE,

A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by Dr. Wm. Grace, surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Flesh Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Felons.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Green Limbs.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scurvy.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Callouses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Salt Rheum.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sores.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find this Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.
DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, No. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a
PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.
By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of
GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distressin the region of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, Painful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.
Dr D., devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are such as to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.
Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.
Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

CAUTION
To Females in Delicate Health.
DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system, Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb; Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.
Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.
Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.
Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.
N. B.—All letters must contain four cents stamp, or they will not be answered.
Office Hours from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.
April, 1862—1y Staw

CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charge Made.
Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.
Among the physicians in Boston, no one stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Persons who need the service of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.
P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Prepaid and a red stamp.

EDITORIAL JOTTINGS.

BOSTON, Feb. 17.

Dear Chronicle:—What with attending opera almost every night, and calling upon half the friends I wish to by day—and the troublesome business calls which will be attended to occasionally—yours truly has hardly a jot of time in which to tell you a little of what interests him and might perhaps entertain you. Speaking of business, a Boston lady friend, in one of the interims of the performance of "Martha," in reply to our inquiry as to the occupation of a mutual very interesting "critical" acquaintance, told us, "Oh, he's rich." "Well, that's business enough for anybody." "Certainly," said she—and so it is, or ought to be, work enough and play enough for anybody, to have money to take care of, and to take care of him. Not that the rich are generally happier than the poor—but they certainly should be. And "hard work" as it may often be, for a man who has nothing to do, to do it—and to amuse himself; yet it is not often we see such people exchange this employ for the more tangible rub and tug which is open to them in any direction.

I heard, a day or two ago, of a very sad case of the death of a man well known in and about Portsmouth—Mr. John Simpson, jr., a resident of Quincy, Mass., and eldest son of John Simpson, Esq., of Greenland. On Wednesday, a fortnight since, as he was leading his horse (which he had owned for about two years, and which was not considered a vicious animal) to be shod, the brute suddenly seized him by the arm, and held on, despite the struggles of Mr. S., until a neighbor who saw him, came out of his house, and struck the creature several severe blows on the head—the horse, as he maintained his terrible grip, plunging and squealing savagely. The arm was so lacerated that mortification supervened, and Mr. S. died on the following Sunday. It is a most singular case, as we learn it, and is accounted for by the neighbors, on the supposition that the horse must have got the taste of blood, which rendered him furious; but how could this be, through clothing? and what should cause a horse uniformly kind, to become all at once so savage toward his master? Mr. Simpson was a man much respected, and leaves a family of six children to mourn their sudden and terrible bereavement. He was about 50 years of age.

At Williams' and Everett's elegant picture repository, on Washington street, among other attractions, the especial, just now, is Innes' Sign of Promise, a very large and very rare landscape painting, descriptions of which, you have of course seen. It is superb, though not escaping criticism of the critics. Even it can be realized the difficulty of setting "the blow in the cloud."—Here are also the almost speaking statuettes of Rogers; and crayons by Darley, one very large and striking, "The dash of U. S. Cavalry into Fredericksburg." But war,—all war, fighting, and death, and hate—God grant we may soon see the "sign of promise" of peace! and the nations, or at any rate this nation, may learn war no more.

At Hallett, Davis & Co.'s splendid warerooms, on Washington street, I find piano fortes of every style (except poor style) and any tone desired (bating bad tone.) Their new 7-octave, abbreviated or shortened piano is a great favorite where rooms are small, and the tone is very fine—the only difference being in the power of bass, which is always ample for home use in any piano, and commonly too much for our taste.

At the Natural History Store of Mr. Charles G. Brewster, Tremont street, I always find novelty and beauty sufficient to keep me twice as long as I meant to stay. Birds, and fishes, minerals, &c., you can here see and procure, to your liking; and one fact we learned to our surprise,—that among the greatest bird-fanciers in Boston, are the poor, laboring Irishmen, who oftentimes, with a suit of clothes on which ought long ago to have gone to help cheapen the price of newspaper, will gladly pay a ten-dollar bill for a pure long-breed canary!—And these high-blooded birds do not sing so well as the short, common breed, either, nor to our unsportsmanlike eye, are they half so pretty, either; but they are "thoroughbred," and that's enough, as in the case of the horse—only the horse has got to have the "go" in him, else his high pedigree is soon lost sight of.

Yours truly, F.

☞ That is a very pretty story of the young woman in Brandon, Vt., the wife of a volunteer, who went to the District school, and side by side with the little children persevered until she learned to read and write in order that her correspondence with her fondly beloved husband might not pass under the eye of some stranger in consequence of her ignorance.

THE REBELLION.

The official report of the sinking of the Hatteras by the pirate Alabama, has been received from Lieut. Com'g R. C. Blake, at Kingston, Ja. He states that while the Alabama brought against the Hatteras seven guns, consisting of four long 32-pounders, one 100-pounder, one 68-pounder, and one 24-pounder rifled gun, he was able to work but 4 guns—2 short 32-pounders, one 30-pounder rifled Parrott gun, and one 20-pounder rifled gun. Knowing the many vulnerable points of the Hatteras he hoped, by closing with the Alabama, to board and take her. He therefore, steamed directly for her, but she was enabled, by her great speed, to thwart this attempt. A vigorous fire was kept up on both sides, the Hatteras, even when she was on fire in two places and beyond human power a hopeless wreck upon the waters, with her walking beam shot away and her engine rendered useless, still maintaining an active fire with the double hope of disabling the Alabama and attracting the fleet off Galveston, 28 miles distant. But shells entered the Hatteras at the water line, tearing off entire sheets of iron, and she was rapidly sinking. She was therefore surrendered; all were conveyed safely to the Alabama, and two minutes after, the Hatteras went down, bow first with her pennant at the masthead, with all her muskets and stores of every description, the enemy not being able, owing to her rapid sinking, to obtain a single weapon. In the engagement two men were killed, five wounded, and six are missing.

A scouting party from Fayettsville, Ark., scattered two rebel bands, destroyed a camp and burned their stores. They took about 40 prisoners, a number of horses and mules and some arms. Our loss was one taken prisoner and one drowned.

The Nashville Union says there is a bitter feud between Gens. Bragg and Breckinridge. Bragg suspects Breckinridge and his Kentucky troops of lukewarmness in the rebel cause, while the Kentuckians are indignant at Bragg's abandonment of their State.

In the rebel Congress, on the 12th, a resolution was presented by Sparrow of La., supporting the right to a free navigation of the Mississippi river.

The World's Washington dispatch says Gen. Fremont's new command is said to be Texas. It is certainly in the department of the Gulf. This change sends Gen. Butler back to New Orleans.

The N. Y. Herald's Port Royal correspondent states that Gen. Hunter has assumed command of Gen. Foster's troops, regarding them as reinforcements to the 10th army corps, of which he is chief, and required Gens. Negley and Terry to report to him.

Gen. Foster started on his return to Port Royal on Monday.

Parties were sent out last week from Gen. Hooker's army to break up traffic between the rebels in Maryland and Virginia, across the Potomac; and to prevent the enforcement of the rebel conscription ordered in the counties on the Veck, from the 12th to the 17th inst. They were successful, and a large quantity of provisions, and a number of horses, mules, &c., intended for the rebels, were seized. Two large mail bags were also seized; several citizens, soldiers, and a rebel signal officer were captured, and several vessels destroyed.

It is reported that the Alabama made two or three new prizes within 6 days after leaving Kingston, Ja., whence she sailed Jan. 28th, after being supplied with 200 tons of coal, and everything she required.

☞ Rear Admiral Dupont has forwarded to the Secretary of the Navy, a refutation in official form of the statement made in Beauregard's proclamation relative to the Charleston blockade. It is a certificate signed by all the commanding officers of the vessels that were laying off Charleston bar, on the morning of the attack, excepting only three—one of whom is on duty at a distance, and the other two the Commanders of the two vessels that were sent to Port Royal to repair damages.

☞ Memphis letters state that there is a reign of terror in Northern Alabama and Northern Mississippi. Guerillas and bloodhounds are on the track of Union men, who flee to the woods to avoid conscription. A young girl carrying food to her father, and two women have been torn to pieces by bloodhounds. Not less than 1000 Union men have reached Corinth, (among them men 80 years of age) and a regiment is organizing there which already numbers six full companies. A number of Unionists have been shot and hung, and their houses burned.

☞ The Governor of Texas appointed the 4th day of February as a day of thanksgiving throughout that State, for the successes that have attended the Confederate arms, and for the recent discomfiture of the invaders on the shores of Texas.

☞ Hon. J. R. Giddings, American Consul General, at Montreal, narrowly escaped with his life on Friday night, from a burn-ing hotel.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Union Convention met at Manchester on Tuesday. The attendance was large from all sections of the State. James Fellows, of Hopkinton, chairman of the Union Central Committee, called the Convention to order, and read the call and a list of officers. For President—Hon. Wm. C. Clarke, of Manchester. For Vice Presidents—Albert Blaisdell, Greenland; A. J. Beck, Portsmouth, and fifteen others, and two Secretaries. On taking the chair Mr. Clark made a speech which was received with great applause. On motion of S. M. Wilcox, of Exeter, a committee of five was appointed to draft a series of resolutions.—H. P. Rolfe, of Concord, in a brief and patriotic speech, moved the nomination, by acclamation, of Col. Walter Harriman as the Union candidate for Governor. The motion was carried unanimously with great cheering and enthusiasm. On motion of S. G. Clarke, of Manchester, a committee of five was appointed to nominate a candidate for Railroad Commissioner, to report after dinner. The Convention then adjourned to 1 o'clock.

In the afternoon the committee reported the name of Lieut. Col. John Coughlin, of the 10th regiment, as candidate for Railroad Commissioner, which report was accepted and he was nominated. After the nomination of these two fighting War Democrats, resolutions, sustaining the Government in the prosecution of the war, were adopted, and Gen. Hamilton, of Texas, addressed the Convention at some length.

—— The Post office at Dover was broken into on Monday night, and all the letters and property of value were stolen.

—— The Elm Street Universalist Society, Manchester, dedicate their new place of worship on Sunday next. Dedicatory Sermon in the morning by Rev. Sylvanus Cobb, of Boston. Sermon in the afternoon by Rev. A. J. Patterson, of Portsmouth, to be followed by a brief address to the Society by Rev. E. W. Coffin, of Jaffrey. Doctrinal Sermon in the evening by Rev. Mr. Colib, to be followed by a brief address by the pastor, Rev. B. N. Tillotson.

—— On Sunday a boy was fiercely attacked in Manchester by a large dog, and very badly injured, receiving several severe wounds in his legs and other parts of his body. Some one rescued him, and the dog was "dispatched."

CONGRESS.

MONDAY.—In the Senate, the bill regulating the appointment of midshipmen, was taken up. The pending amendment ratifying the appointments made by the President and Secretary of the Navy was reported. The bill enrolling and calling out the Militia of the United States, was amended and passed. Amendments to exempt ministers, members of Congress and others, were rejected. The Governors of States were exempted.

In the House, the consideration of the Indian appropriation bill was resumed.

☞ A characteristic story of Gen. Butler has just been set afloat by the Washington correspondent of the Springfield Republican. "I will not go back to New Orleans," said the General recently, "unless I can have more troops. Why can't you give me more?" "We haven't them to give," replies Mr. Lincoln. "Then why don't you raise more—put the draft upon New York!—raise that forty thousand who should have been raised in that State last fall?" "Mr. Seymour says it will not do to draft in New York," answers Lincoln. "Then I would draft Seymour!"

☞ Some Union people saving placed the national flag over the Southern Methodist Church, in Biddle street, Baltimore, the minister, Rev. John H. Dashiell, a secessionist, came to the church on Sunday morning, and tore it down. He was arrested on the same day. The secessionists worshipping at the new Assembly Rooms were unwilling to meet there because Gen. Schenck ordered a national flag to be displayed.

☞ The Court of Common Pleas at Westminster Hall, England, has decided that a lawyer's fee is a mere honorarium, and if not paid in advance, cannot be collected at all, if the client refuses to pay.

Semmes, the pirate, while in Kingston, offered to sell the $8000 worth of Treasury notes which he stole from the Ariel, at 33 per cent. discount. One merchant closed the bargain with him but another stepped in and paid a higher price. The first merchant, enraged, cowhided the second, while Semmes bagged the plunder in gold.—Boston Post.

☞ It may gratify our readers to learn that Tuttle's comet, so well seen in the heavens last summer, will again return and be visible in the year A. D. 1994.

☞ "Awful" Gardner, ex-prize-fighter, is said to be at the point of death at Newark, N. J.

IMMORTELLES.

THE FREEMAN.

He is a freeman, whom the truth makes free,
And all are slaves beside. There's not a chain,
That vengeful foes, confed'rate for his harm,
Can wind around him, but he casts it off
With as much ease as Sampson his green withes.
He looks abroad into the varied field
Of nature, and though poor, perhaps, compared
With those whose mansions glitter in his sight—
Calls the delightful scenery all his own:
His are the mountains, and the valleys his,
And the resplendent rivers. his to enjoy
With a propriety that none can feel,
But who with filial confidence inspired,
Can lift to heaven an unpresumptuous eye,
And smiling say, "My Father made them all!"
—Cowper.

COURAGE.

When falls the hour of evil chance,
And hours of evil chance will fall,
Strike, though with but a broken lance—
Strike, though you have no lance at all.

Shrink not, whate'er the odds may be—
Shrink not, however dark the hour—
The barest possibility
Of good, deserves your utmost power.
—Alice Cary.

Rubber Band Carpet Sweeper.

TRY IT! TRY IT!!

It saves Money; it saves Carpets; it saves Furniture; it saves Labor; it is cheaper than Brooms at five cents apiece.

It gathers up all dust, dirt, and loose lint on the carpets, and raises the dust to settle on the furniture, drapery or ornaments, or to smother, stifle and irritate the lungs.

It does not wear the carpets half so much as brooms or any other sweeper.

It is the only practicable sweeper made, and the only article fit to sweep a carpet.

With our late improvements it gives universal satisfaction to all who use it according to directions. For sale at No. 42 Market Street by Local.

THE OLD LIVERY STABLE on the corner of Fleet and Hanover streets, which was burnt last Friday night, had stood 54 years.

On the 11th of August, 1808, a company associated for establishing a livery stable. The property was divided into two hundred shares at twenty dollars each. The company was incorporated by act of the Legislature, passed the 19th day of June, 1810, for the term of ten years, by the name of the Portsmouth Livery Company. The proprietors then increased their stock to three hundred shares, at thirty dollars each.

The company was quite successful in raising the stock, selling the shares, buying horses and carriages, hay and grain; also in charging, (according to the fashion of that day,) large amounts of horse hire to many people,—but not very successful in collecting the bills, and getting back the money. The whole thing was a financial failure.

When the company was closed, Mr. Joshua Johnson hired the stable, and occupied it as a livery stable for a number of years, and until the Portsmouth Bridge, which was completed in 1822, brought over the Portland stages, from Rice's stables in Kittery, when the great stable passed into the hands of the Portland Stage Company, whose agent here was Mr. Alexander Rice, by whom it was made very convenient and commodious.

Twenty years more brought another change: the P. S. & P. Railroad swallowed up the stage route; and the stable was sold at auction for $1000 to Leonard Cotton, Esq., who has used it about twenty years for storage of casks, carriages, and miscellaneous matters.

Now, old and out of repair, the incendiary torch has cleared the large lot, all ready for the city to build a new Reservoir (if they choose) in a spot where there is soft digging,—and erect (if they choose) a plain hook and ladder house, a house for the coming Steam Fire Engine,—and a School Room for the infant school in District No. 1.

HOME GUARDS.—At a regular meeting of the Home Guard at their Armory on Monday evening, Feb. 16, it was unanimously voted that the name of the Company be changed to that of National Guard. The company will parade on Monday afternoon next in honor of Washington's Birth Day. The following are the officers of the company.

Captain—Col. Andrew J. Beck.
1st Lieutenant—Ezekiel Fitzgerald.
2d " William H. Sise.
Orderly Sergt. and Clerk—J. H. Head.
2d Sergeant—John L. Marden.
3d " Francis W. Ham.
4th " Joshua E. Eldredge.
5th " Lewis W. Brewster.

☞ Articles picked up from the wreck of the schooner Rouser, in Portsmouth harbor, seem to show that Wm. B. Munro, formerly of Bridgetown, N. S., and subsequently of St. John, N. S., was a passenger on board that ill fated vessel, and lost his life. A letter from his wife was dated at Fredericktown. A russet leather valise, picked up, bears the name of, George Peck. A few articles of ladies' wearing apparel have also been picked up, rendering it probable that there was also one or more ladies on board. Several cartes-de-visite found in a trunk, bear on the reverse the name of the artist—"E. Rye, Photograph, Aarhuus," Denmark. The photographs, letters, &c., are placed in the hands of J. M. Edmonds, Esq., Deputy Collector of this port, who promptly took measures to communicate the sad intelligence of the loss of life to persons in St. John, that it might be communicated to the friends of the deceased. None of the bodies have yet been recovered.

☞ It will be seen that Messrs. Jones & Mendum, request through our columns this morning, that those having small notes issued by them will present them for redemption. There has recently been a considerable amount of postage currency received in this city, and the tendency will, probably, be to crowd the private issues out of circulation. There may, however, be occasion in the future for the use of the latter again.

☞ Col. T. W. Higginson, of the 1st S. C. Volunteers, in his official report of the recent expedition to St. Mary's river, acknowledges his indebtedness, for advice and information, to Acting Master Edward Moses, U. S. N., of this city, now commanding the bark Fernandina.

☞ Rev. A. J. Church will deliver two lectures, at the Baptist Church, Kittery Fore Side, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Feb. 18 and 19th. His subject on Wednesday evening will be Woman.

Lectures to commence at 7½ o'clock. Tickets 15 cents.

☞ The new side-wheel steamer Tallapoosa was launched at the Charlestown Navy Yard on Tuesday. She is of the same class as the Sassacus, at the Portsmouth Navy Yard.

☞ A Key West letter gives the particulars of the chase of the Florida by the Sonoma, off the Bahama Banks. While the wind was light and the sea smooth the Sonoma gained on the pirate, but on reaching the open sea and the wind freshening, the Florida drew rapidly away, and, night coming on, was lost sight of. The crew were at quarters 24 hours; but three times, when the capture of the pirate seemed almost certain, some derangement of the Sonoma's machinery interfered in the rebel's favor.

☞ The afternoon train from Boston, on Monday, ran over Capt. Joseph Hodges, of Salem, 72 years of age, at Beverly. The whistle was sounded, when he was seen on the track, but being confused or from some other reason, he sank to the ground and was almost instantly killed.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

OFFICE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD,
February 9th, 1863.

Sealed Proposals will be received at this office until 1 o'clock p. m. on SATURDAY, the 14th day of March, 1863, for supplying the Light-house Establishment with forty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter strained sperm oil, to be divided into two lots, and to be delivered at the times undermentioned, alongside of the government supply vessels, or at the warehouse or other place of deposit, to be designated by the Purchasing Officer or other authorized agent of the Light-house Board, in strong, tight, well-made casks, suitable for shipping, in good order, of an average capacity each, of from eighty to one hundred gallons.

Either lot or all of them may be delivered at New York, New London, New Bedford, Edgartown, or Nantucket, at the option of the bidders. The place of delivery must be distinctly stated in the bids, and will be embraced in the contracts.

The lots will be delivered as follows, viz:

Lot No. 1. Thirty thousand gallons (30,000) on the 15th day of June, 1863, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 2. Ten thousand gallons (10,000) on the 1st day of October, 1863, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

No part of the oil proposed for and to be embraced in the contracts under this advertisement will be accepted, received, or paid for, unless it shall have been proved to the entire satisfaction of the person or persons charged with its examination, trial, and inspection, to be the best quality pure winter strained or bagged sperm oil, free from mixture with other or inferior oils and adulterations, and that it will burn in a sufficiently fluid state for free burning in lamps at a temperature of 32° or lower of Fahrenheit's standard thermometer.

The usual means for determining the character and quality of the oil will be employed, viz: for specific gravity, by burning to determine the length of time the oil will burn in uniform-sized capillary or jacket lamps, the amount of residuum in each lamp after it burns out, and, if necessary, any other proper tests to arrive at correct conclusions that may be deemed necessary.

The casks must be gauged, under the direction and personal supervision of the inspector of cooperage, by a custom-house or other legally authorized or sworn gauger, according to the United States standard, and must be marked and accepted before they are removed from the cells or warehouses of the contractor.

Proposals will be received and considered for each lot separately, or for all of them, at the option of the bidder; but no bid will be considered for a less quantity than that specified as one lot, to be delivered at one time and place. Each bid must state explicitly the rate per gallon, in writing, the number of lot or lots bid for, and the time and place of delivery, conforming to this advertisement.

Bids submitted by different members of the same firm or copartnership will be considered as those of one person.

The Light-house Board, under the authority of the Department, reserves the right to reject any bid, although it may be the lowest, for other considerations than price.

No bid will be considered for any other kind or description of oil than that specifically called for in this advertisement.

A bond, with security to the satisfaction of the Department, in a penalty equal to one fifth of the amount of each contract made under these proposals, will be required of each contractor, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, to be executed within ten days after the acceptance of the bid.

Every offer must be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, and acknowledged before a magistrate as such, or certified by a United States district judge, attorney, navy agent, or collector of the customs, to the effect that, if the bid or bids be accepted, the bidder or bidders will duly execute a contract in good faith, according to the provisions and terms of this advertisement, within ten days after acceptance; and that in case the said party or parties offering shall fail to enter into the contract as aforesaid, he or they guaranty to make good the difference between the offer of said party or parties and the next lowest bidder. All bids must be sealed and endorsed "Proposals for oil for light houses," and then placed in another envelope, and directed, prepaid, to the Secretary of the Light-house Board, Washington city.

All bids will be opened, publicly, at the hour and on the day specified.

Payments will be made for the several lots of oil within thirty days after they shall have been received by the United States.

By order of the Light-house Board:

f17 5w4aw W. B. SHUBRICK, Chairman.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 3 feet long; or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! A clock draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

THE MODEL COOK is adapted equally well for wood and coal, summer and winter. It will be found to be the stove for farmers, mechanics or professional men; for boarding houses or private families—in fact for every place where a good stove is needed.

We believe the MODEL COOK to be the very best stove in the Market, and invite every one to examine it whether they wish to purchase or not. It has had a very extensive sale since its introduction. Reference might be made to more than one hundred families in this city or vicinity who are using the stove, and give it the highest commendation.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Raitt, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, Rufus W. Jarvis, Francis W. Jarvis, Thos. L. Pullock, Jacob Wendell, Capt. Jacob Thompson, Gen. J. G. Hadley, G. Melvin Huntress, Jos. D. Harrington, James F. Jenness, Wm. C. Newton, Horton D. Walker, Benj. Cheever, John Trundy, Richard L. Lambert, Joseph Stiles, John Senter, Wm. Bell, Cyrus Plumer, Freeman Hurd, James M. Locke, Daniel L. Randall, Isaiah Wilson, John E. Roberts—of Portsmouth; Samuel C. Dixon, Daniel I. Pryor, Cushman Pryor, of Northwest Island; Geo. N. Dixon, Samuel F. Paul, Elias Remick, Timothy Dame, Eliot; Wm. S. Locke, Benj. Ferland, Mrs. Wm. Locke, Kittery Point; Geo. C. VICTOR COAL STOVE.

We offer this beautiful coal burner to the public, with full confidence in its merits.

It was brought into market two years since, and has come rapidly into use.

The Victor is one of the handsomest parlor stoves in the market, and is perfect in its operation. The arrangement for dumping the ashes is very fine—no dust need escape into the room—a continuous fire may be kept throughout the winter—the coal all burned, and no clinkers made.

The quantity of fuel used is very small indeed. There is in this stove an excellent arrangement for reaching the room in which it is placed; a feature not possessed by any other parlor stove.

Some of the sizes are provided with an oven and boiling place, making them very desirable for a dining room.

We sold a large number of Victor Stoves in our city last season, and they receive the highest commendation from those who are using them.

We have also the celebrated McGregor Stove, so well known in the market as to need no commendation.

A great variety of cheaper Stoves for coal and wood—Coal hods—Patent Coal-sifters.

COAL LININGS,

and Repairing pieces for most of the stoves in use. Job Work attended to with dispatch.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES!

They are the Purest!

The Best!

The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

Have you used the Strela Matches?

J. F. SHORES, JR., No. 1 Congress Block, has just received from the manufactory a large lot of

STRELA MATCHES.

Those matches are without sulphur and without smell in burning, which adapts them for the Sick Room, the Parlor, or for general use, being nearly as cheap as any other matches. They are put up in boxes of 150 matches, and are sold at the low price of THREE cents per box, or 12 boxes containing 1800 matches for 25 cents—being 2 for a cent!

Dealers supplied at the manufacturer's price.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

RYE, N. H., Feb. 28, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWEET'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his HUMOR WASH, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal DR. SWEET'S PANACEA, which fully cures all kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited all of my food I succeeded in eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. SWEET'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER J. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1861.

DR. SWEET: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was affected with scrofulous humor, and that previously you visiting our house in the spring of 1860, she had been troubled for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Sweet's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWEET, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

DR. GOODALL,
DENTIST,
60 Congress St.
PORTSMOUTH.

DENTISTRY.

NO. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, that he has on hand at all times a full set of teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER, (that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the country, and is now prepared to do all work on RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly,) if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz: It is very light and pleasant, and is equally as perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no insertices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set of Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BURNETT, for particular success in extracting teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely done with ease. The draft is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable article.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The claim set forth by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The economizing of space being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off, with a large amount of the heat generated, while the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

MATHEWS'
VENETIAN LIQUID
HAIR DYE.

☞ MATHEWS' VENETIAN HAIR DYE.—This celebrated Dye was first prepared in 1840, since that time it has been USED BY THOUSANDS, and in no instance has it failed to give PERFECT SATISFACTION.

THE VENETIAN DYE is the cheapest in the world. Its price is ONLY FIFTY CENTS, and each bottle contains DOUBLE THE QUANTITY OF DYE, contained in those usually sold for ONE DOLLAR.

THE VENETIAN DYE is the safest composition of its class. It is WARRANTED NOT TO INJURE the hair, or the scalp, in the least.

THE VENETIAN DYE works with RAPIDITY AND CERTAINTY. It causes no annoyance or trouble to those who use it.

THE VENETIAN DYE produces any shade that may be desired,—one that will not fade nor change, nor wash out,—one that is as permanent as the hair itself.

THE VENETIAN DYE does not, in any manner, interfere with the NATURAL MOTIONS OF THE HAIR,—it neither scorches nor dries it.

THE VENETIAN DYE is the best, cheapest, safest, most convenient, most successful, and most INTELLIGENT Dye ever used.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular, can be built by filling out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a tancer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE,
A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by Dr. WM. GRACE, surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Flesh Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Polons.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Frozen Limbs.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scurvy.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Callouses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Salt Rheum.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sores
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find the Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.
DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.
By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since the first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of
GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Seminal Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Urinary Abscesses, those frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.
Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dickness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.
Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.
Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your case. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

CAUTION
To Females in Delicate Health.
DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.
Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.
Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.
Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.
N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps or they will not be answered.
Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
April1, 1862—1y Saw

CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.
Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon the most difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.
Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated Dr. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.
P. S.—Dr. Dow imparts and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

THE REBELLION.

A letter to Gen. Davidson, from a person who accompanied a recent scout to Batesville, says:—

The rebel Gen. Hindman's army is utterly demoralized and totally inefficient. 300 of his troops were frozen to death during their retreat from Van Buren. Hindman was once ordered to Vicksburg but his men refused to go. Upwards of 200 deserters were concealed in the bush 20 miles from Batesville, the people of which, by a large majority, are in favor of a permanent occupation of the country by the Federal army.

A Cairo special dispatch says that on Wednesday last a scouting party met a body of the rebels 5 miles back of Lake Providence. A warm engagement ensued, in which the Federals lost a few men. Many of the rebels were killed, and 32 prisoners taken. Ninety horses were captured.

A Cairo dispatch, 17th, reports that the 14th Wisconsin and 11th Illinois regiments were attacked near Lake Providence on Tuesday, by three rebel regiments. The latter were repulsed and a number taken prisoners—one report says an entire Mississippi regiment. The steamer White Cloud, bound from St. Louis to Memphis, was searched at Island No. 10, and a rebel mail found on board. Advices from below state that the rebels at Fort Hudson are communicating with the Gulf by way of Atchafalaya river. The Queen of the West, as soon as she is repaired, will intercept that movement.

It is said the new Monitor gunboat Indianola ran by the batteries at Vicksburg on Friday night, in safety, notwithstanding the efforts of the rebels to sink her.

A refugee from Charleston reports a large rebel force there. The citizens have generally left. A mutiny recently took place in which several North Carolina regiments were engaged. The ringleaders were shot by order of Beauregard. The city is strongly fortified on all sides, except the west, and is supplied with iron-clads to defend the harbor. Two of these are destitute of machinery—probably the engines captured on the Princess Royal were designed for these.

It is positively stated at Washington that the attack on Charleston and Savannah is to take place on the 20th. The rebel guns at Charleston are said to number 290, some of great calibre.

Gen. Banks declines to receive the resignations of officers indignant at the employment of negro regiments. It is rumored there has been a collision at Ship Island between the negro soldiers and members of the Maine 13th, with fatal results.

☞ To hear and read after the abolitionists, or their opponents, one might suppose, if he were green enough, that negro slavery, or anti slavery, has been the cause, not only of the present war, but of all the wars and woes of the past, in this and all other countries. Pshaw! so long as nations desire to fight, so long will they find excuses, provocations, justifications, in plenty; and while we have no love for slavery, black or white, and not much more for the "anti-slavery" party—it is easy for any unbiased mind to see that there are always hobbies in abundance for those who like to mount them—though they do not always "carry safe" unskilful or impetuous riders. The antis and the pros can alike apply this remark.

☞ The Autocrat of all the infer— internal taxes, Commissioner Boutwell, has decreed that newspaper publishers must pay $10 tax yearly, as retail dealers. All right, we suppose—but newspaper publishing is getting to be gay and festive business, with the paper-makers' combination; the taxes on paper, ink and type; then on papers after they are printed and sold; and finally, if there is anything left, another tax on income—not to mention the liability of the publisher's being jugged if he thinks and dares to say a white man is as good as a black one. Heigho!

CONGRESS.

TUESDAY.—The Senate passed the bill to prevent members of Congress, agents of the Government and others from taking recompense for procuring places, offices or contracts. The Fortification bill was reported back. The bill authorizing letters of marque and reprisal was called up, and a debate ensued. Messrs. Collamer, McDougal, Grimes, and others favoring that bill, and Messrs. Sumner and Dixon opposing it. A substitute was adopted, authorizing the President in all foreign and domestic wars, to issue letters of marque, and to make all needful regulations,—the authority being limited to three years. The Senate also passed the bill to facilitate proof in the allowance of pensions; also the bill to give greater efficiency to the judicial system of the United States.

The House passed the Indian appropriation bill. The resolution declaring Messrs. Flanders and Hahn, of Louisiana, entitled to seats, was adopted.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Col. Pike of the 16th Regiment, is seriously ill of fever at New Orleans.

—— Capt. John P. Wilbur, of the Third N. H. Volunteers, has been found guilty of "disobedience of orders," and of "conduct prejudicial to good order and military discipline," and sentenced "to be dismissed the military service of the United States."

—— It is stated that a prominent municipal officer, in this State, urged, when a public dinner was being prepared, that sardines be added to the bill of fare. He was told, among other things, that they might be too expensive. He persisted, and the controversy growing warm, it was even intimated that he did not know what a sardine was. With high indignation he replied—"I guess I know what a sardine is,—a chunk of meat between two chunks of bread!"

—— The following are the resolutions adopted by the Union Convention at Manchester last Tuesday:—

Believing that there can be no neutrals in the present struggle for national existence, and that he who is not for his country is against it, therefore

Resolved, That we are in favor of the continued prosecution of the war until this unholy rebellion is suppressed, and of the use of every means recognized in civil warfare to accomplish that result.

2. That to the language of the lamented Douglas, we have no sympathy with those who are attempting to make political capital out of the miseries of our country.

3. That not to stand by the government in this crisis, would be a base desertion of our gallant countrymen now defending our flag in the field, and would render of no avail the blood already shed in defence of the Constitution and the Union.

4. That we present the candidates this day nominated as unconditional Union men, untrammelled by old party ties, and pledged, under all circumstances, to defend and perpetuate the Union and the Constitution.

5. That we recognize in Col. Walter Harriman, a man well known to the people of this State, who is illustrating his faith by his works. Let the sons of the Granite State mete out to him the reward which his patriotic services deserve.

6. That the State Central Committee be instructed to fill up the Slate of the North Finance Committee with an amendment, providing that no contract shall be entered into for the construction of the iron sea steamers, for which twelve million dollars are appropriated, until their plans and specifications have been approved by a Board of three skilful naval officers, and advertisements for proposals to build have been made according to law. The provision for building a floating dock at New York is stricken out. The appropriation for the dry dock at Norfolk ($85,000) and the Naval Hospital ($18,500) are stricken out, and also that of $17,500 for a Naval Hospital at Mound City, Illinois. The provision for an extra midshipman for each Congressional District during the rebellion is omitted.

"GOIN' PERMISKUS."—The following is from the Cincinnati Commercial:—

"During the time when Kirby Smith was supposed to be beleaguering this city, the colored population were in a state of agitation not second in demonstrativeness to that prevailing among white folks. An incident took place at one of their "war meetings" which should be recorded. The able-bodied colored men were debating the propriety of tendering their services to the Government as volunteers for the war. The prevailing impression had been that they ought to do it, and their patriotic emotions were at African temperature. But before the vote was taken, a tall and very black fellow produced a sudden revulsion of feeling by delivering himself as follows: "I'm in favor of goin', and will go in a minnit, if we go permiskus with white men. I'll tell you why I'm in favor of goin' permiskus. If we go permiskus we'll have fair play. But let 'em get a reg'ment all of niggers, and dey put 'em in de fore front of de battle, and bose sides kill every one of 'em. I say so, sah, (rolling his eyes around the audience) and I ain't goin' dat way, sah. I ain't goin' a step, less I go permiskus. No, sah."—And the able and eloquent Ethiopean subsided, and a solemn sensational pause followed. The eyes of the assembled darkies snapped white and wild at the idea that to go in any other way than "permiskus" was certain death. And as they thought the chances of "goin' permiskus" were not brilliant, the meeting adjourned without taking action.

APPLES.—

"The original tree, of the Newtown Pippin, of world-wide repute, was a seedling which grew near a swamp in Newtown, Long Island, about 1700, on the estate of Girsham Moore, and the fruit was called the Girsham Moore Pippin for a long time. The tree lasted over a hundred years, and finally died from excessive cutting, it having been much resorted to for scions to graft with.

"The Baldwin, New England's favorite apple, originated in Wilmington, near Boston, more than a century ago; (if it had started last year, I don't believe the Yankees would like it so excessively well) it grew on the farm of Mr. Butters, in the part of the town called Somerville, and was known as the Butters apple, also known as the Woodpeckers' apple; (the woodpeckers having perforated the tree) being disseminated by Col. Baldwin & Sons, it was called Baldwin apple."

[Communication.]

STAND BY THE RIGHT.

BY UNCLE TOBY.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every law fall."

This beautiful motto, which has stood at the head of the Chronicle for some months past, is worthy not only of letters of gold, but of the higher honor of being borne on the tablet of every honest heart.

Reading them to-day for the hundreth time, with admiration, puts Uncle Toby in mind of some past events.

Seven years ago we listened for an hour and a half, to a very able speech from Howell Cobb, (now a rebel) who came all the way from Washington to instruct us in politics, and teach us our duty.

He began by professing great love of country, and value for the Union! and said he must introduce the great question which agitated the country and threatened the Union, viz: slavery. Yet he said he would not discuss the slavery question (i. e. as to its right or wrong,)—but would plant himself on the Constitution, and hold us to the bargain which he claimed was made to guarantee slavery.

There could be but one reason why so able and shrewd a speaker as Mr. Cobb would not discuss the question, viz: because there is no right in slavery, though there may be power to hold men in bondage. Had there been a right side to it, he would have made the most of it.

One of his next efforts was to advocate the extreme and absurd unconstitutional view of state rights, on which the Secessionists have since based their Rebellion.

It was most refreshing after this, to hear him address the Know Nothings, most eloquently, on the right and wrong of that question,—on which he said "New Hampshire as a sovereign State, had the power to oppress the poor foreigner, who had fled here for refuge from his foreign task master! We possessed the power to grind him to powder! But had we the right to do so? Did our revolutionary fathers purchase this right when they fought for their own liberties? No, no."

While we were glad to hear Mr. Cobb make the distinction between power and right in one case, we were sorry he could not carry it out in all cases; for his argument against the K. N.'s was an unanswerable plea against slavery, if applied to that subject. But we were not surprised, in the least, at the self contradiction, for this is one of the common things among men who argue in favor of a wrong.

It is a curious thing to hear him ask if our fathers purchased a right. If life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, be rights given us of God our Creator, we need not buy them. If they be not rights, then purchase of certain powers or privileges cannot convert them into rights.

This distinction may seem too nice, to some readers,—but it is very important,—and for want of it much confusion arises,—and people, who really think much alike, fall out and quarrel.

The Declaration of Independence did not purport to create or purchase a single right, but claimed all rights as the gift of our Creator, universal and impartial;—and in the various conflicts of opinion which have since arisen in this country, well would it have been, had our people and our rulers more generally regarded that standard rule of right. Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them.

The disregard of right, when interest was supposed to call for it, has been in this country as elsewhere, the root of evil, which has grown to a gigantic tree,—and now we eat the bitter fruit of our own doings, and are getting rapidly filled with our own devices.

The system which seemed to make rich, is now making poor;—the parties who combined together to extend iniquity by fraud and lying and conquest, are shedding each others' blood over the very question they have settled wrong so many times; and they who were so deaf to the law above all human laws, are terribly frightened now at the thunder of divine judgment, and call on rocks and mountains that cannot cover nor hide them.

In the midst of all this, the men who love justice, judgment and equity, may possess their souls in patience—for the day of redemption draweth nigh. They may see parties rise and fall;—and nations also.—But the right will prevail, and systems of iniquity, however entrenched, must and will be blotted out.

☞ Mr. Miles, the actor, has met with a very severe loss. His beautiful mare Minnehaha has died at Baltimore, having caught cold.

GRACE'S SALVE.—This admirable specific is destined to come into general use. We have tested its virtues to complete satisfaction in our family, and can give the Salve an unqualified approval. We deem it especially fortunate, at this time, that the Salve is manufactured in sufficient quantity to meet the immense demand that exists for it in our army. In very many cases it has produced wonderful effects, and is fairly entitled to the honorable distinction of being called "the soldier's best friend."—Boston Express.

☞ They had a kind of semi-public baby show in "Poodue" (Cape Elizabeth, Me.,) recently, and the mothers were requested to decide which baby should have the prize as the smartest and handsomest. When the slips containing the votes were examined, it was found that each mother had voted her own the handsomest.

☞ Wm. D. Blake, who killed Freeman C. Patterson at Camden, Me., gave himself up to the officer, and is in jail. The court for Knox county is in session, and the grand jury is called together, so that if a bill is brought in he will be tried at the current session.

☞ Senator Wilson stated in the Senate, in answer to a question, that the report of Gen. McClellan on the Peninsula campaign will soon be made—so says a Washington letter.

☞ The new agricultural department is to have a botanist, a chemist, an entomologist, a translator, a draughtsman, a statistician, and no end of clerks with fat salaries.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD,
February 9th, 1863.

Sealed Proposals will be received at this office until 1 o'clock p. m. on SATURDAY, the 14th day of March, 1863, for supplying the Light-house Establishment with forty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter strained sperm oil, to be divided into two lots, and to be delivered at the times undermentioned, alongside of the government supply vessels, or at the warehouse or other place of deposit, to be designated by the Inspecting Officer or other authorized agent of the Light-house Board, in strong, tight, well-made casks, suitable for shipping, in good order, of an average capacity, each, of from eighty to one hundred gallons.

Either lot or all of them may be delivered at New York, New London, Sag Harbor, Boston, New Bedford, Edgartown, or Nantucket, at the option of the bidders. The place of delivery must be distinctly stated in the bids, and will be embraced in the contracts.

The lots will be delivered as follows, viz:

Lot No 1. Thirty thousand gallons (30,000) on the 15th day of June, 1863, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 2. Ten thousand gallons (10,000) on the 1st day of October, 1863, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

No part of the oil proposed for and to be embraced in the contracts under this advertisement will be accepted, received, or paid for, until it shall have been proved to the entire satisfaction of the person or persons charged with its examination, test, and inspection, to be the best quality pure winter strained or bagged sperm oil, free from mixture with other or inferior oils and adulterations, and that it will remain in a sufficiently fluid state for free burning in lamps at a temperature of 32° or lower of Fahrenheit's standard thermometer.

The usual means for determining the character and quality of the oil will be employed, viz: for specific gravity, by burning to determine the length of time the oil will burn in untrimmed capillary or jacket lamps, the amount of residuum in each lamp after it burns out, and, if necessary, any other proper tests to arrive at correct conclusions that may be deemed necessary.

The casks must be gauged, under the direction and personal supervision of the inspecting officer, by a custom-house or other legally authorized or sworn gauger, according the United States standard, and must be marked and accepted before they are removed from the cellar or warehouse of the contractor.

Proposals will be received and considered for each lot separately, or for all of them, at the option of the bidder; but no bid will be considered for a less quantity than that specified as one lot, to be delivered at one time and place. Each bid must state explicitly the price per gallon, in writing, the number of lot or lots bid for, and the time and place of delivery, conforming to this advertisement.

Bids submitted by different members of the same firm or copartnership will not be considered.

The Light-house Board, under the authority of the Department, reserves the right to reject any bid, although it may be the lowest, for other considerations than price.

No bid will be considered for any other kind or description of oil than that specifically called for in this advertisement.

A bond, with security, to the satisfaction of the Department, in a penalty equal to one fifth of the amount of each contract made under these proposals, will be required of each contractor, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, to be executed within ten days after the acceptance of the bids.

Every offer must be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, and known to the Department as such, or certified by a United States District Judge, attorney, navy agent, or collector of the customs, to the effect that, if the bid or bids be accepted, the bidder or bidders will duly execute a contract in good faith, according to the provisions and terms of this advertisement, within ten days after acceptance; and that in case the said party or parties offering shall fail to enter into the contract as aforesaid, he or they guaranty to make good the difference between the offer of said party or parties and the next lowest bidder. All bids must be sealed and endorsed "Proposals for oil for light houses," and then placed in another envelope, and directed, prepaid, to the Secretary of the Light-house Board, Washington city.

All bids will be opened, publicly, at the hour and on the day specified.

Payments will be made for the several lots of oil within thirty days after they shall have been received by the United States.

By order of the Light-house Board:
f17 3w3taw W. B. SHUBRICK, Chairman.

Rubber Band Carpet Sweeper.

TRY IT! TRY IT!!

It saves Money; it saves Carpets; it saves Furniture; it saves Labor; it is cheaper than Brooms at five cents apiece.

It gathers up all dust, dirt, and loose lint on the carpets, and raises no dust to settle on the furniture, dresses or ornaments, or to smother, stifle and irritate the lungs.

It does not wear the carpets half so much as brooms or any other sweeper.

It is the only practicable sweeper made, and the only article fit to sweep a carpet.

With our late improvements it gives universal satisfaction to all who use it according to directions. For sale at No. 12 Market Street by Local.

☞ The body of one of the persons lost on the wreck of schooner Rouser, was picked up on Tuesday evening in the lower harbor. It was evidently one of the crew of the vessel. He was about 5 feet, 10 inches in height; had dark hair, and sandy whiskers—the latter mostly on the chin.—He was probably about 35 years of age.

I. O. O. F.—The levee by the Strawberry Bank Encampment, at Irving Hall, takes place this evening. These are always highly successful affairs; the privilege of participating is confined to the initiated.

☞ On Wednesday noon, quite a melee occurred at Kittery Foreside,—the participants being Navy Yard workmen. It commenced in an altercation between two parties, one charging the other with the habit of visiting the Foreside liquor shops too freely. One harsh word brought on another, until at last came blows. The friends of the two contending principals, "pitched in," and black eyes and battered faces were soon exhibited to a large and excited crowd.—The singular feature of this row is in the fact that the two principal combatants, with whom the quarrel originated, came out without a scratch, while the seconds were badly bruised, as stated above. Both parties are doubtless ashamed of the affair, if not, they should be.

☞ The N. Y. Times believes our safety lies in being thoroughly prepared for whatever relations toward Louis Napoleon he may prefer—peace and steadfast friendship, or a war that shall put to the extreme test his strength and ours.

Jacob Howe, Esq., of Haverhill, who has held the office of deputy sheriff 26 years, has declined a re-appointment.—John Akerman, Esq., of Newburyport, is now the oldest deputy, having acted in that capacity 21 years. He was re-appointed last month.—Herald.

☞ Rev. W. Spaulding of the Universalist Society in Salem, has been voted a vacation of one year—his salary to be continued, and the parish to supply their own pulpit. This is in order that he may recruit his health; otherwise, he was about to resign his pastorate.

☞ Rev. Prof. Phelps, of Andover Theological Seminary, has received a unanimous call from the North Congregational Church and Society (Dr. Bushnell's) in Hartford. He has the subject under consideration.

SHAKESPEARE AS A PROPHET.—The admirers of the immortal bard have claimed for him a foresight as little short of inspired prophecy. He wrote not for a day, but for all time. It would certainly seem that when he wrote "who steals my purse steals trash," he referred prophetically to pocket-books containing postage stamps and shinplasters.

☞ Turkey has just issued postage stamps, having long been the only power in Europe that had not adopted that mode of paying for letters.

☞ Gen. McKinstry, one of Fremont's men, against whom grave charges have been made in Missouri, has been found guilty and dismissed from the service.

☞ The price of coal has been reduced in New York. The mild weather keeps the coal piles up and the prices down.

☞ Mrs. Deborah Duane, grand daughter of Benjamin Franklin, died in Philadelphia last Thursday.

☞ Ex-Gov. Morgan has just purchased a magnificent dwelling house in New York for $82,000, cash.

☞ A Washington correspondent of the Providence Post, says that the Ninth Army Corps are now well on their way to Newbern, N. C.

☞ The N. Y. World's dispatch says the League Island and New London Navy Yard interests have compromised and agreed to ask of Congress an appropriation of $250,000 for each.

☞ The engine house, machine and other shops, at Newark, N. J., belonging to the Morris and Essex Railroad, were totally destroyed by fire on Wednesday morning. Four locomotives were badly damaged. Loss $30,000; insured. The fire was incendiary.

☞ The Connecticut Democratic State Convention was held at Hartford on Wednesday. An informal ballot showed 450 votes. Thos. H. Seymour had a majority over all.

☞ Wednesday noon gold was quoted in New York at 161. U. S. Sixes, 96 3-4 and 97; Seven-thirties, 103 1-4 a 103 3-8.

☞ Capt. Hiram Paulding has been confirmed by the Senate as Rear Admiral on the retired list.

New American Cyclopedia.

This most valuable publication will be completed by the issue of the 16th Volume during the present month; forming a complete epitome of human knowledge. Those who have taken the volumes as they have been issued, and have most frequently consulted its pages, have been most completely satisfied with it. Says one: "We who have occasion to refer to it daily, can speak of its literary and mechanical execution with entire satisfaction. THE NEW AMERICAN CYCLOPEDIA is correct, full in its information and conveniently arranged for reference: the articles are concise and complete." On the issue of the 16th Volume the price will be raised 50 cents per volume to all who have not been subscribers to the work.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 3 feet long; or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

THE MODEL COOK is adapted equally well for wood and coal, summer and winter. It will be found to be THE STOVE for farmers, mechanics or professional men; for boarding houses or private families—in fact for every place where a good stove is needed.

We believe the MODEL COOK to be the very best Stove in the Market, and invite every one to examine it whether they wish to purchase or not. It has had a very extensive sale since its introduction. Reference might be made to more than a hundred families in this city or vicinity who are using the Stove, and give it the highest commendation.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Raitt, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Francis C. Jarvis, Thos. L. Pullock, Jacob Wendell, Capt. Jacob Thompson, Gen. G. Bailey, U. Melvin Hussey, Jos. D. Akerman, James F. Shores, Wm. C. Newton, Horton D. Walker, Benj. Cheever, John Trundy, Richard L. Handall, Geo. Rice, Benj. F. Cammett, Benj M. Parker, Charles A. Wiggin, George W. Plumer, Nath'l Dennett, Henry F. Gerrish, John Marvatt, Thos Murphy, Capt. Wm. Lambert, Joseph Stiles, John Senter, Wm. Bell, Cyrus Plumer, Freeman Hurd, James M. Locke, Daniel L. Randall, Isaiah Wilson, John R. Roberts—of Portsmouth; Samuel Frost, Enoch Daniel, Fryor, Cushman Pryor, of Treffethen's Island; Geo. N. Dixon, Samuel F. Paul, Elias Remick, Timothy Dame, Eliot; Wm. E. Cole, Benj. Fernald, Mrs. Wm. Locke, Kittery; R. F. Gerrish, Kittery Point; Hon. Clement March, Albert Mitchell, Stephen M. Weeks, Geo. W. Davis, Greenland; John Smart, Stratham; Mrs. Reuben F. Jenness, David Jenness, Moses Philbrick, Rye.

VICTOR COAL STOVE.

We offer this beautiful coal burner to the public, with full confidence in its merits.

It was brought into market two years since, and has come rapidly into use.

The Victor is one of the handsomest parlor stoves in the market, and is perfect in its operation. The arrangement for dumping the ashes is very fine—no dust need escape into the room—a continuous fire may be kept throughout the winter—the coal all burned, and no clinkers made.

The quantity of fuel used is very small indeed. There is in this stove an excellent arrangement for ventilating the room in which it is placed; a feature not possessed by any other parlor stove.

Some of the sizes are provided with an oven and boiling place, making them very desirable for a dining room.

We sold a large number of Victor Stoves in our city last season, and they receive the highest commendation from those who are using them.

We have also the celebrated McGregor Stove, so well known in the market as to need no commendation.

A great variety of cheaper Stoves for coal and wood—Coal-hods—Patent Coal-sifters.

COAL LININGS,

and Repairing pieces for most of the stoves in use. Job Work attended to with dispatch.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES

They are the Purest!

The Best!

The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." "The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

Have you used the Strela Matches?

G. F. SHORES, JR., No. 1 Congress Block, has just received from the manufactory a large lot of
STRELA MATCHES.
These matches are without sulphur and without smell in burning, which adapts them for the Sick Room, the Parlor, or general use, being nearly as cheap as any other kind of Matches. They are put up in boxes of 150 matches, and are sold at the retail price of "twenty cents per box, or 13 boxes containing 1950 matches for 25 cents—being 12 for a cent!"
Dealers supplied at the manufacturer's price.

ATTENTION, THE WHOLE!

RYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest, and suffering her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some bottles of your celebrated Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his HUMOR WASH, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold a great deal to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it.— JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.
I have for several years been afflicted with dyspepsia, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not been at least troubled from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I. CRESSEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.
DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humors, and had spent her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some bottles of your celebrated Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his HUMOR WASH, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold a great deal to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it.— JOSIAH JENNESS.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made in American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent issued, sent for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any other agency to be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant testimony, if needed, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full records of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

REAL ESTATE IN GREENLAND FOR SALE OR TO LET.
The desirable residence owned by ALONZO E. BROWN, and now occupied by CHARLES H. MENDUM, Esq. The house is two-story, and was built about six years since; very convenient; beautiful for a furnace; has a barn and carriage-house attached; sufficient quantity of excellent water; there is filled land enough adjoining to allow tilling and pasturing, with a young and thrifty orchard. The premises are within five minutes' walk of the Academy and Post Office, and the railroad depot to Concord, Boston and Portland. The above is one of the pleasantest residences in Greenland. Possession given about the 1st of October. For further particulars apply to

DR. GOODALL,
DENTIST,

PORTSMOUTH.

DENTISTRY.
NO. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1862.
DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, that by last of late many calls to insert Gold Plates on VULCANIZED RUBBER, that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, as well as the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the tissues of the mouth and cheeks. There are no insertices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the union is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best dentists it will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do as heretofore. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TRASKWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Gold Fillings. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention. All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large and convenient closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the foll wing purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about erecting or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, without noise and agreeable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while others have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the smoke-pipe, without being consumed. This objection so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the fuel, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of our dwellings.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus complicating, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

VENETIAN LIQUID
HAIR DYE.
☞ MATTHEWS' VENETIAN HAIR DYE.—This celebrated Dye was first prepared in 1826; since that time it has been used by THOUSANDS, and in no instance has it failed to give PERFECT SATISFACTION.
THE VENETIAN DYE is the cheapest in the world. Its price is ONLY FIFTY CENTS, and each bottle contains DOUBLE THE QUANTITY OF DYE, contained in those usually sold for ONE DOLLAR.
THE VENETIAN DYE is the safest composition of its class. It is NOT A DRASTIC DYE TO INJURE THE HAIR, or the scalp, in the least.
THE VENETIAN DYE works with RAPIDITY AND CERTAINTY. It causes no annoyance or trouble to those who use it.
THE VENETIAN DYE produces any shade that may be desired,—one that will not fade or rub off with out,—one that is as permanent as the hair itself.
THE VENETIAN DYE does not, in any manner, interfere with the NATURAL SOFTNESS OF THE HAIR,—it neither scorches nor dries it.
THE VENETIAN DYE is the best, cheapest, safest, most convenient, most successful, and most permanent Dye ever used.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.
1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.
2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.
3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.
4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.
5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when polished the work presents one whole piece.
6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.
DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,
Has had four years of practical experience in making the material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE,
A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.
This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by DR. WM. GRACE, surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Flesh Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Felons.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Frozen Limbs.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Salt Rheum.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sores
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.
And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find this Salve their best friend.
It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much troubled suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.
DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.
By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of
GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Bunions, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.
Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be not deceived to health and happiness.
Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.
Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capsules, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

CAUTION
To Females in Delicate Health.
DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.
Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.
Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.
Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.
N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.
Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
April, 1862—1y3taw

CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.
Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.
Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the estimation than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.
P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

The rebels report that a large force of National troops were landing, on Sunday, at Newport News.

The rebels are still throwing up fortifications opposite Falmouth. Jackson's force is said to be back of the first range of hills, two miles south of Fredericksburg. Lee is supposed to be there.

The Cumberland river is cleared of the rebels between Clarkesville and Nashville.

The rebels at Richmond believe that the entire Army of the Potomac is evacuating its position and being divided between Washington and Fortress Monroe. Gens. Stuart and A. P. Hill were in Richmond on the 16th inst., and addressed the Legislature. Rebel papers confirm the report that one of our steamers ran by the Vicksburg batteries, on the night of the 13th, without injury. The Union forces are throwing up batteries on the Louisiana side, it was supposed for protection when throwing pontoon bridges across the river.

It is reported that expeditions have been sent from Hilton Head to obstruct the Ogeechee and Wilmington rivers, to prevent the escape of the rebel steamers Nashville and Atlanta, and thus to permit the iron-clads Montauk and Passaic to rejoin the fleet.

☞ The rebels assembled at Frankfort Ky., on Wednesday, ostensibly for the purpose of making nominations for the August election. The House of Representatives refused them the use of their hall by a very decided vote, and they rented the theatre. The chairman, on taking his seat, said he hoped the Convention would do nothing that good, loyal citizens should not do. In the meantime a regiment of soldiers, with fixed bayonets, formed in front of the theatre, and Col. Gilbert took the stand and said there were those there known to be rebel spies and emissaries; that convention was useless, as none but men of undoubted loyalty could hold or run for any office; such a meeting as that they should not hold within the limits of his command. After he had spoken, an attempt was made to offer resolutions, which were respectfully declined by Col. Gilbert. The body then adjourned.

☞ The Master Printers and Stereotypers of Boston and vicinity have formed a "New England Association of Printers and Journalists,"—"for the purpose of social intercourse, the interchange of friendly feelings, and the elevation of their profession; (that's what we have always styled it, the printing "profession,") and to co-operate in promoting the welfare of all industrial interests that may be within the sphere of its influence." And they invite all master printers and journalists in New England, to become members. And "as a measure to promote the objects above designated," (especially the first-named, and not the least important and desirable in this land where "social intercourse and the interchange of friendly feelings" is too little thought of and too much neglected,) "it has been voted by the Association to hold a social festive gathering of the members, and of individuals eligible for membership, disposed to attend, on Tuesday, March 3d, at the Parker House, Boston." Supper at 7,—pretty early, but we shall try and be there, for it won't do to be late at such a "feast of reason," &c., as that will be. And we are the more ready to accept this invitation, and endorse this "social festive," more earnest now, from the fact that so many people now-a-days are averse to any pleasure or hilarity, because of our grevious national troubles—which to us seems absurd, to refuse to enjoy some blessings, because deprived of others. "When you can't do just as you would, do the best you can."

Oldest Editors.—Hon. Nathan Hale, whose death we recorded last week, in his 79th year, established the Boston Daily Advertiser in 1814. He was probably the oldest editor in New England, with the exception of Hon. John Prentiss of Keene, who commenced the Keene Sentinel fifteen years before Mr. Hale commenced the Boston Advertiser. Mr. Prentiss yet writes with all the vigor of early manhood.

☞ The pirate Alabama captured and burned, Jan. 26, barque Golden Rule, from New York for Aspinwall; Jan. 27, brig Chastelain, of Boston, from Gaudaloupe for Cienfuegos; and on the 31st, schooner Hanover, from Boston for Aux Cayes.—The crews were, with the customary barbarity of Semmes, robbed of all they possessed and then landed.

☞ Thomas H. Seymour, the Democratic candidate for Governor in Connecticut, is bitterly opposed to the war; the resolutions passed and the speeches made at the Convention on Wednesday, correspond with his sentiments. The Convention took strong ground against the Administration.

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

From our Regular Correspondent.

THE LIGHT GUARD BALL.

METROPOLIS, Feb. 16th.

Dear Chronicle:—This long anxiously expected event, which has kept the belles and beaux of our city in a state of pleasant anticipation and excitement for several weeks past, came off on Thursday evening last, at our magnificent Academy of Music, and was a complete success both in point of attendance and arrangements, and far exceded any former fete given by this popular organization.

These entertainments, which, since 1827, have been given annually by the "Tigers," (as they are familiarly called) have achieved such a high reputation, that a bare announcement of their recurrence is sufficient to attract a large attendance of the elite of the community; and they are looked forward to, throughout the year, by the votaries of Terpichore, very much as New Yorkers in general anticipate "New Year's" or New Englanders, a "Merrie Thanksgiving."

Those of my readers who have visited the academy can recall its proportions—resembling the longitudinal section of a pear, with the stage at the smaller extremity, the parquette in front, and round its sides and rear, in horseshoe form, four tiers of boxes, rising one above the other.

The interior decorations were of the most complete character. As usual, the whole of the parquette was covered over, on a level with the stage, forming a floor more than ten times the size of that in your old Congress Hall, and sufficiently large to accommodate 250 couples. At the stage end of the room, which was beautifully canopied, the flags of the "Guard," and the war-worn colors of the 71st Regiment, (Co. "A" of which is composed chiefly of L. G.'s) were tastefully draped over the American shield, and on a platform two handsome howitzers were mounted, flanked by pyramids of shell, rifles and knapsacks. Implements of war, and the bear skin shakos of the Guard also ornamented the niches between the boxes.

In the rear of the stage the words "Light Guard, 1827" were made to appear by hundreds of tiny gas jets forming the letters and figures in proper proportions.

The fronts of the boxes were gaily decorated with the flags of all nations, and military insignia, and from the centre of the dome, reaching to every portion of the upper circle, were red, white and blue streamers, forming an indescribably beautiful effect in the floods of light that rolled out under them. Pendant at short intervals from each tier of boxes, and from the chandeliers, amid bouquets and wreaths of flowers, were elegantly finished cages, containing more than five hundred canaries, which made the room vocal with their purest melody; as did also Dodworth's full corps of one hundred performers, divided equally into a string, and piece bands, one occupying a portion of the lower tier of boxes on each side of the room.

Viewed from the stage, all these costly decorations, the crowds of ladies in elegant attire who moved in the mazy dance upon the floor, or who as spectators filled the four tiers of boxes, and formed a living, flashing background towering eighty feet above the gay throng of revellers below; the Light Guard in their white, gilt-laced coats, and bright blue pants; Dodworth's grand harmony, and the rival tones of the canaries, which, at each interval in the strains, burst out with a gush of melody, or piped cheery echoes to the murmuring of the crowds, or the flashing scintillations of the dazzling gas lights—all combined to form a scene of splendor and brilliancy.

The festivities commenced at nine o'clock, but the carriages began to arrive as early as seven, and it was ascertained by actual count, that 420 drew up before the door to deposit their burdens of femininity in laces and silks, within the first hour, and the stream was continuous till past eleven. At that hour over two hundred and fifty sets (2000 persons) were counted in motion on the floor, and at the same time the boxes were filled with spectators!

(To give you a still better idea of the popularity of the fetes given by this organization, I will parenthesize, that the decorations were retained, and a promenade concert given—with music by Dodworth, on Saturday evening, to which your correspondent had ticket "No. 6587.")

The dances were twenty-five in number, exclusive of the marches which followed each one, and kept busy the feet while the hours lengthened, then shortened, then lengthened again. The supper was one of the most successful features of the whole affair. The tables were laden with all the delicacies of the season, and well replenished throughout the hours assigned for this portion of the exercises.

In addition to the Light Guards, there were many others in uniform present,—Gen. Wool and Staff, Gen. Burnside, and Gen. Spicer, of the N. Y. S. M., occupied a private box during a portion of the evening, and on the floor I noticed two Brigadiers and one Major General, and Colonels, Captains, and Lieutenants innumerable,—also Miss Henriques, Mrs. Hoey, Miss Bateman; Lester, Wallack, and several others of our star theatrics. "Little Mac" was expected, and had he made his appearance, would have been obliged to "change his base" speedily, to avoid the overpowering welcome which, judging from the expressions on all sides, would have been extended by the festive throng, (considerably more than nine-tenths of which were—of course—conservative. Citizens of the Sixth Ward are always the principal attendants on such occasions—as "Artomas" says, "this is sarkastic!")

Youth and pleasure met, and there was "no sleep till morn"; the festivities were kept up till a late hour, and everything passed off harmoniously, and as, at the close of the saltatorial exercises and the rite bomeward, I entered my apartment, the mantel time-piece chimed one, two, three, four, five, and ticked the opening second of another year, in which to anticipate the "good time coming" at the next "Light Guard."

Last week we also had the "Arion" and the "Liedercranz," and to-morrow evening we have the "Henry Clay" Ball, and thro' the season plans for many others, in public and private, extensive and diminutive—so crying-baby-like you see we are "right on our bawl!"

NEWINGTON.

CONGRESS.

Wednesday. — In the Senate, Mr. Foote was chosen President for the remainder of the term. A memorial was received from the Inspectors of the Boston Custom House, asking for an increased compensation. The bill to regulate the appointment of midshipmen in the Navy was passed; also the fortification bill without amendment. The bill establishing the guage of the Pacific railroad at 4 ft. 8 1-2 in. was passed.

The House passed the Senate bill authorizing the President to appoint the head of any executive department to supply temporarily a vacancy in another. A long debate was had on the bill indemnifying the President for the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus. At half past 11 P. M. the House adjourned.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— A boy was brought before the Police Court of Manchester on Saturday for an assault, in school hours, upon his teacher, a lady, who had corrected him for a repeated offence. He pleaded guilty, but the judge suspended the sentence for the present.

—— The Nashua Telegraph says a man bought an old cotton mattress of a lady who evidently does not read the papers, for seventy five cents, and carried it too firm, in that city and got a good husk mattress and four dollars and sixty-five cents in clean cash.

☞ "Alden's Type Setting and Distributing Machine," has for months been attracting a great deal of attention, scientific admiration, and practical approbation, in New York; and it is no doubt a very wonderful invention, and may be somewhat successful. But to us, who have always been so unscientific and so old fogy as to question the feasibility of machine "composition," chiefly on the ground of the apparent impossibility of the "justification" or spacing out of lines—it appears not a little singular that in none of the numerous and very lucid descriptions of the new wonder, have we seen a word of reference to this very difficulty, which we suppose would be one of the first to be overcome and described. Even in the "Scotish American Journal," which came to us recently, containing a very long detailed description of the machine, and an illustration of the same, we find this same singular omission. Tell us, ye who praise Alden's genius so highly, and endorse his invention so readily—how does he space his lines?

☞ In view of the flimsy character of the postal currency, a proposition has been made to coin the fractional parts of a dollar of zinc as a substitute therefor. It is suggested that the mints might thus be afforded employment, and a more acceptable coin than that now in use be readily furnished.

☞ It is stated that Gen. Schenck is unwilling to leave the Army, and will resign his seat in Congress, and fears are expressed that no other Republican in the District can defeat Vallandigham.

☞ The gentleman who was recently ejected from a railway car in Canada for insisting on paying his fare in silver coin, has recovered two hundred and fifty dollars' damages from the company.

☞ Peterson's Magazine for March, contains forty-one articles, with fifty-four embellishments. Price only $2,00 per year in advance.

☞ An important bill is before the Senate Naval Committee providing for a grade of fleet Surgeons in the Navy, consisting of eighteen senior Surgeons on the active list with rank of Captain.

☞ Gold opened in New York on Thursday at 62 1-4 premium. At noon it was quoted at 62 1-2—the highest yet.

☞ The iron-clad Nahant left Fortress Monroe for the South, on Tuesday morning, under convoy.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

OFFICE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD,

February 9th, 1863

Sealed Proposals will be received at this office until 1 o'clock p. m. on SATURDAY, the 14th day of March, 1863, for supplying the Light-house Establishment with forty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter strained sperm oil, to be divided into two lots, and to be delivered at the times and mentioned, at such places of the government supply vessels, or at the warehouse or other place of deposit, to be designated by the Inspecting Officer or other authorized agent of the Light-house Board, in strong, tight, well made casks, suitable for shipping, in good order of an average capacity, each, of from eighty to one hundred gallons.

Either lot or all of them may be delivered at New York, New London, Sag Harbor, Boston, New Bedford, Edgartown, Newburyport, or Rockland, at the option of the bidders. The place of delivery must be distinctly stated in the bids, and will be embraced in the contracts.

The lots will be delivered as follows, viz:

Lot No 1. Thirty thousand gallons (30,000) on the 15th day of June, 1863, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 2. Ten thousand gallons (10,000) on the 1st day of October, 1863, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

No part of the oil proposed for and to be embraced in the contracts under this advertisement will be accepted, received, or paid for, until it shall have been proved to the entire satisfaction of the person or persons charged with the examination, test, and inspection, to be the best quality pure winter strained or bagged sperm oil, free from mixture with other or inferior oils and adulterations, and that it will remain in a sufficiently fluid state for free burning in lamps at a temperature of 32° or lower of Fahrenheit's standard thermometer.

The usual means for determining the character and quality of the oil will be employed, viz: for specific gravity, by burning to determine the length of time the oil will burn in untrimmed capillary or jacket lamps, the amount of residuum in each lamp after it burns out, and, if necessary, any other proper tests to arrive at correct conclusions that may be deemed necessary.

The casks must be gauged, under the direction and personal supervision of the inspecting officer, by a custom house or other legally authorized or sworn gauger, according to the United States standard, and must be marked and accepted before they are removed from the cellar or warehouse of the contractor.

Proposals will be received and considered for each lot separately, or for all of them, at the option of the bidder; but no bid will be considered for a less quantity than that specified as one lot, to be delivered at one time and place. Each bid must state distinctly the rate per gallon, in writing, the number of lots for which the bid is for, and the time and place of delivery, conforming to this advertisement.

Bids submitted by different members of the same firm or copartnership will not be considered.

The Light-house Board, under the authority of the Department, reserves the right to reject any bid, although it may be the lowest, for other considerations than price.

No bid will be considered for any other kind or description of oil than that specifically called for in this advertisement.

A bond, with security to the satisfaction of the Department, in a penalty equal to one fifth of the amount of each contract made under these proposals, will be required of each contractor, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, to be executed within ten days after the acceptance of the bid.

Every offer must be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, and known to the Department as such, or certified by a United States district judge, attesting the next lowest bidder. All bids must be sealed and endorsed "Proposals for oil for light-houses," and then placed in another envelope, and directed, properly, to the Secretary of the Light-house Board, Washington city.

All bids will be opened, publicly, at the hour and on the day specified.

Payments will be made for the several lots of oil within thirty days after they shall have been received by the United States.

By order of the Light-house Board:
f17 3w2aw W. B. SHUBRICK, Chairman.

Rubber Band Carpet Sweeper.

TRY IT! TRY IT!!

It saves Money; it saves Carpets; it saves Furniture; it saves Labor; it is cheaper than Brooms at five cents apiece.

It gathers up all dust, dirt, and loose lint on the carpets, and raises no dust to settle on the furniture, drapery, or ornaments, or to smother, stifle and irritate the lungs.

It does not wear the carpets half so much as brooms or any other sweeper.

It is the only practicable sweeper made, and the only article fit to sweep a carpet.

With our late improvements it gives universal satisfaction to all who use it according to directions. For sale at No. 12 Market Street by

GEN. BENHAM.—We are informed that Gen. H. W. Benham, who has of late been superintending the erection of fortifications in this harbor, having been reinstated in his proper rank, will very shortly report at the War Department for active service. He leaves the military works near this city in the care of Lieut. W. C. Paine, U. S. Engineers, who has lately been associated with Capt. Casey, U. S. E., in similar construction at Portland. Our readers will be gratified to know that operations here will not be retarded by this change; and that they will still be placed in competent hands.

That gallant Commander, Gen. Hooker, made application some weeks since, we believe, for Gen. Benham, who will, it is likely, be assigned to a prominent position with Hooker's forces. The citizens of Portsmouth will join with us in wishing the General,—now that he has triumphed over his late unmerited difficulties,—new opportunities for usefulness and distinction.

☞ It is well known that Government is building quite extensive fortifications in Portsmouth harbor; and for this purpose will use a large quantity of material, most of which is procured by advertised contracts. The officers in charge of the work, very naturally and very properly, besides using some of the Boston and we know not but what other city papers, have availed themselves of this paper and the other best advertising mediums in this vicinity. But recently, an order from the War Department, (of course, entirely voluntary, and unsolicited by any interested party) directs all such advertising in New Hampshire, to be done exclusively in a certain paper at Concord! and all in Maine, by one Portland print!

Now this Chronicle never yet worked for, or asked for, or expected any Government patronage or "pap"—and having kept its head up, and constantly rising, for ten years, or more without any such aid, will probably keep on its own way without, a spell longer—though it is almost the only paper in the State, of the sort, which has ever done it so long, we believe. And we have no fault to find—though the would-be contractors in this part of the State may complain of the new and awkward arrangement for them; and we only refer to the matter at all, just to show how little influence "politics" has in disposing of public patronage now-a-days! Great is party! and great is Concord! "Hurrah for our side!"

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN, on Thursday evening, the committee to ascertain whether the city was liable for the board of the 9 months' men enlisted in this city, from the date of their enlistment until they went into camp at Concord, reported that the city is liable to the amount of $458 69 for Capt. Thacher's company and $396 76 for Capt. Jenness' company—whole amount $855 45. The report was laid on the table.

The Mayor was authorized to request the Chairmen of the school committees to give the public schools a holiday on Monday next.

In Common Council the appropriation bill for the current year, and a bill authorizing a loan, were presented and referred. The former appropriates an aggregate of $71,967 22.

CO. K, 16th REGIMENT.—A letter from Mr. James Shaw, a member of this company, states that Mr. Benjamin F. Watkins, of the city, a member of Co. K, 16th N. H. regiment, died of typhoid fever at the regimental hospital, Carrollton, La., Feb. 4.—This is the first death that has occurred in Capt. Thacher's company, and as the deceased was universally liked by officers and men, it cast quite a gloom over the camp. The company voted to forward the body to his friends in this city, for burial, and assumed the expense of its transportation.

The company were supplied with new arms on the 6th; they are Enfield rifles, and the men are much gratified that they have been permitted to throw aside the almost useless muskets they carried with them.—The two companies on the right and left of the regiment, have Springfield rifles. The regiment is being thoroughly drilled, and, Col. Fike being seriously ill, is at present under command of Lieut. Col. Fuller.

☞ The side-wheel steamer Sassacus, at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, is to be taken into the Dock to day, (Friday) for the purpose of being coppered. Usually, on these occasions, the elements seem to conspire against such a movement; so if it should happen to be fair weather, it may possibly be postponed.

☞ Ship Frank Pierce, (owned mostly in this city,) Capt. Brooks, from Liverpool Dec. 22d for New York, was spoken Feb. 6th 48 day out, lat. 40 46, lon. 63 03, with the loss of everything forward, but the foremast; also lost her main and mizzen top-gallant masts: was steering west under fore, sail and mainsail—wanted no assistance.

☞ Marcellus Bufford, Esq., has been appointed, by the Governor and Council, Associate Justice of the Police Court of Portsmouth, vice Albert H. Hoyt, Esq., resigned.

TEMPERANCE IN SOMERVILLE.—The movement commenced last summer by the several religious societies in Somerville, Mass., for the suppression of the grog shops in that town, and which resulted in a recent vote of the town instructing the Selectmen to thoroughly enforce the laws, has been completely successful in causing the illegal and baneful traffic to cease. All the dealers in the town—43 in number—have united in signing a written pledge to sell no more liquor in violation of law after the 15th inst., under a penalty of immediate prosecution.

This happy result was mainly secured through the judicious personal exertions of Capt. Henry A. Snow, the efficient Chairman of the Board of Selectmen, acting under the vote of the town. Rev. Mr. Lowe, of the Unitarian Church, yesterday preached an able and instructive discourse upon the power of public opinion, and aptly illustrated his subject by commenting upon the success of this temperance movement, which has thus, it is hoped, been permanently accomplished.—Boston Transcript.

☞ Rev. Mr. Spaulding of Newburyport is somewhat known in Portsmouth; and the following extracts from one of his late letters from New Orleans will be read with interest:

In speaking of Military hospitals of New Orleans, Rev. Mr. Spaulding writes:—"There are but two of any size in the city. These are the hospitals at St. James Hotel and the Marine hospital. The Odd Fellows Hall has been used for that purpose, but now it has only a few beds, which are used for the invalids of the 12th Conn. regiment. The St. James' hospital has accommodations for 400 patients, of which about 300 are now occupied. There I found our soldiers of all rank, and sick with all manner of diseases except such as are regarded contagious. I conversed with a poor man in one of the Maine batteries, who was wounded in both his hands, which had been amputated.

I was glad to find these hospitals neat, and in the care of (as it seemed to me) kind nurses. The matron was very obliging, and went over the whole building with me, and I had free access to all the men whom I desired to see. Of course in so extensive an establishment it is impossible to find all the delicacies of home, but it impresses me as a well-regulated institution. To-morrow I intend to go over the Marine hospital, and on Saturday I shall visit Carrollton, where there is a large encampment of our soldiers.

I have made the acquaintance of an excellent Episcopalian clergyman who is himself a slaveholder, but a true Union man.—He says that if the North will only hold on a few months longer, all will be well. He prays that the North may have success for the sake of the South as well as the North.'

☞ A report published in the Giornale di Roma, by order of the Pope, gives a very sad picture of the situation of the Christians in the Annamite empire. During the year 1862, says that document, 16,000 Christians were put to death and 20,000 reduced to slavery in that country.

When men begin to lose their temper and call names, it is a proof that they are in the wrong, and a confession of the weakness of their cause.

New American Cyclopedia.

This most valuable publication will be completed by the issue of the 16th Volume during the present month; forming a complete epitome of human knowledge. Those who have taken the volumes as they have been issued, and have most frequently consulted its pages, have been most completely satisfied with it. Says one: "We who have occasion to refer to it daily, can speak of its literary and mechanical execution with entire satisfaction. THE NEW AMERICAN CYCLOPEDIA is correct, full in its information and conveniently arranged for reference: the articles are concise and complete." On the issue of the 16th Volume the price will be raised 50 cents per volume to all who have not been subscribers to the work.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 3 feet long; or large enough to bake six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! A check draft is applied to this store by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

THE MODEL COOK is adapted equally well for wood and coal, summer and winter. It will be found to be just the STOVE for farmers, mechanics or professional men; for boarding houses or private families—in fact for every place where a good stove is needed.

We believe the MODEL COOK to be the very best Stove in the Market, and invite every one to examine it whether they wish to purchase or not. It has had a very extensive sale since its introduction. Reference might be made to more than a hundred families in this city or vicinity who are using the Stove, and give it the highest commendation.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Raitt, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Francis C. Jarvis, Thos. L. Pullock, Jacob Wendell, Capt. Jacob Thompson, Gen. J. G. Hadley, G. Melvin Huntress, Jos. D. Akerman, James F. Shores, Wm. C. Newton, Horton D. Walker, Benj. Cheever, John Frandy, Richard L. Lambert, Joseph Stiles, John Senter, Wm. Bell, Cyrus Plumer, Freeman Hill, James M. Locke, Daniel I. Randall, Isaiah Wilson, John W. Roberts—of Portsmouth; Samuel C. Dixon, Daniel I. Pryor, Cushman Pryor, of Treffethen's Island; Geo. N. Dixon, Samuel F. Paul, Elias Remick, Timothy Dame, Eliot; Wm. S. Locke, Benj. Fernald, Mrs. Wm. Locke, Battery; Mrs. B. VICTOR COAL STOVE.

We offer this beautiful coal burner to the public, with full confidence in its merits.

It was brought into market two years since, and has come rapidly into use.

The Victor is one of the handsomest parlor stoves in the market, and is perfect in its operation. The arrangement for keeping the ashes is very fine—no dust need escape into the room—a continuous fire may be kept throughout the winter—the coal all burned, and no clinkers made.

The quantity of fuel used is very small indeed. There is in this stove an excellent arrangement for ventilating the room in which it is placed; a feature not possessed by any other parlor stove.

Some of the sizes are provided with an oven and boiling place, making them very desirable for a dining room.

We sold a large number of Victor Stoves in our city last season, and they receive the highest commendation from those who are using them.

We have also the celebrated McGregor Stove, so well known in the market as to need no commendation.

A great variety of cheaper Stoves for coal and wood—Coal-hods—Patent Coal-sifters.

COAL LININGS,

and Repairing pieces for most of the stoves in use. Job Work attended to with dispatch.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES

They are the Purest!

The Best!

The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

Have you used the Strela Matches?

J. F. SHORES, JR., No. 1 Congress Block, has just received from the manufactory a large lot of

STRELA MATCHES.

These matches are without sulphur and without smell in burning, which adapts them for the Sick Room, the Parlor, or for general use, being very light, as cheap as any kind of Matches. They are put up in boxes of 150 matches, and are sold at the low price of TWELVE cents per box, or 12 boxes containing 1800 matches for 25 cents—Less than 2 cents!

Dealers supplied at the manufacturer's price.

ATTENTION, THE WHOLE!

EPPING, N.H., Feb. 25, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has been sick with a low fever a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended by the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Preparations, &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some three bottles of Dr. Sweet's Panacea, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicine has been equal Dr. Sweet's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my neighbors, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1853.

I have for several years been afflicted with diseased stomach, want of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of Dr. S. SWEET'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of those complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From Rev. Thos. I. Cheever, Dec. May 21, 1841.

DR. SWEET: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her entirely free from it for one night. She had expended a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to sleep quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the diseases above named." Respect, CHENEY.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Sweet's medicines shall have pay for it, if it is not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWEET, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26y

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (ex for the Ass't, 1857.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continued to the present time, in the United States also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and Papers in Interfering Cases, Drawings, &c., executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions; and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or establishing the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered elsewhere. The undersigned feel so confident, more that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that as a rule, his clients do not begrudge the charges for professional service as moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him also, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay thereby, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and the one excepted, is such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part that I do not hesitate to recommend all inventors to apply to him who desire the best attention, be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

DR. GOODALL,
DENTIST,
60 Congress St.
PORTSMOUTH.

DENTISTRY.

NO. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, that he has had at his many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER, and has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, on the same terms as GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is generally easier to the mouth than Gold and cheaper. There are no insertices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept sweet and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best dentists. I say in warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS in DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will just mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All work and partial sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of breaking meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin water-pipe, which is so fitted that any articles can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of rekindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in the city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodeling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, mild and agreeable—and at none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headaches so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing little improvement over former inventions, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of atmospheric air through the fire-pot, which is thus as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of heat, unutilized, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used.

We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

VENETIAN LIQUID
HAIR DYE.

☞ MATTHEWS' VENETIAN HAIR DYE.—This celebrated Dye we first prepared in 1845; since that time it has been used by THOUSANDS, and in no instance has it failed to give PERFECT SATISFACTION.

THE VENETIAN DYE is the cheapest in the world. Its price is ONLY FIFTY CENTS, and each bottle contains DOUBLE THE QUANTITY OF DYE, contained in those usually sold for ONE DOLLAR.

THE VENETIAN DYE is the safest composition of its class. It is WARRANTED NOT TO INJURE the hair, or the scalp, in the least.

THE VENETIAN DYE works with RAPIDITY AND CERTAINTY. It causes no annoyance or trouble to those who use it.

THE VENETIAN DYE produces any shade that may be desired,—one that will not fade or rub off on washing, and that is as permanent as the hair itself.

THE VENETIAN DYE does not, in any manner, interfere with the NATURAL softness or the HEALTH of the hair; it neither scorches nor dries it.

THE VENETIAN DYE is the best, cheapest, safest, most convenient, most successful, and most permanent Dye ever used.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the deposition—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as any of a cancer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE,
A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by Dr. WM. GRACE surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Flesh Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Felons.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Frozen Limbs.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scurvy.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Callouses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Salt Rheum.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sores
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find this Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

CAUTION
To Females in Delicate Health
DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 EN-
COTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily by all sonsss incident to the female system. Profuse ntes, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, supression, and other menstrual derangements are t treated upon new pathological principle, and ady relief guaranteed in a few days. So invisably certain is the new mode of treatment that ost obstinate complaints yield under it, and the fflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.
Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience the cure of diseases of women and children, an any other physician in Boston.
Boarding accommodations for patients who ay wish to stay in Boston a few days under his atment.
Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole tention to an office practice, for the cure of Priate Diseases and Females Complaints, acknowlges no superior in the United States.

CERTAIN CURE
all cases or No Charge Made.
Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9
P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, being by his unrivalled attention and extraordinary success ained a reputation which calls patients from all arts of the country to obtain advice.
Among the physicians in Boston, none stands
igher in the profession than the celebrated DR.
DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician may urgeon should give him a call, or send for sale a new rticle, called the PHENOMENAL SECRET. Order by

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Beauregard has issued a proclamation dated Feb. 18th, ordering non-combatants to leave Charleston and Savannah, and appealing to all able-bodied men, from the seaboard to the mountains, to rush to arms. "Be not too exacting," he says, "in the choice of weapons; pikes and scythes will do for exterminating your enemies; spades and shovels for protecting your firesides.—To arms, fellow citizens; come to share with us our danger, our brilliant success, our glorious death." The preparations for the expected attack are being rapidly perfected, and the troops and people are said to be calm and confident.

The 9th Army Corps, which was recently detached from the Army of the Potomac, still remained in the vicinity of Hampton Roads on the 15th inst., the greater part of them at Newport News. The 11th N. H. Regiment was encamped in tents. About half of the Corps were in wooden barracks.

Rear Admiral Porter reports that the steamer Vicksburg was so badly injured by the ram Queen of the West that she will probably be destroyed. Her machinery has been taken out. She was the largest and strongest steamer on the river. This is the fifth rebel steamer which has been destroyed. Admiral Porter also states that he has sent, by night, a barge with 20,000 bushels of coal to the Queen of the West. She had to run by the batteries and to go ten miles; she arrived safely within ten minutes of the time calculated.

A Cairo dispatch says the ram Queen of the West has gone up the Red River, to destroy rebel vessels and cut off one of the chief sources of rebel supplies.

☞ A sad accident occurred at Baltimore on Thursday morning, at the reception of Gen. Butler. He, with the committee, and Gen. Schenck and staff, were visiting the forts, and a salute was being fired. The gunner, by some carelessness, discharged a 32-pounder, supposing the party were out of range of the gun; but Com. Maxwell Woodhull received the charge, causing his death in a few minutes. In consequence of the accident the proposed dinner at the Eutaw House was postponed.

☞ In the rebel Congress, Foote of Tennessee has introduced resolutions recommending the President to withdraw the Diplomatic agents from all foreign capitals by the 1st of May, and that no foreign Consuls be allowed in the Confederate States, except upon exequatur asked of the government thereof; also expressing gratification at the proposal of intervention by the Emperor of the French.

☞ Dates from New Orleans to the 10th have been received. The Delta newspaper had been suppressed by Gen. Banks, but the workmen waited on him, and represented that their source of subsistence was in its continuance, and he directed it to be continued under the management of the book-keeper, Henry Green. Nothing of moment had transpired in military matters. There were rumors that the rebels had attacked the blockading fleet at Mobile, but nothing definite was known.

☞ The Boston Transcript states that one of the largest publishing houses in Boston is about sending the stereotype plates of a bulky octavo volume to England to be printed, the cost of paper in America being so ruinously advanced, the work can be done cheaper abroad, reckoning in all the expenses of freight, duties and exchange.

☞ A letter written by Gen. Scott to Sec. Cameron, Oct. 4, 1861, has been called for by the Senate. "Perley" states that it complains of Gen. McClellan's insubordination and personal disrespect, and says that he (Gen. Scott) would suggest a court martial, were it not for the bad effect of the proceeding on the army.

☞ The Kentucky House of Representatives, on the 11th, rescinded its resolution, passed the day previous, inviting Commissioners from other State Legislatures to meet Commissioners appointed by that body, at Louisville.

☞ The Herald's Washington dispatch says: "Official information has been received here that the rebel Congress has refused to sustain Jeff Davis' proclamation in regard to the incarceration without exchange of captured Federal officers.

☞ Col. Van Valkenburg, of the 20th Indiana regiment, has been dismissed the service for disloyalty and unbecoming conduct.

☞ The Post Office at Saco, Me., was entered on Thursday night, and all the letters stolen.

☞ The closing price for gold at the New York Broker Board on Friday was 162 1-2.

☞ James Harlan, U. S. District Attorney for Kentucky, died at Frankfort on Wednesday morning.

CONGRESS.

THURSDAY.—The Senate passed the bill organizing a signal corps. The Naval Appropriation bill was considered. The amendment of Committee on Finance in regard to contracts for iron steamers was amended by striking out the provision for the examination of plans by three officers. The appropriation of $12,000,000 for iron-plated steamers was amended so as to make an appropriation of $3,000,000 for two first-class armor plated steamers, and the appropriation for purchases, building, repairs, charters, &c., of additional steamers and vessels on foreign stations, was increased from $3,250,000 to $15,000,000.—The appropriation for ordnance and ordnance stores was reduced from $7,000,000 to $4,000,000. The amendment striking out the provision for a sectional dock at New York was agreed to. The bill was then passed.

In the House, the joint resolution authorising the Secretary of the Navy to adjust equitable claims of contractors for naval supplies, was passed; also the joint resolution expelling ex-Senator Badger from the Board of Regents of the Smithsonian Institution and appointing Prof. Agassis in his place.

THE CONSCRIPTION BILL.

Mr. Wilson's bill, which passed the Senate on Monday night, provides, as regards conscription, in substance, as follows:—All able-bodied male citizens, and those who have declared their intentions to become such, between the ages of 20 and 45 years, constitute the National forces of the United States, and are liable to perform military duty when called out by the President.—The exempts are those who are physically or mentally unfit, the Vice President, heads of Executive Departments, Judges, Governors of States, only son of an indigent widow, or infirm parent, or one such son, where there are two or more, to be selected by the parent, also the only brother of orphan children under twelve years, also the father of motherless children of the same age; and where two of a family are in military service the remainder of such family not exceeding two, shall be exempt. No person convicted of felony shall be enrolled or permitted to serve.

The National force not now in service is to be divided into two classes, the first class embracing all between twenty and thirty-five years of age, and all unmarried men between thirty-five and forty-five years of age. The second class embraces all the others and will not be called into service until after the first class.

Persons enrolled are subject for two years to be called into service to serve for three years or during the war, on the same footing with the present volunteers, advance pay, bounty money, &c., included. When necessary to make a draft, the President shall indicate the number for each district, taking into consideration the number already furnished since the beginning of the war; the enrolling officers shall then make the draft with 50 per cent. addition, and within ten days serve notices upon the drafted men. Substitutes may be furnished, or commutation made not to exceed three hundred dollars, at the discretion of the Secretary of War. Any person drafted and failing to report, or furnish a substitute, or pay his commutation, shall be deemed a deserter, and subject to immediate arrest. The bill provides for the proper surgical examination of drafted men, and the punishment of surgeons who receive bribes. When the draft is finished, all those not taken are allowed travelling pay to their homes. Those who furnish substitutes are exempt for the entire time of the draft, and the substitute has the same pay, &c., as though originally drafted.

The bill also provides that volunteers now in service who re-enlist for one year shall have a bounty of $50—one-half paid down; those who enlist for two years receive $25 of the regular $100 bounty.—Officers absent with leave, except for sickness or wounds, receive half pay; officers absent without leave, no pay at all. There are other provisions.

☞ It is said, probably correctly, that one-third of the newspapers printed in the United States a year or two ago, have been obliged to suspend publication; and the N. Y. Herald says that "before six months are out, half the journals and publishing houses in the country will be broken up, and with them half the paper-makers,"—if the present prices for paper continue. The paper-makers say it is not any "combination" of theirs, which keeps paper so high, but the cost of stock, labor, &c.; while the paper-buyers say it is owing to the speculative doings of the dealers. The manufacturers state that nearly all their newspaper "stock" was cotton waste and rags, from the South, which are now scarce and high; the newspapers will have it, that this "stock" is not dear or high. So they go—and a load call is made for Congress to repeal the prohibitive duty on foreign paper—even from old protectionists it comes;—while the manufacturers oppose the reduction of tariff.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated — By UNCLE TOBY.

The Dark Day in 1780.

The 19th day of May was remarkable for its uncommon darkness. The morning was cloudy, attended with a little rain. Between 10 and 11 o'clock the darkness increased, and began to assume the appearance of evening. Fowls went to roost, and cattle collected round the barn yards, as at the approach of night. Before noon it became so dark as to be difficult to read without a candle; and lights were necessary at dinner, and to transact the ordinary work of a family through the afternoon. The evening was enveloped in total darkness; the sky could not be distinguished from the ground. The clouds began to separate, and the vapors to disperse a little before midnight, and some glimmerings of light appeared. The next morning was cloudy, but not unusually dark.

For several weeks previous there had been extensive fires in the woods, and the westerly wind had driven the smoke and cinders, with which the air was charged, all over the country. On the morning of the 19th, the wind came in various directions, but principally from the eastward, and brought with it a thick fog; these counter currents meeting, stopped the progress of the clouds, and formed different strata of them; and as light is always reflected from the surface, they became more impervious to it, than a more dense cloud, which presents only one surface. The atmosphere was likewise filled with clouds of smoke and cinders, as well as with vapor, which gave them a dirty yellowish hue. Pieces of burnt leaves were continually falling, and "the rain water was covered with a sooty scum." The darkness extended throughout New England, and was observed several leagues at sea.

We copy in this place, the following quaint old ballad, written at the time, 1780, and repeated a few years ago by an old lady then of 90 years but now deceased. It throws some light on the popular philosophy and theology of that day,—and the earnest prayer and prophecy of peace were doubtless prompted by the fact that it was not only a dark day, as to the sky,—but it was also one of the darkest times in the American Revolution.

The nineteenth day of the month of May,
Mark well the dismal gloom!
No Orb of light in course could move,
Thus to eclipse the sun;
Then understand it was the hand
Of the Eternal One,
Who drew the pale and sable veil,
Who interposed the light,
And overhead a curtain spread,
Converting day to night.

Thus every town a-burning down,
And forest in our land,
Could not create a gloom so great,
'Twas God's immediate hand;
Who from his cloud will sound aloud
The fourth trump through our land.
Great darkness then will seize off men,
The trumpet bid them hark,
The stars and moon, the sun at noon
In reason's sphere grow dark.

Amazing shade will then invade,
In this fourth trumpet's blast,
Yet not so great and consummate,
As comes in the three last.
When three trumps more are heard to roar,
Great Babel's populous world,
Which rules the earth with blood and wrath,
Will from the earth be hurled.
A world will then be raised again,
When Babel disappears,
Of righteous men with Christ to reign
On earth a thousand years.

This Prince of Peace will make war cease
This thousand years, therefore
Old Babel's sons, with swords and guns,
Will then be heard no more.
No wars, nor wars, nor gloomy tears,
Shall round the earth be hurled;
No Herod's feet rend Salem's street,
Nor harm this holy world.
Peace shall abound the earth around,
And Salem's subjects sing;
No dread alarms, but grateful psalms,
And hallelujahs sing.

☞ The resolutions of a little church in Connecticut, instructing their Committee whenever they hired a Minister to prevent his alluding to the war, turn out to have no church at all behind them. The place is New Preston, not New Boston. The meeting which passed this vote consisted of eight men, five of whom do not go to hear preaching,—and the church proper had nothing to do with the matter. The whole thing was a farce, and the newspapers that made much of it, have been slightly cold, rather cheap.

☞ The Atlantic Monthly, for March, contains articles by Hawthorne, Holmes, Lowell, Agassiz, Gail Hamilton, Mrs. Child, and other popular writers. Professor Agassiz commences in this number a new series of his admirable Scientific Papers.

☞ Thanks to Col. Jackson, for Port Royal papers; to "H. L." for papers from Bermuda; to C. C. Cushman, for ditto from Victoria; to H. H. Ham, jr., for papers from California; "Ion," for ditto from New Orleans; and to other friends, often, for similar favors.

☞ Gen. Wool has requested the police to ascertain the number and description of firearms and quality of ammunition now in the stores in New York city, and inquire how they are being carried out.

☞ The Maine Legislature has granted leave to withdraw to the petitioners for an act of incorporation for an Express Company, in opposition to the Eastern Express Company.

☞ The British Government is to advance the sum of £3,000,000 for the construction of a railway from Halifax to Quebec.

☞ The inauguration of Rev. Dr. Hill as President of Harvard College will take place on Wednesday afternoon, March 4, in Rev. Dr. Newell's church, Cambridge.

☞ No prohibitive orders relative to the sale of newspapers have been issued from the headquarters of the Army of the Potomac.

☞ The Louisville Journal declares that the truest peace meetings now are the musterings of Federal troops.

☞ An Indiana drover was robbed of $2840 in Buffalo a few nights since.

☞ Gen. Cass was recently in Albany on his way to Newport for his health.

Rowland Hill said he wouldn't give a farthing for a man's religion whose cat and dog were not the better for it.

NARROW ESCAPE.—A few evenings ago, a smart pair of hack horses were started from the C. & P. Depot in this city, by a passenger rattling the door of the carriage, so that they probably thought their load was "all aboard," and they ran, without rider or driver, at great speed, up Bridge, through Hanover, Fleet, Court and Middle streets, to Wibird's Hill or above; and either turning there themselves, or being turned by some unknown person, came down Middle and Congress streets, to the City Hotel, where by one horse trying to go on one side of a wagon, and one on the other, they were "brought up" and caught, without having done any material damage to themselves, the team, or any thing else!

FOR THE LADIES.—It will be seen by their advertisement, that Bachman & Co. have received and are opening this day, a large and varied assortment of new Spring goods, to which the attention of purchasers is invited.

☞ We notice in the Journal that the eloquent orator, Wendell Phillips, will lecture at the Temple next Tuesday evening, commencing at half past 7 o'clock. The admittance fee is only 15 cents. Those who wish to hear him speak on that evening will be sure to be there in season.

☞ The little Burner advertised by Mr. Alfred Stavers, for using kerosene or coal oils in fluid lamps, without chimney, is worthy a trial by the economical. It oltentimes costs as much to supply the place of broken chimnies, as to furnish oil.

☞ It is expected that Mr. WILLIAM G. NOWELL, of this city, will preach at the Universalist Church to-morrow morning; and lecture in the evening, at 7 o'clock.

☞ The Sabbath School Exhibition at the Pearl Street Chapel will be repeated this (Saturday) evening, commencing at half past seven. Seats free.

☞ See Auction column, for sales this morning, of a variety of goods,—at both Wendell's and Adams' rooms.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

——"Perley" states that Senator Richardson, of Illinois, and other opposition Congressmen are coming to New Hampshire to stump the State, after the adjournment of the two Houses.

—— It is proposed to have Washington's Farewell Address read publicly in Manchester, on Sunday, the 22d.

—— Dr. S. Campbell, Asst. Surgeon of the 16th N. H. regiment, died recently at New Orleans, of fever.

—— Isaac C. Flanders, of Manchester, sold his farm, containing 53 acres of land in an excellent state of cultivation, for $3,500.

—— The commissioned officers of the 14th Reg. N. H. V., held a meeting in their camp at Poolesville, Md., Feb. 14, at which it was unanimously voted that "we as a body are in favor of sending home some expression of views that may influence public sentiment in New Hampshire, and serve to rebuke treasonable doctrines and all sympathizers with traitors."

The address was drawn by Major Duncan, late Prof. in Dartmouth College, and is signed by all the officers, except three who were absent on duty. Speaking from the knowledge gained from observation and experience, they state that

"Whatsoever of discouragement exists in our armies to day, is the result, not so much of unsuccessful battles and disastrous campaigns—for our soldiers are as ready to day as ever to encounter the foe—as of the coldness and open hostility to our cause on the part of Northern sympathizers with secession."

"There is a solemn warning in the illumination of Southern cities and the dull thunder of 200 guns that encircle Charleston harbor after the receipt of news of the Fall elections in the Northern and Western States.

To rebel authorities those elections indicated a revulsion of public feeling in the North."

Of the Northern opposition it is said

"Basing their action upon the pretended violation of the Constitution and the assumption of unwarrantable power by the President, they are as really enemies of the country as are the armed rebels whose bands are dripping with the blood of our slaughtered brothers."

Then, to save the country, the address says:—

"Whites and blacks, fire and sword, cannon and devastating flood, censorships and dungeons, must all be used, if need be, to defeat the designs of an unscrupulous, a desperate and a powerful foe."

Their opinion is expressed in these emphatic terms:—

"The whole vocabulary of scorn and contempt is impotent to shadow forth the meanness of that cringing, sycophantic spirit of conciliation that cries for peace even at the price of national dishonor."

—— Patrick Smith, of Lancaster, an unmarried man 50 years of age, fell from a load of wood on Thursday, and was instantly killed. He was sitting on the front of the load, and as the team was going down hill the wood slipped, throwing him forward and breaking his neck.

☞ The U. S. steamer Sacramento, Capt. Boggs, from the Portsmouth Navy Yard, arrived at Fortress Monroe Wednesday morning.

☞ The body of a new-born infant was found in the dock, at Portland, a day or two since, with a rope, to which was attached a heavy stone, tied around its neck.—The Argus says there is "no clue to the marble-hearted mother."

☞ A fire at Rockland, Me., having been robbed of corn and other articles from their store, so arranged a loaded gun at a window that when the window was raised the gun would be discharged. On Sunday night Philip Achorn attempted to enter by the window and was shot through the body, but not seriously injured.

☞ The dry goods clerks of New York are on the rampage, and in gangs of four hundred assault such retail merchants as will not close their stores at 7 P. M. The clubs of the police, however, quell the yard sticks.

☞ The March number of Godey's Ladies' Book has the usual large number of pages at the old price, 25 cents. The "Expected Letter" is a beautiful engraving, and the fashion plates are unrivalled.—Sixteen distinct "fashions" are given in this single number.

☞ The last number of the National Review contains an interesting paper on "Andre and Arnold," from the pen of Mr. James K. Medbery, late of this city, who is now engaged in literary duties in New York; and whose active and facile pen contributes not a little to the enriching of various periodicals, as we occasionally have incidental evidence.

☞ Leotard, the French acrobat, now in London, receives, besides the smiles of the fitled ladies, a salary twice that of the President of the United States, for jumping from one rope to another, at the risk of his neck.

—— The sum of $20, which remained after the expenses of the Weare Fair last fall were paid, has been appropriated for the benefit of the sick and wounded N. H. soldiers.

—— The wife of a New Hampshire officer, on her way last week to visit her husband in one of the Washington hospitals, was robbed of her wallet, containing money and tickets, while going from one depot to another, in Worcester, Mass.

☞ A thorough trial of the capacity of California to produce cotton will be made this season. Five 10 acre tracts will be planted in various places in the Sacramento Valley, and one field of 20 acres near Stockton. Different varieties of seed will be used.

If money is your god, it will be certain to plague you like the devil.

New American Cyclopedia.

This most valuable publication will be completed by the issue of the 16th Volume during the present month; forming a complete epitome of human knowledge. Those who have taken the volumes as they have been issued, and have most frequently consulted its pages, have been most completely satisfied with it. Says one: "We who have occasion to refer to it daily, can speak of its literary and mechanical execution with entire satisfaction. THE NEW AMERICAN CYCLOPEDIA is correct, full in its information and conveniently arranged for reference: the articles are concise and complete." On the issue of the 16th Volume the price will be raised 50 cents per volume to all who have not been subscribers to the work.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 2 feet long; or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! A check draft is applied to the stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

THE MODEL COOK is adapted equally well for wood and coal, summer and winter. It will be found to be rare prize for farmers, mechanics or professional men; for boarding houses or private families—in fact for every place where a good stove is needed.

We believe the MODEL COOK to be the very best Stove in the Market, and invite every one to examine it whether they wish to purchase or not. It has had a very extensive sale since its introduction. Reference might be made to more than a hundred families in this city or vicinity who are using the Stove, and give it the highest commendation.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Raitt, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Francis C. Jarvis, Thos. L. Tullock, Jacob Wendell, Capt. Jacob Thompson, Gen. J. G. Hadley, G. Melvin Huntress, Jos. D. Akerman, James F. Shores, Wm. C. Newton, Horton D. Walker, Benj. Chever, John Trundy, Richard L. Randall, Geo. Rice, Benj. F. Cannon, 16th Volume the price will be raised 50 cents per volume to all who have not been subscribers to the work, Jos. Pillsbury, Charles A. Wiggin, George W. Plumer, Nath'l Dennett, Henry F. Gerrish, John Harratt, Thos Murphy, Capt. Wm. Lambert, Joseph Stiles, John Senter, Wm. Bell, Cyrus Hubbard, Capt. Hurd, James M. Cook, Daniel L. Randall, Isaiah Wilson, John E. Roberts—of Portsmouth; Samuel C. Dixon, Daniel I. Pryor, Cushman Pryor, of Treffethen's Island; Geo. N. Dixon, Samuel F. Paul, Elias Remick, Timothy Dame, Eliot; Wm. S. Locke, Benj. Furnald, Jay and Jacob Locke, Kittery; R. F. Gerrish, Kittery Point; Hon. Clement March, Albert Blaisdell, Stephen M. Weeks, Geo. W. VICTOR COAL STOVE.

We offer this beautiful coal burner to the public, with full confidence in its merits.

It was brought into market two years since, and has come rapidly into use.

The Victor is one of the handsomest parlor stoves in the market, and is perfect in its operation. The arrangement for dumping the ashes is very fine—no dust need escape into the room—a continuous fire may be kept throughout the winter—the coal all burned, and no clinkers made.

The quantity of fuel used is very small indeed. There is in this stove an excellent arrangement for ventilating the room in which it is placed; a feature not possessed by any other parlor stove.

Some of the sizes are provided with an oven and boiling place, making them very desirable for a dining room.

We sold a large number of Victor Stoves in our city last season, and they receive the highest commendation from those who are using them.

We have also the celebrated McGregor Stove, so well known in the market as to need no commendation.

A great variety of cheaper Stoves for coal and wood—Coal-hods—Patent Coal-sifters.

COAL LININGS,

and Repairing pieces for most of the stoves in use. Job Work attended to with dispatch.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES

They are the Purest!
The Best!
The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angeles" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

"The Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

From the Journal

A NEW OCEAN HOUSE AT RYE BEACH.

We are glad to learn that Messrs. Job Jenness & Son, the accomplished and popular landlords of the old Ocean House, which was burnt last year, and who are still the owners of the valuable land of the old site, to the extent of forty acres or more, including the stables and other buildings undestroyed by fire—have been induced by capitalts and influential friends in Boston, Concord, Manchester, Portland and more distant cities, to make a movement to rebuild that most eligible watering-place. The design is to form a stock company, the details of which we cannot give to-day; and we are sure that the business men and capitalists of Portsmouth will not be slow in aiding an enterprize which has proved of so great value to our interests, directly and indirectly. The proposed amount to be invested, for the grounds, buildings and furniture, is about $45,000; and of this sum, Portsmouth will, undoubtedly, deem it for her interest to take about one-fourth of the stock, in small shares. The matter will shortly be laid before our citizens in the clearest and most satisfactory manner, and should certainly not receive less attention and encouragement here than it is gaining elsewhere.

Have you used the Strela Matches?

J. F. SHORES, JR., No. 1 Congress Block, has just received from the manufactory a large lot of

STRELA MATCHES.

These matches are without sulphur and without smell in burning, which adapts them for the Sick Room, the Parlor, and for general use, being nearly as cheap as any other kind of Matches. They are put up in boxes of 150 matches, and are sold at 25 cents per box; or three boxes for 50 cents; or boxes containing 1500 matches for 25 cents—ten for 22 for a cent!

Dealers supplied at the manufacturer's price.

ATTENTION, THE WHOLE!

RYE, N.H., Feb. 20, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—sometimes so bad as to confine her to her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla, Syrup, &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry and Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. I do not place medicines on equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my neighbors, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since. I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with dizziness at my recess, and after trying many and often vaunted up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, I commenced using bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have had not the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. MOSES H. TRUNDY.

From ELDER I. CRESSEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to three of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health, so as to be able to quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the diseases above named. ISRAEL CRESSEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with their system, if used within the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N.H., promptly attended to. may26o

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

25 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,

BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Reissues, Reports, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Examinations made relative to Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished, for a single thing One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Wash ington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patents-ability of inventions, not possessed, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be secured them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given from those who have TRIED BY EXPERIENCE AND THE PATENT OFFICE, then the extent and success is THE BEST PROOF OF SKILL AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundantly demonstrated in the past years, that it be other office of the kind charge for professional service so moderate.

The business of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to compile into a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

Thus, possessing an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him extraordinary facilities, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and reliable solicitors with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have a reputation in securing inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure to them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
[Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr R H Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such uncontestable proof of great skill and ability, has part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed, on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twenty rejected applications SIXTEEN ALLOWANCES, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (has for had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER,) that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other, upon bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no insertions or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the union is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

All one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will have inserted that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TRAFTON, Dr. DUNCAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and without charge, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and and non-heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large upper reservoir for hot water, also a large warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and use of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, cool and agreeable, such as sons of the air which comes in contact with the fire, not is used for respiration, the tendency of produce nuisance so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while others have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of air, which is introduced into the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the fuel, thus using at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the fuel in the flue.

The heating apparatus with the smoke pipe off flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large draft, by simply generously shaking the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 20 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Shaw, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular, it can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished it is work presents one whole piece.

6th While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE,

A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by DR. WM. GRACE, surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Flesh Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Felons.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Frozen Limbs.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scurvy.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Callouses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Salt Rheum.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sores
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It effectuates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find the Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every lim fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—He common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.
DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.
By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has new the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of
GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.
Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.
Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.
Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has for sale the French Capotites, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.
April 7—1y Saw.

CAUTION
To Females in Delicate Health.
DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.
Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.
Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.
Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.
N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.
Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
April, 1862—1y Saw

CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.
Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.
Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated Dr. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.
P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

New Orleans advices state that General Weitzel's expedition to Bayou Teche had not started on the 18th, a part of his forces having been withdrawn for another purpose up the river. There were rumors of a repulse at Port Hudson, but they could not be traced to a reliable source. There was talk of another expedition under Gen. Sherman being fitted out; also a report that another armed vessel had slipped out of Mobile harbor. There is considerable discontent among the white troops, growing out of the unwillingness of white soldiers to be placed on a footing with negroes. The news from Galveston is to the effect that our fleet entered the bay but found it so strongly fortified that it was deemed best to withdraw for the present.

New Orleans letters state that Colonel Paine, Acting Brig. General, left Baton Rouge on the 7th with transports conveying the N. H. 8th and three other regiments. They disembarked at Plaquemine, 30 miles below on the west bank of the Mississippi, and marched straight way inland to Indian Village, 7 miles distant, where they temporarily encamped. On the 11th, Gen. Emory left Carrolton to reinforce Col. Paine with the N. H. 16th, and three other regiments, and a section of a battery. These, and perhaps others, combining with the four regiments under Col. Paine, the entire force will push for Bute La Rose, there to effect a junction with Gen. Weitzel.

It is reported that the barque Sallie Bonsall, having on board a few troops from the wreck of the ship Planter, was sunk by the Florida on her passage from Abaco to Nassau, and that all on board were lost.

Gen. Shields, on Saturday, sailed for California.

A man lately from Richmond says there are only 481 regiments in the Southern army, but that these are all kept full, and all skeleton regiments have been abandoned; the total number of men at the present time being 525,000, which will certainly be increased to 700,000 (?) by the first of June. The whole number of rebel officers he estimates at 25,000, or about one-half of those in the Federal army. He says it is a common occurrence for men to be shot down, for attempting to shirk their duty, and that to his knowledge, gathered from the records, at least 2500 have thus perished in different parts of the country.

When he left Richmond, there were five thousand negroes engaged in strengthening the defences of that city, and now it is surrounded by three lines of fortifications. In his opinion, the rebellion can never be put down until the finances of the rebels are ruined or their army broken, for until these events take place the leaders will have their own way and the masses remain in a state of subjugation. Cripple the head devils, and then things will come right.—Boston Post.

John Van Buren is being denounced by the Richmond papers for his late speech; but John Van Buren never appeared so well as in that speech. John pursued the only course a Christian patriot could take; he asked the South if they would come back to the Union and the Constitution; for if they would he was ready to defend them in all their rights. They told him no; then said he, "I fight till death; I will not assent to any other terms of peace." This should be the ground of every good citizen. Give to every section all that belongs to it; have as little of war and bloodshed as possible; but if the question comes between dissolution and fighting, then let the fight go on, for better that one or the other party should perish now, than make this country the political hell it would become by division.—Newburyport Herald.

It is reported upon apparently trustworthy authority that the Copperhead Legislature of Illinois, which adjourned on Monday without passing the bills by which it hoped to wrest the military power of the State from the hands of its Governor, and to send Commissioners in the name of the State to treat for peace with Jeff. Davis, received the instructions, under which it finally acted, from Gov. Seymour of New York. It is said he sent a message to Springfield to the general effect, that the Copperheads there were ruining the prospects of the party for the next election, and that in order to insure future triumphs it was necessary to be more cautious now.—N. Y. Tribune.

☞ The story is current in Washington that the Illinois Legislature hacked out of their scheme for wresting the military power of the State from Gov. Yates, and sending peace delegates to Jeff. Davis, by the advice of Governor Seymour of New York, who sent word that the Western Copperheads were carrying too much steam, thereby injuring the prospects of the party in the East.

☞ The National War committee of New York have adopted and sent to Washington, resolutions strongly urging the passage of the bill now before Congress to permit the issue of letters of marque and reprisal, and also recommending non-intercourse with ports which habitually infringe the rules of international law.

☞ All Gen. McClellan's dispatches will soon be sent to Congress, and probably will be printed in full.

☞ Gen. Foster left Fortress Monroe on Wednesday, for the South.

EXPENSES IN SOUTH CAROLINA.—It has been very generally supposed and often said, that the U. S. government was spending large sums of money to maintain the contrabands in North Carolina, and some persons have complained against it. It now appears, however, by the following official statements from Washington, that the United States have made money by the operation.

A resolution was heretofore adopted by the House calling upon the Secretary of the Treasury for information respecting the expenses for the maintenance of the slaves, &c., in the Sea Island cotton district of South Carolina from the commencement of the rebellion. To this a reply has been made, from which it appears there was expended up to June last for agricultural implements, $77,081; for the purchase of the schooner Flora, $3135; for white labor, $82,748; for colored labor, $34,527. Total expenses, $225,705. From this expenditure has been realized $726,984. Deducting the above expenses there remains on hand from this fund $501,279. The rations furnished by the War Department were paid for by the use of the Flora. More than a half a million of dollars were saved by these operations and is in the hands of the Assistant Treasurer at New York.

☞ The Boston Courier of Feb. 20, publishes a letter from Baton Rouge, Feb. 3d, which it says is "from a man of education and an officer. The writer does not present things in a very flattering aspect; but we doubt not he shows them truly."

The writer shows up the soldier's life, with its various discomforts, as to food, clothing, lodging on the ground, &c. He gives the following interesting items.

Odd Sights—How the ladies of Boston would laugh to see a lot of men all besmeared with molasses, and their canteens round their necks full of this nectar. There is a deserted plantation near here where there is plenty of "molls" and sugar. The other Sunday, hundreds of soldiers regaled themselves with these delicacies of Dixey, and brought as much to the camp as will last for months. The idea is laughable.

The Reverse—Many proud aristocrats of this region, who, a few months ago, would not look at a free colored man, and thought his labor worthless, are glad now to hire him, and pay him for his hire. Strange things are brought about by war.

Colored Regiments—There is one of these posted here. They are fine healthy men, and well drilled for the time. Many of the soldiers from New England are very bitter against them, and frequently insult them, but they take it in good part. In some of our regiments there are 130 on the sick list; in theirs there is only 9.

Love of Home and Desire of Peace—These feelings are becoming more prominent every day. The men are not satisfied with things as they are. If they were home again, no bounty would induce them to leave. They long for their homes and they heartily desire peace. May they soon be gratified.

☞ The U. S. Senate on Friday passed the House bill of last session organizing a territorial government for Arizona. It prohibits slavery. Protests have been received at Washington from prominent residents of Washington Territory against the division made by the House bill erecting the Territory of Montana.

GROWING CAUTIOUS.—The New York World, the mouthpiece of Fernando Wood, seems to have been struck with the recent signs of the times. It says—now that the measure has been exploded—"that any attempt to hold a convention of the States was, in the present aspect of affairs, premature and ill-advised." It seeks, also, to dissuade its followers from marking out any definite policy at this time, when a few months to come may be prolific in such changes. "Very likely," it says, "the West and East might not agree as to what such a policy might be." It is wiser, therefore, to oppose the administration generally.

S. B.—The advertisement in our columns to-day under this head will attract notice.—The initials imply "Strong Band," or "Strong Brotherhood," and refer to an association extensively diffused through our armies, whose purposes are the restoration of the Union. The respectable character of the gentleman whose name is appended will insure inquiry into the matter. We are assured that its purposes are truly loyal and patriotic.

GEORGE STEPHENSON'S SWEETHEART. Probably he was stimulated to take in hand this extra work [mending shoes] by the attachment he had by this time formed for a young woman named Fanny Henderson, who officiated as servant in the small farmer's house in which he lodged. The personal attractions of Fanny, though these were considerable, were the least of her charms. Her temper was of the sweetest; and those who knew her were accustomed to speak of the charming modesty of her demeanor, her kindness of disposition, and withal her sound good sense. Amongst his various mendings of old shoes at Callerton, George was on one occasion favored with the shoes of his sweetheart to mend. One can imagine the pleasure with which he would linger over such a piece of work, and the pride with which he would execute it. A friend of his, still living, relates that, after he had finished the shoes, he carried them about with him in his pocket on the Sunday afternoon, and that from time to time he would whip them out and hold them up, exclaiming, "what a capital job he had made of them!" Other lovers have carried about with them a lock of their fair one's hair, a glove, or a handkerchief; but none could have been prouder of their cherished love-token than was George Stephenson of his Fanny's shoes, which he had just soled, and of which he had made such a "capital job."—Smiles's Lives of the Engineers.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— On Thursday morning, as Mr. David Young, who runs the Deerfield and Candia Stage, was coming down a very steep hill near the latter village, the forward spring of the wagon broke, letting the body forward upon the horses, a powerful beadstrong pair, who commenced running and plunging fearfully down the icy hill. Mr. Young managed them as well as circumstances would admit; but they had not gone far, when the reaches connecting the forward and hind axletrees parted, and the wagon came over on to the top with a crash, throwing the driver and two gentlemen passengers out, and burying a lady, who sat on a rear seat, beneath the ruins. The gentlemen were uninjured; but the lady was somewhat cut about the head, but not seriously. The horses ran some distance before being taken, and the coach was badly damaged.

—— Adj. George H. Chandler, of the 9th regiment, is in Concord on a brief furlough.

—— The total amount remitted to the office of the commissioner of Internal Revenue, on account of the internal revenue tax, by the collector of this State, up to Jan. 31st, was $76,000. This is exclusive of receipts from corporations, salaries and stamps.

—— The Washington correspondent of the Concord Statesman, in a recent letter says:

Our Aid Association is doing the utmost their means will enable them. New Hampshire people in this city have done, I may safely say, three times the labor and contributed many times the amount of money for the comfort of our sick and wounded that has been done and furnished by the residents from any other State, in proportion to our numbers. No other State has the systematic visitation of the Hospitals which we have so completely in operation. We have three persons now employed all the time in attending to the wants of our friends in the hospitals. Our friends in New Hampshire have been kindly sending us some money of late, as well as some very useful articles of food and clothing. We need much more, and in the name of our brave soldiers, who are suffering in the holy cause of their country, I utter the unanimous voice of all New Hampshire people at this capital, in beseeching our friends at home to let their contributions henceforth come to our Association.

☞ In answer to a Senate resolution of the 9th inst., the Secretary of the Treasury communicates the amount of government cotton sold in New York since the blockade of the Southern ports, the amounts of commission, expenses of storage, to whom commissions were paid and the names of the persons interested in the sales. The sales were eight in number. From Feb. 5 to Sept. 12 of the last year were sold, 3325 bales and 1779 bags of unginned, realizing a total of $96,562. There was paid for the expenses of selling, $8275, and $5575 for storage. A very large proportion was of Sea Island.—The average per bale for the ginned cotton was $203. The price ranged from 20 cents to $1 20 per pound.

☞ The gunboat Juniata returned to Philadelphia on Wednesday afternoon from her fourth unsuccessful trip. As yet none of her trips have extended further than the Breakwater. The alleged cause of her return at this time is owing to the breaking of two valves. Yet, notwithstanding this, she steamed most beautifully up the river. It is stated to be more than probable that the leaks at and near the sternpost have increased to such an extent as to necessitate her return to Philadelphia.

☞ A New York dispatch says the nondescript battery "What is It," has proved a success, and that a large vessel is to be built immediately on its principle.

☞ A New York paper says that it is stated that as soon as Congress shall pass the measure authorizing the issue of letters of marque, three swift sailing, heavily armed steamers will start from that port after the Florida and Alabama.

☞ A special dispatch states that Ex-Secretary Cameron has written a letter to the President tendering his resignation of the Russian Mission, and Cassius M. Clay has been re-appointed.

☞ Nassau advices give accounts of an unusual large number of steamers, which have been added to the neutral fleet of blockade runners. The pirate Florida sailed from Nassau on the 27th ult., after recruiting for a day.

☞ Vallandigham was announced to lecture in Baltimore on Friday evening, but so unmistakable was the evidence that the loyal sentiment of Baltimore would not tolerate his presence that the lecture was abandoned.

☞ The Maine State loan of twenty years for $525,000 has been taken at an average rate of premium of 141-2 per cent. Over four millions were offered.

☞ The Richmond Dispatch of the 17th contains an advertisement for substitutes in the rebel army. It offers a bounty of $1000 a piece.

TRIALS.—Every man deems that he has precisely the trials and temptations which are the hardest of all for him to bear; but they are so because they are the very ones he needs.

CONGRESS.

FRIDAY.—The Senate passed the resolution directing that the sick and wounded soldiers be paid within 60 days. The annual Post Route bill was amended and passed. A bill to appoint an Asst. Treasurer, at a salary of $2500, and additional clerks, and increasing the salary of the Treasurer to $5000, was passed.

The House passed the Senate's national currency bill, by a vote of 78 against 64.—The Post Office bill was amended—restricting the use of the franking privilege by the Departments and Postmasters to official business. An amendment was adopted establishing the money order system as follows: For $1 and not exceeding $10, 5c, over $10 and not exceeding $20, 10c, every additional sum of $10 or less, 5c. Without taking definite action the House adjourned.

☞ Messrs. Fowler & Wells have published the result of a manipulation of Gen. Butler's head, in which occurs the following:—

"You are sure to make what you touch pay. You are an excellent judge of the value of property. Are almost skeptical in matters of religion. Are more radical than conservative, and if ever inclined to be conservative are so from policy."

"Union for the Sake of the Union."

THIS PATRIOTIC FRATERNITY, being now prepared to establish its branches in Rockingham County invites to membership all loyal citizens of whatever party or sect. Its aims are the following:

1. To preserve through all coming time, the unity of the United States from disintegration and decay.
2. To secure to posterity our birthright of freedom of conscience, speech and action.
3. To afford to people of other lands an asylum, a refuge from tyranny, oppression and political wrong.
4. To perpetuate the memory of the founders of this great Republic, and of their worthy and immortal successors.
5. To teach, by covenants, emblems, and solemn ceremonies, the harmony, strength and beauty of National unity.

Rubber Band Carpet Sweeper.

TRY IT! TRY IT!!

It saves Money; It saves Carpets; It saves Furniture; it saves Labor; it is cheaper than Brooms at five cents apiece.

It gathers up all dust, dirt, and loose lint on the carpets, and raises no dust to settle on the furniture, drapery, or ornaments, or to smother, stifle and irritate the lungs.

It does not wear the carpets half so much as brooms or any other sweeper.

It is the only practicable sweeper made, and the only article fit to sweep a carpet.

With our late improvements it gives universal satisfaction to all who use it according to directions. For sale at No. 12 Market Street by

To Nervous Sufferers of Both Sexes.—

A REVEREND GENTLEMAN HAVING BEEN restored to health in a few days, after undergoing all the usual routine and irregular expensive modes of treatment, without success, considers it his sacred duty to communicate to his afflicted fellow-creatures the MEANS OF CURE. Local.

☞ This being Washington's Birthday anniversary, or observed as such wherever his memory is revered as it should be—we shall print no Chronicle on Tuesday morning. Should occasion call for it, we will issue an extra on that day.

☞ Among the public notices in this city of the anniversary of Washington's birthday, the National Guard will parade this afternoon; the public schools will have a holiday; the bells of the city will be rung for half-an-hour at sunrise, noon and sunset, and there will be a ball this evening.

One of our public-spirited merchants suggests, in a communication to us, that the stores be closed and that the day be made a general holiday. Such is the wish of many, and we see no good reason why the proposal should not be favorably received.

☞ A letter from Capt. Thacher informs us that Mr. Mark W. Tucker, of this city, a member of Co. K, 16th Regiment, died at Camp Parapet, Carrolton, La., Feb. 8th, of typhoid fever. He had been sick, but had so far recovered that he intended to rejoin his company on that day. Something which he incautiously ate on the day previous induced inflammation of the stomach from which he died.

☞ The Ex-Sixes, who know so well how to get up a good Ball, give their fourth annual entertainment of that sort this evening—concerning which their advertisement tells all particulars.

WENDELL PHILLIPS, Esq., will lecture at the Temple to-morrow (Tuesday) evening at 7 1-2 o'clock. His subject is not yet announced, but a lecture from that popular orator cannot but be intensely interesting, as well as charming and instructive.

☞ Mr. Thacher advertises a new arrival of California Wines. These finely flavored, delicious native Wines are becoming popular everywhere; and to those who use wine at all, recommend themselves by their undoubted purity as well as comparitive low cost.

☞ The Odd Fellows' Levee, Thursday night, was a very successful affair—so they say who were fortunate enough to be there. The evening was not pleasant, but the backmen didn't care for that. Supper was served at the Rockingham House; music good; company fine—but not all Odd Fellows.

☞ The Boston Packet schooner H. E. Bishop dragged her anchors in our lower harbor during the furious gale on Friday night, and grounded on Wood Island, but would probably be got off without injury to vessel or cargo.

☞ "Sandy" Marden—accurately, Sandeman Barrell Marden—the old whip who has been engaged in the Exeter stage and express business so long that the memory of few men (and no women) runs to the contrary, was quite sick for a few days last week; but we are glad to greet the old stager on his rounds again, apparently as hearty and good natured as ever. He has been steadily in the harness for half a century, and never was so sick before, and has never been off duty so many days continuously, in all that time. We suppose even he must ultimately give up beat in the race with old Time, "who never breaks and never tires,"—and lay down the reins he loves so dearly and knows how to handle so well—unless he should be favored with a "chariot of fire and horses thereof" when leaving this sublunary sphere. But as one of the most industrious and indefatigable old gentlemen in the world, and as "an institution" among us—we give: long may he rein.

☞ The names of the following soldiers from this vicinity appear in the recent lists of those in the hospitals in and around Washington:—

At Carver Hospital—Patrick Sullivan, E. F. Smith, C. G. Smith, and J. S. Randall, Portsmouth; W. M. Mace, Rye; J. P. Randall, New Castle. These are all mild cases.

Armory Square—T. B. Parks, Portsmouth, frost bitten and mortified toes.

Emory Hospital—Robert Oliver, New Castle, bilious diarrhœa.

Finley Hospital—Alexander Milligan, Portsmouth, chronic diarrhœa; Martin F. Moore, Portsmouth, typhoid fever.

Eckington Hospital—Meshach Bell, jr., Portsmouth, acute bronchitis; Martin V. Hill, New Castle, chronic diarrhœa; Lincoln Rokes, Greenland, general debility.

Harewood Hospital — Samuel Abbott, Portsmouth, heart disease; Wm. H. Lear, Portsmouth; Wm. C. Shapleigh, Rye, spine injured.

Columbian College—Robert W. Varrell, Rye, rheumatism.

☞ Maj. Gen. Wool is preparing to make a grand tour of inspection of the fortifications, arsenals and military depots in New England, and in prosecution of it, will soon visit this city, where, we doubt not, he will meet with that hearty reception which his distinguished military services so well merit. His tour commences this week, and he will visit the cities of New Haven, Newport, Fall River, Providence, Springfield, Worcester, Boston, Portsmouth and Portland.

COBBETT'S COURTSHIP.—While in New Brunswick, Cobbett met the girl who became his wife. He first saw her in company for about an hour one evening. Shortly afterwards, in the dead of winter, when the snow lay several feet thick on the ground, he chanced in his walk at break of day to pass the house of her parents. It was hardly light, but there was she, out in the cold, scrubbing a washing tub. That action made her mistress of Cobbett's heart for ever. No sooner was he out of hearing than he exclaimed—"That's the girl for me!" She was the daughter of a sergeant of artillery, and then only thirteen. To his intense chagrin, the artillery were ordered to England, and she had to go with her father. Cobbett by this time had managed to save 150 guineas as a soldier—the produce of extra work. Considering that Woolwich, to which his sweetheart was bound, was a gay place, and that she there might find many suitors, who, moved by her beauty, might tempt her by their wealth; and unwilling that she should hurt herself with hard work, he sent her all his precious guineas; and prayed that she would use them freely, for he could get plenty more—to buy good clothes, and live in pleasant lodgings, and be as happy as she could until he was able to join her.

Four long years elapsed before they met. Cobbet, when he reached England, found her a maid-of-all work, at £5 a year! On their meeting without saying a word about it, she placed in his hands his parcel of 150 guineas unbroken. He obtained his discharge from the army, and married the brave and thrifty woman. She made him an admirable wife—never was he tired of speaking her praises; and whatever comfort and success he afterwards enjoyed, it was his delight to ascribe to her care and to her inspiration.—Book of Days.

☞ Paul Morphy has positively declined to play the match proposed with M. Kolish in Paris, and announces his intention to abstain from all chess playing at present.

☞ All the ladies will be interested in the advertisement of Madame Demorest's Sewing Machine—whether they have another sewing machine now or not.

☞ It is stated that the Grand Lodge of Masons in Virginia, at their recent session in Richmond, revoked the edict, issued in 1860, prohibiting intercourse between Masons under this jurisdiction, and their brethren of New York. This, if it be a fact, is significant.

☞ It takes fifty thousand horses and mules to supply the Army of the Potomac. A thousand die every few days. Not less than five thousand are in the hospitals at Washington.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the fire and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in combination with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 2 feet long! or large enough to take six large places on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time. A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

THE MODEL COOK is adapted equally well for wood and coal, summer and winter. It will be found to be most convenient for farmers, mechanics or professional men; for boarding houses, or private families—in fact for every place where a good stove is needed.

We believe the MODEL COOK to be the very best Stove in the Market, and invite every one to examine it whether they wish to purchase or not. It has had a very extensive sale since its introduction. Reference might be made to more than a hundred families in this city or vicinity who are using the Stove, and give it the highest commendation.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Raitt, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Garvin, Francis C. Jarvis, Thos. L. Tullock, Jacob Wendell, Capt. Jacob Thompson, Gen. J. G. Hadley, G. Melvin Huntress, Jos. D. Akerman, James F. Shores, Wm. C. Newton, Horton D. Walker, Benj. Cheever, John Trundy, Richard L. Lambert, Joseph Stiles, John Senter, Wm. Bell, Cyrus Phenix, Freeman Hurd, James M. Locke, Daniel L. Randall, Isaiah Wilson, John E. Roberts—of Portsmouth; Samuel C. Dixon, Daniel I. Pryor, Cushman Pryor, of Prudence Island; Geo. N. Dixon, Samuel F. Paul, Elias Remick, Timothy Dame, Eliot; Wm. S. Locke, Benj. Ferrand, Mrs. Wm. Locke, Kittery; R. F. Gerrish, Kittery Point; Hon. VICTOR COAL STOVE.

We offer this beautiful coal burner to the public, with full confidence in its merits.

It was brought into market two years since, and has come rapidly into use.

The Victor is one of the handsomest parlor stoves in the market, and is perfect in its operation. The arrangement for dumping the ashes is very fine—no dust need escape into the room—a continuous fire may be kept throughout the winter—the coal all burned, and no clinkers made.

The quantity of fuel used is very small indeed. There is in this stove an excellent arrangement for ventilating the room in which it is placed; a feature not possessed by any other parlor stove.

Some of the sizes are provided with an oven and boiling place, making them very desirable for a dining room.

We sold a large number of Victor Stoves in our city last season, and they receive the highest commendation from those who are using them.

We have also the celebrated McGregor Stove, so well known in the market as to need no commendation.

A great variety of cheaper Stoves for coal and wood—Coal-hods—Patent Coal-sifters.

COAL LININGS,

and Repairing pieces for most of the stoves in use. Job Work attended to with dispatch.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES

They are the Purest!
The Best!
The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to Independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

"The Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and
The Port is excellent because it is pure.

From the Journal

A GOOD VALENTINE.—Hon. Ichabod Goodwin, President of the Howard Benevolent Society, wishes us to acknowledge the receipt on the 14th of Feb. through the Post Office, of $25, for the benefit of the poor. It is from the same unknown and mysterious source from whence for twenty years a like sum has annually been received on the day of St. Valentine. From the venerable appearance of the handwriting, we are almost inclined to think that it came from the Saint himself, and is a true pattern for letters of affectionate remembrance of needy fellow men—such Valentines do honor to the day.

EXQUISITE PAINTINGS.—The cannoisseur can find a treat in the examination of the Paintings in water colors, by Mrs. Lamprey, to be seen at the store of Dr. Preston. The Landscape is a good picture, affording in the mellow light which pervades the whole, an idea of summer stillness in perfect keeping with the scene. In the grand Boquet, which occupies a circle of eighteen inches, we know not which most to admire—the fine disposition and arrangement of about fifty flowers, or the skill of the artist in giving true to nature the most delicate tints. It must be no difficult task to execute such things the varied roses and lilies, the jepotica, amyrillis, the sweet-pea, dahlia, morning-glory, columbine, pansies, tulips, &c. that each may stand out distinct, and in a whole presenting an evenly balanced and splendid boquet. It is a treat to look upon it.

There is a question still pending, which lured the greatest crowd of admirers, or curiosity gazers, Gen. Tom Thumb, (Mr. Stratton) when married to the smallest woman in the world, (Miss Warren) at Grace Church, New York, or Gen. McClellan at Boston.

IMPORTANT FROM THE SOUTHERN COAST.

The No n-combatants of Charleston and Savannah Warned to Leave—Approach of the Federal Fleet and Troops—Beauregard's Call to Arms.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC,
February 19, 1863.

The Richmond Enquirer of yesterday has the following telegraph, dated Charleston, Feb. 18:

"The following proclamation from Gen. Beauregard will appear in the papers to-morrow:

Headquarters Department of South Carolina, Georgia and Florida, Feb. 18. It has become my solemn duty to inform the authorities and citizens of Charleston and Savannah that the movements of the enemy's fleet indicate an early land and naval attack on one or both cities, and to urge that persons unable to take an active part in the struggle shall retire. It is hoped, however, that this temporary separation of some from your homes will be made without alarm or undue haste, thus showing that the only feeling which animates you in this hour of supreme trial is the right of being able to participate in the defence of your homes, altars and the graves of your kindred Carolinians and Georgians. The hour is at hand to serve your country's cause. Let all the able bodied men from the seaboard to the mountains rush to arms. Be not too exacting in the choice of weapons; spikes and scythes will do for exterminating your enemies, spades and shovels for protecting your firesides. To arms, fellow citizens! Come to share with us our danger, our brilliant success, our glorious death.

(Signed) G. T. BEAUREGARD,
General Commanding.

Final preparations for the expected attack are being rapidly perfected. The troops and people are calm and confident.

The Enquirer's leader says there has been no intention, or pretense of an intention, to mediate at all on the part of France. The South want no French mediation while hostilities still go on.

LETTER FROM NEWBERN, N. C.

We take the following extract from a long letter written by Mr. Frederick L. Dodge, of this city, to his parents. Mr. D. is connected with the 44th Mass. regiment.

"I have somewhat an idea that I shall return to you in the spring, but 'man proposes, God disposes.' With my term of service I am perfectly satisfied, and willing with my whole soul to enter into all engagements that may be dictated. My love of country is now stronger than ever. I feel happy, too, that the curse of slavery is being exterminated. It will do me good on my return to say that this war, waged for the restoration of the glorious OLD Union, has also contributed to the expulsion of that curse. I become despondent when hearing of our defeats, and fear for our 'bleeding country;' but God will prosper the right. I have never known till now the horrors of slavery. I have heard recitals, from the lips of some of its participants, which have caused a most bitter aversion to the system. For the negroes I really feel, and any little kindness I can do them I do cheerfully. Their sole friend is God, and they universally say this. I like them for their frankness and sole confidence in Him their Maker. I find, too, they are quick to learn, and delight in studying their alphabet. They have a distrust of us whites, through having been kept in subjection so long. For their secesh masters they have great horror, and it is amusing to hear them tell how they 'skedaddled' when the Union troops appeared. Many, very many, followed our last expedition, having escaped through our means. It did me good to see the happiness depicted on their faces. There were amongst them grey-haired old women and men, and even young children in arms, all following after us with their scanty stock of household goods, with light hearts; most all the plantations were deserted by all the whites. We passed several cotton fields, all of which were ungathered."

RUNNING STITCH

$5 SEWING MACHINE.

THE embodiment of practical utility, and a marvel of simplicity; makes the running stitch very rapidly and perfect; uses a common needle and will last a lifetime. At the New-York State Fair its simplicity, efficiency, and great practical utility, were confirmed by the award of the First Premium.

It will Gather, Baste, Hem, Shirr, Tuck, Run up braidings, etc., with a single or double thread, on any material adapted to the RUNNING STITCH; the thinnest, usually the most difficult to stitch by other sewing machines, being sewed the easiest. For ladies' and children's apparel, and other articles made of light fabrics, it will therefore be found almost INVALUABLE.

It is attached to the table like a sewing bird, and having no tension, and requiring no lubrication or change of stitch, is always ready for operation, and such a marvel of simplicity that a child of six or eight years can understand it, and use it successfully.

It is not at all liable to get out of order.

Each machine is put up in a neat box, accompanied with full explicit directions, and twenty-five needles.

Sent to any address in the United States on receipt of an order, including its price, which is collected by express on delivery of the machine.

When the money is sent with the order, and registered, we guarantee its safe receipt and the delivery of the machine, anywhere within two thousand miles, free of any express charges. Very liberal arrangements for agents.

See HARPER'S FASHIONS, or for full particulars, specimen of sewing, &c., send a stamp for return postage. Address MME. DEMOREST,

Dr. GOODALL,
DENTIST,

PORTSMOUTH.

DENTISTRY.

NO. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 16, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, that he had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER, that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do his work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no insertices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept sweet and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and satisfactory work from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my prices for EXTRACTIONS is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BURNETT, for patients successes in extracting teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and and drain heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension broiler there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as numerous families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objections aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases will lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and be forced up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 25 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the best generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without concerning out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

This is a new and invaluable preparation for preserving and beautifying the hair.

The wonderful virtues of Arnica in allaying and removing inflammation are universally known.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is a combination of these virtues, with other tried and excellent ingredients.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS stimulates and invigorates the hair, prevents it from falling out—restores it when lost—promotes its growth and strength—renders it proof against all diseases.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS permanently cures all irritations and eruptions of the scalp, and makes it healthy and fertile. For the removal of dandruff it has no equal. In all operations in this particular are magical and permanent.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is unequalled as a hair-dressing compound. It not only cleanses the scalp and invigorates the hair, but it renders the latter charmingly soft and lustrous. Its odor is particularly delicate and fragrant—the proprietor having taken especial pains to secure this result.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is the very best preparation for the hair ever discovered.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS, notwithstanding its surpassing merits—is retailed at only Twenty-five cents a bottle, by all druggists.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, so when finished the whole presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE
PURE AND FOUR YEARS OLD,
OF CHOICE OPORTO FRUIT,
[For Physicians' Use,
FEMALES, WEAKLY PERSONS, INVALIDS.
[SAMBUCUS TREE, OF PORTUGAL,

The Great Remedy for Kidney Affections, Rheumatism, Chronic Complaints

Excellent Wine for Females.

Every Family should use the SAMBUCI WINE celebrated in Europe for its medicinal and beneficial qualities as a gentle Stimulant, Tonic, Diuretic and Sudorific, highly esteemed by eminent physicians, used in European and American Hospitals, and by some of the first families in Europe and America.

AS A DIURETIC, it imparts a healthy action to the Glands and Kidneys, and Urinary Passages very beneficial in Dropsy, Gout and Rheumatic Affections.

SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE is not a mixture or manufactured article, but is pure from the juice of the Portugal Sambucus, cultivated in New Jersey, recommended by Chemists and Physicians as possessing medical properties superior to any other Wines in use, and an excellent article for all weak and debilitated persons, and the aged and infirm, improving the appetite, and benefitting ladies and children.

A LADIES' WINE, because it will not intoxicate as other wines, as it contains no mixture of spirits or other liquors, and is admired for its rich, peculiar flavor and nutritive properties, imparting a healthy tone to the digestive organs, and a blooming, soft and healthy skin and complexion.

WE REFER TO

a few well known gentlemen and physicians, who have tried the Wine.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every item fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest stings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr. D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded, Loss of memory, Confusion of ideas, Depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

April 7—1y 34aw.

CAUTION

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, Are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of Diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

April7, 1862—1y 8aw

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

THE REBELLION.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 20th says there are rumors of an advance of the Union army upon Middle Tennessee.

A special dispatch states that active hostilities against Vicksburg commenced on the 18th. The mortar boats were towed into position and opened briskly. The firing was responded to by three Confederate batteries, when our position was found to be too much exposed for effective operations, and was changed. The bombardment was then renewed. The gunboat Indianola, which run the blockade, had provisions and coal to last her three months.

Beauregard, at Charleston, on the 18th, ordered the planters to furnish him with 2000 negro laborers, with spades and shovels. The people are in terror at the magnitude of the contest in which the home of treason is so soon to be compelled to take part.

Gen. Hooker was in Washington on Monday. Late accounts from his army indicate a greatly improved discipline, auguring well for the future. Expeditions are making successful forays, capturing supplies and gaining valuable information. The scouting system is said to be at last admirably organized.

The British steamer Alice, from Mobile with 600 bales of cotton, arrived at Havana on the 17th, not having seen a gunboat from the time of starting from Mobile until entering the harbor of Havana.

A battle is said to be imminent at Suffolk, Va. The gunboat Mahaska has captured two schooners in Mobjack bay, with cargoes valued at $25,000 each,—loaded at New York and cleared for Baltimore. It is rumored that a considerable rebel force threatens Lexington, Ky. A rebel dispatch claims that the ram Queen of the West, after a brisk engagement with the fortifications on Red river, struck her colors. A rebel dispatch announces that Rosecrans is in motion again.

CONGRESS.

SATURDAY.—The Senate passed the bill to amend the act to establish and equalize the grade of the officers in the Navy. A bill to incorporate the National Academy of Science, after discussion by Messrs. Foster, Trumbull, Fessenden and others, passed—yeas 25, nays 11.

In the House, the Post office reform bill was amended to allow all soldiers in camp and hospitals to receive and transmit letters free, and was passed by a vote of 72 to 56. The bill to prevent correspondence with rebels was passed. Also, the bill to amend the act preventing members of Congress from taking pecuniary consideration for procuring contracts, etc., was passed. The Senate letter of marque bill was referred to the committee on Naval affairs.

MONDAY.—The Senate passed the Legislative appropriation bill, after striking out the mileage clause, which leaves the mileage as before. The bill for the discharge of State prisoners was discussed, and Mr. Trumbull's substitute was adopted and passed, 24 to 18.

In the House, the claim of Mr. Piggott, of N. C., to a seat was not sustained. The House concurred in two of the Senate amendments to the Naval Appropriation bill; the others were not concurred in. The conscription bill, from the Senate, was debated at length, in which Vallandigham showed bad temper.

NAVAL.—Submarine Battery "What Is It" was towed to the Brooklyn Yard 20th inst., after having achieved a great success. A shot discharged some distance under the water, during a recent experiment, was propelled over 150 yards in the air. A large vessel similar to our battery is to be built without delay. The "What Is It" is a huge square box, almost 12 feet high and 6 feet wide, with an internal diameter of some twenty feet. A port-hole is on one side, covered by an arch. Within, a gun of indescribable make is mounted on the floor in such a manner that the muzzle protrudes through the port. The projectile consists of a square iron log or ball about one foot wide and two long. The battery is reached by a ladder.

A new gunboat perches like boat, in the form of a raft, has been adopted for the navy, a trial of it proving successful.

OH, MY!—F. O. J. Smith, member of the General Court of Maine, has made a three-days' speech and winds up with the hope that Maine will unite with the Canadas. He earnestly desires that Maine "may mount the wings of hope and go back to the mother government."

☞ A letter has been received from Mr. Frederick C. Hills, Paymaster of the steamer Isaac Smith, captured by the rebels in Stono river. He is in jail at Colombia, S. C., with the other officers of the vessel, and they are all in good health and spirits.

☞ Gold rose in New York on Tuesday to 71 1-2 per cent. Cause unknown.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Two boys were brought before the Manchester Police Court on Friday for truancy. The American says "one had been absent from school about one-fourth of the time, and the other one-third. They with others had started a club room, in which they executed loud swearing, played cards, and discussed the necessity of introducing whiskey."

—— The Piscataquog Hotel, in Manchester, with the stable, and all the buildings attached to it, except a wood-shed, was burnt on Saturday morning. The hotel was kept by Mr. Charles H. Wilkins, and a portion of his furniture was saved. Loss $2000; insured for $1000. The buildings belonged to William Stark, Esq., and were insured for about one-half of their value.—It is supposed the fire caught from a defect in the chimney. The hotel had been built for more than half a century, and before the days of railroads was a place of great resort.

—— The latest rumor in regard to the 2d regiment is that it is coming home to New Hampshire on a furlough, and that Gen. Marston is to be commissioned with authority to consolidate it with the 17th Regiment. We have not much confidence in the report. Several members of this regiment have recently come home on brief furloughs.

—— Mr. J. H. Demeritt, a clerk in the counting room of the Manchester Corporation, has been appointed Asst. Paymaster in the U. S. navy.

—— Acting Assistant Surgeon William Neilson, jr., of Manchester, is ordered to the U. S. Steamer Sumter.

—— Lieut. Henry S. Dow, Co. I, Third Regiment, left Concord on Friday morning with sixteen musicians raised by him as a band—Ingalls, leader—for Gen. Terry, 2d Brigade, 10th Army Corps, Port Royal, S.C. This is the first brigade band sent out as such from this State. The Nashua Cornet Band, H. P. Hamblett, leader, went with the Ninth, and was assigned to Gen. Nagle's Brigade, with which it still remains. Lieut. Dow also had in charge a detachment of recruits for the 3d, 4th and 7th regiments.

—— Col. Cross, of the 5th regiment, has been recommended for military commander of Arizona, by a large number of gentlemen connected with the mining interests there.

☞ The Sec. of the Navy officially reports to the Senate that the disabling of the steamer Ossipee resulted from the cutting of the cylinder side valves caused by the softness of the iron, which was very badly fitted. Fourteen bulks of vessels have been fitted on this plan, and have similar machinery, of which eight have been tried, two only giving way. The trouble with the Ossipee and Juniata was because their builders [i. e. the builders of their machinery] were inexperienced, and had neither proper shops, tools, mechanics nor engineers.

☞ In a pastoral letter to the clergy and laity of his diocese, the Bishop of Argyll, Scotland, urges such a change in the canons of the Episcopal Church in Scotland as will admit of its union with the Episcopal Church in England, Ireland and the colonies. The Bishop looks even further, and fancies he sees in the proposed change a possibility of union between the Scotch Episcopal and the Scotch Established Church.

☞ The Waterville Mail says, Mr. C. F. Jordon, one of their barley merchants, has bought, within a few days, at a very handsome figure, some three or four hundred bushels of barley, weighing 52 lbs. to the bushel, which was raised on Rev. Dr. Dillingham's farm in Sidney.

In northern Bohemia, every betrothed bride, however rich she may be, is obliged to beg in the neighboring villages, for the feathers necessary to make her bed.—She goes on those perigrinations, which sometimes last several days, in full dress, accompanied by a poor woman. Every one gives her a friendly reception, and she always carries back an ample provision of feathers.

☞ The government has purchased at New-York the new steamer Jacob H. Vanderbilt, and re-named her the General Hunter. She will sail immediately for Hilton Head, to be Gen. Hunter's flag ship.

☞ The Calcutta Englishman states that a rebel pirate is cruising in the Bay of Bengal. Her captain declared to the captain of the British ship Selim that he would catch and burn to the water's edge every vessel leaving Calcutta under the Federal flag.

☞ A man has been arrested in North Adams, Mass., for sending an infernal machine to a person he disliked in Chicago.—It was filled with powder and balls, and when opened in a secure manner by the police, an explosion occurred which was heard for miles.

☞ The corner-stone of a monument to the late Senator Broderick was laid at San Francisco on Monday.

☞ On Sunday a snow storm prevailed through the southern and western country.

When a man is indisposed with the gout, it makes him indisposed to go-out.

LETTER FROM NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 13.

I see a second "return of the sons" is broached, and the Fourth of July next mentioned as a fitting day for a recurrence of that memorable occasion of a decade of years since.

For the "sons" in the South I can answer: Their hearts still yearn for the "land they first stirred in terrestrial pies," and those of us who participated in that joyous event of '53, will ever carry the reminiscences of its pleasures green in our memory. Gladly, most gladly, would we "go home."

But there is a dark shadow comes up before us. The almighty nigger, to whose worship even that of the dollar is made subservient. Is he to step in between us and our homes? * * * Shall he still stand on the threshold of our homesteads, and with his dusky hand, wave us into eternal banishment from those we love—because we believe what all history, all religion and all experience has taught and proved, that the Caucassian is superior to the African race?

Will your Abolitionists, when the slaves are made free, ever receive them on as generous terms, as these same terrible "Southern slave drivers?" Ask Illinois, ask Indiana, ask New Jersey—and they will point to the laws forbidding them to set foot on the free soil of those States, and in some contingencies go so far as to sell the negro for infraction of the same! Then cast your eye toward this much-belied city of New Orleans, and I will take you to the great St. Louis Cathedral, on Jackson Square, where you shall see a dozen of the best pews—say six on each side of the grand aisle, midway to the altar—owned alternately by black and some of the most aristocratic white families of this city; so that, guided by the color of their occupants, the twelve pews present the counterpart of the black and white squares as arranged on a checker-board. What a rebuke to the "nigger pew" of a New England church, from this "modern Sodom," as Wendell Phillips would have you think our city.

Many are they who helped render the first jubilee a success, whose absence would be felt on the second. Thomas P. Moses, whose great taste in the street decorations added so much to gratification of our eyes, has been a resident of the South most of the time since that date, but from letters received from him I gather that his ardent love for the beautiful associated in his mind with the remembrance of Portsmouth, has lost nothing of its freshness from time or distance. Truly, as the poet Laighton, remarked at the dinner on that day, the 4th of July, 1853, was "a day in the calendar of life made sacred to the 'Sons of Portsmouth' by a thousand recollections of home." He that would ever forget the grand arching of Market street, would fail to see grandeur or beauty in the Arch of Trajan, or that of Heaven itself.

The stranger in New Orleans will not fail to notice a class of women whose queer shaped bonnets of spotless white and dresses of black serge seem to single them out from the rest of the busy throng. Quiet, unobtrusive, none of them (that I have ever seen) possessing personal beauty—these women form one of the greatest ornaments of this Queen City of the South. In every nook where suffering penetrates to add its burdens to those of poverty; where the dread malaria prostrates youth and strength and beauty; by the bedside of those burning with the dreadful fever of this clime; in scenes of want and woe, their lives are passed. The world has gazed with admiration on one Florence Nighingale, but New Orleans can show her Sisters of Charity, of Mercy, and of the Sacred Heart, by hundreds—living for others alone, tending the sick, relieving the poor, and filling the place of a parent to the orphan.

On Monday afternoon, the fine old building of the Louisiana Bank was destroyed by fire. The building, a most substantial one, was erected in 1825, and the walls and vaults do not appear to be at all injured. All the books, papers and valuable contents of the bank were safely removed. A file of soldiers was present, aiding the police in the preservation of order, for the news of the burning of a bank soon brought together an eager crowd that required some restraint. The cause of the fire is rather singular: It seems that the timbers of the upper story passed into the chimney; on the day of the fire some old bills and books were being burned, to accelerate which turpentine was thrown on the flames, thus giving them an impetus which caught the timbers aforesaid. Already proposals for its repair are advertised for.

There must have been some trouble up the river recently, as I counted nearly a hundred coffins on one side of the steamer Algerine, which left here last evening; but the public here is kept as much in ignorance of military movements as possible.

The places of amusements in this city, as well as the rum-shops, dens of prostitution and gambling hells, are mostly patronised by the army and navy, keeping one constantly in mind of Messrs. Ticknor & Fields' charming style of binding most of their issues. Forgetful of the great moral weight of their position, these gentlemen do not always comport themselves agreeably to Chesterfield's precepts, even when in public. Some evenings since a party of officers made themselves quite conspicuous at a concert of "Ethiopian Minstrels" by their unceremonious behavior, until at last, one of them bawled out an answer to some question which "bones" had propounded for "tamborine's" delocidation. Tamborine calmly turned to the offender and remarked, "one nigger at a time, and there'll be more fun." The party was silenced for the evening.

I see the Northern press still hangs on to the fable of rebels having canteens filled with whiskey and gunpowder, with the same tenacity the religious press clings to the story of Ethan Allen by the deathbed of his daughter. The story is an absurdity.—So far from furnishing liquor to men, Gen. Bragg visits the severest punishments upon officers and men for the use, and I have seen more intoxication among the Federal troops in this city in one hour, than in the rebel Army of the Mississippi in five months. In nearly all parts of the Confederacy, distillation is punished by heavy penalties, and to procure ardent spirits a prescription from a physician and a permit from a provost marshal is necessary. Add to this the fact that Louisiana rum is sold for $5 per bottle, and the pay of a Confederate soldier is $11 per month, and you can easily infer that the frenzy of liquor is not often felt among rebel soldiers.

Capt. T. S. Dennett, of Portsmouth, has been transferred from Asst. Quartermaster at New Orleans, to be Quartermaster to Gen. Emory's Division, which will give him rank of Major.

Notes of city banks already command a premium over those of the U. S. Treasury.

Rumor says the U. S man-of-war Brooklyn has been destroyed at Galveston by the Confederates, having grounded on the bar in such a manner as to render her guns unserviceable; but rumor says so much we know not when to believe her. ION.

☞ The New York Times states that in consequence of the employment of negro troops in Gen. Banks', department, several commissioned officers have resigned, and one Brigadier General has flatly refused to recognize the negro regiments or march with them.

☞ At the unanimous request of the California Congressional Delegation, Hon. Stephen J. Field, now Chief Justice of California, has been appointed U. S. Circuit Judge for that State, vice Judge McAllister, resigned.

☞ Maj. Gen. Wool and staff arrived in Boston on Monday afternoon. He will probably remain there for the remainder of the week.

☞ Washington's birthday was celebrated on Monday, in most of the Northern cities.

A hop on the light, "fantastic toe" may be pleasant, but not when you hop on the fantastic toe of your neighbor.

Probate Advertisements.

The language of the law relating to the publication of Probate Notices is:

"The party required to publish any notice ordered by the Judge of Probate to be given in a newspaper, may select the paper therefor."

Will our subscribers remember this, and when they have occasion to do business at the Probate Office, if agreeable, request that their notices may be ordered for the Chronicle or the Gazette; otherwise a different paper maybe selected.

Our terms are as low as those of any other paper.

Notice to Housekeepers.

Rubber Band Carpet Sweeper.

TRY IT! TRY IT!!

It saves Money; it saves Carpets; it saves Furniture; it saves Labor; it is cheaper than Brooms at five cents apiece.

It gathers up all dust, dirt, and loose lint on the carpets, and raises no dust to settle on the furniture, drapery, or ornaments, or to smother, stifle and irritate the lungs.

It does not wear the carpets half so much as brooms or any other sweeper.

It is the only practicable sweeper made, and the only article fit to sweep a carpet.

With our late improvements it gives universal satisfaction to all who use it according to directions. For sale at No. 12 Market Street by Local.

☞ What kinks folks get in their heads! They debate forever as to whether a century is 99, 100, or 101 years; and now you can't make some people understand how much fifty per cent. is. For instance, one of our Portsmouth butchers, the other day, bought a yoke of oxen of a farmer in a neighboring town. Gold was then commanding about 50 per cent. premium, and the price agreed on for the cattle was $97. But, says the seller, if you will give me $50 in gold you shall have them! Done, says butcher, of course, if he had his eyes open—the gold of course being worth just $75.—But the farmer would not believe that, although the buyer did not seek to take advantage of his misconception; and insisted that 50 per cent. of $50 was not less than the same amount—even when he was obliged to sell his gold again for the $75 it was worth.

And he is not alone, for a newspaper recently stated that if gold should rise 100 per cent., bills would be worth nothing; when the self-evident fact is, that they would be worth just half price.

☞ The Washington's Birthday Ball of the Ex-Sixes was a great success—Irving Hall being over-crowded, and quite a number of applicants necessarily refused tickets. Lamprey & Haines' Band of course furnished good music—and supper at the Rockingham is getting to be a regular arrangement on all such occasions.

Is there any necessity for Portsmouth being without what every other place in the world has got—a hall for dancing and other uses, where all the people who want to gather on any occasion, can be accommodated?

☞ Meetings of worship commenced on Tuesday evening at the Freewill-Baptist Chapel, Pearl street, to continue through the week; at half past 7 o'clock evenings, and at half past 2 afternoons. Preaching by several speakers, and social conference may be expected.

☞ Large congregations were present at the Universalist Church on Sunday last to listen to Mr. William G. Nowell, and the impression which his discourses left on the minds of his hearers was favorable in the extreme. In the evening, when we were enabled to attend, the church was well filled and the discourse freighted with thoughts which one should not willingly let die.—Easy and graceful in his delivery, enunciating distinctly each word, and manifesting a rare discrimination in the choice of his words, he has, in this his first effort in his native city, given his friends good grounds to anticipate that great success and, what is far better, abundant usefulness will attend him in his chosen profession.

☞ Appropriate notice of Washington's birth day was taken by many of our citizens. The bells were rung at sunrise, noon and sunset, and at noon a salute was fired at the Navy Yard. In the afternoon many of the stores were closed, and an unusual number of persons were in the principal streets, enjoying the pleasant sunshine. But the National Guard, who had voted to parade, did not muster in sufficient numbers to appear.

☞ A rare chance to let a good furnished house, to a party beyond doubt responsible and careful, is advertised in our columns this morning.

☞ Mr. J. M. Davis advertises wood of all sorts for sale—full measure, lowest prices, delivery prompt. The high rates of charge has cut off our usual supply of Nova Scotia wood this year; and while we don't say that nobody else has any wood for sale, yet Mr. Davis is the only dealer who authorizes the Chronicle to state that he has got any.

Capt. Tucker on Long Wharf, is also the only coal merchant who announces to our public that he has a stock of coals—so, of course, the Chronicle and its readers must naturally conclude that he is the only dealer who has any, or who cares that other people should know it.

Messrs. Bachman & Co. and Mr. Hahn, are the sole remaining (advertising) dealers in millinery; and as judging from our columns, it is fair to presume that they have now no competition in the business, this must enable them to keep a large and full stock of goods in their line, and trade to the best advantage for themselves and their patrons.

☞ We understand that Mr. J. H. Billings, of Greenland, who is well known in this region as a "live" man, has leased the Eagle Hotel and stables, and blacksmith's shop connected, at Epping; where he will take possession and open on the 1st of April. There is a fine large dance hall attached to the house; and spacious stables, &c.

☞ Ship Ocean Rover, in Boston, 776 tons, built in this city in 1856, by Messrs. Tobey & Littlefield, has been purchased by a Salem house. She was owned in this city, and was sold for $40,000.

☞ We learn that Lt. Geo. E. Hodgdon, of this city, Co. G, 10th regiment, has resigned and returned home.

☞ On Monday evening last, three drunken marines attacked Mr. Theodore Keen, a watchman on the Portsmouth navy yard, residing in Kittery, and beat him so badly that he lies in a very critical condition. They had been to Portsmouth, and after regaling themselves freely upon rum, started for the yard. On their way they overtook a young man of this city, and threatened to flog him. He took no notice of these threats at first, but, becoming tired of their repeated insults, stopped and waited for them to come up, when he drew a large key from his pocket, and enclosing it in his fist "lent" it upon the head of one of them, which immediately satiated the intense desire of the trio to fight, and they instantly fled. Passing along a little further they chanced to meet Mr. Keen, and, without the slightest provocation, knocked him down, and commenced beating him with stones, fracturing his skull, and otherwise seriously injuring him. They were placed in close confinement at the barracks, and will probably be delivered up to the civil authorities.

☞ The name of Albert Blaisdell, Esq., of Greenland, has been published as one of the Vice Presidents of the recent Union Convention in Manchester; but a note from him, published in the Boston Courier, states that he was not in Manchester on that day, and had nothing to do with the getting up or organization of that Convention. On the contrary, he states that he is entirely opposed to it, and adheres firmly to the principles and organization of the Democratic party.

IN MEMORIAM.

The bells beat out a dreary chime to-day,
The diapason jars the nerve of heart and head;
Each stroke rolls heavier, upward, and away—
My friend is dead!

I fling this wreath upon his tomb—
Myrtle, and palm, and mignionette,
And asphodel!—a type of my regret—
While here shall wave the dahlia, like a plume,
And to appease this scent of gloom,
Shall spring the violet.

How memory aches, as here I stand
And count the years since first I pres'd his hand;
Their flight ruff'd not the nature, lavish—mild:
A boy in heart—a man in attributes of mind—
Life's souring journey he trod unbegulled.

I come not like the moaning wind,
To vent my grief in useless cries,
Nor yet to jar the turf with sighs,
That wraps him where he lies—
My grief that is not hopeless—blind—
Would only here rest sorrowing eyes!

To me, the bells beat solemn sounds to-day—
A clang that jars the heart and head;
The clouds hang ashen, dun and gray—
I only say,
My friend is dead!

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 3 feet long or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

THE MODEL COOK is adapted equally well for wood and coal, summer and winter. It will be found to be very warm for farmers, mechanics or professional men; for boarding houses or private families—in fact for every place where a good stove is needed.

We believe the MODEL COOK to be the very best Stove in the Market, and invite every one to examine it whether they wish to purchase or not. It has had a very extensive sale since its introduction. Reference might be made to more than a hundred families in this city or vicinity who are using the Stove, and give it the highest commendation.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Raitt, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Francis C. Jarvis, Thos. L. Pullock, Jacob Wendell, Capt. Jacob Thompson, Gen. J. G. Hadley, Melvin Huntress, Jos. D. Akerman, James F. Shores, Wm. C. Newton, Horton D. Walker, Benj. Cheever, John Trundy, Richard L. VICTOR COAL STOVE.

We offer this beautiful coal burner to the public, with full confidence in its merits.

It was brought into market two years since, and has come rapidly into use.

The Victor is one of the handsomest parlor stoves in the market, and is perfect in its operation. The arrangement for dumping the ashes is very fine—no dust need escape into the room—a continuous fire may be kept throughout the winter—the coal all burned, and no clinkers made.

The quantity of fuel used is very small indeed. There is in this stove an excellent arrangement for ventilating the room in which it is placed; a feature not possessed by any other parlor stove.

Some of the sizes are provided with an oven and boiling place, making them very desirable for a dining room.

We sold a large number of Victor Stoves in our city last season, and they received the highest commendation from those who are using them.

We have also the celebrated McGregor Stove, so well known in the market as to need no commendation.

A great variety of cheaper Stoves for coal and wood—Coal-hods—Patent Coal-sifters.

COAL LININGS,

and Repairing pieces for most of the stoves in use. Job Work attended to with dispatch.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE!

RYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWAYNE'S TAMANAC, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many fulsome effects; but it always has been noted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S TANACETA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound so do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your TANACETA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o dec29 3mos No. 4 Congress Block.

D. R. AMBROSE,

The peculiar taint or infection which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous; in the mesenteric and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. The it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute records of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.

AYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL.

The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of disease.

This has been so long used and so universally known, that we need do no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, that he has had many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER, that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz., it is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no interstices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubbe, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (its blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TRACEWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. DENNETT, for particular success in extracting teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the cast large quinty heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large quantity of excellent water; there is fifteen acres of land attached, divided into tillage and pasturing, with a young and thrifty orchard. The premises are within five minutes' walk of the churches, school house, and the railroad depot to Concord Boston and Portland. The above is one of the pleasantest residences in Greenland. There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large quantity of excellent water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, providing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The complicated space being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are forced into the air-space of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal. The reason why this large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert E. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

This is a new and invaluable preparation for preserving and beautifying the hair.

The wonderful virtues of Arnica in allaying and removing inflammation are universally known.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is a combination of these virtues, with other tried and excellent ingredients.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS stimulates and invigorates the hair, prevents it from falling out—restores it when lost—promotes its growth and strength—renders it proof against all diseases.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS permanently cures all irritations and eruptions of the scalp, and makes it healthy and fertile. For the removal of dandruff it has no equal. Its operations in this particular are magical and permanent.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is unequalled as a hair-dressing compound. It not only cleanses the scalp and invigorates the hair, but it renders the latter charmingly soft and lustrous. Its odor is particularly delicate and fragrant—the proprietor having taken especial pains to secure this result.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is the very best preparation for the hair ever discovered.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS, notwithstanding its surpassing merits, is retailed at only Twenty-five cents a bottle, by all Druggists.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,

No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth.

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE

PURE AND FOUR YEARS OLD,

OF CHOICE OPORTO FRUIT,

For Physicians' Use.

FEMALES, WEAKLY PERSONS, INVALIDS.

SAMBUCUS TREE, OF PORTUGAL.

The Great Remedy for Kidney Affections, Rheumatism, Chronic Complaints.

Excellent Wine for Females.

Every Family should use the SAMBUCI WINE celebrated in Europe for its medicinal and beneficial qualities as a gentle Stimulant, Tonic, Diuretic and Sudorific, highly esteemed by eminent physicians, used in European and American Hospitals, and by some of the first families in Europe and America.

AS A DIURETIC, it imparts a healthy action to the Glands and Kidneys, and Urinary Organs very beneficial in Dropsy, Gout and Rheumatic Affections.

SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE is not a mixture or manufactured article, but is pure from the juice of the Portugal Sambucus, cultivated in New Jersey, recommended by Chemists and Physicians as possessing medical properties superior to any other Wines in use, and an excellent article for all weak and debilitated persons, and the aged and infirm, improving the appetite, and benefitting ladies and children.

A LADIES' WINE, because it will not intoxicate as other wines, as it contains no mixture of spirits or other liquors, and is esteemed for its rich, peculiar flavor and nutritive properties, imparting a healthy tone to the digestive organs, and a blooming, soft and healthy skin and complexion.

WE REFER TO

a few well known gentlemen and physicians, who have tried the Wine.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined:
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every item fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

THE PAPER QUESTION.—White paper went up in price one hundred per cent. in thirty days. Does any one pretend that scarcity in the raw material could produce such a sudden rise? Could it have been produced in any way except by combination?—Boston Sat. Eve. Gazette.

No—and does anybody believe that paper ought to be higher in New York, than in the country? Well, the other day an agent of a N. Y. house was in Portsmouth, and said he couldn't sell paper at the prices we are buying at, here at home!

☞ Mr Wadsworth of Kentucky, interrupted Mr. Stevens, in a recent speech, to ask if he referred to him in the phrase, "the distinguished gentleman from Kentucky." "Oh, no," retorted Stevens, "I referred to Mr. Crittenden whom I always delighted to designate as the distinguished gentleman from Kentucky, because he is distinguished."

☞ The winter of 1862 and 1863 will long be remembered in railroad history.—The earnings are in excess of all precedent, while the expenses are not much above summer cost, thus leaving an unusual profit.

☞ Virginia State money is sold at from 35 to 40 per cent. premium over Confederate money. North Carolina money is also at a high premium.

☞ The Louisville Journal says the only way to get a just and honorable peace is to fight for it. So stand forth, ye peace men, with those goodly instruments of peace, the musket and bayonet.

☞ The contraband goods captured at Memphis and turned over to the Government, amount in value to over $300,000.—The quinine alone is worth $10,000.

☞ For the third time in the history of Canada, the Niagara River at its junction with Lake Ontario has been bridged with ice.

☞ "If the Federal hosts can take Vicksburg, or gain any other decisive success, this Confederacy is in greater danger than ever before," say the rebels. Then let us take it.

☞ Steamship Canada, from Liverpool, brings out 146 Lancashire operatives, who were sent out by and at the expense of Miss Burdett Coutts.

Johnston says of a green crop plowed in, "it is believed by some practical men, to enrich the soil as much as the droppings of cattle from a quantity of green food three times as great."

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1863.

☞ Wendell Phillips delivered one of his characteristic (or as Josiah Dodge says of his concerts, his "peculiar") lectures on slavery, at the Temple, Tuesday evening, to a large and very intelligent and attentive audience—to whom he was introduced by a former conservative whig, A. W. Haven, Esq. Politics and war make strange bedfellows.

Mr. Phillips was not in good voice, nor so graceful and fleent as usual—being evidently wearied by frequent lecturing. His favorite theme was of course presented as only he can present it—earnestly, and in its worst light, considered chiefly in a national and political sense. Now we certainly are not going to discuss (unless we leave off the affix) the slavery question in these columns editorially—for our correspondents have hammered on the subject till it is worn threadbare; but we cannot help asking, Where is the boasted tolerance and charity of the nineteenth century?—One party or State says, my opinions are right, infallibly, and I'll support them and thrust them on my neighbor, by word if I may, by force if I must. Another, a rival party or State, says the same for the opposite, opposing opinion. And by and by, after a most uncomfortable wrangle and war of words—at it the mutual fools go, fighting in dead earnest, and showing that while each beyond question deemed themselves right and determined to 'stand by the right' and their own rights, yet of course both could not be right. And while each man interested, may and must decide for himself, it is no less the duty of all to be tolerant of the opinions of others. Since it is impossible to "be sure you're right," and that another man is wrong, in such cases, it behooves all to be very careful how they "go ahead." "Let your moderation be known to all men."

Nickel Cents.—Although postage currency is given largely in exchange for other money, at the United States mint, the chief specie paid out is the nickel cents. Upon these the profit of the United States government amounts to at least fifty per cent., sufficient to pay all the employees engaged in the department of the mint which produces this change. The average production of nickel cents daily is fifteen hundred dollars. The old copper pennies have been received in great quantities in exchange for the new coin of the same denomination. They are useless, however, for coinage purposes. Upon being melted they are sold as old copper.

☞ The New York Sunday Atlas says copper and nickel cents are held at a premium of 20 per cent.! "The gold swindle is perhaps natural on account of the demands for exportation; the silver dodge is endurable, because the pure white metal is really pretty for piling up and locking away; but this swindling speculation in dirty, intrinsically worthless and wholly inexportable chunks of copper and nickel, is a little too extensive an experiment on the public patience."

☞ Parley, the well posted Washington correspondent of the Boston Journal, says as follows:

We have, within the past year, been at times nearer a military despotism than most people imagine, and the Committee on the Conduct of the War have done much to checkmate certain schemes, which would have practically vested in the army the whole power of the state. Such was Rome under the Prætorian bands—such was and is France under Imperial Napoleonic sway—and such was Turkey under the Janissaries, and such are the Confederate rebel States under Jeff. Davis. The army of the United States must be the instrument by which the power of the Union is to be restored and maintained—not the dictators who are to control the government.

☞ It is now said that the 109th Illinois Regiment, which mutinied on account of the President's Proclamation, has returned to its duty, and they say they refused to fight only because they had poor guns. Gen. Grant gives them better guns, and they are now doing garrison duty in Memphis. The recent resistance made to the arresting of deserters in Indiana, turns out to have been a mere nothing—in fact, nobody thought of resisting the Government.

☞ Portland (Oregon) papers of the 13th inst. are filled with exciting mining intelligence, principally from Boise river.—Trains of provisions from Salt Lake commenced arriving at those diggings on the first of the present month. The principal mines worked are about forty miles west of Fort Boise, extending over an area of 20 miles square. There is every reason to believe that the surrounding country is also rich. About four thousand people are now there. Large numbers are arriving daily.

☞ Hon. Lewis Cass, of Michigan, is on a visit to his grandaughter, Mrs. Francis W. Goddard, of Providence, R. I. The octogenarian statesman's presence is welcomed by the citizens.

THE REBELLION.

The last "invasion" of Kentucky turns out to have been a small affair. Every thing is now quiet near to Frankfort and Lexington, and no apprehensions are entertained.

The ram Queen of the West was captured through the treachery of a pilot, John Burke. She had taken the rebel steamer Eva, and her pilot was compelled to take the wheel of the ram. He feigned fear, and, unknown to the crew, ran her close to the rebel batteries, when a shot broke her steam pipe, disabling her. All but 13 of her officers and crew escaped under cover of the night. This is from rebel sources, which also give rumors that the Indianola had gone up Red river to re-capture her; that a rebel steamer re-captured the Eva; and that the U. S. transport DeSoto was blown up to prevent her falling into the rebels' hands.

The report that the bombardment of Vicksburg was commenced on the 18th, is not as yet confirmed.

Barque Sallie Rossall, reported to have been sunk with U. S. troops by the pirate Florida, has arrived safely at Key West.

The steamer Sumter sailed from Gibraltar, Feb. 6. No explanation is given.

A new rebel steamer, the 296, was lying in the Mersey Feb. 5, to sail in a few days.

The Tuscarora has left Madeira for Cadiz.

An attempt to assassinate Gen. Banks was made at New Orleans on the evening of Feb. 12th, as he was entering his carriage. The assassin escaped.

☞ An immense Union meeting was held in Cincinnati on Monday night, at the Opera House and the Melodeon Hall.—Both places were filled to overflowing.—Patriotic resolutions were adopted. The meeting was continued for five hours. One feature was the reading of telegrams and letters of a patriotic character from different officers in the army.

☞ The insurrection in Poland is spreading rapidly and alarmingly. In fact the revolutionary spirit is extending from Pole to Pole.

☞ Over two thousand white laborers in New Orleans petitioned Acting Mayor Miller, on the 23, to be set at work on the levees, wharves and elsewhere, to keep themselves and children from starving.—They called on Gen. Banks, who received them with kindness, and promised to use his influence in their behalf.

☞ A large rebel mail was captured at Leonardstown, on the lower Potomac, last week. It contained a number of letters to prominent personages in Richmond.

—— It is rumored that Col. Pike, of the 16th regiment, has resigned on account of ill health.

☞ Burleigh, at New York Feb. 18, has these items:—

Parties who have arrived here from New Orleans this week state that the humane policy of Gen. Banks has failed utterly; that secession is open and intense; that unless a change is had in the manner of handling the vipers, the Union men will not be able to remain in New Orleans, and that the cause will be lost in the Gulf. Men and soldiers all agree on this. It was currently reported that Butler was at once to return and assume the command.

The Senate tabled the resolutions of the House inviting Gen. McClellan to Albany. This grew out of the state of things that now surround Gen. McClellan. The open and violent enemies of the government in New York propose to have the General in their keeping, and his real friends are pained to see this. The house presented to him was largely paid for by Republicans of the more moderate school. I am told that Gov. Morgan and men of that stamp gave liberally for that purpose. And while no one here doubts the stanch loyalty of McClellan, many would be glad to see him in other company. Besides this the politicians are quite jealous of him. He is making more money, they say, in his retirement, than when he was in command. It is understood that Gov. Seymour will invite him to Albany as his guest.

Purify, purify, purify the blood, with Ayer's Sarsaparilla; and the humors, derangements and distempers which pervade the system at this season, will disappear.—We have tried it, and speak with knowledge.—Exchange.

Marble Statues, versus Living Monuments.—Let moulded bronze and sculptured marble perpetuate the memories of the great destroyers of the human race; the man of science, whose intellect, whose knowledge, and whose energies have been devoted to the mitigation of suffering and the salvation of life, will be immortalized by living monuments.—For example, as the peerless remedies of Professor HOLLOWAY are bequeathed from generation to generation, soothing bodily torture, controlling disease and lengthening the span of existence, the gratitude of millions will transmit his name down through the long roll of ages to the "latest syllable of recorded time." Compare the exploits of the most renowned "thunderbolts of war," from Cæsar to the present time, with the victories of this soldier of humanity over pain, sickness and death. His Pills and Ointment have raised up and restored to health a greater multitude than any conqueror ever slew. Thousands of war's wounded victims have been saved from amputation by the application of the Ointment, and travel where you may, in this country or any other, you will meet with numbers of the convalescent and the cured, rescued from the very jaws of death by his inestimable Pills. If the reader doubts these statements, we refer him to the same sources whence we derived them—to multitudes who suffered from dyspepsia, liver complaint, intermittent fever, scrofula, erysipelas and other agonizing internal and external disorders, but who have been restored to perfect health and the pursuits of active life by these inestimable specifics, and whose constitutions have been braced up and permanently strengthened by their invigorating influence.—N. Y. "Express."

WHITE SLAVERY AND WARS.

BY UNCLE TOBY.

Truly "a white man is as good as a black one," (says Uncle Toby,) provided he behaves as well, but not otherwise. Indeed, goodness and greatness have but little dependence on the color of the skin, or the place of birth, but good and bad men, noble men and mean, are found in all nations, countries, and kindreds. And again, goodness and greatness are not always joined in the same man. For example, Napoleon Bonaparte was as great a general, and perhaps as brave a soldier as Toussaint L'Ouverture, though not half so good a man: John Howard was as good a man as Pierre Toussaint; and no man could be much better—but Howard was the greater of the two, because he had wider views and a wider field: and Wilberforce and Granville Sharp were nobler men than Fred. Douglas and Wm. Wells Brown, though not so eloquent,—because the two former labored to free and elevate a people not their kindred, while the two latter struggle to free their own people.

These statements and illustrations of the great fact that color does not control character, lead us naturally to say, that slavery and oppression in general (and not negro slavery in particular) have really been the most common sources of war in all ages.—For slavery has not been confined to black men, but has held men of all colors in its iron grasp, and has existed in some form, in almost all countries. Men now living remember when white men, even American citizens, were held in slavery at Algiers, a nest of Barbary pirates which enslaved Europeans for two hundred years, and did not begin to quit the base business till our own Commodore Decatur gave them the benefit of his guns, compelling them to free their American slaves, and pay him for the powder and shot he had fired. This was in the year 1815: and in 1816 Lord Exmouth, an English admiral, followed Decatur's example, bombarded Algiers, and compelled the pirates to liberate their English slaves.

Our forefathers the Britons, were conquered and enslaved somewhat, by the Romans, who were great man-stealers, and who finally met their proper reward, viz. that in the words of a modern historian,—"Slavery is regarded as having been one of the chief causes of the decline of Rome." By the Saxon invasion, the Britons were still more enslaved; and the Normans, in their turn, enslaved the Anglo-Saxons. And all of these were white slaves.

The slave-trade never did, and never can, pay much more regard to color, than to justice or honesty! The slave has very often been whiter than his owner. Rev. John Newton was once a slave in Africa, owned and abused by a negro wench, the wife of a slave trader. Joseph, the fairest and noblest of Jacob's sons, sold by his brethren to the Midianites, was lighter by many a shade, than Potiphar, to whom they sold him. And the whole family of Israel, who were enslaved in Egypt for ages, were whiter than their oppressors. In our own slave states it is well known that thousands of slaves are as white as their masters, and are their blood relations also. The history of the world, from the days of Abraham down to the days of Abraham Lincoln, shows us that slavery is often the cause of war, and very often the effect of it also; as captives taken in war were made slaves by thousands, and many wars were made chiefly to take captives.

War and slavery indeed are twin-sisters, springing from one common parent; and their origin perhaps cannot be better described, than by St. James, when he tells his brethren the Jews that wars and fightings among them came from their "lusts;" i. e. from avarice, ambition, cupidity, and tyranny, unrestrained by conscience or the divine law; for he says: "Ye lust and have not; ye kill and have not, and cannot obtain; ye fight and war, yet ye receive not because ye ask not," or "because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts." James in his fifth chapter denounces the essence of slavery and oppression, and in the second he utters a strong condemnation of that snobbish aristocracy which worships one man and despises another, on account of their condition. Thus he goes to the root of war, slavery, and all abominations.

Injustice and violence are the sole foundation of slavery, whether black, white, or colored. One side, in every war, must be unjust, viz. the oppressive side. Where there are slaves, or serfs, or villeins, there will be an aristocracy or a despotism, as certainly as a ring of weeds will spring up around a manure-heap. And where outrage and wrong exist, resistance and retribution are sure to come, at some time, and from some quarter.

Our own wars, for almost a century, are not exceptions to these rules. Our revolution was based on our complaint of British oppression, white slavery, and in our plea we declared all men free, as a matter of right. We made war with England in 1812 to resist her impressment of our seamen, and with Algiers in 1815, to rescue our people from her slavery. These three wars were made as anti-slavery wars. But our Florida war, Texan and Mexican war, and the war on Kansas, were all made at the bidding of the slave power, to strengthen that aristocracy, resting on human chattels as its mudsills.

The present dreadful war is the natural outgrowth of the other pro-slavery wars, and of the inevitable conflict, consequent on continued aggressions of slavery, not more on blacks than on whites, which last became so intolerable that two thirds of the democratic party resisted, and under the lead of Mr. Douglas defeated the slave party, by which defeat and division the republicans carried the election,—when the rebellion began, against which we are now fighting, but in favor of which northern traitors are working night and day.

We see nothing strange in all this. The public mind, north as well as south, has been to a great degree debauched and brutalized by pro-slavery glosses of constitution and laws; and in the north our most ignorant classes, misled by demagogues, are afflicted with a dreadful negrophobia, such as is unknown at the south. Of this we have now before us some curious illustrations. On the one hand, Ion, while claiming superiority for the white over the negro, tells us that in the big church in New-Orleans, the cream of the white aristocracy are mixed up with negroes, sitting in alternate pews, like the slices of bread and meat in a sandwich, showing that even free negroes are not offensive to the senses of slave holders there. On the other hand, we are told that northern soldiers now in Louisiana, refuse to have negro soldiers fight beside them, and that one snob, a brigadier, does not recognize a negro regiment; these nice young men deeming themselves better than Andrew Jackson, who welcomed negroes to his ranks, and prajsed them as brave fellow citizens when they had won the victory.

The same negrophobia breaks out here at the north, in a very violent form, from a mouth foul with treason and blasphemy, the speaker claiming superiority over the negro, and affecting disgust at his presence, while he himself was black with crime, and unclean with vices not to be named. Yet (though unfit for decent society of any color) he was petted and cheered by his fit associates, and is to day an important officer in the pro slavery army of the north.

Our conclusion is, that "Worth makes the man; the lack of it the fellow;" and therefore prejudice against color is fit only for the meanest minds and the basest characters,—that slavery oppresses all the colors it can reach,—and that true freemen desire the freedom of all other men.

☞ Greenbacks are hoarded as much as gold in Richmond. Three hundred and twenty dollars of Confederate money are now needed to buy $100 in gold; and $100 of Confederate money buys $40 in U. S. Treasury Notes.

☞ That notorious traitor, George N. Sanders, has worked his way through Canada to Halifax, and sailed in the last steamer for Europe. He bears dispatches to the rebel emissaries abroad.

☞ Mr. Wyzeman Marshall has leased the Boston Theatre, from March, 1863, to July, 1864, the rent being $15,000.

☞ Twenty-eight murders were committed in Philadelphia last year.

The swell of the ocean is said to be a dandy midshipman.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

OFFICE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD,

February 9th, 1863.

Sealed Proposals will be received at this office until 1 o'clock p. m. on SATURDAY, the 14th day of March, 1863, for supplying the Light-house Establishment with forty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter-strained sperm oil, to be divided into two lots, and to be delivered at the times undermentioned, alongside of the government supply vessels, or at the warehouse or other place of deposit, to be designated by the Inspecting Officer or other authorized agent of the Light-house Board, in strong, tight, well-made casks, suitable for shipping, in good order, of as average capacity, each, of from eighty to one hundred gallons.

Either lot or all of them may be delivered at New York, New London, Sag Harbor, Boston, New Bedford, Edgartown, or Nantucket, at the option of the bidders. The place of delivery must be distinctly stated in the bids, and will be embraced in the contracts.

The lots will be delivered as follows, viz:

Lot No. 1. Thirty thousand gallons (30,000) on the 15th day of June, 1863, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 2. Ten thousand gallons (10,000) on the 1st day of October, 1863, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

No part of the oil proposed for and to be embraced in the contracts under this advertisement will be accepted, received, or paid for, until it shall have been proved to the entire satisfaction of the person or persons charged with its examination, test, and inspection, to be the best quality pure winter strained or bagged sperm oil, free from mixture with other or inferior oils and adulterations, and that it will remain in a sufficiently fluid state for free burning in lamps at a temperature of 32° or lower of Fahrenheit's standard thermometer.

The usual means for determining the character and quality of the oil will be employed, viz: for specific gravity, by burning to determine the length of time the oil will burn in untrimmed capillary or jacket lamps, the amount of residuum in each lamp after it burns out, and, if necessary, any other proper tests to arrive at correct conclusions that may be deemed necessary.

The casks must be gauged, under the direction and personal supervision of the inspecting officer, by a custom house officer legally authorized or sworn gauger, according the United States standard, and must be marked and accepted before they are removed from the cellar or warehouse of the contractor.

Proposals will be received and considered for each lot separately, or for all of them, at the option of the bidder; but no bid will be considered for a less quantity than that specified as one lot, to be delivered at one time and place. Each bid must state explicitly the rate per gallon, in writing, the number of lot or lots bid for, and the time and place of delivery, conforming to this advertisement.

Bids submitted by different members of the same firm or copartnership will not be considered.

The Light-house Board, under the authority of the Department, reserves the right to reject any bid, although it may be the lowest, for other considerations than price.

No bid will be considered for any other kind or description of oil than that specifically called for in this advertisement.

A bond, with security to the satisfaction of the Department, in a penalty equal to one fifth of the amount of each contract made under these proposals, will be required of each contractor, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, to be executed within ten days after the acceptance of the bid.

Every offer must be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, that if the bid or proposal be accepted, or certified by a United States district judge, attorney, navy agent, or collector of the customs, to the effect that, if the bid be the most good the bidder or bidders will duly execute a contract in good faith, according to the provisions and terms of this advertisement, within ten days after acceptance; and that in case the said party or parties offering shall fail to enter into the contract as aforesaid, he or they will pay the difference between the offer of said party or parties and the next lowest bidder. All bids must be sealed and endorsed "Proposals for oil for light-houses," and then placed in another envelope, and directed, prepaid, to the Secretary of the Light-house Board, Washington city.

All bids will be opened, publicly, at the hour and on the day specified.

Payments will be made for the several lots of oil within thirty days after they shall have been received by the United States.

By order of the Light-house Board;

f17 3w2taw W. B. SHUBRICK, Chairman.

Rubber Band Carpet Sweeper.

TRY IT! TRY IT!!

It saves Money; it saves Carpets; it saves Furniture; it saves Labor; it is cheaper than Brooms at five cents apiece.

It gathers up all dust, dirt, and loose lint on the carpets, and raises no dust to settle on the furniture, drapery, or ornaments, or to smother, stifle and irritate the lungs.

It does not wear the carpets half so much as brooms or any other sweeper.

It is the only practicable sweeper made, and the only article fit to sweep a carpet.

With our late improvements it gives universal satisfaction to all who use it according to directions. For sale at No. 12 Market Street by INTERESTING LECTURE THIS EVENING—The eminent Dr. Gulick, recently from Micronesia, in the Pacific Ocean, having to be in this city to-night on his way to meet an engagement in another place, has consented to speak to the citizens of Portsmouth in regard to that ocean world which has been his home for several years past.—The address will be at the North Church, this (Thursday) evening, at 7 1-2 o'clock.

Several persons who have listened to him speak of him as an orator and actor possessing a rare power to interest audiences of both old and young persons: while the information he gives in regard to Micronesia is said to exceed romance even, in interest. Micronesia, little isles, as the word implies, is the name given to those clusters of small islands lying in the Pacific, just north of the equator, between 105° and 125° west longitude from Washington, of which there has been little reliable knowledge till Dr. Gulick and his associates visited them.

We bespeak a crowded house, both on account of the instruction and gratification that may be gained, and as a compliment from our good city to the distinguished speaker. COM.

☞ Letters received by J. M. Edmonds, Esq., Deputy Collector, show that the schooner Rouser, recently wrecked on Whale's Back, was owned by Thomas McLeod, Esq., of St. John, N. B. Her cargo consisted of 526 bbls. of alewives, 42 bbls. old iron, a quantity of old junk, and 220 M. shingles. The vessel was not insured: of her cargo, the alewives, at least, were insured. Her crew consisted of the captain, W. B. Munro, and three men, Robert Logan, Thomas Ryan, and —— Bradley, all of St. John. There were three passengers,—Frazer Martin of St. John, Henry Stricker of Hals, Denmark, and one other, name unknown.

☞ The three-story wooden building, No. 13 Bow street, occupied by John Holland, shoe-maker, and others, was considerably injured by fire and water, Wednesday afternoon. The fire caught near the eaves, close to a stove-funnel,—probably from a defect in the latter.

☞ The N. Y. Herald's Washington dispatch says the remnant of the 2d N. H. regiment has been assigned to Gen. Wool, and would pass through Washington Wednesday, on its return home to fill up its ranks.

CONGRESS.

TUESDAY.—The Senate passed the following bills:—the bill removing the Sioux Indians from Minnesota; the bill relating to bounties to discharged soldiers, and the bill granting a pension to the sister of Com. Renshaw. An amendment was adopted to the Pacific railroad bill, providing that 30,000 shares at $100 shall be subscribed and 10 per cent. paid in before the organization of the Company. A bill authorizing the President to take possession of steamboats and other vessels in certain cases was introduced and referred.

In the House, the conscription bill occupied both the afternoon and evening sessions. After the discussion of numerous propositions it was agreed that the debate on the bill be terminated at one o'clock on Wednesday, one hour to be devoted to voting on the amendments without debate, and the bill to be then voted upon. In the course of the debate, Mr. Stevens, of Pa., read Gen. Scott's letter to Secretary Cameron, dated Oct. 4, 1861, in which he complains that Gen. McClellan "had hardly entered upon his new duties, when, encouraged to communicate directly with the President and certain members of the Cabinet, he in a few days forgot he had any intermediate commander, and has now long prided himself upon treating me with uniform neglect, running into disobedience of orders of the smaller matters of neglects, though in themselves grave military offences."

☞ A letter from our army before Vicksburg states that Jacob Thompson, Mr. Buchanan's secretary of the Navy, was found in the river Jan. 31st in a skiff, by one of our boats, and compelled to leave to. He is now in care of Rear Admiral Porter.

☞ Stewart, the princely dry goods merchant of New York, is said to have swept the market clean of some descriptions of goods. His business in 1862 amounted to $20,000,000, and his profits to full $4,000,000.

☞ A little boundary war has broken out between California and Nevada, in Honey Lake Valley. Resistance was made by arms to a service of process by a California sheriff, six of his men being wounded. At last account both parties were unconquered and defiant.

☞ It is rumored that Delmonico's brandy-and-water has a great deal to do with the spasmodic rise in gold nearly every afternoon in Wall street.

In all evils which admit a remedy, impatience should be avoided, because it wastes that time and attention in complaints, which if properly applied might remove the cause.

☞ Europe must have got the snow intended for us this winter. The Liverpool Post of the 22d of Jan. says, A terrible storm has taken possession of the countries of Europe with a few days. Sunny Italy has been enveloped in snow so deep that the roads in several places have become impassable. A noble English family have been imprisoned by it for seven days at an obscure place on the way to Rome; and the snow fall must have extended over a large space, for it destroyed whole forests in one district of France, the trees succumbing under its accumulated weight.

☞ A sweet mistake has just come to light in Washington, over which the lobby are getting quite excited. It has been discovered that the sugars known to the refiners as A, B and C sugars, have not been mentioned in the Internal Tax Bill, while other classes have been freely taxed. The loss is said to be about $90,000 per annum.

In a recent divorce case in England, in which the parties were an old nobleman and his young wife, the judge dilated on the evil effects of "marriages contracted between May and December." He has since received a letter from the secretary of a Scotish statistical society, asking for the figures in relation to the marriages contracted between these months, as he wanted to get up a paper on the subject to be read before the society.—Boston Post

☞ The custom house officials at San Francisco have been doing a profitable business in seizing goods for undervaluation. Besides about $75,000 worth of Havana cigars, it estimated that they have condemned nearly $200,000 worth of French and German goods.

An elephant once nearly killed an Irishman for an insult offered to his trunk.—The act was rash in the extreme; "but it was impossible," said the Hibernian, "to resist a nose that you could pull with both hands."

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 3 feet long; or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

THE MODEL COOK is adapted equally well for wood and coal, summer and winter. It will be found to be THE STOVE for farmers, mechanics or professional men; for boarding houses or private families—in fact for every place where a good stove is needed.

We believe the MODEL COOK to be the very best Stove in the Market, and invite every one to examine it whether they wish to purchase or not. It has had a very extensive sale since its introduction. Reference might be made to more than a hundred families in this city or vicinity who are using the Stove, and give it the highest commendation.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Raitt, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Francis C. Jarvis, Thos. J. Pullock, Jacob Wendell, Capt. Jacob Thompson, Gen. J. G. Hadley, O. Melvin Huntress, Jos. D. Ackerman, James F. Shores, Wm. C. Newton, Horton D. Walker, Benj. Chesver, John Trundy, Richard L. VICTOR COAL STOVE.

We offer this beautiful coal burner to the public, with full confidence in its merits.

It was brought into market two years since, and has come rapidly into use.

The Victor is one of the handsomest parlor stoves in the market, and is perfect in its operation. The arrangement for dumping the ashes is very fine—no dust need escape into the room—a continuous fire may be kept throughout the winter—the coal all burned, and no clinkers made.

The quantity of fuel used is very small indeed. There is in this stove an excellent arrangement for ventilating the room in which it is placed; a feature not possessed by any other parlor stove.

Some of the sizes are provided with an oven and boiling place, making them very desirable for a dining room.

We sold a large number of Victor Stoves in our city last season, and they receive the highest commendation from those who are using them.

We have also the celebrated McGregor Stove, so well known in the market as to need no commendation.

A great variety of cheaper Stoves for coal and wood—Coal hods—Patent Coal-sifters.

COAL LININGS,

and Repairing pieces for most of the stoves in use. Job Work attended to with dispatch.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES

They are the Purest!
The Best!
The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
73 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries; Reissues, Specifications, Claims, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by forwarding One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be secured elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years enables him to secure to inventors a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full access to patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, all but four of which patents have been granted, and that in none pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability can be just as safely relied on as if I should go to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

New American Cyclopedia.

This most valuable publication will be completed by the issue of the 16th Volume during the present month; forming a complete system of human knowledge. Those who have taken the volumes as they have been issued, and have most frequently consulted its pages, have been most completely satisfied with it. Says one: "We who have occasion to refer to it daily, can speak of its literary and scientific value from the best of experience. THE NEW AMERICAN CYCLOPEDIA is correct, full in its information and conveniently arranged for reference. Its articles are complete." Says another: "In the issue of the 12th Volume the price will be raised 50 cents per volume to all who have not been subscribers to the work."

EYE, N.H., Feb. 25, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. I have tried many things, amongst the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured your Sweet's Panacea, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There not the least sign of the disease has appeared for more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Sweet's in removing the various kinds of humors. I feel like recommending it to my acquaintance, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it, since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1860.

I have for several years been troubled with distress in my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up a lot of my food immediately after eating it, and was fearful I should fall into a decline, until about a year ago, when I took the bottle of DR. S. SWEET'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, and that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWEET: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to her visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and BALSAMIC WASH, since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicines as the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWEET, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may20

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plates, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats is prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove; as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE,

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacturers, would say that the valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air where comes in contact with the fire is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, which is at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of the building.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different size, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

This is a new and invaluable preparation for preserving and beautifying the hair.

The wonderful virtues of Arnica in allaying and removing inflammation are universally known.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is a combination of these virtues, with other tried and excellent ingredients.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS stimulates and invigorates the hair, prevents it from falling out—restores it when lost—promotes its growth and strength—renders it proof against all diseases.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS permanently cures all irritations and eruptions of the scalp, and makes it healthy and fertile. For the removal of dandruff it has no equal. Its operations in this particular are magical and permanent.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is unsurpassed as a hair-dressing compound. It not only cleanses the scalp and invigorates the hair, but it renders the latter charmingly soft and lustrous. Its odor is particularly delicate and fragrant—the proprietor having taken especial pains to secure this result.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS in the very best preparation for the hair ever discovered.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS, notwithstanding its surpassing merits—is retailed at only Twenty-five cents a bottle, by all Druggists.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when polished the work presents one whole piece.

6th While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE,
A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by Dr. WM. GRACE surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sore and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Flesh Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Felons.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Frozen Limbs.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scurvy.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Callouses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Salt Rheum.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sores
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find this Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

VOL. 22. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. FRIDAY, FEB. 27, 1863. NO. 23.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, do just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every inn fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

☞ The wife of Mr. John B. Hoyt, of West Amesbury, Mass., on Tuesday of last week, left her house to visit the barn to see that a pair of oxen were tied up, and being gone so long as to excite alarm on the part of her husband, who is an invalid, search was made and she was found dead in one of the stalls. It is supposed she was struck with paralysis. Her husband survived her death just one week.

RESPECTABLE SHOPLIFTERS.—The Hartford Post tells some sad stories about the misdeeds of Hartford ladies in good regular standing: "It is a sorry fact that ladies occupying the most respectable positions in society, have helped themselves to fancy articles of dress, and slipped away without paying, but not without detection. One of them took an expensive French lace veil. Another put a pair of kid gloves into her muff; hose, handkerchiefs, and so forth, go the way of all plunder."

TO BE REMEMBERED—That in the Congress of the United States is the right place to settle all national difficulties, and that every State in the Union is invited to send its representatives thither to help make laws and secure the public peace. When the regular means have been tried, it will be time enough to talk of a Convention at Louisville.

☞ Gen. McNeil, whose punishment of guerillas has been so much commented upon, has been honored with an ovation by the Missouri Legislature, and thousands of Missourians have signed a memorial to the President fully sustaining his action, and recommending him to the favorable notice of the Government.

☞ Jeremiah Murphy and Mrs. Glass, who were arrested in Charlestown, Mass., a short time since for selling liquor to the scholars of the Prescott School, have been found guilty, and sentenced to a fine of $20 and costs. An appeal followed, and the defendants were ordered to recognize in the sum of $300 for trial before the Superior Court.

☞ The will and codicils of Nicholas Longworth were admitted to Probate on the 17th. The entire estate is distributed among blood relations exclusively. Eccentricity and selfishness characterize his last will and testament, and he turns off those who married his children with a cold shoulder.

☞ At the present time there are only about eleven thousand Jews in all Palestine.

☞ An eminent banker at St. Louis is under arrest, charged with counterfeiting the postal currency.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

The passage of the conscription bill thro' the Senate is the occasion of much joy in the army.

A steamer has arrived at Cairo from Vicksburg, Feb. 20. The mortar boats still maintain their position and fire occasional shots. The rebels reply whenever any boat approaches the Point. The work of enlarging the canal is steadily progressing. Three thousand men are said to be at work daily on the peninsula.

The N. Y. Herald's correspondent, writing off Mobile, Jan. 29, makes strange reports of the management of the blockade there, and says if there be a case for judicial and executive investigation it is at that post of the Gulf Squadron, and it should be inquired into.

The iron-clad Nahant arrived at Port Royal on the 20th. Up to that time there had been no movement of our troops.

Pryor, having been reinforced, is threatening Norfolk, Va.

The gunboats Freeborn and Dragon made a reconnoissance on the 21st up the Rappahannock, acquiring much valuable information. At a distance of 65 miles, just below Fort Lowey, they were fired on by a rebel battery, and an engagement of an hour's length ensued, in which the batteries were silenced.

☞ "Perley" telegraphs to the Boston Journal that the Committee of Conference on the Finance Bill have agreed:

First. To authorize a further issue of one hundred and fifty millions of legal tender notes.

Secondly. To have four hundred millions interest-bearing notes, controvertible into legal tender, or made legal tender on their face, as the Secretary of the Treasury may decide.

Thirdly. That coupons shall not be receivable for custom duties thirty days before they become due.

This will be the basis of final Congressional financial action.

☞ The New York Herald says "the story which reaches us from Europe relative to the presence of a rebel privateer scouring the waters of the Indian Ocean is manifestly a canard. It resolves itself into the simple fact, as related by the Calcutta Englishman, that the bark Selim, Capt. Simpson, inward bound from Melbourne, saw off Keeling's Island, near the Straits of Sunda, to the southward of the equinoctial line, a large, black man-of-war steamer lying to under three topsails, jib and spanker (no steam up, but funnel shut up as a telescope.) When she sighted the Selim, she bore away for her under all canvas, and when sufficiently near to make out the English flag, rounded to again under small canvas, and showed what the captain of the Selim says has been described to him as, and which he had no doubt of being, the Confederate flag. This is about the entire story."

☞ Mrs. Jane G. Swisshelm, in a lecture at Washington, on Saturday, demanded of Mr. Lincoln's Administration, that it cease to treat the Minnesota Indian assassins as prisoners of war; that it cease to recognize the right of any portion of the people under its jurisdiction to make war on any other portion. She demanded, in the name of Minnesota, the repeal of all laws recognizing or establishing foreign Governments within that State. Mrs. S. closed her address with the avowal that "Minnesota will never make peace with rebels; neither will she with their allies, the Sioux Indians. Whenever they get out from under Uncle Samuel's wing, we will hunt them, shoot them, set traps for them, put out poisoned bait for them, kill them by every means we would use to exterminate panthers. We cannot breath the same air with these demon violators of woman, crucifiers of infants. Every Minnesota man who has a soul and can get a rifle, will go to shooting Indians, and he who hesitates will be blackballed by every Minnesota woman, and posted as a coward in every Minnesota house."

Mr. May, Representative from Baltimore, is the only member of Congress in favor of peace by a dissolution of the Union. Vallandigham and men of his class favor peace to restore the Union; they think that the only chance. Others think that fighting will restore the Union; and yet others who believe the Union is gone and can never be restored advocate vigorous warfare, that better terms may be had at last and more territory recovered. Mr. May stands alone as assenting to and favoring a division of the country.—Portland Advertiser.

☞ The New Bedford Mercury says John B. Gough gives for charitable purposes with a lavish hand. Of $30,000 he acquired in Great Britain, he brought home but $1600; he is now supporting seventeen young men at college, and the surplus of his income goes for the war. This may be so!

☞ Victor Hugo has written a tragedy, of which old John Brown is the hero.

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY.—The Senate passed the bill authorizing the President to confer Brevet rank. The bill to promote the health and comfort of the army was taken up and passed, an amendment by Mr. Sumner denying tobacco to the soldiers being defeated by a majority of 30. The appropriation bill was amended and passed.

In the House, the bill to organize National forces was amended in various particulars. One amendment confines the term of service to the present rebellion and not to exceed three years. The bill was then passed—115 to 49.

New York, Feb. 25.

ALDEN'S TYPE SETTER.—To the Editor of the Chronicle:—Having read a notice relating to the "Alden Type Setting and Distributing Machine" in your paper, and having had for a long time a desire to witness the operation of this wonderful piece of mechanism, I have visited 113 Washington street, where the machine is exhibited in operation. There I met one of your townsmen, Mr. George I. Peluzzi, a very agreeable and obliging gentleman, who entertained me above an hour in explaining all its different parts. I was particular in observing that important item which you do not appear to understand—the "justification." This is very easily accomplished. The letters coming from their appropriate grooves, pass along one after another, into a long, narrow channel, until they reach the end nearest the page to be set up, when a gage come forward, separating as near as possible, the length of each required line, from the mass. When it is not exact in length, the operator has only to touch a spring, and the machine puts in the spaces exactly where they belong, as well as a human being could do it by hand. If the word at the end of the line requires to be divided, a hyphen is very neatly dropped in instantly. The hyphens, quads and all kinds of spaces are close by the page of matter to be set up.

The operator has an abundance of time to look after all this, being able to touch some sixty keys in advance of the delivery. I need not add that this machine is surely the most ingenious, and yet perfectly practical, of anything of which the Yankees can boast. Yours, &c.,

E. WORTHINGTON LOVETT,
229 Broadway. Civil Engineer.

☞ Mr. Mason, the Confederate Commissioner, was present on the 11th at a banquet given by the Lord Mayor of London, and made a speech. The Lord Mayor in proposing the toast to "Visitors," made some complimentary allusion to Mr. M., to which the latter responded. The Times in referring to it assures Americans on both sides of the Potomac, that what was said and done by the Lord Mayor is considered in London, not exactly insignificant or indifferent, but really as beginning and ending in the Mansion House.

☞ Mr. Frederick Bullman was in Boston on Wednesday, and completed arrangements for a season of opera by Max Maretzek's Ione Havana troupe during the month of April, at the Boston Theatre.—The troupe is said to be complete in all its parts, and embraces artistes who are not only new to Boston, but who possess conspicuous abilities. Certainly they could not come at a more advantageous period, and a cordial reception awaits them.

☞ It is now announced that the attack on Charleston will be on the full of this moon, when favored by the full tides the iron-clads will attempt to run the forts. If they succeed in that, the city will easily fall. The danger to the fleet is more from obstructions in the river, than from guns.

A YANKEE HEROINE.—Vessel recaptured from Rebel Pirates by a Maine Woman.—Intelligence was published some time since of the capture of the brig J. P. Ellicott of Bucksport, Me., A. Devereux master, by the rebel pirate Retribution, on the 10th of January, and her subsequent recapture by the crew and arrival at St. Thomas. It was not stated, however, that the recapture was planned by a woman, which now appears to have been the case. The particulars are thus stated in the New York Commercial:

"The captain and mate of the J. P. Ellicott were accompanied by their wives.—The wife of the mate was left on board the brig. This woman had cause to fear bad usage at the hands of the prize master and his mate, and managed to get them both intoxicated, when she proposed to the seamen, who were mostly, if not all, negroes from St. Thomas, to make them prisoners, and to capture the vessel. She took iron handcuffs from her trunk, and, with their assistance, put the rebels in irons, and took possession of the vessel on the 12th of January. She had studied navigation on the voyage with her husband, and, having assumed command, sailed for St. Thomas till she spoke a French vessel, which gave her the right course. She made Tortola, one of the Virgin islands, to the windward of St. Thomas, when she was piloted by negroes to St. Thomas, where she arrived on the 17th ult., and placed her in the hands of John T. Edgar, United States Consul, who put the master, mate and five seamen on board the United States steamer Alabama."

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— We notice in an inland political paper, a poem entitled "chide mildly the erring." In such a political canvass as is now going on it seems somewhat out of date.

—— The American states that a shoe dealer within a hundred miles of Manchester, offered to sell a pair of shoes to a little girl for $1.20. But she said she had only a dollar—a gold dollar. "Oh," said the dealer, "if it is a gold dollar, you may have them for it." This man thought himself sharp, but his soul was smaller than that of the little girl's shoe!

—— Unlicensed dogs are dying very rapidly in Manchester, with the assistance of the City Marshal.

—— What was said to be perhaps the biggest hog (quadruped) in the world, was raised at Amherst and recently killed. It was of the Leicester breed. Its live weight was 1330 pounds—weight dressed 1180 pounds. It was 3 years and 11 months old, and had reached the size of an ox.

—— S. P. Riddell and C. C. Rowley, sutlers of the 7th Regiment, have just been exchanged at Richmond.

—— Some person entered the dwelling house of Mr. David Davis, of Plaistow, between Saturday, the 14th, and Thursday, the 19th inst., and stole therefrom $325. The money was locked up in a desk drawer, which was carefully closed and relocked by the thief. Of the amount stolen, $150 was in gold and silver.

—— Exeter ice dealers last week made an attempt to cut ice on the river; but as it was found to be four or five inches thick and scarcely strong enough to work horses on with safety, the work was abandoned. The work was resumed on Tuesday morning with more success. The crop is rather light, however, being but eight or nine inches in thickness.

☞ Detectives in Brooklyn, N. Y., have succeeded in arresting Chas. Gordon alias Charles H. Grant, said to be one of the most dexterous burglars in the country, on the charge of breaking into and robbing the residences of a number of the leading citizens of Brooklyn. The property found on his person amounts to some $6000. He fairly glistened with diamonds. His age is 33 years.

DEMOCRATIC OPINION OF THE SOLDIERS.—The New Hampshire Patriot is suddenly smitten with a tender regard for the soldiers. It is dreadfully sensitive lest the Republicans should say something in their disparagement. But when Dr. Batchelder of Epping declared in the Democratic State Convention that "he did not believe that our soldiers had been fighting for the Constitution, but for thirteen dollars a month," the Patriot had not a word of rebuke. The brave soldiers of New Hampshire will properly appreciate the sympathies of a paper which is doing all it can to obstruct the Government and prolong the war.—Boston Journal.

☞ The draft has been quietly going on in those counties of Michigan where the quota has not been filled by volunteers.—Men of all classes have been drafted without distinction. In one instance a member of the State Legislature was drawn, and in another the person selected to take the names from the box drew his own.—No trouble has taken place, and no resistance has been offered.

Prisoners from Richmond say that the rebel prisons in that city are filled with loyal citizens from Eastern Tennessee and Northwestern Virginia, and that they are treated ten times worse than the prisoners of war. About a week before the prisoners left Richmond an order came from the rebel Secretary of War ordering the release of two citizens of Eastern Tennessee, who had been in confinement for eighteen months. The jailor to whom the order was addressed, upon looking over his books, found that the two men whose names were specified had died three months since.—Boston Post.

HARPERS' MAGAZINE for March.—The illustrated articles are—Continental Money—a Californian in Iceland; and Doctor Hawley. There is also the usual amount of interesting miscellany, and the number as a whole is unusually attractive. For sale by J. F. Shores, jr. and J. H. Foster.

A fireman once related an adventure in which he found himself in a rich saloon surrounded by wealth and fine company.

"I did not know myself, until I felt in my pockets and found 'em empty."

Some one inferred that he was customarily short of funds.

"That's so; if steamboats were selling for two cents apiece, I haven't enough to buy a gangway plank."

CONTINENTAL MONTHLY for March.—The political articles in this number are by writers of acknowledged ability, and treat of matters of deep interest. There is also a good collection of lighter matter, with poetry, editor's table, &c.

It is argued that even if that old rat, Louis Napoleon, wanted to go to war with this country, he could not raise the money necessary. But he never will do anything unless he gets England's co-operation, and it hardly seems possible that she would so put her foot in it to oblige him.—Boston Post.

☞ Canadian papers state that the storm last week was the most severe experienced there for several years, the snow measuring four feet deep on an average.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD,
February 9th, 1863.

Sealed Proposals will be received at this office until 1 o'clock p. m. on SATURDAY, the 14th day of March, 1863, for supplying the Light-house Establishment with forty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter strained sperm oil, to be divided into two lots, and to be delivered at the times undermentioned, alongside of the government supply vessels, or at the warehouse or other place of deposit, to be designated by the Inspecting Officer or other authorized agent of the Light-house Board, in strong, tight, well-made casks, suitable for shipping, in good order, of an average capacity, each, of from eighty to one hundred gallons.

Either lot or all of them may be delivered at New York, New London, Sag Harbor, Boston, New Bedford, Nantucket or Edgartown, at the option of the bidders. The place of delivery must be distinctly stated in the bids, and will be embraced in the contracts.

The lots will be delivered as follows, viz:

Lot No 1. Thirty thousand gallons (30,000) on the 15th day of June, 1863, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 2. Ten thousand gallons (10,000) on the 1st day of October, 1863, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

No part of the oil proposed for and to be embraced in the contracts under this advertisement will be accepted, received, or paid for, until it shall have been proved by the written attestation of the person or persons charged with its examination, test, and inspection, to be the best quality pure winter strained or bagged sperm oil, free from admixture with other inferior oils and adulterations, and that it will remain in a sufficiently fluid state for free burning in lamps at a temperature of 32° or lower of Fahrenheit's standard thermometer.

The usual means for determining the character and quality of the oil will be employed, viz: for specific gravity, by hydrometer; for determining the length of time the oil will burn in untrimmed capillary or jacket lamps, the amount of residuum in each lamp after it burns out; and, if necessary, any other proper tests to arrive at correct conclusions that may be deemed necessary.

The casks must be gauged, under the direction and personal supervision of the inspecting officer, by a custom-house or other legally authorized or sworn gauger, according to the United States standard, and must be marked and accepted before they are removed from the cellar or warehouse of the contractor.

Proposals will be received and considered for each lot separately, or for all of them, at the option of the bidder; but no bid will be considered for a less quantity than that specified as one lot, to be delivered at one time and place. Each bid must state explicitly the price per gallon, in writing, the number of lot or lots bid for, and the time and place of delivery, conforming to this advertisement.

Bids submitted by different members of the same firm or copartnership will not be considered.

The Light-house Board, under the authority of the Department, reserves the right to reject any bid, although it may be the lowest, for other considerations than price.

No bid will be considered for any other kind or description of oil than that specifically called for in this advertisement.

A bond, with security, for the satisfaction of the Department, in a penalty equal to one fifth of the amount of each contract made under these proposals, will be required of the successful bidder, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, to be executed within ten days after the acceptance of the bid.

Every offer must be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, and known to the Department as such, or certified by a United States district judge, attorney, navy agent, or collector of the customs, to the effect that, if the bid or bids be accepted, the bidder or bidders will duly execute a contract in good faith, according to the provisions and terms of this advertisement, within ten days after acceptance; and that in case the said party or parties offering shall fail to enter into the contract as aforesaid, he or they guaranty to make good the difference between the offer of said party or parties and the next lowest bidder. All bids must be sealed and endorsed "Proposals for oil for light-houses," and then placed in another envelope, and directed, prepaid, to the Secretary of the Light-house Board, Washington city.

All bids will be opened, publicly, at the hour and on the day specified.

Payments will be made for the several lots of oil within thirty days after they shall have been received by the United states.

By order of the Light-house Board:
f17 3w2taw W. B. SHUBRICK, Chairman.

Notice to Housekeepers.
Rubber Band Carpet Sweeper.

TRY IT! TRY IT!!

It saves Money; it saves Carpets; it saves Furniture; it saves Labor; it is cheaper than Brooms at five cents apiece.

It gathers up all dust, dirt, and loose lint on the carpets, and raises no dust to settle on the furniture, drapery, or ornaments, or to smother, stifle and irritate the lungs.

It does not wear the carpets half so much as brooms or any other sweeper.

It is the only practicable sweeper made, and the only article fit to sweep a carpet.

With our late improvements it gives universal satisfaction to all who use it according to directions. For sale at No. 12 Market Street by

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH CERESE.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.
I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 3 feet long! or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

THE MODEL COOK is adapted equally well for wood and coal, summer and winter. It will be found to be THE STOVE for farmers, mechanics or professional men; for boarding houses or private families—in fact for every place where a good stove is needed.

We believe the MODEL COOK to be the very best Stove in the Market, and invite every one to examine it whether they wish to purchase or not. It has had a very extensive sale since its introduction. Reference might be made to more than a hundred families in this city or vicinity who are using the Stove, and give it the highest commendation.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. M. Davis, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Raitt, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Francis C. Jarvis, Thos. J. Pulbock, Jacob Wendell, Capt. Jacob Thompson, Gen. J. G. Hadley, G. Melvin Hutchens, Jos. D Akerman, James F. Shores, Wm. C. Newton, Horton D. Walker, Benj. Cheever, John Trundy, Richard L. VICTOR COAL STOVE.

We offer this beautifol coal burner to the public, with full confidence in its merits.

It was brought into market two years since, and has come rapidly into use.

The Victor is one of the handsomest parlor stoves in the market, and is perfect in its operation. The arrangement for dumping the ashes is very fine—no dust need escape into the room—a continuous fire may be kept throughout the winter—the coal all burned, and no clinkers made.

The quantity of fuel used is very small indeed. There is in this stove an excellent arrangement for ventilating the room in which it is placed; a feature not possessed by any other parlor stove.

Some of the sizes are provided with an oven and boiling place, making them very desirable for a dining room.

We sold a large number of Victor Stoves in our city last season, and they receive the highest commendation from those who are using them.

We have also the celebrated McGregor Stove, so well known in the market as to need no commendation.

A great variety of cheaper Stoves for coal and wood—Cool-hods—Patent Coal-sifters.

COAL LININGS,
and Repairing pieces for most of the stoves in use.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES

They are the Purest!
The Best!
The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe." "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Teksy, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

EXETER, N.H., Feb. 26, 1862. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor; severe rent—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum has been spent in the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWAYNE'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his HUMOR WASH, which have effected a cure. There has been no return of the complaint for more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have recommended his medicines to my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by them; I have acted as agent for Dr. Swett's medicines in Exeter."—JEREMIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

"I have for several years been afflicted with dizziness at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all my food immediately after eating; and all sources failed to give any relief until about two year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of those complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD."

From ELDER I. CHENLEY, Lee, May 31, 1861.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound, what your Sarsaparilla has done for my wife several year ago, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1861, she had been so much afflicted with a humor, which had baffled her by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow worse and worse, until she tried your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicines one of the best that can be found for the disease above named. ISRAEL CHENLEY.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if he do not agree with his case, or it not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other Foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice relating to matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent issued since 1836, by sending One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not incontestably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials let on given above, are a SPECIMEN OF WORK SUCCESSFULLY AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

Hence, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their claims in the strongest form for rapid issue of patent, and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such uniform success is proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications, twelve different decisions, in favor of his clients, which resulted in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and tea iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large capacity Reservoir for hot water; there is fifteen acres of land attached, divided into tillage and pasturing, with a young and thrifty orchard. THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and tea iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large capacity Reservoir for hot water; there is the warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, and hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting dwellings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, providing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, our tendency to produce headaches so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, which have but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases have been allowed to pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 50 per cent. of the properties of the best in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of heat, and consequently, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, and is adapted to a much greater portion of coal, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, and the ashes of coal is entirely improvement with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert H. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practice, and experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies which have never failed, and relentlessly effected by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the Head, Dimness of Sight, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c., &c., the fearful effects on body and mind are too to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, love of solitude, and melancholy evils produced. Such persons should before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or more, can be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotten, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail, Three Dollars for $1 and a red stamp.

CAUTION

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all those cases requiring his professional skill, such as Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are treated upon new and philosophical principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted persons soon rejoice in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. While in the mouth it better ease in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

EPPING, N. H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands so much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla, Dock, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until she procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Liniment and Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicine can cure it. Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with dizziness at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often troubled up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief till about a year ago, when I took one bottle of Dr. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I can say good of it. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with a scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had continued for a number of months, without natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA AND HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the diseases above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay back, if it do not agree with his case, or if not as represented. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Stuart's cavalry were repulsed in an attack on a part of Averill's Cavalry, near Harwood church, Va., on Wednesday.—There was some loss on both sides.

A Hilton Head correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune, under date of Feb. 19th, wrote that an expedition of 5000 armed negroes, led by whites and supported by regular troops, was to be sent at once into one of the most thickly populated districts of one of the three States in that department; and that it was known that the slaves, with whom communication had been kept up, were ready to rise in thousands.

Gen. Thomas J. Stevenson, of Mass., who was recently promoted for bravery in North Carolina, has been arrested by Gen. Hunter at Port Royal, for publicly declaring that he would rather be beaten by the rebels than fight with negroes. Gen. Hunter has peremptorily ordered all the staff of Gen. Foster out of the Department of the South, for utterance of sentiments tending to create disaffection, insubordination and mutiny. Heavy firing was heard in the Ogeechee River, and it was supposed that the iron-clad Passaic and rebel iron-clad Atlanta had met in conflict. The rebels in Savannah are straining every nerve to complete their new iron clad, in which they express great confidence. The rebels announce that four steamers ran the blockade of Charleston in one day: the Ruby, Leopard and Wagner, from Nassau—the fourth is not named, bound for Liverpool, with J. B. Clay, of Ky., on board.

The Port Royal correspondent of the N. Y. Times, under date of Feb. 18, writes:—"The steamship Ericsson arrived yesterday from New York, with only one of the four submarine contrivances she started with in tow, the rest having by stress of weather broken loose and sunk. A considerable body of troops have been dispatched to Ogeechee, and the Monitors Montauk and Passaic are also to be stationed there for the present."

The invading rebel forces are leaving Kentucky via Mount Sterling and Hazel Green, closely pursued by Col. Runkle, with 1800 cavalry and infantry. Very little damage was done by the raid, and the excitement has subsided.

A private dispatch says the rebels under Clarke were overtaken at Turktown, Ky., 12 miles east of Mount Sterling, travelling toward Pound Gap, and were badly whipped on Wednesday.

On Thursday afternoon 28 cars, mostly laden by individuals going from Louisville, Ky., to Nashville, Tenn., were seized by 60 armed mounted rebels at Woodburn, 12 miles below Bowling Green, and burned.—The rebels then fired up the locomotive and sent it ahead at full speed, supposing it would come in contact with the passenger train coming from Nashville. Luckily the rain had so injured the bridges that the passenger train had returned to Nashville, and the locomotive, having exhausted its steam, stopped on the track, doing no damage.

The report of the capture of the ram Queen of the West is confirmed. It is reported that the Indianola destroyed a rebel steamer near Port Hudson.

☞ The official report of Maj. Gen. Rosencrans of the battle of Murfreesboro is published. Considering the magnitude of the contest, the report has made its appearance very promptly. The battle was one of the bloodiest on record. Our entire number actually engaged was 43,400; our loss in killed and wounded, 8,788, or 20 per cent. of the whole force. The Rebels engaged were about 63,000, and their loss, estimating from actual returns in three divisions, is set down at 14,560, or about 27 per cent.

☞ The N. Y. Times' dispatch says a plan has been submitted to the Military Committees for consolidating the regiments in the field, or for filling them up to the maximum number, and keeping them full from troops to be raised under the new conscription law. It gives the President power to muster out of the service officers whom the consolidation may leave without commands.

☞ The Quakers in New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Delaware, have memorialized Congress, asking exemption from the draft, and the procurement of substitutes, and from the fines.

☞ Maj. Gen. McDowell has been ordered to Cairo to serve as President of the court-martial for the trial of those officers accused of improperly speculating in cotton.

☞ A brother of the rebel General, Forrest, informs the Memphis Bulletin, that he is dead. His relatives place reliance on the information.

☞ The Queen of the West, which ran past the rebel batteries at Vicksburg, is not iron-clad, but is a wooden boat, with an iron clad prow. The Indianola, which has followed her, is iron-clad.

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

From our Regular Correspondent.

METROPOLIS, Feb. 25th.

Dear Chronicle:—Our loyal and patriotic community fittingly celebrated Washington's birthday. The observance of the occasion was commenced on Saturday evening by various societies, continued thro' Sunday by an oration and a heavy snow storm, and Monday by a military parade over icy walks and snow banks. The 8th Regiment was presented with a handsome stand of colors—and, with several others, braved the elements, and took up the usual line of march,—down Broadway to the City Hall and return.

Elementarily, we are snowed up. Sunday we had the first snow storm of the season—a continuous, piteous siege of snow-flakes, whose countless squadrons poured down so steadily that all the earth and air was one grand parade-field for their white plumes. They drifted into all the nooks and crooks of houses and fences, covered up the gardenspots, draped the dreary brown branches of the trees in a mantle of purity, which, at each sweep of the wind, cast feathery showers on the white drifts beneath.

Sleighs and bells, exhumed from cob-webbed corners in the stables, jumped and jingled merrily along our avenues, and with the prancing steeds and merry pleasure seekers invested our city and suburbs with a scene of gayety, in which it is seldom our good fortune to delight.

Theatrically, we have some of the best companies and plots ever put upon the boards. Miss Ritchings is at Niblo's, where Miss Bateman has just closed a brilliant season and achieved a reputation as the greatest female tragedian of the American stage, excepting Charlotte Cushman.—Booth, until the death of his wife, was at "Winter Garden," where during the month past, Cubas has been pirouetting as usual. Lester Wallack, Mrs. Hoey, and Miss Henriques, with a good company, are at the house of the former, and next week we are promised an opera at the Academy,—a full troupe under Max Maretzek.

An article in one of your recent issues, on the merits of advertising, reminded me of an enterprising firm, formerly of your city, who attribute their past success, and present secundation, in no small degree, to their liberal participation in this mode of keeping before an appreciative public the advantages offered. Allen & Paine, associated in the minds of my readers with all that was most attractive and excellent in Portsmouth, and who so successfully won the encomiums and dollars of her citizens, in favorable exchange, are a brilliant example, not only of what advertising will assist in accomplishing, but what talent, enterprise, and attention will richly achieve.

With a manufacturing department employing over one thousand hands, a large sale establishment in Boston, and another in the very business focus of "Ye Broadway" of the Metropolis, controlling a cash trade of over $350,000 per year, which the advantages and conveniencies afforded to Western customers by the N. Y. house, will probably increase this season $50,000,—they are destined to rank with the Lowell, Manchester, Higgins, Sprague and others, of our great manufacturing companies.

NEWINGTON.

CONGRESS.

THURSDAY.—In the Senate, several matters were disposed of, but there was no business of public interest transacted.

The House passed the Senate bill to punish frauds on the Government; also the bill for the appointment of additional Major Generals and Brigadier Generals, by a vote of 108 against 36. It increases the number of Major Generals from 20 to 40, and of Brigadier Generals from 50 to 100, and provides that the President shall appoint no one excepting for gallant conduct in the field. In the evening the House resumed the consideration of the amendments to the tax bill, and it was stated that before the close of the session the Committee on Ways and Means intend to bring in a bill on the subject of paper tax, which the House could modify to any extent they pleased.

☞ "Perley" telegraphs that it is doubtful whether the Senate will adopt the bill passed by the House, doubling the number of new Brigadier Generals, on recommendation, at present. Shepley of Maine and Marston of New Hampshire are on the revised list of nominations, but all the Massachusetts Colonels promoted are "left out in the cold."

An effort is being made among merchants in New York to induce the banks to adopt a concerted course of action with a view to discouraging speculations in gold. The Herald's money writer says if all the banks and private bankers would call in the loans on gold, and refuse to renew them, the premium would decline ten per cent at once. If the banks refuse to do this, it is proposed to appeal to the Legislature and to Congress. The present premium on gold—in view of the amount of paper afloat—is utterly preposterous, and is only maintained by the operations of speculators, who are wholly unable to carry the gold they buy. If every man who bought gold had been compelled to carry it, the premium would not have been over twenty-five per cent. at the present time.—Boston Post.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated — By UNCLE TOBY.

Barefoote, Cranfield, Stileman, Vaughan, 1682—83.

Walter Barefoote, as deputy collector of this port under Randolph, seized a vessel here on the 10th of March, 1682, for a pretended violation of the laws of trade; for which offence, namely, attempting to execute an office, without authority derived from the government of the Province, he and his assistants, William Haskins, and Thomas Thurton, were prosecuted. Barefoote pleaded his deputation from Randolph, as his justification, notwithstanding which, he and his assistants were convicted. Barefoote was sentenced to pay a fine of £20, and his assistants £5 each, which were not to be exacted during their good behavior. An appeal was claimed from this sentence, to the King, but was never prosecuted.

After Mason's return to England, he solicited the King for a change of government, in hopes of procuring one more favorable to his views as proprietor of the province; and to induce the King to comply with his wishes he conveyed to him, by deed, one fifth part of the quit rents, which had or should become due; which, with the fines and forfeitures, were appropriated to the support of government. On the 9th of May, 1682, Edward Cranfield was appointed Lieutenant Governor and Commander-in Chief of New Hampshire. And Mason mortgaged the whole province to him, for the payment of one hundred and fifty pounds yearly, for seven years. Mason with seven others of the former counsellors, was reappointed, and Walter Barefoote and Richard Chambertayne were added. Cranfield accepted his appointment; he arrived at Portsmouth and published his commission on the 4th of October. He caused an assembly to be summoned, which met on the 14th of November.

In 1683, the Governor dismissed Captain Elias Stileman, from his command of the fort, a station which he had held for several years to the general acceptance of the inhabitants, and the approbation of the members of the former administration. The ostensible reason for his removal, was his suffering a vessel which had been seized, to pass out of the harbor. If this had been a fact, he should have been arrested, tried and punished. But as the Governor removed him from the Council about the same time, it was suspected that he was influenced by other motives. Barefoote was appointed to the command of the fort.

At the session of the General Assembly, held in the month of January, a misunderstanding took place between the Governor and Representatives, who had refused to pass a bill to raise money for the support of government. The Governor dissolved them. This was an exercise of power hitherto unknown in this country, and it excited much jealousy among the people. They were apprehensive that he intended to take the government into his own hands; or make continual changes in the Council and House of Representatives, till he had secured a majority of both houses, who would be subservient to his wishes. His interest was strongly connected with Mason's, as he depended on him for a considerable part of his salary. He was desirous of establishing Mason's claim, and that the inhabitants should take leases under him, subject to a quit rent. The Governor accordingly on the 14th day of February, publicly "called on the inhabitants to take their leases from Mason within one month, otherwise he must certify their refusal to the King, that Mason might be discharged from his obligation to grant them."

There were but few who complied with this requisition. The landholders in general said that they had purchased their land from the Indians, the original proprietors of the soil, who alone could have any title to it; that they had at great expense brought it from a state of nature under cultivation; had erected buildings for the accommodation of themselves and families, had defended them against a savage enemy, with whom they had been kept in a continual state of warfare; and that no person whatever could have a legal or equitable right to dispossess them. There being no prospect of any agreement between the parties, the courts were organized principally with a reference to a decision of these questions. The Council had appellate jurisdiction; most of the old members were removed, and others appointed by the Governor in their stead. Barefoote was made a Judge, Mason Chancellor, Chamberlayne Clerk and Prothonotary, Randolph Attorney General, and Sherlock Provost Marshal and Sheriff. Matters being thus arranged, Mason commenced a number of actions against the principal inhabitants of the several towns and those persons who accepted leases from Mason were selected for jurymen and witnesses. No defence was made to these actions, and judgment was uniformly rendered in favor of the plaintiff. Major William Vaughan of this town who was one of the defendants, had the resolution to appeal to the King in Council, but the judgment against him was there affirmed. Mason was put in possession of the estates he had recovered by due course of law, but so strong was the popular prejudice against him, he could neither keep the possession, nor sell them; and their former owners after a short interruption continued to occupy them. Martyn, who had been treasurer under the former administration, was called upon for the fines and forfeitures he had received in his official capacity. His defence was, that he had paid out all the monies he had in his hands, by order of the President and Council, as he was in duty bound to do. Notwithstanding which, judgment was rendered against him for every seventy-one pounds and cost. And by a decree of the Court of Chancery, the members of the late Council were ordered to pay their proportion of said judgment. "This decree was afterwards reversed by the King in Council."

The government became extremely oppressive to the people; and they determined to petition the King for redress of grievances. They accordingly drew up remonstrances, which were signed by the inhabitants of the several towns. They elected Nathaniel Weare, of Hampton, their agent for the purpose of presenting their petition and enforcing them before the King in Council, and raised money by subscription to defray the expense. This business was conducted as privately as possible, lest the Governor should take some measures to frustrate their designs. Weare went to Boston and took passage from thence for England.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

OFFICE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD,

February 9th, 1863.

Sealed Proposals will be received at this office until 1 o'clock p. m. on SATURDAY, the 14th day of March, 1863, for supplying the Light-house Establishment with forty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter sperm oil, to be divided into two lots, and to be delivered at the times undermentioned, alongside of the government supply vessels, or at the warehouse or other place of deposit, to be designated by the Inspecting Officer or other authorized agent of the Light-house Board, in good, tight, well-made casks, suitable for shipping, in good order, of an average capacity, each, of from eighty to one hundred gallons.

Either lot or all of them may be delivered at New York, New London, Sag Harbor, Boston, New Bedford, Edgartown, or Nantucket, at the option of the bidders. The place of delivery must be distinctly stated in the bids, and will be conformed in the contract.

The lots will be delivered as follows, viz:

Lot No 1. Thirty thousand gallons (30,000) on the 15th day of June, 1863, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 2. Ten thousand gallons (10,000) on the 1st day of October, 1863, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

No part of the oil proposed for and to be embraced in the contracts under this advertisement will be accepted, received, or paid for, until it shall have been proved to the entire satisfaction of the person or persons charged with its examination, test, and inspection, to be the best quality pure winter strained or bleached sperm oil, free from mixture with other or inferior oils and adulterations, and that it will remain in a sufficiently fluid state for free burning in lamps at a temperature of 32° or lower of Fahrenheit's standard thermometer.

The usual means for determining the character and quality of the oil will be employed, viz: for specific gravity, by burning 10 grains, and the length of time the oil will burn in untrimmed capillary wick tubes, the amount of residuum in each lamp after it burns out, and, if necessary, any other proper tests to arrive at correct conclusions that may be deemed necessary.

The casks must be gauged, under the direction and personal supervision of the inspecting officer, by a custom house or other legally authorized sworn gauger, according to the United States standard, and must be marked and accepted before they are removed from the cellar or warehouse of the contractor.

Proposals will be received and considered for each lot separately, or for all of them, at the option of the bidder; but no bid will be considered for a less quantity than that specified as one lot, to be delivered at one time and place. Each bid must state explicitly the rate per gallon, in writing, the number of lot or lots bid for, and the time and place of delivery, conforming to this advertisement.

Bids submitted by different members of the same firm or copartnership will not be considered.

The Light-house Board, under the authority of the Department, reserves the right to reject any bid, although it may be the lowest, for other considerations than price.

No bid will be considered for any other kind or description of oil than that specifically called for in this advertisement.

Bids will be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, and known to the Department as such, or certified by a District Judge, Judge, attorney, navy agent, or collector of the customs, to the effect that, if the bid or bids be accepted, the bidder or bidders will duly execute a contract in good faith, according to the provisions and terms of this advertisement, within ten days after acceptance, and that in default of said party or parties offering shall fail to enter into the contract aforesaid, he or they guaranty to make good the difference between the offer of said party or parties and the next lowest bidder. All bids must be sealed and endorsed, "Proposals for oil for light-houses," and then placed in another envelope, and directed properly, to the Secretary of the Light-house Board, Washington city.

All bids will be opened, publicly, at the hour and on the day specified.

Payments will be made for the several lots of oil within thirty days after they shall have been received by the United States.

By order of the Light-house Board:

Rubber Band Carpet Sweeper.

TRY IT! TRY IT!!

It saves Money; it saves Carpets; it saves Furniture; it saves Labor; it is cheaper than Brooms at five cents apiece.

It gathers up all dust, dirt, and loose lint on the carpets, and raises no dust to settle on the furniture, drapery, or ornaments, or to smother, side and irritate the lungs.

It does not wear the carpets half so much as brooms or any other sweeper.

It is the only practicable sweeper made, and the only article fit to sweep a carpet.

With our late improvements it gives universal satisfaction to all who use it according to directions. For sale at No. 12 Market Street by Local.

☞ Rev. Dr. Gulick's lecture on the Micronesia, which was delivered in the North Church on Thursday evening, gave great satisfaction to the audience,—imparting information not to be had elsewhere, of the manners and customs, religious and social life of thousands of people in these islets, of whom we have known but little more than if they had lived in another planet.

The orator was good-humored, as well as graphic; we, the audience, caught the inspiration, and seemed to be smiling at our own ludicrous adventures, in bumping our heads in low huts, getting daubed with oil and grimed with smoke, and sitting on a seat of small stones and broken coral. We had full sympathy with the teacher who taught A B C under protest, and could not impart a hand writing that would buy goods without money. And as to the miracles, sacred legends and ethics, the missionary showed up a simple hearted people neither idolaters nor atheists, but spiritualists, who cared nothing for new doctrines, but did understand and accept the Golden Rule, when the missionary made that the basis of his teaching. We commend his good sense in so doing; and commend him specially in the lecture line, as a workman that need not be ashamed.

☞ A Manchester correspondent of the Boston Traveller states that the 2d regiment, on its return from the seat of war, will probably be assigned to duty at Fort Constitution, and its members granted furloughs. We trust that, if the regiment is to come to Portsmouth, arrangements will be at once made to extend to them such a reception as they abundantly merit, and as our citizens will be most happy to participate in.

☞ Mr. Leo Miller, an eloquent and able speaker, will deliver an address at the Temple, on Sunday evening, on the Rebellion and the Emancipation Proclamation. He will also speak at Mercantile Hall on Sunday afternoon.

PORTSMOUTH, Feb. 17, 1863.

Mr. Wm. Grace:—I wish to state to you for the benefit of those similarly afflicted, the great relief I have found from the use of your Salve. I have been troubled with one of those old virulent ulcers of the leg for three or four years, and tried various remedies without success. I procured from Dr. Wm. R. Preston, Portsmouth, two boxes of your Salve, and it has entirely cured the ulcer; and I know of two other cases that have been cured by the same. I am desirous to aid you in your good work of relieving the afflicted, and send this for your use.

Respectfully yours,
ANTHONY C. CAMPELL.

See advertisement on fourth page.

☞ We have been requested to publish the following extract from a letter written by a gentleman from this city, now on board the U. S. steamer Mahaska:—

We have left Yorktown for a while, but shall probably return thither to-night. We have some of the Generals and other officers on board, with their wives; so you see that we are up to the same old trade, viz. running pleasure excursions. I don't know but it will do about as much toward putting down the rebellion, as anything we have done lately. The officers are all good Democrats, and this war will last as long as they can draw their pay and do nothing, in my opinion.

The Crusader took a prize valued at $80,000, and as we were close by we shall share with them. After they had taken it, the crew told us that another schooner had run the blockade, and gone up East river. We run up as far as we could with the gun boat and launched two small boats and sent them up. When they got where the schooner was, it was aground and had been unloaded. We then had to return and leave the fair sex, and when we got back the rebels had burned the schooner. So you see by going back with the ladies, we lost from $6000 to $10,000. This is rather poor encouragement for us out here.

Tell the folks in Portsmouth, for me, to carry the Republican ticket in March, for it will do as much good out here to have them carry the State, as it would for New Hampshire to send 10,000 men into the field. B. J.

☞ We are indebted to T. G. Senter, Esq., of Lynn, for a copy of the school committee report of that city. The committee pays a high but merited compliment to Mr. Senter's success as a teacher. They say:

The Principal labors to give real discipline, to cultivate thoughtfulness and breadth of mind, rather than special sharpness on narrow lines of labor. In permanent results, his method is not exceeded by that of any other teacher in the city.

☞ Henry Hopkins of Providence, R. I., committed suicide on Wednesday by inhaling charcoal gas. He was seventy-three years of age. Pecuniary embarrassment is said to have been the cause of the deed.

COD AND HADDOCK.—We are informed by a merchant thoroughly conversant in such matters, that by a careful estimate, there were taken in the waters of Massachusetts on Wednesday last 240,000 pounds of the above named fish; that of this amount 100,000 pounds came into the town of Swampscott, and that on Thursday morning not a pound could be obtained, it having been sent by all sorts of conveyances, throughout the country.—Boston Courier.

☞ Thirty thousand tons of Scranton coal were sold at auction in New York at from $5 10 to $5 92 1-2.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— A dispatch from Washington to the Associated Press, Feb. 26, says it is understood there that the 2nd N. H. Regiment, Col. Marston, numbering about 325 men fit for duty, has been ordered from the Army of the Potomac to New Hampshire, and will leave in a few days.—A later dispatch says the Second arrived at Washington on Thursday, by steamboat from Aquia Creek, and will remain on board until transportation North is provided for them. They will probably go by railroad. They are jubilant at the idea of going home.

—— A little boy, six years old, in New Boston, has had the pleasure of eating apples grown on a tree from which five generations before him have plucked and ate.—The tree was brought from Scotland.

—— As Mr. Noble Squires, 28 years of age, was engaged, at Manchester, Wednesday afternoon, in unloading logs from a team and rolling them down an embankment, a large log went over him, killing him instantly.

—— A young fellow named Frank Peno, of French origin, was arrested in Manchester on Wednesday, and sent to Concord for trial, for stealing a horse and sleigh from John Whittiker, of Fisherville.

—— George S. Hanson, of Dover, has been appointed Quartermaster of the 7th Regiment, at St. Augustine, Fla., vice Andrew H. Young, promoted.

—— A recent term of the S. J. Court in one of our counties, is thus summed up—length of term, 4 weeks; expenses per day, $100 or more; number of case son the docket, over 400; number of verdicts returned, 4!

☞ On Thursday, Wm. Wright, Democrat, of Essex, was elected U. S. Senator from New Jersey, for six years, from March 4th. The vote was—Wright 54, A. Newell 25. The peace resolutions passed in the Senate, 12 to 8, and were made a special order in the House for March 10th.

☞ The other day Mrs. Rosa Jacobs, of Newark, chastised her husband unmercifully and left his face looking like a lobster salad. He didn't like to be sub Rosa in that way, and applied to the court for redress.—To his infinite delight, she was fined ten dollars. To his infinite disgust Mr. Jacobs had to pay the bill.

☞ It is stated that the principal hotels in Boston will, in a few days, advance their rates for entertaining transient company about 25 per cent.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven in the back part of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 2 feet long; or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired

THE MODEL COOK is adapted equally well for wood and coal, summer and winter. It will be found to be the stove for farmers, mechanics or professional men; for boarding houses or private families—in fact for every place where a good stove is needed.

We believe the MODEL COOK to be the very best Stove in the Market, and invite every one to examine it whether they wish to purchase or not. It has had a very extensive sale since its introduction. Reference might be made to more than a hundred families in this city or vicinity who are using the Stove, and give it the highest commendation.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Raitt, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Francis C. Jarvis, Thos. L. Jenkins, John Wendell, Capt. Jacob Thompson, Gen. J. G. Hadley, G. Melvin Hurmuzes, Jos. D Ackerman, James F. Shores, Wm. C. Newton, Horton D. Walker, Benj Chesver, John Humphrey, Richard L. VICTOR COAL STOVE.

We offer this beautiful coal burner to the public, with full confidence in its merits.

It was brought into market two years since, and has come rapidly into use.

The Victor is one of the handsomest parlor stoves in the market, and is perfect in its operation. The arrangement for dumping the ashes is very fine—no dust need escape into the room—a continuous fire may be kept throughout the winter—the coal all burned, and no clinkers.

The quantity of fuel used is very small indeed. There is in this stove an excellent arrangement for ventilating the room in which it is placed; a feature not possessed by any other parlor stove.

Some of the sizes are provided with an oven and boiling place, making them very desirable for a dining room.

We sold a large number of Victor Stoves in our city last season, and they receive the highest commendation from those who are using them.

We have also the celebrated McGregor Stove, so well known in the market as to need no commendation.

A great variety of cheaper Stoves for coal and wood—Coal hods—Patent Coal sifters.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES

They are the Purest!
The Best!
The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old World, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

From the Journal

THE GATHERING POSTPONED.

To the Sons of Portsmouth abroad:—We learn that the committee in Boston, to which, in 1858 was delegated the power to notify a future meeting of the Sons of Portsmouth at the homestead, have decided, in consequence of the state of public affairs, and the necessary absence of many of the citizens of Portsmouth who are engaged in the war, that it is best not to have the general gathering the present year. If a change of circumstances should warrant a different arrangement, notice will be timely given. An announcement by the first of June would be in ample time.

A few weeks since, Mr. Elisha Parks, of this city, received notice that his son, Thomas Parks, aged 19, in Capt. Betton's company, was at the point of death, at one of the hospitals at Washington, and if he wished to secure his corpse, it would be well to give immediate attention. Mr. Parks went immediately to Washington, and found his son yet alive. He remained with him till he recovered some strength, and on Thursday arrived with him in Portsmouth. His feet had been frost-bitten, and both were amputated, in front of the instep, by Dr. Folsom on the day of his arrival. The boy is doing well.

REMARKABLE WINTER.—According to the calendar, the date of our paper to-day is the last day of Winter. It closes with the ground as bare as when it commenced in December. The first fall of snow was Nov. 22, one inch, which immediately disappeared. On the 6th of Dec. 12 inches fell, all of which was cleared away by a warm rain on the 15th of Dec. The next time the ground was covered for a day was Jan. 28th, when 3 inches fell. It disappeared in 4 days. Feb. 12th 3 inches of snow fell, which lasted only 4 days. Probably about one inch has fallen at other times, making in all about twenty inches.

One of our stable keepers, Mr. Tilton, informs us that he has let carriages on runners on fourteen days in the course of the winter.

Although the winter has been so remarkable, yet we find by our records it is not without parallel winters in times past. In the winter of 1852-3 there had fallen but 6½ inches of snow up to Feb. 1, 1853. The North Mill Pond was not more than half covered by ice for a single week during the winter.

In the winter of 1837-8, no snow sufficient for sleighing fell till Feb. 21st. On the third of March it was all gone.

In the winter of 1838-9, there was no sleighing from the 3d of Jan. to the 21st of Feb. There were only ten days' sleighing in the winter.

THE CONSCRIPTION BILL.—The new bill which has passed the Senate, organizing for actual service all the able-bodied men from 20 to 45, and liable to be called into service, exempts only the President and Governors of States; but provision is made for substitutes, or to be excused on paying $300. The rebel chiefs may possibly deem this "startling news."

ABSENTEES.—We notice a list of more than 100 officers of the army, published as absent—to report themselves within ten days on pain of dismissal. Of this list, we find only 3 from all New England—1 from Rhode Island, 1 from Vermont, and 1 from New Hampshire. The absent one from New Hampshire, is Col. H. B. Titus, 9th Reg. who was severely wounded in the shoulder in the battle of Antietam—the first man who enlisted in the western part of the State, (under Capt. Barker) as a private, 2d N. H. He would be the last man to be dishonorably absent. The company chose him their 1st Lieutenant.

It will be seen that Messrs. Jones & Mendum request that those having small notes issued by them will present them for redemption. There has recently been a considerable amount of postal currency received in this city, and the tendency will probably be to crowd the private issues out of circulation.

It has been a great convenience in the absence of specie, the expense of which has been borne by those who have made the issue. There is not probably a dollar of the Portsmouth issue which will not be readily redeemed by those who issued even them, if kept out during the year.

GEN. WOOL'S VISIT TO PORTSMOUTH.—On Monday next, Gen. Wool will visit the Navy Yard and Forts in Portsmouth Harbor, and leave for Concord on Monday afternoon.

OBITUARY.

We some time since published a notice of the death of Mrs. SARAH SHEAFE, relict of the late Hon. James Sheafe, and formerly of this city. Many years since, she with her family removed to the city of New York. During the summers she has occupied and enjoyed her beautiful residence on the North river. Her removal from this city was a serious loss to it, and by many has been severely deplored. Her presence here was both an honor and a blessing. She adorned our society by her various graces; for she was a lady of dignity, intelligence and refinement; and yet was an exemplary christian, in piety, benevolence, and a holy life. Her affectionate remembrances and kindness were never removed from her friends here by her separation from them; but, to her closing days they were tenderly cherished and exercised. While she resided here, she was constant in her attendance at Church on all occasions, and was then warmly attached to it, and to all its services. The elegant prayer book on the desk was her gift; and great was her generosity to the Parish Library. She was a diligent reader of serious books, and was a faithful observer of family devotion. She had great spirituality of character, and it threw a holy loveliness over her features and manners. Truth, integrity, honesty and good sense, were conspicuous in everything that she said or did. Strong, active, and unchangeable was her friendship. She loved and practised hospitality; and her home was rendered delightful, by its exhibition of order, refinement, taste, liberality, comfort, and higher domestic virtues. She was a model of female propriety and courtesy. Her whole life has been a preparation for heaven. She was spared to a good old age, that her ripened virtues might give the brighter assurance of her christian faith, of its preciousness and blessing, and of her qualification for spiritual and eternal glory.—Com.

In Paris, Feb. 20, Hon. J. JOHN HOWARD MARCH Esq. in his 73d year, a native of Greenland, N. H. He was appointed Consul at Madeira in 1817, and held the office 44 years, to 1861, when declining health made it desirable to take a residence elsewhere, and a new appointment was made. Mr. March is the last of six brothers, sons of Hon. Clement March, the average age of four of whom was over seventy years. A marked success attended the business enterprise of the family. The remains of Mr. M. will be brought to Greenland for interment in the family vault.

In New York, Feb. 10, Mrs. Emma C. Embury, aged 67. She was a daughter of Dr. James R. Manley of New York, and was married to Mr. Embury, of Brooklyn, in 1823. For many years she was a contributor to periodical literature, and she wrote several books which met with the public favor. Her style was pleasing, and all her works were perused by a high tone of morality.

In St. Louis, 18th inst. at the residence of her son, Augustus F. Shapleigh, Esq., Mrs. Cora Pray Shapleigh, aged 85 years, widow of Capt. Richard Shapleigh, formerly of this city.

ATTENTION, THE WHOLE!

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor; for several—she affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c. &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.
I have for several years been afflicted with dizziness at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.
DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

MONDAY, MARCH 2, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

On Wednesday night, Fitz Hugh Lee's and Hampton's cavalry brigades, commanded by Stuart in person, crossed the Rappahannock at Kelley's Ford, and by a strong attack, broke our thin line of cavalry outpost at one or two points, capturing a small number of our men. Our cavalry outpost reserves were brought up, the lines immediately re-established, and a force sent in pursuit. Our captures included two or three officers. The rebels retreated in great haste across the Rappahannock.

Van Dorn is reported to have crossed the Tennessee river at Florence with 8000 men, to reinforce Gen. Bragg. An expedition from Corinth is reported to have captured 200 rebels at Tuscumbia on the 22d, with a large amount of ammunition and a provision train.

The fight near Richmond, Ky., Wednesday, resulted more satisfactorily than was first reported. About 200 rebels were taken prisoners, and all the captured wagons recovered.

A expedition has been engaged three weeks in removing rebel obstructions in Yazoo Pass. They have succeeded, and reached Moon Lake on the 22d. A battalion of our troops, sent out to scour the banks, dispersed a band of mounted rebels, killed six, wounded many, and captured 28. Our loss was 5 wounded.

Advices from Port Royal to Feb. 20th, state that since the 1st they had been waiting for the iron-clads to arrive. Two only were then due. The arrest of Gen. Stevenson and Chief Quartermaster Slaght, of Gen. Foster' staff, by Gen. Hunter, grew out of a misunderstanding of the facts, and they are to be honorably released. The other troubles in the department had all been settled satisfactorily. Gen. Foster had returned to Newbern to make arrangements for another expedition.

☞ The Kennebec Journal says, "Hon. F. O. J. Smith is laboring with all his masterly powers of logic, satire, sophistry, and misrepresentation, to prove that as a military necessity to save the Union, with its untold treasures of humanity and civilization from a most fiendish rebellion, the National Government has no authority to strike at the slavery in the rebel States." Opposed to this New Light philosopher, the Journal set up Patrick Henry—who, on the 24th of June, 1788, said of the power of Congress under the then pending federal constitution: "Have they not the power to provide for the general defence and welfare? May they not pronounce all slaves free, and will they not be warranted by that power? This is no ambiguous implication or logical deduction. The paper speaks to the point. They have the power in clear, unequivocal terms, and they will clearly and certainly exercise it."

Gen. Wool was born in New York about the year 1790. His grandfather father and four of his uncles bore arms in the Revolutionary War. He was intended for business pursuits, and at the age of eighteen had charge of a bookstore in Troy.—He abandoned this for the study of law, and, in a year afterwards, the study of law for the practice of arms. On the breaking out of the war of 1812 he was appointed Captain of the 13th Regiment U. S. Infantry. He distinguished himself for skill and valor and rose to the rank of Major. From the close of the war with England to the beginning of the war with Mexico, he was engaged in important military employments, and in 1826 was brevetted Brigadier General. In the Mexican war he won distinction.—He mustered 12,000 volunteer troops for General Taylor, from six states, inspected, organized, and marched them 900 miles through the enemy's country to join Taylor, without the loss of a man. For his services at the battle of Buena Vista he was brevetted Major General. From the close of the war with Mexico to the breaking out of the rebellion, Gen. Wool was constantly occupied.

A gentleman from Charlestown purchased at a retail store in Boston, goods valued at $40—tendering in payment thereof "greenbacks." The bills were received by the proprietor of the store with a sneer, and the remark, "They ain't worth much." The gentleman asked to look at the bills again, and upon their being handed to him, returned the goods purchased to the discomfitted proprietor, and left the store.—Transcript.

☞ The order requiring the payment of postage in coin on letters received from abroad has been suspended. The order and the suspension both came from the General Post Office.

☞ A large invoice of good chewing tobacco has been sent from New York to Siam for the King and his prime ministers, who use the weed.

☞ In pursuance of General Order, No. 88, from headquarters of the army, Major General McDowell is acquitted of all charges, and the recent court of inquiry upon his case is dissolved.

☞ The dwelling-house of Rev. Donald Fraser, in Buffalo, N. Y., was burned on Friday morning, and his wife and three children perished in the flames.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Unitarian Convention, for the purpose of forming a State Association, was held in Manchester on Wednesday, and was largely attended. The meeting was organized by the choice of Hon. W. H. Y. Hackett, of Portsmouth, as President; Rev. Geo. F. Piper, of Charlestown, and C. L. Richardson, of Manchester, as Secretaries. A Constitution for the Association, after remarks by several gentlemen, was adopted. The following gentlemen were chosen officers of the Association, until the next annual meeting, which will occur in June:—

President—Hon. H. A. Bellows of Concord.

Vice Presidents—Hon. W. H. Y. Hackett of Portsmouth, and Geo. Tilden, Esq., of Keene.

Secretary—Rev. James DeNormandie of Portsmouth.

Treasurer—C. L. Richardson, Esq., Manchester.

Directors—Edmund L. Cushing, Esq., of Charlestown; Hon. Samuel Hale, Dover; J. A. Baldwin, Esq., Nashua; John H. White, Lancaster; Rev. A. W. Stevens, Manchester; Hon. Onslow Stearns, Concord; Chas. Burleigh, Esq., Exeter.

—— The Concord Statesman of last week contained a call for a meeting of the citizens of Concord at the Phenix Hotel on Friday last, to make arrangements for the reception of the 2d regiment. At this meeting arrangements were made to tender the regiment a public reception and dinner. Gen. Sickles has issued an order complimenting the regiment.

—— The site of the hosiery mills at Franklin, which were burned several years since, will probably soon be occupied by new factory buildings, and consequently one of the best water-powers in New Hampshire brought again into use.

—— The dwelling house and barn owned and occupied by Mr. Amos W. Brown, in London Village, were consumed by fire on Wednesday morning. The contents of the barn, with two cows and a hog, were lost.—Furniture chiefly saved. No insurance.

—— The Free South, published at Beaufort, S. C., pays a high compliment to the 4th N. H. regiment, for the care taken in arranging their camp. It says: "There is an air of home comfort, cleanliness, and order all around, as well as wholesome discipline—the axle upon which all perfection in this life, civil or sacred, moves." The same paper gives the present organization of the regiment, with a summary of the changes, deaths, promotions, etc., since its organization. The whole number of enlisted men now is 802; officers, etc., 40; total, 845.

—— On Monday, while a salute was being fired at Amherst in honor of the 22d, a premature discharge of the cannon took place, terribly mutilating the head, face and arms of Martin Weston. Stephen McGaffrey also received a severe cut from the rammer, and others were injured, but none so seriously.

—— Mrs. Eunice (Wells) Healey, relict of the late Hon. Newell Healey, of Kensington, died at the residence of Hon. S. D. Bell, in Manchester, Feb. 26th, aged 93 years and 10 months. She retained the full use of her faculties until within a short time of her death. She was the mother of Mrs. S. D. Bell.

Col. Harriman's Acceptance.—In a letter from Newport News, dated Feb. 25, Col. Walter Harriman, the nominee of the Union party in New Hampshire for Governor, accepts the nomination. The following are extracts:

"I have always been a Democrat and expect to remain one, as I understand the term, till the day I die. Those who go about preaching discontent and thus encouraging desertions from the army—magnifying the burdens of the people—belittling the mighty issues of the battle in which we are joined, and holding out promises of peace without presenting any reasonable grounds in which to anchor the hope of peace, are giving the Union cause a stab, the fatal consequences of which the present age cannot fathom. Be not deceived. 'Peace,' in the present junction, means the dissolution of the Union, and ETERNAL WAR. It means more; it means anarchy, which comprises all the woes of earth to civilized man. The Hon. Joel Parker, in his letter to Col. George, recently published, expresses this idea in the following words: 'Under existing circumstances there can be no peace but a shameful one which dismembers the nation.'

Everything we hold dear on earth is involved in this great contest. I stand for the Government. My voice and pen and sword are consecrated to the cause of the country. I stand by it with all my heart—with all the vigor that is in my arm—with all the fire that is in my brain—with all my life. I expect that cause will triumph, and thus the capacity of man for self-government be vindicated. I expect to see the Union restored and the integrity of the Constitution maintained. When the iron despotism of the oligarchy who instigated and who are carrying forward this rebellion is broken, I expect to see an overwhelming popular uprising in the seceded States, and to hear, wild as the storm, the exultant shout of that scourged and blood-washed people, coming up from their great tribulation to hail once more the proud old flag of the country. And beyond this, I expect to see the old Union, having arisen from this terrible baptism of fire, nobler, fairer, mightier than before."

☞ At Maitland, Nova Scotia, the winter has been mild and pleasant. There has been very little snow, and the ground is now entirely bare.

CONGRESS.

Friday.—In the Senate, the bill establishing an educational institution for colored children in the District of Columbia was passed—yeas 29, nays 9. A report was made from the committee of conference on the bill to limit the number of Major and Brigadier Generals, which was agreed to. The report makes in all 70 Major Generals and 275 Brigadiers. The joint resolution giving the thanks of Congress to Gen. Rosecrans and the officers and men under his command for gallantry at Murfreesboro', was passed.

The House went into a committee of the whole and took up the amendments of the internal revenue bill. A substitute was adopted for the sixth section, imposing new rates of stamp tax on promissory notes, in order that it may be more certainly executed; also on bonds and mortgages with powers of attorneys and taxes on sales of ships and assignments of insurance policy. It exempts soldiers' and sailors' pension papers from taxation. Several amendments were adopted, among them one that the salaries of collectors shall not exceed $10,000. The bill was reported to the House, and a long debate ensued. Each House held an evening session, and at midnight the House had not adjourned.—The House adjourned at 3 o'clock A. M.

In the Senate on Saturday, after a long debate, the House amendments to the conscription bill were concurred in, and the bill was passed.

South Carolina.—It appears that soldiers of some regiments of U. S. Volunteers, one from Massachusetts, landing at Fort Royal under Gen. Foster, have grossly abused the negroes there, in their persons, families and property. The Boston Advertiser condemns the outrages, and the Free South, a Beaufort paper, of Feb. 14, says:

"In one day the product of a year's toil of superintendents, teachers and people, has been spent. By unremitting labor, in the face of the greatest obstacles, these colored men and women have been brought to make some advance in moral and physical condition. They are struggling to escape from the degradations amid which their past lives have been spent. They have learned in a good degree the value of faith and purity in the family, and of honesty and regard for the rights of others in the social relation. They have gathered about them of the products of the soil sufficient, with their little earnings, to supply their necessities till another season shall bring its crops. These outrages at once destroy the effects of the moral teachings which were gradually gaining influence over them, take away their faith in the Northern men, whom they have welcomed as their deliverers from oppression, and throw them back a helpless burden upon the government. Thus, not only are these soldiers staining their souls with crimes against humanity in the persons of the helpless negro, but are assisting to destroy the government by increasing its expenses, when every dollar is needed to put down the rebellion."

The Boston Journal says:—

Regiments from New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and we say it with shame, one from Massachusetts, are connected with these outrages. But it is wrong to implicate whole regiments. We prefer to believe with the Free South that "into these regiments have strayed some few outcasts from the prison or the hulk, who, thrust outside the pale of society on account of former crimes, have sought the army as a hiding place."

☞ H. W. Glidden of Solon, Me., raised the past season eighty-six bushels and one forth of white beans. With the exception of half an acre, where beans were the only crop, they were raised by planting between the hills of other crops, viz:—on five acres planted with corn, and one and one half acres of potatoes. He received $190 for seventy-five bushels of them.—Taking into consideration the value of the beans, and the vines and pods, which make excellent fodder, and of which there must have been a number of tons,—and the other crops raised upon the six and a half acres,—we call Mr. Glidden's style of farming worthy of imitation.

☞ Among the wounded of that little band who fought so bravely against a vastly superior force, and with such glorious results at Fort Donelson the other day, is Capt. James M. Gibson. He is a native of Vermont, and was educated at the Norwich Military School, graduating in 1840, in the class with Colonel Ransom, who was killed in the Mexican war. He is an accomplished officer, and belongs to that class who believe that it will be necessary to hurt the rebels some before we can conquer them, and who act accordingly.

☞ In the Portland post-office, on Thursday, a clerk came across a copy of the New Testament. He thought it was exceedingly heavy, and examined it. He found it, indeed, to be a copy of the Testament, but, from the Gospel of St. John to the end of Revelations, an orifice had been made in the leaves, just the size of a watch, and a silver watch placed therein. Only six cents postage was paid on it. It was charged with full letter postage.

☞ The captain of a Newport, Eng., steamer recently picked up an abandoned East Indiaman at sea, towed her into port and sold her cargo of teakwood and rice for £70,000.

☞ The Alabama having remained in the West India seas long enough to lure all our active cruisers into that quarter, is now off again upon the track of the homeward bound Indiamen.

Books.—A blessed companion is a book! A book that, fitly chosen, is a life-long friend. A book—the unfailing Damon to his loving Pythias. A book that, at a touch, pours its heart into our own.

☞ Since the present Congress commenced, Secretary Chase has been authorized to issue twenty-one hundred and twenty-five millions of paper money, inclusive of bonds, etc., of which not six hundred millions have yet been put in circulation.

Health and Strength.—A man who takes proper care of himself, and indulges in plenty of air, exercise, and, above all, recreation, ought to be in a high range of health and strength from twenty-four years to sixty-five.

☞ The U. S. Assistant Treasurer, Boston, is now supplied with Postage Currency, so that he is able to furnish all applicants throughout New England with the same, in exchange for United States legal tender notes.

☞ A negro regiment arrived at Memphis on the 19th, fully armed and equipped, ready for service.

☞ A correspondent of the Bath Times shows that the recent murder in Camden, Me., was but a sequel to a quarrel in Boston, in which Blake was whipped by Patterson, and who then said if he could not whip Patterson he could kill him, and should do so.

A Charitable Lesson.—It would be uncharitable too severely to condemn for faults, without taking some thought of the sterling goodness which mingles in and lessens them.

To Whom it may concern.

Notice is hereby given that the Undersigned has this day given to his son, JOHN A. GARLAND, of Newington, his time, to act and trade for himself; and that hereafter he shall claim no wages of his earning, nor pay any debts of his contracting. LEVI GARLAND.
